JACK DUNN GETS RELEASE

RICHMOND MANAGER WILL GO BACK TO OLD GROUNDS

Holdings in Club Will Be Purchased by Local Interests—Resignation Is No Surprise.

Jack Dunn will not manage the Richmond Ints this season. His resignation was tendered to the local directors yesterday and immediately accepted.

Dunn arrived here late yesterday afternoon and immediately went into conference with the local officials.

According to his present plans, Dunn will not bother with the Fed owners in Baltimore any longer, but will cast about for suitable grounds in the playing season.

Dunn made several suggestions to the local officers in regard to his holding in the Richmond club, but none were acceptable.

Dunn will build park and ignore terp owners. As predicted yesterday, Dunn will build his own park in Baltimore.

As predicted yesterday, Dunn will build his own park in Baltimore. He was in conference recently with Barrow and has the sanction of the International League chief in his decision to stop dickering with the Terp owners in regard to their park.

Dunn is not known. The directors yesterday practically agreed that local capital must take over his holdings, but would not state the figure asked by Dunn.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Richmond Exhibition Company will be held to-day, when a director will be elected for the ensuing year.

Just what proposition will be made to Dunn is not known. The directors yesterday practically agreed that local capital must take over his holdings, but would not state the figure asked by Dunn.

HOPPE VS. SUTTON

Chance that Billiardists Will Meet in April—Challenge Not Sure.

NEW YORK, January 10.—The challenge issued by George Suttou to Willie Hoppe for a match at 152 balls in 15 minutes is not a surprise to followers of the game.

There is a bare chance that the veteran will accept the challenge of the younger player. Hoppe declared that he would not play with the right to play in the tournament, and that once he had gained his first prize he would be as good as ever in his career.

CONSIDER BRANCH RICKEY

AMERICAN LEAGUER ASKED FOR TERMS ON LOCAL JOB

Now Under Contract With St. Louis, but May Get His Release—Other Sports Dept.

Branch Rickey, who last year managed St. Louis Americana, is being considered for manager of the Richmond Ints.

Rickey, while not having a world beater, managed to gather a fair bunch of ball players in St. Louis and made a creditable showing.

The resignation of Dunn is no surprise to those who have been in touch with the situation ever since peace negotiations were started.

Aside from the larger territory, Dunn can play Sunday ball at home, and that is a huge item.

Dunn did not prove a success as a manager here, because he was hampered by lack of capital.

WHAT MONEY WILL DO FOR RELIEF OF WOUNDED

Virginia War Relief Association Prepares Table Showing Cost of Surgical Supplies Greatly Needed.

The following list was prepared by the finance committee of the Virginia War Relief Association, which proposes to raise in Richmond $50,000, during the week commencing January 17, for the relief of suffering in the war zones of Europe.

What your money can do for a wounded soldier in Europe: 1 cent will buy iodine to disinfect a wound.

1 cent will pay for enough gauze for one dressing. 5 cents will pay for a bandage.

1 cent will pay for a temporary splint. 10 cents will provide chloroform for an operation.

25 cents expended as above may save a limb or a life. $2.50 will pay for 100 yards of gauze.

$15.00 will pay for 100 pounds of absorbent cotton. $21.00 will pay for 1,000 sterilized bandages.

$30.00 will purchase 100 pounds of chloroform. $60.00 will provide a nurse for one month.

$100.00 will provide a surgeon for one month. An appointment of the money collected in Richmond next week will be given over to the organization known as the Lafayette Fund, of New York, which is working to provide comfort kits for the soldiers of France, as an expression of gratitude for the assistance given the struggling thirteen colonies in the War of the Revolution.

M. Croupp, Minister of Foreign Affairs and of Justice, and Vice-President of the French Chamber of Deputies, has made a special appeal to the American people for aid in caring for the homeless women and children in the war. He says: "Thousands of these children have been sent to the south of France, where possibly they are retained with their mothers. The government gives to each woman who has some male relative in the army, who supported her, one franc (25 cents) a day, and for every dependent child 10 cents a day. The losses, however, wholly unprovided for women who are alone or children who have no father or male relative at war. These unfortunate have to be taken care of by charitable institutions or individuals, as the government is overwhelmed with the expense of the war."

The Standard Kit that Lafayette Society is sending to the soldiers in France is made up of the following items: Beecel-lined shirt, underclothes, two pairs of woollen socks, pair of woollen gloves, woollen belt, woollen muffler, colored handkerchief, six safety pins, small cake of soap, can of creol ointment, pencil and package of note paper.

A self-addressed post card is placed in the kit. Replies have been received from the soldiers in the trenches expressing their gratitude. The cost of a kit is $2.

HOW THE RUMOR STARTED. Discovery of Stowaways on Vessel Leads to Report of Finding Two Bombs.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 10.—Excitement among passengers, caused by the discovery of three stowaways and their ejection from the vessel, probably started rumors that two bombs, set to explode in four hours, were found on the steamer Shinyo Maru soon after she pulled from here November 26, according to C. Lucy Goodrich, general passenger agent of the Tokyo Kisen Kaisha.

The explanation was given after the publication today of a passage in a letter from Mrs
