

FRERET-PAYNE WEDDING TAKES PLACE ON JUNE 12

Bride-Elect, Who Lives in New Orleans, Has Many Friends in Virginia.

HINMAN-NELSON MARRIAGE

Ceremony Uniting Well-Known Young People Will Be Celebrated in New York on June 5—Confederate Memorial Day Observed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WARRENTON, Va., May 29.—Cards have been received in Warrenton announcing the marriage of Miss Mary Taylor Payne, daughter of Mrs. Julia Taylor Payne, of New Orleans, and Pierre Savoy Freret, the marriage to take place June 4 at 6:30 o'clock in Newcomb Chapel, New Orleans. Miss Payne is well known here, where she has many friends.

Mrs. Walter Huntington Nelson, of New York formerly of this county, has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Virginia Kent Nelson, to Lewis Gibson Hinman, on the evening of Saturday, June 5, at St. Stephens Church, New York.

Henry Magruder, New York, announces the engagement of his daughter, Mary Hayes, to Henry Laurie Smith, of this place, the wedding to take place at the bride's home at "Growthway," near Richmond, the latter part of June.

Confederate Memorial Day was observed here to-day by the second Virginia Infantry, and known as the Warrenton Rifles, participated and fired a salute over the Confederate graves at the close of the exercises.

Mr. Charles W. Smith has returned to her home after a stay of some days at the home of Hill Bevelley, "The Plains," Va.

Mrs. George W. Nelson and her daughter, Mrs. Lowell Decker, have returned to their home here after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nelson, of Clarke County.

Mrs. Watson, wife of Captain Watson U. S. N., is a guest of Mrs. M. M. Green.

Mrs. W. B. Williamson, of Washington, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter H. Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lillian Keith have returned after a brief absence, visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

R. W. Hillary left this week to visit friends in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Boston has returned home after a month's visit to friends in Richmond.

Mr. Charles P. Wood, of New York, was a recent visitor to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Wood.

Mrs. C. E. Melton, of Front Royal, is the guest of the Misses Smith at "The View."

Mrs. T. J. Semmes and Miss Jarreau, of New Orleans, reached Warrenton this week, and will spend the summer at the home of Mrs. Hugh Hamilton.

Mrs. David T. Gandy left this week for Woman's College, Lynchburg, where she will visit her daughter, Miss Effie Duncan.

Miss Leon Chisolm, of Savannah, Ga., is a guest of Mrs. Muri Forbes. Miss Kate Ogley, dramatic artist, of New York, is the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leahm Keith.

Miss Sadie Wood and Dr. P. Wood, Jr. are visiting relatives in Charlottesville.

Mrs. J. D. Chamberlain has returned here en route to Baltimore, after a week's visit to Miss Alice Murray. The Plains, Va.

Here for Reunion Week

MISS GLADYS ARMSTRONG, of Richmond Hill, New York, reunion guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hatton C. Valentine.

The guest of honor prize was presented to Miss Bennett and other prizes to Mrs. and Miss Nancy, Jr., and Miss Betty Jones. Bouquets of pink roses were presented each guest as refreshments were served, and afterwards a beautifully decorated bride's cake was by the bride-elect and partaken of by the guests.

Mrs. Kelsey J. Hammond and Master Lewis Hammond left Friday for the commencement exercises at the Episcopal High School, near Alexandria, where she will be a student, and will later go to visit relatives in Alexandria and Baltimore.

Little Miss Cornelia Major, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cave Major, entertained a courtship of her little friends on Wednesday afternoon in the celebration of her fourth birthday.

The Fairfax Theater was crowded to the doors on Wednesday evening by the friends of the children of the primary grades to witness their acting of "The Town Truants Wedding," which was one of the most beautifully staged representations ever seen here.

The quaint customs of the totes taking part were copies of an old print, and the whole scene was one of hilarity. The small bride was little Miss Frances Pierce, and the handsome three-foot groom was Roy Hendon. They were attended by four bridesmaids, Misses Alice Hudson, Dorothy Smith, Geraldine Glick, and Misses M. M. and M. M. Claude. Inasmuch as a suitably grave and reverend pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bulliam were hosts at a week-end house party, their guests including Misses Frances, Albert and Mrs. Dudley Staples, of Harrisonburg, Dr. and Mrs. Barton Tawman, of Madison County, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts Benton, of Loudsdale, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sargent, of Charlottesville, W. Va. The latter two going later for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bulliam, near Brandy.

