

FIRST QUESTIONNAIRES TO BE MAILED TO-DAY

Local Boards Prepare for New Step in Carrying Out Draft Regulations.

EXEMPTION CLAIMS REVOKED

All Registered Men to Be Classified According to Sworn Answers. Lawyers to Aid Registrants in Making Their Answers.

Local exemption boards will turn the wheel that will start the work on the second draft revolving to-day when they mail out the first installment of the questionnaires to all registered men in the city.

Legal exemption claims granted registrants in the initial draft have been revoked. The paper will be sent every registered man not now in the army.

Legal advisory boards have been appointed to advise the men on how to fill out the paper, and the lawyers will gladly will assist the men free of charge.

MUST RETURN THEIR QUESTIONNAIRES PROMPTLY

Registered men are cautioned to return their questionnaires as promptly as possible, and to report to their respective board any change of address, as the government will take no excuse for a man not receiving his paper.

Work of the local boards No. 1, 2 and 3 are on the first floor of the Richmond Grays' Army. Seventh and Marshall Streets, while local board No. 4 is located on the second floor of the Richmond Hotel.

TO-DAY MARKS CLOSE

To-day marks the closing of the enlistment period in every branch of the service for men who are subject to the draft.

Adjutant-General Sale has prepared a poster to be placed in all post-offices, train stations and other public places advising registrants of the imperative need of notifying local boards of their new mailing addresses.

In order to inform the members of the legal advisory board of division No. 4 as to how to proceed with the questionnaires, when brought to them by the registrants, George W. Rogers, chairman of local board No. 4, called a meeting last night at Bellevue Junior High School and many lawyers were present.

Mr. Rogers' explanation consumed much time as there are sixteen pages of questions, and some of them were hard knocks for the lawyers.

After the strenuous work of explanation was over, a general discussion was engaged in by the members of the legal advisory board as to the course to be followed by them.

HINDU SERVANTS SOLD TO GERMANY FOR $10,000

Har Charan Das Charges Ram Chandra Sold Him Into Slavery and Fomented Rebellion.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 14.—Charges that five Hindu servants had been sold to the German government for $10,000 by Ram Chandra, one of the thirty-one defendants on trial in the United States District Court, accused of conspiracy to foment revolution against British rule in India, were made to-day on the witness stand by Har Charan Das, who said he had been one of the five.

After detailing his experiences in the United States and British Columbia, Das jumped to his feet, pointing at Chandra, and in an excited voice, said: "Ram Chandra was the 'king' of the Hindu newspaper Ghadr (revolution). He was my master and he sold me and four other of his servants to Germany for $10,000. I had been made to work as a pressman on his newspaper for $2 a month."

The German government, the prosecution alleged, backed the Ghadr financially in its efforts to embarrass the British government by fomenting the proposed revolution.

Das said that in 1915 he attended a conference between Ram Chandra and a German officer in the offices of the Ghadr, at which Chandra told him that many copies of the paper were being prepared for German army aviators to be thrown over the camps of Indian troops in France.

ALL SORTS OF CANNED GOODS ARE PLACED ON DISPLAY

Exhibit of Women's Handiwork Is Being Arranged by National League for Woman's Service.

The exhibit which the National League for Woman's Service is placing as rapidly as possible, under the direction of the chairman, Mrs. W. W. Sale, at 502 East Main Street, continues to be of the greatest interest to Richmond women, though the exhibition will not be formally opened to the public until Monday.

Thousands of jars of fruit and vegetables, every kind of jam and jelly, as well as apples, potatoes, dried vegetables, sorghum and preserves of every description, have been sent in. Many boxes will not be unpacked, but will go straight to Virginia soldiers in camp. Jellies and like delicacies will go to Camp Lee in weekly shipments to the base hospital there.

In a room measuring twenty-one by forty-two feet, with a ceiling twelve feet high, the walls are lined with shelves from floor to ceiling, and every shelf is full of jars—gallon, half-gallon, quart and pint sizes.

The famous Valley of Virginia is represented by its celebrated peaches, pears and cherries, and from Tidewater are figs and strawberries. Mountain sections have furnished blueberries, blackberries and plums, and there are preserved and canned fruits from every part of the State in abundance.

Tag Day for Fulton Settlement. To-day is tag day for the Fulton Settlement Work and the colored branch of the Salvation Army. The funds for the work are being raised by tag day.

JOHN BRUNE CARY

Was Noted Confederate Soldier and a Member of One of South's Oldest Families.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BALTIMORE, December 14.—John Brune Cary, descendant of one of the oldest families in Maryland, a veteran of the Civil War, a grandnephew of Thomas Jefferson and father of Mrs. Fairfax Harrison, wife of the President of the Southern Railway, died today at his home in Riderwood. His death was due to a complication of diseases, following a year's illness. He was born in Baltimore County, educated in private schools and when the Civil War broke out enlisted in the Southern service. He served later in the First Maryland Cavalry, and was some years later a member of the staff of his brother-in-law, General Fegram. He was the son of Wilson Miles Cary and Jane Margaret Cary. He is survived by one son, five daughters and one sister.

The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon.
