

NEW REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT IN MEXICO

Latest Proclamation Signed by Salazar and Campa, Former Federal Generals.

CARRANZA BACK AT VERA CRUZ

Statement Department Informed of Threats to Put Railway Between Vera Cruz and Mexico City Out of Commission.

EL PASO, TEXAS, December 5.—A new revolutionary movement has been started in Mexico, according to copies of a proclamation received here to-day and signed by Jose Inez Salazar and Emilio P. Campa, former Federal generals.

The two generals were reported at the head of the troops in Central Chiuhua, and about to attack Casas Grandes, a strategic point southwest of Juarez and west of Chihuahua City.

CARRANZA RECEIVED WITH MILITARY HONORS

VERA CRUZ, December 5.—General Venustiano Carranza returned to Vera Cruz late last night after a six days' trip into the interior. He was received with military honors at the station, where a big crowd gathered to welcome him. It is expected that the general will leave soon on a visit to the Isthmus of Tehuantepec.

General Carranza has named General Alvarado, formerly post commander at Mexico City, as chief of the zone covering the States of Vera Cruz, Puebla and Tlaxcala. General Pablo Gonzalez will be in charge of Tamaulipas, Nuevo Leon and other northern states, and General Obregon, according to the plans, will be sent to the west coast.

TO DESTROY RAILROAD FROM VERA CRUZ TO CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, December 5.—Sir Cecil Spring Rice, the British ambassador, informed the State Department to-day of a dispatch from British Charge Holder in Mexico City saying reports were current that General Carranza was planning to destroy the British-owned railroad between Vera Cruz and Mexico City by blowing up certain tunnels.

The ambassador also informed the State Department that Carranza had seized, at Vera Cruz, British cotton consigned to interior mills, as well as other shipments of British goods. He is understood to have made no specific request of the United States, and his action was in line with the established policy of communicating to the department all reports from Mexico City.

Grave concern was expressed, however, over the reported threat of Carranza to put the railway, the only line operated between Mexico City and Vera Cruz, out of commission. If this were done by destroying tunnels, a long time would be required to restore traffic. Meanwhile, British subjects and other foreigners in interior Mexico would not have that means of escape from Mexico City.

Sir Cecil let it be known that the British government has not taken a position of unfriendliness toward the possible candidacy of Villa for the Mexican presidency. It is understood that England will not undertake to pass upon the right of any individual to aspire to leadership in Mexico. That, however, does not mean that an indemnity for the death of the British subject, Benton, would not be demanded from Villa should he become President. From any one who ever may ultimately be settled in that office.

PLANS FOR ESTABLISHING TEMPORARY GOVERNMENT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) MEXICO CITY, December 5 (via El Paso).—Plans for establishing a temporary government and conferences with leaders, both civil and military, occupied the time of Villa and Gutierrez to-day.

The intention is to install Gutierrez and his provisional Cabinet promptly in place of the temporary government set up last week by arrangement between the Zapatistas and the Villistas. Then as soon as convenient Gutierrez will give way to a provisional government, which will be headed by Dr. Miguel Silva, former Minister of Public Instruction in the Constitutional Cabinet organized in August.

It is understood Silva desires to have Villa as Minister of War, but it is doubtful if Villa will accept that post. His personal preference is to remain in the field.

The possibilities of friction between the northern and southern elements cannot be considered eliminated, although it was emphatically declared to-day by persons close to Villa and Zapata that the two chieftains will continue in harmony.

The 500,000 pesos advanced by bankers to Zapata's emergency government in anticipation of the collection of the special taxes levied have been repaid. It is clearly apparent that Villa dominates the situation as far as the forming of a new government is concerned.

and, in fact, in all the important matters growing out of the triumph of his faction over the Constitutionalist forces. All others, from Gutierrez down, yield to Villa.

Villa interrupted his conferences this afternoon long enough to say: "We shall establish peace in Mexico. That is the first important thing. We shall accomplish by methods that will prove our good faith and be satisfactory to the people."