Miss Marion Hill, formerly of Denmark, but now of New York City, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sumner at their home near Culpeper, and was godmother for their infant daughter, Mildred Ellen, who was baptized in St. Stephen's on Sunday morning.

Miss Margaret Clark, of Copenhagen, was also their guest for several days. The Afternoon Bridge Club was entertained on Saturday by Miss Florence Vass at her home on North Main Street. Three tables were engaged and the prize for the highest score was won by Mrs. William A. Bickers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Brand and little Miss Ethel Brand have returned to Heathsville, Md., after a visit to Mrs. Brand's parents, Colonel and Mrs. S. M. Newhouse, on Main Street.

J. C. Staples, of Harrisonburg, who has been attending the Baptist Convention in Houston, Texas, was the guest of friends here this week.

Miss Mildred Stark celebrated her twelfth birthday on Saturday with a delightful afternoon party to a number of boys and girls.

Mrs. Leslie Harris and son, Clarence Harris, of Roanoke, have been the guests this week of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Loving on Jameson's Hill.

Mrs. Helen Jackson has returned to her home in Baltimore, after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. George Williams, at "Redwood," near Culpeper.

Many persons went from here Sunday to Orange to attend the week-end house party entertained by W. W. Field at "Elk Ranch," his country home in that county, which he annually gives to his Masonic friends. About forty persons lined at "Elk Ranch" on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stirling and two children of Roanoke, have been the guests this week of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith on Jameson's Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hand and Miss Bessie Hand recently returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stirling.

visit to the former's brother in Hagers-town, Md.
Mrs. J. O. Barksdale and her daughter, Miss Mildred Barksdale, of Red Hill, in Albemarle, who have been spending the past fortnight with relatives in the county, returned home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Tate left yesterday for Richmond, where they will be guests of relatives during the coming week and attend the Confederate Reunion. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Holtzman and many others expect to leave for Richmond to-morrow.

George Roberts, of Richmond, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. James Roberts on Railroad Street.

MANASSAS
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) MANASSAS, Va., May 29.—Mrs. Monroe, of Morrisville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. S. Arey, near Manassas.

Thomas Clark, of Washington spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. T. D. Clark.
Miss Mamie Lynch left on Sunday for Washington, where she will visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nelson and family, of Washington, spent Saturday at their summer home near Manassas.
Miss Moffett, of Washington, was a guest at the home of Mrs. Margaret Lewis this week.

Miss Bert Davis, of Bristow, spent several days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. B. Davis.
The Misses Holden, of Manassas, were Washington visitors during the last of the week.

The Good Housekeepers' Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Lewis yesterday.
William Hill Brown, Eloise Giddings and Garnet Brown, were awarded the medals of scholarship offered in their respective classes at Eastern College. In addition to winning the medal in his class, Master Brown made the entire record of not missing a day during the entire season, neither did he miss a single class. Little Miss Giddings missed only one day during the season.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Landis, of East Petersburg, Pa., visited their son and daughter, students at Eastern College, this week.
Miss Blanche Ransdell has returned from Aldie, where she was the guest of friends for a week.

Miss Wirt Jordan who has been attending school in Raleigh, is home to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jordan, on upper Main Street.
Mrs. Charles W. Kitterman, of Washington, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. D. T. Yancey, left this week for Lynchburg for a visit before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Kinckle, of Lynchburg, spent several days this week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Yancey.
Mrs. E. K. Odell and son, Fred, left last week for a visit to Richmond.
Miss Elsie Walthall, of Brookneal, is visiting Miss Adelle de Jarneet, near this place.

Hubert Walthall, of Brookneal, spent Sunday in South Boston.
W. E. Owen and Rev. Mr. Hunter attended the Diocesan Council of the Episcopal Church at Portsmouth.
Ira Estes, formerly of this place but now of Alberta, spent several days here this week.

