TRAIL OF GASOLINE LEADS TO ACCIDENT

Accidentally Ignited, Flames Overtake Wagon, and Driver is Terribly Burned.

HARRISONBURG, VA., November 27.—Robert Roper, nineteen years old, is the victim of a remarkable accident. Roper was driving a wagon loaded with chicken feathers from Harrisonburg to the Dingeldine-Thompson farm, several miles east of town. On the front of the wagon was a barrel of gasoline, that had sprung a leak, and was leaving a trail of gasoline in the road. Forty feet from the wagon, a farm hand, after lighting a cigarette, threw the burning match in the road. The gasoline was ignited, and the blaze shot along the road, overtaking the wagon and setting afire the chicken feathers.

Roper hurriedly unhitched the horses and took them to a place of safety. Then he tried to remove the barrel of gasoline from the wagon, when it exploded, throwing the blazing liquid high in the air and scattering it for yards around. His clothing in a blaze, Roper started on a run. Four men, who themselves had a narrow escape, overtook him and extinguished the flames. The boy was hurried to the hospital. To-day the physicians say he will recover. His body was seared over the entire surface, with the exception of the left side. His clothing was literally burned off.

The wagon was destroyed, and the flames spread to a field, burning up a quarter of an acre of grass.
