

SOCIETY

An important event of yesterday was the marriage of Miss Eugenia Whyte Griffin, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Wingfield Griffin, of Salem, to Charles Ryland Burnett, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Burnett, for many years cashier of the First National Bank, Richmond. The ceremony took place last evening at 9 o'clock in St. Paul's Church, at Salem, Rev. Thomas G. Faulkner officiating. In the presence of a large assembly of guests, the church was decorated in ferns, Southey's smilax, and chrysanthemums and lighted candles and white flowers were used on the altar. Clinton Eley rendered the wedding music.

The bride entered the church with her father, by whom she was given in marriage, and they were met at the chancel steps by the groom and his brother, Ellis Burnett, of Montgomery, Ala., who was best man. Her wedding gown was fashioned of white satin and tulle over cloth of silver, and her veil of tulle was fastened with orange blossoms. She carried a presentation bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Claudine Griffin, who attended her sister as maid of honor, wore a French dress of violet tulle draped over silver tissue, and she carried an armful of yellow roses.

The bridesmaids were Misses Evelyn Cockrell, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Claudine Hutter, of Lynchburg; Mattie Brown, of Salem, and Nora B. Payne, of Lynchburg. They wore similar gowns of yellow tulle draped over cloth of gold, and carried old-fashioned bouquets of violet asters with yellow ribbons in the center. The groomsmen included Frank W. Duke, Harry Praxler, Jr., Lawrence Berry and Maurice Langhorne, all of this city.

Following the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The drawing-rooms were decorated everywhere in autumn flowers and evergreens and lilies and roses were used on the table in the dining-room.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnett left later in the evening to spend their honeymoon in the Catskill Mountains and New York City. On their return they will make their home in Richmond. Some of the guests from a distance attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hutter, and the Misses Hutter, of Lynchburg; Miss Ida Bargmann, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Rawn, of Huntington, W. Va.; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Joubert, of Amherst; Misses Helen F. Young and Eugene Morens, of Sweet Briar College; Mrs. T. P. Robertson, of Farmville; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hunter, Jr., Miss Frances Rhodes, of Lynchburg; Mrs. W. A. Andrews, Jr., of Pulaski; Miss Frances Wilson, of Danville; Miss Katherine Herring, of Hollins College.

Secretary to Colonel White. Miss Leslie C. Foster has recently been appointed as secretary to Colonel E. B. White, of Leesburg, who is the Federal Food Administrator of Virginia. Miss Foster, who is a daughter of the late Captain J. W. Foster and Mrs. Foster, Leesburg, has been making her home in New York for some time past. Miss Foster and her mother will spend the winter months in Richmond.

At the University of Virginia. Rev. and Mrs. Landon H. Mason are visiting Miss Virginia Mason at the University of Virginia. Next week Mr. and Mrs. Mason will be the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Taylor Burke, in Alexandria, and will not return to the city until about November 1.

Spent Winter in Washington. Malcolm G. Bruce, of Richmond, has leased the residence of the late Brigadier-General Woodward, 2110 Massachusetts Avenue, for the winter. Miss Woodward will join her brother about the middle of October. Mr. Bruce and his two little daughters will be established in Washington for the winter season. They spent the summer months at "Berry Hill," the old Bruce estate, in Virginia.

Miss Haves in New York. Miss Katharine H. Haves is in New York attending a very important meeting of the War Council of the Young Women's Christian Association. This meeting was held necessary by the urgent demands made on the organization for aid in helping the women and girls around army encampments.

Leaving for the South. Miss John A. Ryan, accompanied by her daughter, Katherine, is leaving Friday for Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., where she will visit her son, Private John A. Ryan, Jr., of headquarters company, First Virginia Field Artillery. Before returning to Richmond, Mrs. Ryan will go to Annapolis to spend a few days with her brother, Captain E. J. Keegan, supply officer of the Virginia Field Artillery.

Miscellaneous. The home of Miss Marie Cummins, 407 East Cary Street, was the scene of an attractive gathering Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6, the occasion being a miscellaneous shower given to Miss Adelaide Ryan in honor of her approaching marriage. The color scheme was yellow and white. Mrs. S. E. Hotchkiss rendered a solo, and the guests were entertained with music. When the guests' entered the dining-room they found suspended from the chandelier a large white bell decorated with white ribbons, a wedding bell, which tolled not only good wishes, but a shower of choice gifts for the bride-to-be.

Misses Marie and Bessie Cummins received, and Miss Julia Ryall presided at the punch. Those present were: Misses Adelaide Ryan, A. Tyler, Julia Ryall, Frances Bragg, Margaret Dollard, Katherine Anthony, Mary Rose Ryan, Katharine Ryan, Marie Cummins, Grace Ryan, Jannie Robertson, Katherine Shaughnessy, Dora Wiles, Bessie Cummins, Sarah Cummins, Mrs. W. T. Ryan, Mrs. Fannie Saunders, Mrs. S. E. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Sutherland, Miss Margaret Rankin, Miss Margaret Stokes.

Married in Bristol. Miss Carrie S. Slaughter, daughter of Mrs. E. F. Slaughter, of Nottoway, and T. E. Atkinson, of Pamplin, were married Wednesday, October 3, at the Methodist parsonage in Bristol, Tenn. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson left for Washington, Baltimore, and Philadelphia, after which they will be at home at Pamplin.

Guests of Colonel and Mrs. McCabe. Mrs. Forsyth, wife of Colonel W. V. Forsyth, of First United States Cavalry, and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Forsyth, will arrive in Richmond this morning, to be the guests of Colonel and Mrs. W. C. McCabe. Colonel Forsyth will soon join them here, and they will make Richmond their home for the coming winter.

A Wedding of Interest. The Union Chapel Church, near Summit, was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Miss Elizabeth Jenette Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith, of Summit, was united in marriage to Willard Hutchinson, of Metuchen, N. J. The church was decorated with ferns, goldenrod and autumn leaves. A large white wedding bell, under which the couple stood, was arranged over the altar. The bride, who wore a smart blue traveling suit and pearl gray hat, with gloves to match, carried a bouquet of roses and malden-hair ferns. She entered the church with her matron of honor, Mrs. William Smith, who was crowned in white chiffon over satin and carried roses and ferns. The groom entered with the best man, William Smith, brother of the bride. The bridesmaids, Misses Mollie Crump, Caroline Hess and Ethel Bullock, wore white dresses and carried goldenrod and ferns. The groomsmen were John Smith, John Filippo and Mack Smith.

The Pathetic Figure--The Poor Golfer Who Happens to See His Caddy Making Some Shots With the Club He Had Just Thrown Away in Disgust - By F. Fox

is visiting her sister, Mrs. Curtis M. Dozier, 1702 Grove Avenue. Misses Alice and Lou Leigh have returned from an extended stay in the country, and are now located at Greaham Court.

Mrs. F. W. Schall is the guest of her mother, Mrs. W. D. Bradley, in Richmond. Lieutenant C. C. Walker, Jr., left yesterday for Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., after a visit to his father, C. C. Walker, at 866 Park Avenue.

Mrs. Katherine Ricks has returned to Richmond, after a short stay with friends in Franklin. Mrs. W. C. Vermillera and her daughter, Bettie Lee, who spent last week in Sarnia, Ontario, Canada, are now visiting relatives in Cincinnati and Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. N. T. Green, of Houston, is visiting Mrs. R. G. Thornton, on Monument Avenue. Miss Kate Beckwith, who has been the guest of Mrs. Thornton here, has returned to her home, in Lynchburg.

WOMEN'S MEETINGS. The regular weekly meeting of the board of women directors of the Retreat for the Sick will be held at the hospital this morning at 11 o'clock. Freezing Weather in Lynchburg. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., October 10.—The first freezing temperature of the autumn season was experienced here last night, when the official temperature was 31 degrees, in which there was a heavy frost. The condition prevailed this year twenty-four days earlier than last fall and twenty days earlier than the average date upon which the first frost has formed here since 1871.

VIRGINIA OSTEOPATHS MEET HERE SATURDAY

Tenth Annual Session Will Be Held by State Society at Murphy's Hotel.

The tenth annual meeting of the Virginia Osteopathic Society will be held at Murphy's Hotel on Saturday. The program is headed by Dr. George Riley, of New York City, who was recently elected president of the American Osteopathic Association at the annual meeting in Columbus, Ohio. Dr. Riley will be the guest of the Virginia Osteopathic Society during the convention.

Dr. Harry Semones, of Roanoke, president of the Virginia Society, will open the session by an address on "Osteopathy, Past, Present and Future." Other speakers on the program include Dr. C. C. Carter, of Danville, whose subject will be "The Relative Viewpoint of Physician and Patient," and Dr. R. McRae Echols, of Bristol, who will speak on "The Neck, the Pneumogastric and the Sympathetic Nerves."

The meeting will take up the entire day and be in three sessions—morning, afternoon and night—with a luncheon at 1 o'clock, at which the Virginia osteopaths will entertain their guests and friends. Reports of the volume of urgent business and the balloting for important officers for the ensuing year, a large attendance is anticipated.

The officers of the society are: President, Dr. Harry Semones, of Roanoke; vice-president, Dr. George Fout, of Richmond, and secretary-treasurer, Dr. L. C. McCoy, of Norfolk.

MRS. RANDOLPH PLEADS FOR NEEDY CONFEDERATES

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ROANOKE, VA., October 10.—At the opening session of the State convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy here to-night, Mrs. Norman Randolph, of Richmond, made a powerful plea for increased zeal in the support of needy veterans and Confederate widows. Her address, which has been neglected in the press of newer demands made upon the women by the present war.

Mrs. Frank Anthony Walke, of Norfolk, spoke on the attitude of the United Daughters of the Confederacy towards the work of the Red Cross. One hundred and forty-three delegates have been registered, among them Mrs. William Rhodes. Reports were received from district chairmen. Nomination and election of officers will take place to-morrow.

Nelson-Rankin

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., October 10.—Mr. and Mrs. William Thomason Rankin, formerly of Chicago, but for the past ten years residents of the Keswick neighborhood, have issued cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Edith Rankin, to Dr. Hugh T. Nelson, Jr., of this city. The ceremony was held on Saturday and was a quiet affair. Dr. Nelson is a son of the late Dr. Hugh T. Nelson, and

Mrs. W. C. Green, of Houston, is visiting Mrs. R. G. Thornton, on Monument Avenue. Miss Kate Beckwith, who has been the guest of Mrs. Thornton here, has returned to her home, in Lynchburg.

Safe Milk for Infants and Invalids. HORLICK'S THE ORIGINAL MALTED MILK. Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form. For infants, invalids and growing children. Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body. Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged. More nutritious than tea, coffee, etc. Instantly prepared. Requires no cooking. Substitutes Cost YOU Same Price.

Mr. W. was Complimentary

A prominent newspaper man recently called at the office of Mr. "W.," the manager of one of the largest seed houses in South Carolina, and while in conversation the subject of Ginger Ale was mentioned.

Mr. W. remarked:—"I like BEAUFONT better than any Ginger Ale I ever drank."

These complimentary remarks about Beaufont come to us daily from many sources. Men and women in all walks of life testify to the goodness and purity of Beaufont.

You will enjoy BEAUFONT too. It is absolutely pure, and is the favorite beverage wherever sold. Bottled only in the mammoth sanitary plant of

THE BEAUFONT COMPANY, Inc., RICHMOND, VA.

Jesse French & Sons. TO VISITORS of the STATE FAIR. We wish to offer to any and all VISITORS attending the STATE FAIR the comforts of our REST ROOMS and STORE in general. We will do all in our power to make you comfortable. We have on display in our parlors the complete line of JESSE FRENCH AND SONS PIANOS. THE PIANOS OF MERIT. THE PIANOS OF UNQUESTIONED EXCELLENCE. GRANDS--PLAYERS--UPRIGHTS. SOLD ON EASY TERMS. LIBERAL ALLOWANCE ON OLD INSTRUMENTS IN EXCHANGE. Colonial Piano Corporation. 205 East Broad Street. W. C. MIZELLE, Pres.

one of Charlottesville's leading physicians. He graduated from the medical school of the University of Virginia and spent several years at leading hospitals in the North. In August he was called into service by the War Department and sent to Camp Lee, Petersburg, where he is now stationed. While in college Dr. Nelson was a catcher on the 'varsity baseball nine. Mrs. Nelson is a leader in the hunting and social set of the Keswick neighborhood.

Thalhimer Brothers

To-day a Sale of Two Thousand Pairs of Fine Wool and Woolnap Blankets At 50% Less Than To-day's Market Price.

Last season's fine qualities at last season's low prices. This collection embraces Old Fashion Plaid Blankets, Heavy Silver Gray Wool Blankets, White Wool Blankets, Camp Blankets, Baby Blankets, Auto Blankets, Single-Bed Blankets, etc. Sales tables in our new Bedding Basement.

THE KAUFMANN STORE. Leaders To-Day: $15.00 $20.00 $25.00 Coats for Women. WE have prepared an offering for "State Fair" friends—those who come once a year. Take home one of these Coats, and with it goes a warm spot in your heart for us. At $15.00. Choose from among these four: (a) Smartly designed pebblecloth belted Burgundy, brown and navy, $15.00; (b) Two-Tone Melton, with a deep fur collar, trimmed in tails; (c) Velours, with handsome gray fur collar; (d) Velours, with the swag new buckled belts and snappy Kerami trimmed collar, $15.00. At $20.00. At this price we quote three leaders only, but WHAT STUNNING BEAUTIES THEY ARE! Full lined, belted Burella cloth Coat, the collar and pockets trimmed with Kerami; Velours Coat, with plaited back, belt and pockets; another model of Velours has a large Kerami collar, with pockets and cuffs to match; $20.00. At $25.00. Five interesting things at this price: Belted Velours du Laine, button trimmed; Pom Pom Coats, in all colors, full lined; Velours, with large fur collars; plaited back Velours, with big side pockets and bands of Kerami; several styles in utility gabardines, cravenetted and guaranteed rainproof; $25.00.

J.B. Mosby & Co. Betty Wales Dresses. More Lovely Than Ever. This season we offer a variety of models, each individual and many with delightful little touches that endear the garments to critical dressers. The materials and workmanship are worth noting to in these days when style is too often at the expense of service. A Betty Wales Dress not only sets the style, but it stays in style and is well worth being made up substantially. Just bubbling over with charm and style is this delightful model we are illustrating to-day. It is made up in navy serge, with wide box-plaited side panels of green plaid. The collar is of white satin and military buttons of gunmetal add a pleasing effect. In each Dress you will find the big brown envelope with the gift certificate exchangeable without cost for your choice of any one of the eight fascinating Betty Wales College Books, written by Margaret Wards. Betty Wales Dresses can be had only at Mosby's in Richmond.

Rugs to Meet Every Need and Scheme of Furnishing. Harmony is one of the first essentials of beauty—and in harmonious colorings and blending of colors the Rugs at Mosby's shine pre-eminently. We bought them with this end in view—that they should be suited in every way for Richmond homes. This is true of our entire stock of new Rugs, which, by the way, were bought many months ago before prices began to soar upwards. Our 9x12-ft. Wool Wiltons at $32.50 and $37.50 express this idea of harmony in floor coverings to a very marked degree. Soft colors of rose blue, green, ivory, etc., are shown in Chinese and Japese effects, all intended to "fit in" and harmonize with your several homes. We know you cannot match these Rugs for beauty and durability, and we likewise know we cannot duplicate their value at the same prices. There Are Front and Back Lace Bon Ton CORSETS FOR ALL WOMEN. Richmond women know from experience that Corset perfection is attained in Bon Ton models. The latest French fashions for autumn decrees the slim, youthful silhouette—so becoming to most women, and, of course, essential for the new gowns. The fit of Bon Ton Corsets is the result of scientific Paris designing, and their durability the result of high grade materials and expert workmanship. New models here in both front and back lace for slender, average and full figures. Our fitters are here to fit you with the Corset that will best suit you—give your figure the proper pose and still be comfortable. Miss Jackson, the well-known corset expert from the Bon Ton Salons, will be with us for a few days, and will be glad to assist you with her advice if desired.

Mme Reinack. 3 East Broad Street. The Little Paris Shop. An Authentic Showing of Model Hats. In every fashionable Autumn shade. Chic Hats in Panne velvet, trimmings of fur, metal, ostrich, Gaura or Paradise; effectively trimmed.