

MILLION WILSON NOTES WILL NOT CHANGE ITALY

Authority Quotes Premier Nitti in Which He Challenges Ability of President to Dislodge Italians in Adriatic Settlement.

(By Universal Service.)
PARIS, Feb. 26.—The attitude of the Italian government will remain unmoved by President Wilson's new Adriatic note, in which he firmly maintains his view of the allied "settlement." Universal Service learns this from an excellent authority, which says Premier Nitti is saying: "A million Wilson notes cannot alter Italy's defacto possession of the territories she claims. Let Wilson dislodge the Italians if he can."

The same stand is reported being taken by Greece with regard to Smyrna, which the supreme council has been alternately giving her and taking away from her. Greece has 100,000 perfectly trained and equipped troops in Smyrna and shows no intention of withdrawing.

ter Italy's defacto possession of the territories she claims. Let Wilson dislodge the Italians if he can." The same stand is reported being taken by Greece with regard to Smyrna, which the supreme council has been alternately giving her and taking away from her. Greece has 100,000 perfectly trained and equipped troops in Smyrna and shows no intention of withdrawing.

and condoned and is to receive ultimate justification by creating a situation so difficult that decision favorable to the aggressor is deemed a practical necessity; if deliberately incited to do so, the aggressor will be rewarded at the expense of the small and weak; if, in accordance with the order of things which brought so many evils on the world is still to prevail, then the time is not yet come when this government can entertain a concert of powers the very existence of which must depend upon a new spirit and new regime.

Threatens Withdrawal of Treaty.
The President wound up his note by saying that if the maximum concession of January 9 could not be accepted, the President desires to say that he would take under serious consideration the withdrawal of the treaty with Germany, and the agreement between France and Italy, and the agreement between France and the United States (the Franco-American alliance), which are now before the Senate, and permitting the terms of the European settlement to be indefinitely postponed, and the enforcement of the associated governments.

Claim Advantage Is Ignored.
The Premier remarked that President Wilson's note, which he had received, was a "great advantage" conferred on Jugo-Slavia at the time. In their discussions they had found, he said, that "nobody desired the continuation of the free state of Fiume," and that "the net result of the agreement was to give Jugo-Slavia 100,000 more Jugo-Slavs than the original proposal. The Premier argued that the guarantees of the League of Nations were sufficient to guard against the annexation of Italian territory, and his criticism of Italian domination of the railway they had referred to by holding it "a commercial and not a strategic railway," and adding that "under President Wilson's proposal it is commanded by Italian guns."

Can Not Sacrifice Principle.
The American government, the President's note said, "can not sacrifice principle for expediency." He entered the principles for which it entered the war to gratify the improper ambitions of one of its associates, or to purchase a temporary appearance of peace in the price of a future world conflagration. It is unwilling to recognize either an unjust settlement based on a secret treaty, the terms of which are inconsistent with the new world conditions, or a settlement that secured by the use of force as it now presents itself to the world.

Both Premier's disclaim any intent to show the slightest discourtesy to the United States or that they wished to conceal their action in any way. As President Wilson was not at the conference, they said they wished the best man was to proceed with the negotiations and communicate the result to the United States.

President Wilson's reply of February 11 said he could not believe that any Italian government could have already had received the well-merited condemnation of the French and British governments concerning the settlement of December 9, can in any sense be regarded as "right." He could not believe that any Italian government could have already had received the well-merited condemnation of the French and British governments concerning the settlement of December 9, can in any sense be regarded as "right." He could not believe that any Italian government could have already had received the well-merited condemnation of the French and British governments concerning the settlement of December 9, can in any sense be regarded as "right."

President Wilson's note said that whereas the agreement of December 9, 1918, had been a "great advantage" conferred on Jugo-Slavia at the time, in their discussions they had found, he said, that "nobody desired the continuation of the free state of Fiume," and that "the net result of the agreement was to give Jugo-Slavia 100,000 more Jugo-Slavs than the original proposal. The Premier argued that the guarantees of the League of Nations were sufficient to guard against the annexation of Italian territory, and his criticism of Italian domination of the railway they had referred to by holding it "a commercial and not a strategic railway," and adding that "under President Wilson's proposal it is commanded by Italian guns."

President Wilson's note said that whereas the agreement of December 9, 1918, had been a "great advantage" conferred on Jugo-Slavia at the time, in their discussions they had found, he said, that "nobody desired the continuation of the free state of Fiume," and that "the net result of the agreement was to give Jugo-Slavia 100,000 more Jugo-Slavs than the original proposal. The Premier argued that the guarantees of the League of Nations were sufficient to guard against the annexation of Italian territory, and his criticism of Italian domination of the railway they had referred to by holding it "a commercial and not a strategic railway," and adding that "under President Wilson's proposal it is commanded by Italian guns."

