

"LIVING PICTURES" GIVEN BY POT-AND-KETTLE CLUB

Charming Entertainment at Culpeper, in Which Many Society Folk Take Part.

WEDDING CARDS RECEIVED

Miss Ethel Ida Rowand and Harry Hadley Thurlow Will Be Married in Providence on June 30—Young People Home From School.

CULPEPER, VA., June 19.—A charming entertainment was given under the auspices of the Pot-and-Kettle Club on the lawn of the Russell-Smith home on Wednesday evening. Numbers of the young girls and men of the younger social set posed for the pictures, most of which represented the titles of well-known songs, under the direction of Mrs. Max Samuelson. One of the most striking and beautiful was "O You Beautiful Doll," which was posed by Miss Hattie Morris, herself a lovely brunette, and "He Went For a Soldier" was realistically represented by Archie Goodloe. A quaint picture was made by "Aunt Martha Payne, an old colored woman, in "Mickey Lark Rose," the little child being represented by a large doll. Recitations were given by Miss Margaret Roberts and Miss Eleanor Wine. Misses Mary Macoy, Elizabeth Russell Smith, Jane Loving and Cornelia Petty rendered solos. The frame for the "pictures" was arranged on the south porch of this lovely home, and a semicircle on the lawn, fronting it. The proceeds will be devoted to charity.

Miss Mildred Gibson is spending several weeks with her grandmother, Mrs. John A. Grick, in Richmond. Her brother, Edwin Gibson, Jr., is at their Madison County farm for the vacation. Cards have been received here to the marriage of Miss Ethel Ida, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Rowand, and Harry Hadley Thurlow, the ceremony to take place in the West Baptist Church in Providence, R. I., on the evening of Wednesday, June 30. The wedding was until recently a resident of Culpeper, where he was a member of the law firm of Hiden & Thurlow, and is now practicing his profession in Trenton, N. J.

Mr. Orrin Corwin and three young sons, Orrin, Jr., Dallas and Warren Coons Corwin, left on Saturday for their home in Minneapolis after spending several months in this county and making a round of visits to relatives in and near Culpeper. Mrs. Corwin is a daughter of the late Frank Coons, of "North Cliff," this county.

Miss Barbara Allen Spencer, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Roy Hume, on Jamestown Hill, left on Friday to attend the finals at the V. M. L. in Lexington, and will afterwards join a house party in North Carolina before returning to her home in Danville. Her sister, Miss Mary Spencer, who has been spending a fortnight with friends in New York since leaving Gunston Hall, is now with Mrs. Hume for a short while.

Miss Louise Fray is at home after spending the week in Greenboro, N. C., where on Wednesday she attended the marriage of her cousin, Miss Julia Blake Miller, to Lee Fentress, of that city. The marriage was very quiet, and witnessed by only a gathering of relatives, on account of the absence of the bride's grandfather, Major Charles Waite.

Mrs. Roy Rinker, of Holla, Mo., who is better remembered in Culpeper as Miss Elizabeth Matthews, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert Matthews, at the latter's home on East Street.

Miss Edna Wine left this week for Cleveland, Ohio, to visit Rev. and Mrs. John Stewart. She will attend the marriage of the latter's sister, Miss Sally Williamson Anderson, to Granville Colman, Jr., which will take place June 22.

The Billiken Club was entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Miss Martha Houch at the home of her aunt, Mrs. I. L. Johnson, on Main Street. Seven tables were arranged, and many additional guests were entertained. Prizes were won by Miss Fannie Yowell and Miss Lucille Holton.

Mrs. J. Clifford Miller and Mrs. Greener Neal have returned to their country homes near Brandy, after spending a fortnight in New York and also paying a visit to their Richmond homes. Miss Lucille Neal, who recently attended the Nelson-Forrest marriage in Lexington, Va., also arrived here this week.

