

SOCIETY

ter, have been invited to serve the refreshments: Misses Mary Mason Williams, Marion Spicer, Virginia Cox, Elsie Dudley, Janet Wyatt, Elizabeth Fourqurean and Mary Dudley. Members of the chapter assisting will be Miss Ellen Bagby, Mrs. A. L. Richardson, Mrs. Frank T. Crump, Mrs. H. L. Larrains, Mrs. Austin Brokenborough, Miss Bessie Dudley, Miss Sallie Archer, Anderson and Mrs. H. W. Jackson will serve the punch. Mrs. N. V. Randolph and her invited guest will receive the visitors.

Concerning Miss Richardson. Miss Ethelyn Richardson, sponsor for Beauregard Camp, New Orleans, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. Cabell Tabb, at 3012 Monument Avenue. Miss Richardson is the grand-daughter of the late Colonel John B. Richardson, of the Washington Artillery, New Orleans.

A noted confederate. Marcus B. Toney, of Nashville, Tenn., will be the guest of relatives at 607 Allen Avenue, during the reunion. Mr. Toney is a veteran Confederate, a veteran Mason and a veteran railroad man, having been connected with the New York Central nearly forty-four years. In 1886 Mr. Toney founded the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home, of Tennessee. The second Masonic Home in the United States, Kentucky having the first.

Lee Camp Reception. Mr. Toney is a member of the Tennessee-Virginia Society for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, and the Tennessee Society has assisted the Virginia Society in the Jamestown break-water and the purchase of the Joan Marshall House.

One of the most interesting affairs arranged for the Confederate Reunion is the reception to be given by R. E. Lee Camp, No. 1, Confederate Veterans, at Lee Camp Hall, on Wednesday evening, from 8 to 11 o'clock. Those invited to receive include Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stevens, president-general United Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, Miss Mary Custis Lee, Mrs. S. A. Riddick, Miss Millie Ruthledge, Mrs. William H. P. Lee, Mrs. Norman V. Randolph, Mrs. Thomas S. Becock, Mrs. A. J. Montague, Miss Sallie Archer Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar D. Taylor, Mrs. Hughes, Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson, Mayor and Mrs. George Ainslie.

All sponsors, maids, matrons, veterans wearing badges or uniforms, visiting daughters and sons of veterans are cordially invited.

The hall will be decorated in Confederate flags. Music at 8:45 will be played by an orchestra. Refreshments will be served by the daughters. Lee Camp Hall is one of the most noted places of interest in the city, its collection of Confederate portraits being unequalled anywhere, and this reception will be the feature of the reunion.

Return From Delaware. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Cowardin and their son, S. P. Cowardin, Jr., have just returned from a visit to friends in Wilmington, Del. Among the dinners given in their honor was that of their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. William Winder Laird, also Mr. and Mrs. H. Rodney Sharp, Major and Mrs. William Ramsay, and Pierce S. Du Pont. Mr. Du Pont's dinner took place at his handsome country estate, "Longwood."

Miss Jones's Wedding. Congressman and Mrs. William A. Jones, of Richmond County, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Anne Seymour Jones to Lieutenant Samuel Roland Hopkins, Third United States Field Artillery. The wedding will take place at St. John's Episcopal Church, at Warsaw, on June 9.

The following article from a Washington exchange is of much interest to the bride's relatives and friends in Richmond.

"Anne Seymour Jones and Roland Hopkins will be married by candle-light, not for the sake of originality, although they will achieve an original effect, not for the sake of being unusual, although nothing adds quite such an elusive charm as the light of waxen candles, but because they can't help themselves. St. John's Church at Warsaw, where the wedding is to take place, was built during the days of modern light."

Light Weight Coats. In black and white checks and smart mixtures; full lined, in black satin. Exceptionally good models in mannish effects, with patch pockets, $10.00.

Black Silk Ripple Corded Coat, $25. Also models of silk poplins, full lined, for afternoon and evening. These Coats—copies, individually, of imported models are the garment luxurious for summer.

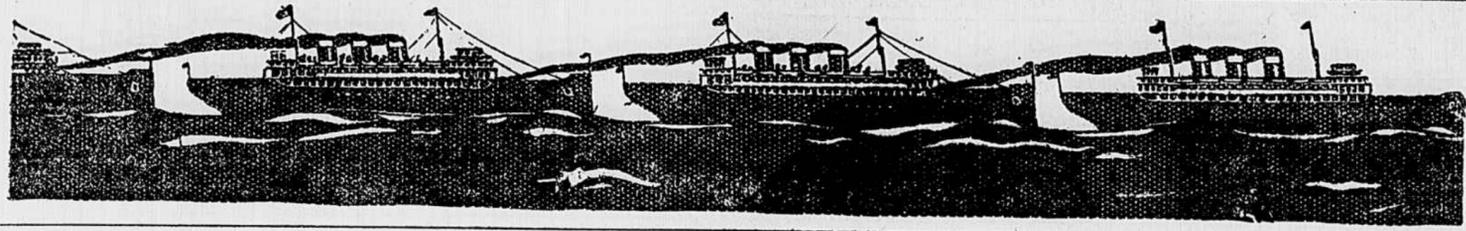

Children's Washable Hats. WASH Hats for children, of ratine, pique, poplin, Palm Beach cloth and Shantung silk, stitched brims and colored brims; fancy bands, button trimmed; white, tan, pink and blue; all sizes, 48c.

Children's Straw Hats. Hems, Milans and Panama's, Leghorns, also new fancy bands and ribbon bows. Smart tailored styles.

Splendid Hats at 98c to $2.98. Infants' Caps 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00. Charming little Caps for the wee kiddies at a wide range of style and prices, but all alike in that they all are of undeniable charm.

TOURIST WEEK. WELCOME THE STRANGER!

The Specialty Shop of Ready-to-Wear Apparel

To the Stranger Who Is Within Our Gates WELCOME

RICHMOND awaits a great influx of strangers, and awaits them well prepared; all that forethought and experience can provide, is provided; this store extends to all heart-felt wishes for an agreeable sojourn.

And within this store visitors will find the expected welcome they have learned to connect with Richmond.

Kaufmann's has unbounded hospitality, unsurpassed service and a pleasant sense of MONEY SAVED to add to the sum total of impressions, that the visit to Richmond was well worth while.

We consider out-of-town patronage a compliment—either an acknowledgement of our prestige throughout the South or an opinion formed by comparison with the great SPECIALTY SHOPS of America.

To the stranger who is within our own gates—the Old Dominion to who knows less of Kaufmann's and "Specialty Service" than the visitor from the remoter South—we extend the same invitation and the same cheery welcome.

Lest You Forget This Store Will Be Closed Thursday ALL DAY. Mention thus made in advance will prompt many to do their shopping Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday
