Aldermen Concur in Resolution for Proceeding Against Connection Company.

CLEAR BELVIDERE STREET

R. F. & P. Has Promised to Remove All Tracks From Broad Street as Soon as New Station is Ready for Occupancy.

After a delay of many months, the Board of Aldermen took from the table last night the resolution instructing City Attorney Pollard to institute legal proceedings against the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac and Richmond and Petersburg Railroad Connection Company, to force it to remove its tracks along Belvidere Street, from Broad Street to the Byrd Street Station.

Colonel Barton H. Grundy, chairman of the Finance Committee, introduced a resolution authorizing the borrowing of $500,000 for a short time. It was explained that this is in line with the policy of the committee, negotiating short-term loans in anticipation of expected revenues. The resolution was referred to the Finance Committee for its consideration.

WOMAN'S WORK TOUCHES EVERY PHASE OF STRUGGLE

Mrs. Joseph Daniels, Addressing Daughters of Confederacy, Says "Sacrifice Without Complaint."

WOMEN LEADING IN SERVICE

Not Only Labor of Love and Sacrifice That Women Are Doing. They Also Lead in Conservation, Economy and Defense.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., November 13.—"Welcome Night," which opened the twenty-fourth annual general convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy last night, was featured by an address by Mrs. Joseph Daniels, wife of the Secretary of the Navy.

Addresses of welcome were delivered by Governor Rye, of Tennessee; Mayor Littleton, of Chattanooga; General George B. Harrison, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, and by representatives of other organizations.

"Let the daughters of the mothers of the Confederacy forget luxuries in the spirit of their mothers," said Mrs. Daniels, in opening her address. "And let them, like their mothers, glory in the willingness to make sacrifice without complaint. The work women are doing in this war touches every phase of the struggle."

"The daughters of the mothers of the soldiers and sailors, and have sought to train them so they will be ready for any duty. They give them to their country with faith and prayer, but not without tears and apprehension. In a million of homes preparation has been made for the son called to the colors, and in more homes the deft hands of women have been knitting for soldiers and sailors. It is a service in which love goes with every stitch."

Mrs. Daniels declared that it was not alone by labor and service and sacrifice and love that women are doing their bit in the war, but that they were leading in councils for defense, in food conservation, in preaching and practicing economy, in Red Cross work and many other activities.

In conclusion, Mrs. Daniels laid especial emphasis on the duty of women to work for clean environment for training camps and for the placing of wholesome entertainment that will make for moral cleanliness.

PUT ASIDE FALSE IDEAS AND KEEP SONS CLEAN. "As women, must put aside many of the false ideas that have seared our tongues in the past. Science has spoken at last, and on the word of the world's foremost physical authorities we know that continence is not frowned upon by nature, but commanded by nature. We know there is no basis in truth for the double standard. No reasons whatever save in the world's false teachings why our sons should not live in the same cleanliness that we expect our daughters. It is not enough for the nation to call upon

To put strength into her nerves and color into her cheeks.

There's a healthy, rosy-checked woman waiting for you. The trouble in the past has been that when you met her you met her ordinary, masculine iron. It's not ordinary iron that you need. It's the iron that's in the blood.

Today doctors prescribe organic iron—Nuxated Iron. This particular form of iron is easily assimilated, does not irritate the stomach, and will increase the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, irritable, and overworked women.

its courage—it is just as important to strengthen its moral fiber."

Mrs. Daniels called upon the women to uphold the hands of the authorities in ridding communities near cantonments of degrading districts.

"We are waging a war which I believe with all my heart is as holy as any crusade," said the speaker, "so let us commence a crusade against the remedial evils of existence to the end that our soldiers may walk in honor, live in cleanliness and grow in health."
