MRS. J. BERNARD ROBB ENTERTAINS AT CARDS

Given by Mrs. David Harris Leake in Honor of Mrs. Taylor Carter.

Two informal affairs of interest engaged the attention of society yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Taylor Carter was the guest of honor at a small tea yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Frances Bemis is giving a small dinner this evening at her home, 117 East Grace Street.

A large number of fashionable society people will go to the Westmoreland Club this evening to attend the weekly supper.

Mrs. Mary Boyd was hostess at dinner at her residence, 117 West Grace Street, Monday evening.

Another pretty little dinner given recently was that of Miss Mary Tompkins. The affair took place at the home of Mrs. J. B. Carter.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. George Cole Scott entertained at a small dinner party at "Ballyshannon."

Mrs. James Thomas, of Charleston, was the guest of Mrs. Thomas McAdams at her home in this city.

Mrs. Armistead L. Wellford entertained on Tuesday afternoon at her home on Cathedral Place.

The dances will be resumed in the ballroom of the Richmond Hotel tomorrow evening for the season.

One of the most elaborate afternoon receptions of the season so far was given by Senator and Mrs. Robert L. Owen, of Oklahoma.

The bridesmaids were gowned in dresses of ecru lace, with bodices of pink charmeuse, and carried wreaths of mistletoe.

A new school has sprung into existence at the attempt to-day to give a thought to how they are living to-day.

There are many modern De Leons. They go through the land of flowers without stopping to enjoy their beauties.

When you are living to live to-day you have accomplished something big in the way of living to live a century.

Quinsy begins like ordinary folliculitis, but it terminates very much more severely.

Quinsy is caused by bacterial infection, the subject of the disease should hasten immediately to his doctor on the first sign of a sore throat.

Questions and Answers. J. A. naively asks: What causes epilepsy? Is smoking, chewing and drinking injurious for same?

Reply: 1. The cause is unknown. 2. These habits are not dangerous.

M. F. L. inquires: Will you kindly suggest some means of relief for a large, tender callous under the ball of the foot in a person who walks a great deal?

Reply: As a rule the formation of a callous in that situation signifies relaxation and breaking down of the anterior transverse arch of the foot.

Dr. Brady's Health Talk. Sore throat is invariably due to infection with the germs of the much too common "cold."

When they get bold "get in wrong," when they get germs enough to attack you at some poorly defended point.

Quinsy always signifies a dangerously incompetent army of defense.