Rev. T. S. Wilson, of Richmond, visited his son Owen a few days ago.
Mrs. John C. Watkins and children are visiting relatives in Keaville.
Miss Elva Dickerson, of Durham, N. C., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Garrard on Washington Street.
Miss Florence Easley left a few days ago for Winston-Salem, N. C., to visit friends.
John Walter and sister, Miss Annie,

and B. D. Shepherd, motored to Waynesboro on Monday last to attend the final exercises at Fishburne Military Academy.
South Boston and Halifax County will be well represented at the reunion next week. Most of the old soldiers will leave here on Monday in a special car which has been provided for them. Several members of John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, will escort the veterans and look after their wants while in Richmond.

BOYDTON
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BOYDTON, Va., May 29.—A. B. Snellings motored to Farmville on Tuesday and returned with Mrs. Snellings and their little son, A. B. Jr.
Miss Annie King, of Richmond, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Turpin for several weeks, returned to Richmond on Wednesday.

Miss Marian Homes went to Lynchburg this week to attend the finals at Randolph-Macon Women's College.
I. E. Snitzig, of Lawrenceville, was here on Tuesday.
John Turbull spent Monday in Lawrenceville.
Mrs. George H. Thompson entertained friends at a bridge luncheon on Tuesday.

Miss Elizabeth Pratt returned on Monday, after a visit of several days to friends in Richmond.
Hiram Wall, of South Hill, was here on business this week.
Mrs. E. W. Overby went to Norfolk on Wednesday, where she expects to remain for the summer.
Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lewis were here on Wednesday. Mr. Lewis has recently returned from the Panama Exposition, and he will now commence an active canvass for the nomination to the House of Delegates.

Famous Opera Singer in War Zone

Marjorie Patti visiting wounded soldiers

SOUTH BOSTON
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SOUTH BOSTON, Va., May 29.—W. Wallace Ingram left this week for Rockingham, N. C., to spend several days.

Miss Mary Kent, of Ingram, was in town this week.
J. D. Tucker left on Thursday for Northern cities.
Miss Wirt Jordan who has been attending school in Raleigh, is home to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jordan, on upper Main Street.

Mrs. Charles W. Kitterman, of Washington, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. D. T. Yancey, left this week for Lynchburg for a visit before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Kinckle, of Lynchburg, spent several days this week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Yancey.

Mrs. E. K. Odell and son, Fred, left last week for a visit to Richmond.
Miss Elsie Walthall, of Brookneal, is visiting Miss Adelle de Jarneet, near this place.

Hubert Walthall, of Brookneal, spent Sunday in South Boston.
W. E. Owen and Rev. Mr. Hunter attended the Diocesan Council of the Episcopal Church at Portsmouth.
Ira Estes, formerly of this place but now of Alberta, spent several days here this week.

Rev. T. S. Wilson, of Richmond, visited his son Owen a few days ago.
Mrs. John C. Watkins and children are visiting relatives in Keaville.
Miss Elva Dickerson, of Durham, N. C., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Garrard on Washington Street.
Miss Florence Easley left a few days ago for Winston-Salem, N. C., to visit friends.
John Walter and sister, Miss Annie,

and B. D. Shepherd, motored to Waynesboro on Monday last to attend the final exercises at Fishburne Military Academy.

South Boston and Halifax County will be well represented at the reunion next week. Most of the old soldiers will leave here on Monday in a special car which has been provided for them.

Several members of John M. Jordan Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, will escort the veterans and look after their wants while in Richmond.

News has reached here of the death of Rev. J. H. Newbill, of King George County. Mr. Newbill was twice pastor of the West Point Baptist Church, and during his last pastorate he was president of the Female Seminary here. He left two daughters, Mrs. Hefflin and Mrs. Feed, of King George, and one son, Professor Aubrey Newbill, of Colonial Beach High School. His wife, who was Miss Mollie Muse, of Richmond, died about a year ago.