The club dance given here on Friday night was one of the most enjoyable of the season and largely attended. Among the guests present were Miss Barbara Allen Spencer, of Danville; Miss Embrey, of Fredericksburg; Mrs. Peyton and the Misses Peyton, of Rapidan; Mrs. George L. Browning and Miss Elizabeth Ransome, of Orange; George Goodwin, of Somerville, of Rapidan; O. A. Taverner, Willis and Ben Roberts, of Orange; Alan Thornton, of the University of Virginia.

Miss B. A. Brown is visiting her sister, Mrs. Phil Hughes, in West Point, Va., and attending the commencement exercises of the high school, where her daughter, Miss Juliette Faust le Roy Brown, is one of the graduates.

Mrs. Lewis Hitt and Miss Mabel Hitt left on Friday for Lexington to attend the finals at the V. M. L. where Cadets Walter Hitt and Walter Crosby both graduate with honors.

WILMINGTON

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WILMINGTON, N. C., June 19.—A wedding of interest took place on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Mortimer Camille Fleet, daughter of the bride and Mrs. J. W. Fleet, held the hand of Henry Battle Tice, of Beloit, Wis. Rev. A. J. Parker, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist Church, performing the ceremony. The wedding took place at the Fleet home on South Fourth Street. Miss Amelia Fleet, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and E. Fleet Williams best man. A number of pre-marriage social affairs were given in honor of the happy couple, one of the most delightful of these was a reception given by Mrs. R. A. Montgomery.

On Thursday the Holiday House of the Girls' Friendly Society, on Wrightsville, was opened for the summer, and the opening was made a festive occasion, an address being delivered and a program of exercises being presented. The Young Women's Christian Association also has a home on the beach, thus providing the recreation places for the young women of the city during the hot weather months.

Mrs. G. J. Cottingham, of Peachon, Va., has returned home after a visit to her sister, Mrs. M. G. Shepherd, and Mrs. R. P. Shepherd. She has announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mae Lillie McClammy, to Owen Clanton Pillyaw, a young civil engineer of this city.

After spending several weeks as the guest of her sister, Miss Lula Dunkel, of Richmond, left this week to visit friends in Goldsboro.

A marriage of interest to a wide circle of friends was celebrated on Monday afternoon, when Miss Emma I.

Opens Vacation Camp for Working Girls

Miss Anne Morgan at Underwood, Underwood, N.Y.

Miss Morgan is the daughter of the late J. P. Morgan. She has just opened a camp for working girls in Sterling Forest, Greenwood Lake, New Jersey. Twenty of the members of her Vacation Fund Club are now encamped in the beautiful surroundings, but the full quota is expected within a few days to take advantage of lessons in rowing, swimming, woodcraft, fishing and nature studies and in enjoying the dancing in the pavilion.

Hopwood and Palmetto Vaughan, Jr., were married, the service being performed by Rev. J. D. Bandy, pastor of Grace Methodist Church.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Immanuel Presbyterian Church gave an enjoyable automobile ride on Thursday evening, a stop being made at Wrightsville Sound, where refreshments were served.

WARRENTON

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WARRENTON, VA., June 19.—The Warrenton Times, formerly the Warrenton News, which was bought by Mrs. H. H. Hayes in April, was sold this week to Westmoreland Davis, of Loudoun County. This control and ownership of the Times, coming with the announcement of the candidacy of Mr. Davis for Governor, is received here with much interest.

The big revival being conducted here by Gypsy Smith, Jr., continues with unabated interest, and with increasing crowds, each afternoon and evening. Many conversions have been reported. The Warrenton Garden Club was entertained on Saturday by Mrs. Fairfax Harrison at her home, "Berkvoir Farm."

Mrs. Charles Crosby and her daughter, Mrs. Pierce Titman, of Washington, have taken possession of the Fair house, which they have leased for the summer from Mrs. Lucien Keith.

Judge Edward S. Turner represented the Warrenton bar at a dinner given to the Eighth District Bar Association by Judge J. B. T. Thornton at Manassas on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. L. Mohun, who have been guests at the home of Mrs. W. A. Garner, left this week for Cambridge, Md., and will later go to Connecticut, where they will spend the summer.

