

SPRING FAIR AT LEIPZIG

Number of Buyers From Neutral Countries Larger Than at Any Previous Time Since War Began.

BERLIN, March 4 (By wireless to Sayville).—The spring fair at Leipzig will open March 6. The number of buyers who have applied for the reduced railroad fares is 23,000, as compared with 15,700 last year.

Notwithstanding the difficulties of crossing the frontier, the number of buyers from neutral countries is larger than on the occasions of the former fairs at Leipzig during the war. The largest number comes from the United States. These buyers are interested principally in toys. Others come from Switzerland, Austria, Hungary and Scandinavia. The number of exhibitors is 2,500, compared with 2,200 last fall.

FRANCIS IS ACCEPTABLE

His Nomination as Ambassador to Russia Will Be Sent to Senate on Monday.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The nomination of David R. Francis, former Governor of Missouri, to be ambassador to Russia, will be sent to the Senate on Monday by President Wilson. Word has been received from Petrograd that Mr. Francis will be acceptable to the Russian government. He will succeed George T. Marye, who resigned.