The life of Mrs. Victoria Halbach, of Nashville, Tenn., recently came to a close, and the people throughout this section will be interested to know that she died suddenly and peacefully in her chair without a moment's warning. Mrs. Halbach was the sister of Hansford Anderson, West Point's present Mayor, and was also a sister of Mrs. Eudora Slaughter, now of Richmond. She was born in King and Queen County, and in 1855 she married a prominent Baptist preacher and distinguished educator, Rev. Edward W. Halbach, who died in 1885. He was at one time a professor of languages in the University of Virginia and later was connected with other institutions of learning. Mrs. Halbach was of gentle birth, tracing her lineage back to the eldest and best families of Virginia, and was a woman of lovely character and disposition and of remarkable beauty. Ten of her twelve children survive her.

Veterans of the Fifteenth Regiment, one of the most famous commands of the Civil War, held their fifty-fourth annual reunion at West Point this week. This regiment, formerly the Third Virginia, took a prominent part in the battle of Bethel and fought through the four years of conflict, surrendering with Lee at Appomattox. The old soldiers had a good time renewing old friendships and making new acquaintances. They wore their Crosses of Honor and uniforms and badges. This regiment during the war was

AMATEUR THESPIANS SCORE BIG SUCCESS

Four-Act Play is Given at West Point for Benefit of Church Building Fund.
Members of Fifteenth Regiment, Which Took Prominent Part in Battle of Bethel, Get Together and Talk Over War Experiences.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WEST POINT, Va., May 29.—"The Dust of the Earth," a four-act play given by local talent in the Masonic Hall auditorium recently, did great credit to those participating. The play was given by the choir of the Baptist Church for the benefit of the building fund. A crowded house greeted the players, and a large sum was realized. The West Point Symphony Orchestra furnished the music.

A great many people of West Point, especially of St. John's Episcopal Church, attended the funeral of Rev. W. E. Evans, D. D., in Richmond on Monday. Dr. Evans was rector here at the time of his sudden death. The members of this church acted as pallbearers.

News has reached here of the death of Rev. J. H. Newbill, of King George County. Mr. Newbill was twice pastor of the West Point Baptist Church, and during his last pastorate he was president of the Female Seminary here. He left two daughters, Mrs. Hefflin and Mrs. Feed, of King George, and one son, Professor Aubrey Newbill, of Colonial Beach High School. His wife, who was Miss Mollie Muse, of Richmond, died about a year ago.

The life of Mrs. Victoria Halbach, of Nashville, Tenn., recently came to a close, and the people throughout this section will be interested to know that she died suddenly and peacefully in her chair without a moment's warning.

Mrs. Halbach was the sister of Hansford Anderson, West Point's present Mayor, and was also a sister of Mrs. Eudora Slaughter, now of Richmond. She was born in King and Queen County, and in 1855 she married a prominent Baptist preacher and distinguished educator, Rev. Edward W. Halbach, who died in 1885.

He was at one time a professor of languages in the University of Virginia and later was connected with other institutions of learning. Mrs. Halbach was of gentle birth, tracing her lineage back to the eldest and best families of Virginia, and was a woman of lovely character and disposition and of remarkable beauty.

Ten of her twelve children survive her. Veterans of the Fifteenth Regiment, one of the most famous commands of the Civil War, held their fifty-fourth annual reunion at West Point this week.

This regiment, formerly the Third Virginia, took a prominent part in the battle of Bethel and fought through the four years of conflict, surrendering with Lee at Appomattox. The old soldiers had a good time renewing old friendships and making new acquaintances. They wore their Crosses of Honor and uniforms and badges.

This regiment during the war was commanded by Colonel Thomas P. August, a veteran of the Mexican War. Herbert I. Lewis and wife were summoned on Tuesday to the bedside of their youngest daughter, Jessie, who is a student in St. Mary's Episcopal School in Raleigh, N. C. Mr. Lewis accompanied his wife as far as Richmond and returned to his home here to fill an important engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Whaley will go to Urbanna on June 2. Mr. Whaley has accepted a position there. On Sunday the Dinner's Point Band of Norfolk, came to West Point, bringing a large excursion. George Linn, say, commissioner of the revenue in Norfolk County, and well known one of the legislative secretaries, with the excursion, greeting many friends in West Point, where he has for years before going to Norfolk. The annual home-coming excursion from Norfolk to West Point will be here soon.