General and Mrs. William Townsend, of Shelbina, Mo., stopped here this week en route to their home after attending the Confederate reunion in Richmond.

Professor E. Sumpter Smith and J. Gordon Smith, of Randolph-Macon Academy, are visiting their old home, "West View," and will remain several weeks.

Mrs. M. C. Pilon has returned from the hospital in Washington, where she has been receiving treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Nelson Pell have returned to their home, "Creedmore,"

HE LOVES HIS BATH

Soap because it is so soothing when the skin is hot, irritated and rashy.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free with 35-c. box. Address post-card "Cuticura," Dept. 177, Boston.

WHITE AND COLORED LEAGUES CO-OPERATING

Laymen of Emporia Aim to Assist Negroes in Moral and Hygienic Improvement.

FUNDS ARE BEING SECURED

Greensville County Will Erect Sanatorium for Colored Tubercular Patients—Rev. M. S. Engle Is Elected Master of Boy Scouts.

EMPORIA, VA., June 19.—One of the objects of the Laymen's League of Emporia is the betterment of conditions among the colored people. On Friday night a committee from the league met a number of men from the colored Civic Improvement League for an exchange of views as to what is most needed for the moral and hygienic improvement among the negroes. The colored people were assured that the best people of Emporia, and of their wish to co-operate with them in any effort for the advancement of their race. The addresses by the colored men showed a comprehensive grasp of the situation, and that they were keenly alive to the importance of this work. At a meeting of the colored Civic League on Tuesday night, resolutions were drafted which will be forwarded to the Laymen's League at the meeting on Sunday afternoon. The colored Civic Improvement League has pledged to raise one-fourth of the amount asked by the Anti-Tuberculosis Association from Greensville County toward building the sanatorium for colored tubercular patients.

The executive committee of the Emporia Boy Scouts met on Tuesday night and elected Rev. M. S. Engle scoutmaster, in the place of Rev. H. S. Osburn, who organized the troop about eighteen months ago.

The last meeting of the Book Club for this season was held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Warren, on Tuesday evening. The rooms were fragrant with roses, sweet peas and Spanish iris. The responses at roll call were fine examples of wit and humor. Mrs. W. B. Goodwyn read "A Breach of Honor," by Gally Ryland; Mrs. W. T. Tillar read a selection from William Green Hill. At the game of progressive forty-two Mrs. W. W. Robertson won the first prize and Mrs. S. V. Southall the guest prize. Louise Smith and Elizabeth Warren assisted in serving refreshments in two courses. The club members present were: Mrs. E. P. Turner, Mrs. E. E. Goodwyn, Mrs. R. J. Green, Mrs. George Roszel, Mrs. A. J. Daughtry, Mrs. W. B. Goodwyn, Mrs. W. E. Tillar, Mrs. W. W. Robertson and Miss Mary Turner. The guests were Mrs. S. V. Southall, Miss Eleanor Tillar and Miss Susie Powell.

Professor J. M. Stark, president of University School, Montgomery, Ala., is visiting friends and relatives here. Professor Stark says that the progress made here since his visit seven years ago is wonderful.

J. Holt, Newsom, Ren Howe and George Wood attended the opening ball at the New Panacea Hotel on Saturday night.

Gordon Walker and children, of Danville, are visiting relatives here. Mrs. E. C. Palmer is spending some time in Norfolk.

Flournoy Tillar has returned from Washington and Lee University, where he was a student.

Mrs. C. W. Beaman and little daughter have gone to Binghamton, N. Y., for the summer.

Miss Elise Wilson, of Crewe, is the guest of Mrs. J. D. Peebles.

Miss Lucile Reuben, of Lawrenceville, is visiting Mrs. Harry Schwartz. George Adams, of Port Norfolk, spent a few days this week with Gordon Hastings.

