Negroes Under Arrest on Charge of Looting Hardware Store in Rocky Mount.

PICKPOCKETS ARE BUSY

M. C. A. Caterer is Relieved of His Wallet and Contents Amounting to $150—Negroes Indulge in Serious Shooting Affray.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] PETERSBURG, VA., April 25.—On Monday, April 18, a hardware store at Rocky Mount, N. C., was broken into and eleven and ten or twelve fine pistols, numbered and registered, were taken. On the 19th Chief Hagland, of this city, was notified of the robbery and furnished with the numbers of the pistols and two of them were recovered at a pawn shop here. To-day while other investigating the matter, Detectives Heelan, Jefferson and Guinan arrested two negroes while in the act of pawnbroking the stolen pistols. They gave their names as Joseph Watson and Luther Jones. They were recognized as the men who had previously pawned some of the stolen pistols, and were locked up in jail to await the action of the North Carolina authorities.

Pocket Picked of $150.

Hauchwitz, caterer at the Y. M. C. A., was relieved of his pocketbook containing checks to the amount of $150 at the Norfolk and Western station last night, where he had gone to see his family of Norfolk. He had his pocketbook out a few minutes before someone relieved him of it. The police are investigating the matter, but so far without success.

A Shooting Affair.

Joe Matthews and Junius Knox, negroes, had trouble last night near Gill Street and Knox is in the hospital in a serious condition, suffering from several pistol-shot wounds inflicted by Matthews. The latter had the police station called and informed of what he had done, and that he was ready to surrender himself and would await the arrival of an officer. He was taken to his word and was ready for the patrol truck when it came. He said that Knox had tackled him.

Good Guessing.

The number of admissions to the Petersburg-Hopewell baseball game yesterday afternoon was 2,452. The association had offered the prize of a 19 gold piece to the person who guessed nearest the number of paid admissions, and the fortunate guesser was Captain J. A. Nichols, a surveyor of this city, who, after carefully looking over the crowd, named the exact number. The next nearest guesser was J. H. Farville, whose estimate was 2,347.

Funeral of Murdered Man.

The funeral of James Lewis, the night watchman at the Battersea Cotton Mills, who was stabbed and slain to death last night by J. H. Hinson, an employee at the factory, will take place to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock from the chapel of the undertaking establishment of J. T. Morris and Son, where the body now lies. To-day two more arrests were made by the police in connection with the killing—A. D. Exwin and D. H. Hinson, suspected of being accessories. The murder of Lewis recalls the fact that a few years ago the night watchman of this same factory—Mr. W. Westmoreland—was mysteriously murdered, and the mystery of that affair has never been cleared up.

Ten Years for Killing.

In the Hustings court to-day Robert Crocker, colored, was convicted of the killing of Floyd Holman, colored, on March 6, pleading guilty to the indictment. The court fixed his punishment at ten years in the penitentiary. The case was tried at the March term of the court, but the jury failed to agree on a verdict. The court will dispose of other criminal cases to-morrow.

A Pleasant Surprise.

A supper was given at the Stratford Hotel last night by a few personal friends in honor of Captain James M. Gallagher and his birthday, which was yesterday. Captain Gallagher is the agent of the Old Dominion Line, and is one of the most popular citizens of Petersburg. He was not aware that the supper was in his honor, and it was not until after the menu had been served and cigars had been passed that the surprise came to the captain. It was in the nature of the presentation to him, on behalf of his friends, by Dr. J. M. Burke of a handsome silver loving cup bearing the following inscription:

"Presented to James M. Gallagher by his friends, as a token of their affection and esteem, April 24, 1916, Petersburg, Va."

Captain Gallagher was so surprised and affected that for the moment he was overcome. He begged to be ex-

The Civic League is conducting a publicity and educational campaign for a general clean-up of the city next week, and not only that, but for a continuous clean-up thereafter.

Pickpockets were busy yesterday afternoon among the crowd at the baseball park, and a number of citizens fell victims to the light-fingered workers.

Work on the great order of coal cars has been delayed owing to the difficulty of assembling steel and other materials, which officials say were never so hard to get or so expensive. ### When a Body needs a Tonic

THE careless rapture of the first few days of Spring sunshine, the glorious sense of new life—and then—spring fever! Kept keyed to the highest pitch by a winter of exacting work and "too much indoors," the system suddenly lets go. Not seriously ill at such times—simply out of balance. What is needed is a tonic—yes, more! A food-tonic, to replace the accumulated fatigue with a fresh store of vigor in the shape of actual cell nourishment.

It is because Sanatogen presents albumen (the builder) and organic phosphorus (the vitalizer) in easiest assimilable form that it has proven an ideal cell-food and tonic, to restore the balance to body and nerves during the critical change of the seasons.

Having tested it in actual practice thousands upon thousands of physicians daily recommend Sanatogen. In fact, more than 21,000 have endorsed it in writing, as have also scores of prominent laymen, such as Colonel Watterson, former Secretary of the Navy Chandler, Lady Somerset, John Burroughs and Rear-Admiral Sigsbee, who know for themselves the help Sanatogen gives.

So "when a body needs a tonic" you may be sure that Sanatogen will help in a manner that will beget the highest praise.

Sir Gilbert Parker writes: "Sanatogen is a true food-tonic, feeding the nerves, increasing the energy and giving fresh vigor to overworked body and mind."