The proclamation denounced both the Carranza and the Villa governments. It said a convention form of government would be established by the new party. Support in all parts of Mexico was claimed. The document was dated at Vado De Piedra, Chihuahua, November 25. This was a few days after General Salazar escaped from jail at Albuquerque, N. M., where he was held on a perjury charge.

Both Salazar and Campa were chiefs under Huerta, together with General Pascual Orozco, who is reported in New York conferring with agents of the former Huerta government, and it is asserted, attempting to purchase war munitions. The new movement is denounced by both Villa and Carranza followers as a reactionary attempt.

The Villa commander at Casas Grandes appealed to-day for 500 troops to reinforce his garrison of 100. It was said Salazar was near with more than 500 men. Villa forces in Northern Mexico have been depleted greatly by the movement of the convention troops into Mexico City, only small garrisons remaining.

Carranza agents assert that Obregon and Gonzalez troops are about to begin an aggressive movement along each coast and along the border.

FUND OF $10,000 FOR UNEMPLOYED GREATLY NEEDED

is being given to the poor, so that the men not only helped themselves, but assisted the Associated Charities as well in meeting the extra demand. The work now being done by the organization does not apply to transients. For the latter there have always been a bed and a meal.

But for the unemployed, for those who are utterly unable to find work, a special bureau has been opened. There is no index card system for these people. There will be no publicity, as far as they are concerned. Their names will never appear in reference compilations. They are asked merely for their addresses, the number dependent upon them, and the nature of the work they once had, and aid is given at once and without question. The men are willing to saw wood, are willing to do anything that can be placed at their hands, but even the Associated Charities cannot give enough wood for 5,000 heads of families to saw, and the factory women who once earned a daily wage and are now helpless cannot saw wood. But their need must be met, so that no child in Richmond may ask for a bit of bread and be denied. For them the Associated Charities is preparing. In one of the rooms of the big building are stored hundreds of loaves of bread, flour, beans, meat, syrup, sugar, coffee, potatoes and dried fruit. Baskets for the applicants are filled, and they return home with enough to keep them a few days from want. A woman called yesterday afternoon for bread to give her children. She was visibly embarrassed. It was probably the first time that she had ever asked for charity, and she nearly broke down when she told her story and asked aid for the sake of those at home. For other a wagon was busily engaged all day. The driver made trip after trip, carrying provisions to those who were in want.

WILL GIVE IMMEDIATE RELIEF TO THOSE IN NEED

Secretary Buchanan asks that the public send to the Associated Charities all those who seek aid. Their needs will be met immediately, and charity will be organized and co-ordinated. No family will be left hungry. And every man who is without food or shelter may apply at the men's department, where both will be given him. After the first night, some work in the building will be found for him, and he will help the Associated Charities to help others. It is the experience of Secretary Buchanan that those who beg from door to door do not belong to the unemployed. The latter, rather than seek for aid, have to be sought. They want work rather than charity; but when there is no work to be found, they find themselves dependent, and it is to meet the need of these that the Associated Charities now finds itself overtaxed and forced into the position of making a further appeal to the generosity of the Richmond public.

"The need is very great," said Secretary Buchanan, "and we must begin now, if we would bring our help in time."

Lime Combats Tuberculosis

"It is difficult to escape the conviction that lime starvation and lime assimilation are the real issues behind the masks of vulnerability and resistance in tuberculosis," writes Ira Van Gleson, M. D., in the May 11, 1912, issue of the New York "Medical Record," a journal of the highest standing in the world of medicine.

Dr. Van Gleson is eminent in his profession, and his assertion that lime assimilation is the "real issue" in resistance to tuberculosis bears the stamp of authority.

Ordinarily lime is not easily assimilated medicinally, but Eckman's Alternative is one preparation containing it in such form and combination as to facilitate assimilation by the average person.

This is one reason for the success of Eckman's Alternative in many cases of tuberculosis which apparently have yielded to it, and other cases which have been benefited through its use.

Our experienced-based faith in this remedy is shared by a large number of men and women who say they owe health, strength and life to it. It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, so is safe to try.

If your druggist is out of it, he can get it, or you can order direct from us.