Mrs. Otto Hart and children, of Norfolk, are visiting Mrs. Hart's sister, Mrs. J. B. Whitehead.

Miss Alice James, of City Point, has been a visitor in North Emporia, the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. L. Sutor.

Mrs. Wallace Fox has returned from a visit to relatives in Richmond.

Miss Florence Leffer of Lawrenceville, who has been visiting Miss Edith Paville, has returned to her home in Lawrenceville.

Mrs. Walter Wyche, of Richmond, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Cato, and Mrs. J. D. Walker.

Mrs. J. B. Perkins, of Bumpass, Louisa County, is visiting her niece, who has been ill at the home of Mrs. L. M. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Powell, of North Emporia, announce the marriage of their daughter, Annie Eliza, to Andrew Starling Griffith of Pittsylvania County, Va. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. W. W. Lear, D. D., at the home of the bride on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the presence of a small number of intimate friends. Miss Mary Crutchlow, of Petersburg, was the only crutch present. Mr. Griffith is in the civil service, and holds a responsible position in the North Emporia post-office. After about a week in Asheville they will be at home to their friends in North Emporia.

LOUISA

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LOUISA, VA., June 19.—The Louisa High School has closed its most successful session in its history. There were eleven full graduates—Robert Kent Woolfolk, and Misses Edith Lacy, Virginia Lanford, Gwendolin Barrett, Linda Fox Henderson, Carlisle Woodward, Isaline Perkins, Elsie Pannagan, Kate Richardson, Vivian Trice and Luck Jackson.

Dr. Charles Kent, of the University of Virginia, delivered the commencement address. After the diplomas were awarded the gold medal was presented to Miss Linda Fox Henderson by John Gwathmey, acting for the Chamber of Commerce of Newport News, for her essay on the merchant marine. The very large crowd present both Tuesday night—class night—and Friday night manifested the popular interest in the school. Parties of friends and relatives motored and drove up from many near-by towns and villages, and the country generally. The Christian Church, where Friday night's exercises were held, was elaborately decorated.

Mrs. W. E. Bibb gave a delightful progressive auction bridge party at "Schonberg's" her home here, on Tuesday afternoon, when five tables were arranged on the lower floor, which was thrown open for guests. The ladies' prize, silver ice tea spoons, was won by Mrs. W. W. Smith, and the consolation prize for the second highest score—cut glass and silver lemon dish—by Mrs. Walter D. Chiles. Decorations were in crimson roses and ferns.

One of the handsomest social functions to mark the summer season here was an afternoon reception given by Mrs. Harry W. Porter at her home Friday afternoon, complimentary to her guests, Mrs. Coradine, of Keswick, Va. The guests were received on the wide plaza, where punch was served. The salads and ices were served on the lower floor, which was thrown open for guests and decorated in marguerites and ferns.

The junior class gave a delightful dance to the senior class in Town Hall on Saturday evening, which was well attended. About forty couples enjoyed the latest dances.

The Cotillon Club gave the regular dance in Town Hall on Monday night, at which, besides the members, many out-of-town guests were present.

Mrs. F. W. Sims entertained at auction bridge at her home here on Tuesday evening. Her handsomest tables were arranged. The prizes for highest score were won by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith. The latter presented it to Mrs. Harbour Pendleton, the guest of honor.

Among the out-of-town visitors for commencement are Misses Eleanor Kent and Mary Stuart Gooch, of the University of West Virginia, who are visiting Mrs. Woolfolk and Miss Kent at Keswick.

Robert Driver, of Ashland, and Atwood Wash, of Cuckoo, attended the Junior dance.