Mrs. Martha Stark is visiting in son, Bailey Stark, in Norfolk. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Thrift and Mrs. Clara Thrift are spending a week in Norfolk.

Mrs. R. E. Lee, of Upperville, recently visited West Point relatives en route to her farm, "Romance," in the county.

commanded by Colonel Thomas P. August, a veteran of the Mexican War. Herbert I. Lewis and wife were summoned on Tuesday to the bedside of their youngest daughter, Jessie, who is a student in St. Mary's Episcopal School in Raleigh, N. C. Mr. Lewis accompanied his wife as far as Richmond and returned to his home here to fill an important engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Whaley will go to Urbanna on June 2. Mr. Whaley has accepted a position there. On Sunday the Dinner's Point Band of Norfolk, came to West Point, bringing a large excursion.

George Linn, say, commissioner of the revenue in Norfolk County, and well known one of the legislative secretaries, with the excursion, greeting many friends in West Point, where he has for years before going to Norfolk.

The annual home-coming excursion from Norfolk to West Point will be here soon. Mrs. Martha Stark is visiting in son, Bailey Stark, in Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Thrift and Mrs. Clara Thrift are spending a week in Norfolk. Mrs. R. E. Lee, of Upperville, recently visited West Point relatives en route to her farm, "Romance," in the county.

Glorious Freedom From Armpit Perspiration
Throw Away Your Dress Shields

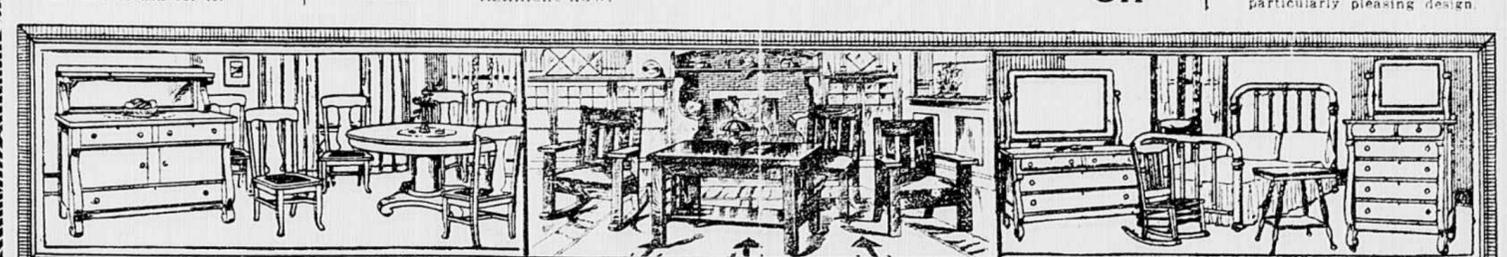

Become a user of NONSPI and you may fearlessly wear gowns of the thinnest, most delicate texture. A million women have forgotten forever the embarrassment of armpit perspiration because of NONSPI—the old, reliable, the perfect and truly scientific remedy for this humiliating affliction.

Prevents Excessive Perspiration Under the Arms
NONSPI
And Destroys All Odor.

NONSPI is positively harmless—a liquid (not a grease nor a powder). It is easily applied with a bit of cloth just before retiring. It is more than a deodorant—it is a remedy for the cause of the odor. Endorsed by Physicians absolutely non-jerous. Sold by leading druggists and department stores everywhere. If your druggist cannot furnish the genuine NONSPI, send 50 cents for a bottle, postage prepaid.

THE NONSPI COMPANY, Kansas City, Mo. Successors to the R. L. Co.

Free 20% to 33 1/3% Off Last Week of Our Clearance Sale 20% to 33 1/3% Off Free

This Beautiful 3 Room Outfit Greatly Underpriced (Sold Separately if Desired) Dining Room Living Room or Den Bed Room

Why Not Rely On Cuticura To Care for Your Hair and Scalp

Gibson Refrigerator Monday's Big Special Willow Hampers

Pettit and Company Foushee and Broad Astonishing Markdowns on Every Item in Stock