Many Guests Go There for Dinner. Dr. and Mrs. Cary T. Grayson Spending Part of Honeymoon at Mountain Resort.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, VA., May 27.—The period of comparative quiet, following a season of gaiety, is welcome to sojourners at White Sulphur who have come to enjoy the loveliest month in the year and to take the cure, drive, play golf and rest, undisturbed by crowds of pleasure-seekers, who will begin to arrive here a month later.

Mrs. Clarence Gray Dinsmore and Mrs. Charles A. Sackett are enjoying their stay here, as they have congenial companions in Mrs. William Schall and Isaac Townsend, who also have come from New York to take the cure. Mrs. Schall, who spent seven months in actual Red Cross service at French war hospitals, worked until she herself was stricken, and is here for a brief period of recuperation, after which she hopes to resume her work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Snow, who are here, joined Mrs. Walter W. Kernan, and are taking the cure, and their annual custom. Mr. and Mrs. Snow, who spend less and less time in New York, will go early to their estate at Southampton, L. I. Mr. Snow plays golf daily with Dr. G. B. Capito, of the Greenbrier. Mrs. Snow and Mrs. Kernan drove out to Elmhurst Farm on Sunday for tea and waffles.
