TO WED IN JAPAN

Miss Hallie Ermine Rives.

It is a far cry from quaint Tokio, the capital of the island empire of the Pacific, to Ocean Grove, N. J. Yet to be married in the first-named city and to begin domestic life in the latter is the picturesque choice of Miss Hallie Ermine Rives, the southern author and society woman.

The bridegroom is Post Wheeler, diplomat and man of letters, and the wedding is to take place Saturday at the American embassy in Japan, to which Mr. Wheeler was recently appointed attaché. Ambassador Wright himself will give away the bride and Mrs. Wright will serve as matron of honor. Dr. McKim, the American bishop in Japan, will officiate. Mr. Wheeler's best man will be a Japanese count, who is a member of the Japanese house of peers and was a college chum of Mr. Wheeler in this country. Miss Rives made herself famous by her novels—"Furnace of Earth," "Smoking Flax," "As a Heart Paneth," "The Castaway" and "Hearts Courageous." She has made more than $100,000 so far from the sale of her books. Mrs. James Brown Potter has been her most intimate friend.

Miss Rives was known in her girlhood as "Hallie the Tomboy," and her father called her the "Wildcat," because of her unrestrained activity. She is a crack shot, a fearless bareback rider and an enthusiastic fisher for trout.

Post Wheeler at one time studied in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, but abandoned medicine for literature. He has spent some time among the Gudek Indians in the arctic region and has written interestingly concerning them. Among his published works are "Reflections of a Bachelor" and a book of poems entitled "Love in a Mist."

What the Market Affords

Fresh cod, 20 cents a pound. Pike, 15 cents a pound. Tomatoes, 15 cents a dozen. Potatoes, 40 cents a bushel. Cucumbers, 15 cents each. Tallman sweet apples, 25 cents a peck.

Steamed cod with oyster sauce is an excellent way of serving that well-known fish. Take three pounds of fish, wash thoroughly and lay on a dish covered with a floured cloth. Sprinkle liberally with salt and steam until the fish begins to draw away from the bones, which will take half an hour or more, according to the thickness of the fish. In the meantime pick over and clean two dozen oysters. Strain and scald their liquor. Oysters should be scalded their liquor. Oysters should be scalded their liquor. Oysters should be scalded their liquor.

Most grocers sell Falcon Pancake Flour. Ask your grocer if it's good.

An Egyptian Brick Ship.

Among the most interesting of recent archaeological discoveries is that of a huge "ship of the sun," formed of brick, near the bank of the Nile, at Abukir, about two hours' journey from the pyramids. Tourists who have visited Egypt during the past six or eight months have been able to see this singular object, as yet but partially unearthed from the drifting sands which had covered it perhaps for thousands of years. The most interesting feature of the ship is that it is made of brick, and is only the purest of all beverages, but also the most beneficial to body and mind.

BUFFALO LODGE, N. D.—Mrs. P. M. Thomas was driving a team hauling a load of hay when the harness suddenly broke, and one end of the single trace, like the best, was seriously injured.

HOME DRAMATIC CLUB

The Home Dramatic club will give William Gillette's comedy "Apartment 13" on Tuesday evening in Johnson school. Those taking part will be Misses Susan Kohler, Lottie Lacker, Mrs. Kathryn Bern, Edna Sainard, Messrs. Lewis Helper, Louis Schwartz, Abe Kaplan, Harry Sanford, Charles Schwartz and Jacob Greenberg. The final rehearsal last evening presented an excellent performance tonight.

SOME NEW YEAR DISHES

By Cornelia C. Bedford.

Pickled Oysters—Pick over and rinse thoroughly six large oysters, straining the liquor separately. Wash the latter and skim until it remains clear. Add to it one pint of vinegar, one dozen whole cloves, one blade of mace, one bay leaf, a half teaspoonful of whole allspice and the same of peppercorns, heat and boil for five minutes. Pour this over the oysters, cover and let stand over night. In the morning drain off and repeat the liquor. Pour again over the oysters and put over in glass jars or an earthen crock. Keep in a cold place.

Stuffed Figs—For this use "bag" figs which have not been pressed. Cut a small slit in the stem end of each one and work in several blanched almonds or a mixture of almonds, nuts and raisins chopped fine and pressed together with a few drops of sherry.

Orange Baskets—Stand the oranges in blossom end uppermost and cut out from each upper half two right-angled pieces in such a way as to leave the lower half intact and a strip of skin over the top to form a handle. Remove all pulp and juice and with a sharp knife scallop out the top of the rind. Press and strain the juice and for each pint take a half package of gelatine and a half cup of cold water. When soaked in a half cup of boiling water and when dissolved, the juice of one lemon, one cupful of sugar and the orange juice. Strain and when cold add three egg whites and beat these in the orange baskets. For an extra touch divide the strained jelly, coloring half pale pink. Chill separately and mix the two colors in the baskets.

Queen Drops—Cream together one pound each of soft butter and fine sugar. All the well-beaten yolks of eight eggs, a pinch of salt, one pound of cleaned currants. Then add alternately one pound of sifted flour and the stiffly whipped whites of the eggs. Beat steadily for one hour. Then partly fill well buttered small fancy patty pans. Bake in a quick oven and when cold ice with white icing flavored with few drops of lemon juice.

Molded Rice and Apricots—Pick over and wash thoroughly one cupful of rice. Cook in a double boiler with one pint of milk and a pinch of salt. When comes too dry a little more milk may be added. When tender mix in lightly the beaten yolks of two eggs, cook for three minutes and take from the fire. Add two tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar and a teaspoonful of vanilla and turn into a fancy buttered mold. Steam for ten minutes then turn out on a heated dish. Round it heap halved apricots and pour over it a portion of the apricot sirup, heated and slightly thickened with arrowroot.
