Following the election of officers, the class of 1915 was presented to the alumni by Principal James C. Harwood. The response was made by Allan M. Kimbrough, the president of the class. There are twenty-nine members in the February class and sixty-seven in the June, making a total of ninety-six who will receive diplomas to-morrow night.

Music was furnished during the evening by the John Marshall Orchestra, and selections were rendered by the John Marshall Male Quartet. After the business session, which was held in the auditorium, adjournment was made to the library rooms, where there was dancing, with music by an orchestra. A buffet luncheon was served afterwards.

Alumni night was observed at the John Marshall High School last night with fitting ceremonies, several hundred members of the classes of former years, together with the graduates of 1915, mingling together in their annual reunion. The exercises were especially interesting this year, and were well attended.

Instead of the annual address, as heretofore, there were four five-minute talks by representatives of the different classes, who gave reminiscences of their school days. The speakers were Mrs. Alma C. De Milhau, '94; Edwin Wortham, Jr., '94; Dr. Samuel S. Cottrell, '98, and Irvin G. Craig, '14. They all spoke in a happy vein. Mrs. De Milhau reciting an interesting poem about high school life in 1894.

Dr. Ramon D. Garcin, president of the Alumni Association, made a glowing report of the work for the past year, as did Miss Nellie Spence, the secretary, and Lud Hill, treasurer. Dr. Garcin announced that good progress had been made with the students' loan fund movement. The first memorial was made to Miss Elizabeth Paris, and the second will be in the form of a monument at Hollywood Cemetery to Miss Julia Reed, former Latin teacher at John Marshall, who died recently.

Dr. Ramon D. Garcin, re-elected president of the association, with S. T. Beveridge as honorary president. The following were the other officers elected: First vice-president, Miss Ray Van Vost; second vice-president, H. A. Berch, Jr.; Secretary, Miss Nellie Spence; Treasurer, Lud Hill, Jr.; executive committee—Alvin Hutzler, Joseph Taylor, Miss Martha Davis, Mrs. C. G. Burton, Henry C. Garrett; membership committee—E. Following the election of officers, the class of 1915 was presented to the alumni by Principal James C. Harwood. The response was made by Allan M. Kimbrough, the president of

CENTER OF POPULATION AT EIGHTH AND MAIN

Printed in the June number of "Richmond," the Chamber of Commerce magazine, received from the presses yesterday, is a population map of the city, showing that the center of the residential population is at Eighth and Main Streets. The general belief has been that the center of population in recent years has moved rapidly west, but as a matter of fact it has not shifted more than two blocks in any direction in years.

BLUES GIVE COMPETITIVE DRILL IN BYRD PARK

United States Army Officer to Act as Judge—Silver Trophy for Best Drilled Company.

William Byrd Park will be the scene of the competitive drill of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues next Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock. It had originally been planned to have the event in the Capitol Square or on the old Ford lot, but it was found that Byrd Park would afford more space in which to execute the movements contemplated, on which the merits of each company will be judged by a United States Army officer, detailed for the purpose by the War Department. The winning company will be awarded a handsome silver trophy.

Major E. W. Bowles, commanding the battalion, and Lieutenant J. G. Earnest, his adjutant, yesterday completed the plans for the drill, and an order was issued covering the details. The principal provisions of the order are:

1. The competition shall include such movement in the manual of arms and rifle drill, prescribed in the drill regulations of 1911.
2. Each company is required to have, and will be limited to, four full squads, three commissioned officers, and at least five sergeants will be required, six sergeants being allowed. Every man competing must be a bona fide member of the battalion.
3. Dress uniforms will be worn with russet leather belts and cartridge box, and white gloves.
4. Company commanders will draw lots to determine the order in which the companies shall drill in the competition. Further rules will be announced by the judge.

The order also prescribes that no company shall have more than two drill nights each week in preparation for the competition, including the regular weekly drill. The company commanders will select the personnel of their companies, which will enter the competition.

The Army officer judging the competition will determine the points to be considered and the weight of each point.

The address to the class was delivered by Rev. Carter Ashton Jenkins, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church. His subject was "Growth." The principal, Professor C. H. Dunaway, presented the diplomas, calling attention to the fact that every pupil in the 7-B class had passed the final examinations.

Mr. Phillips had Stomach Trouble for More than Five Years.

Mr. W. R. Phillips, Jr., 139 Moreland Ave., Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I had the catarrh and stomach trouble for more than five years, and I faithfully tried all the medicines I saw advertised, and found they all failed to cure me. I then heard of Peruna. I purchased six bottles, and after their use I soon discovered that I was well, safe and sound. I now weigh two hundred and ten pounds, and have never been sick since I took Peruna. It surely is the best medicine for colds, stomach trouble and catarrh that I ever heard of."