Mrs. B. B. Valentine, of Richmond, delivered a fine address at Louisa on Monday on woman suffrage. She spoke from the courthouse steps, both morning and afternoon.

mer in compliment to their guest, Miss Belva Mullan, of Cattlettsburg, Ky. Five tables participated in the game, resulting in Mrs. Robert Graham winning the lady's prize, while Mr. Hottell made the highest score of the men. Those who were guests of the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Bunker, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morehead, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kunkel, Mesdames, M. M. Mills, T. L. Massie, R. G. Fitzhugh, Alexander Smith, M. D. Langhorne, R. C. Graham and H. K. Tice, Miss Mary Wyrso, A. T. Eskridge, J. W. Miller, C. L. Hottell and D. Gray Langhorne.

The new Pulaski hospital is nearing completion and a formal opening will be held on Friday. This new institution is under the management of no individual interest, but will be governed by an executive board of the business men of the city. The project was launched in the winter, and a very attractive building is being erected, the finishing touches of which are now being put on, and it will be completed and furnished in time for the opening on the 25th.

A number of young people are in camp on the farm of Dr. J. L. Kent, about five miles in the country. The camp is the scene of many social festivities and visiting parties from the city who motor out for an evening. On Wednesday night the campers were delightfully entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. K. Bell, at "Mountain Home."

Miss Helen Jordan, of Bluefield, a student of the Peabody Conservatory, Baltimore, is spending several days in the city, the guest of relatives en route to her home.

Miss Belva Mullan, who had been the guest of Mrs. William S. Gilmer, has returned to her home at Cattlettsburg, Kentucky.

Mysor Morehead, an old Pulaski boy who is located in Richmond, spent the past week-end with Pulaski relatives.

Sunday school convention for the County of Pulaski will be held here on Friday. The Rev. Thomas C. Diggs, State secretary, will be among those in attendance.

Attorney Finley Dunlap and family, of Hinton, W. Va., and Mr. Baylor, moved to Pulaski for a week-end visit to the family of Mrs. Dunlap's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wyrso. On their return they were accompanied by Miss Birdie McCreary, who had been visiting here, and Miss Mary Wyrso.

PULASKI

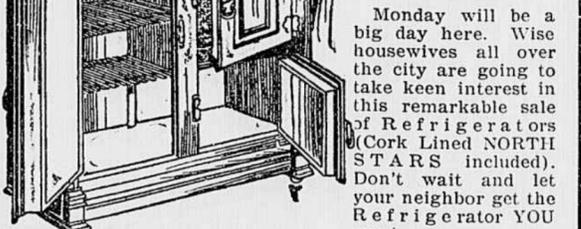

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] PULASKI, VA., June 19.—The Auction Bridge Club has entertained on Friday evening by Dr. and Mrs. William S. Gil-

RYAN SMITH & CO. "Low Profit Policy Store"

"Last Minute" Opportunities for Saving

We Move in a Day or Two to Broad at Jefferson

Refrigerators Reduced Monday Last Call!

- A few 35-pound capacity Indiana Refrigerators $5.75
$15.00 Refrigerators, to-morrow $12.15
$20.00 Refrigerators, reduced to-morrow $16.20
$25.00 Refrigerators, to-morrow at $17.75
$25.00 Refrigerators, to-morrow $22.50
$22.50 Refrigerators, to-morrow $19.75
$27.50 Refrigerators, to-morrow $24.75
$35.00 Refrigerators, to-morrow $29.75
Nursery Refrigerators, while they last $1.79

Let something else wait--Come early Monday morning

Dreyfus

Broad at Second Monday Choice of the House Dress Sale

$23.75 and $16.50

All of Our High-Class Summer Dresses

Formerly Sold at $19.75 to $55

Including without exception every dress we own that sold at $19.75 or over.

Fine Flimly Frocks For the Woman at the Shore

—or at the Country Club or in Town; wherein she may dance, coquette on veranda, or grace the afternoon promenade. Original creations that express a new loveliness in guimped and flounced modes, quaint yet modern.

Individually selected by our Fashion Expert, this sale embraces every type of frock for the varied requirements of the summer season.

WARNING! Be careful in your selection and buy only the dresses you can use. This is a Clearance Sale. None on approval, none exchanged, none credited, none C. O. D.