President Wilson's note said that whereas the agreement of December 9, 1918, had been a "great advantage" conferred on Jugo-Slavia at the time, in their discussions they had found, he said, that "nobody desired the continuation of the free state of Fiume," and that "the net result of the agreement was to give Jugo-Slavia 100,000 more Jugo-Slavs than the original proposal. The Premier argued that the guarantees of the League of Nations were sufficient to guard against the annexation of Italian territory, and his criticism of Italian domination of the railway they had referred to by holding it "a commercial and not a strategic railway," and adding that "under President Wilson's proposal it is commanded by Italian guns."

refrained from putting its provisions into effect. For nearly eight months discussion of the Adriatic problem has proceeded on the assumption that a better basis for understanding could be found than those provided by the treaty of London. Italy already has accepted, the President said, the settlements which would be upset if the treaty were to be applied now. Bringing in the treaty of London as an obligatory alternative, the President's note said, "came as a surprise," because the American government regarded the agreement of December 9 as superseding it. The course to fall back on the treaty of London, it said, "was followed without any attempt to seek the views of this government."

In conclusion, the President replies to the British and French reference to the inclusion of Germans in (Czechoslovakia and Ruthenia in Poland, sayings: "Italian Line of Reasoning."
"This is a line of reasoning which the Italian representative have advanced during the course of the negotiations, but which the British and French have hitherto found themselves unable to accept. There were cases where for sufficient geographical and economic reasons, slight deflections were sanctioned by the conference and the American government believes that under the course of the negotiations, but which the British and French have hitherto found themselves unable to accept. There were cases where for sufficient geographical and economic reasons, slight deflections were sanctioned by the conference and the American government believes that under the course of the negotiations, but which the British and French have hitherto found themselves unable to accept."

BAPTISTS EQUIP CHAPEL CARS TO CARRY GOSPEL
Will Furnish Every Railroad Operating Out of Chicago With Church on Wheels.
CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Chapel cars equipped with living quarters for a minister and his family and with seating accommodations for ninety persons will be built for every railroad according to an announcement today by the Northern Baptist Church. Seven such cars already are operating across the continent, the announcement said, and 19,000 men and women have professed conversion in them and 8,427 were baptized.

Famous Archeologist Dies.
PARIS, Feb. 26.—Announcement is made of the death of Marcel Auguste Dieulafoy, a widely known explorer and archeologist. He was born in Toulouse in 1841, and became famous by uncovering the Palace of Darius and Artaxerxes in Persia in 1886.

AFTER "FLU," GRIP
Fever and Other Prostrating Diseases That Exhaust the Blood.
There is often that extreme tired feeling, loss of appetite, tendency to anemia, nerve exhaustion, inactive bowels, constipation and great danger of still further prostration and serious illness.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S ADOPTED SON DIES OF ACIDOSIS
House Adopts Resolution of Sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Marshall.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Morrison Marshall, the young adopted son of Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall, died here early today after a short illness. He was suffering from acidosis. The child was three years old and had been a member of the Vice-President's family since June, 1917. He never was legally adopted. It was stated today that he was found ten months old, from a diet kitchen where his mother, who was employed as a chambermaid, left him in care, as her duties occupied her both by day and night.

Break On Wage Negotiations.
ATLANTA, Feb. 26.—Wage negotiations between the Georgia Railway and Power Company and its union employees were broken off today and representatives of the men said a strike probably would be called as soon as the men meet, which will be tomorrow night. Negotiations for a new contract have been in progress since the war-time agreement expired, January 1, and with the men withdrawing their demand for a "closed shop," settlement was reached on all points at issue except wages.

Such excellent values are offered, in practically every department, for this week's Friday shopper, that we find it impossible to select any one item for last-minute emphasis.
We recommend to women interested in economy a general tour of our store today. From a sale in Hair Ribbons to "Specials" in Rugs and Curtains at the Annex, from Wash Goods in the Basement to Children's Gingham Dresses on the Third Floor, there are items that will undoubtedly interest YOU.

Whitlock's Millinery
Friday and Saturday Specials
$5, $3.50, $7.50
500 New Models Fresh From New York. Emphatically the best values of the year in Millinery.

Whitlock's
315 East Broad Street.

Banks Hold the World Together
Every important country there is a native commercial bank which serves as a point of contact with world business.
These great international commercial banks have the same standards of financial ethics; they observe the same code of rules, and work together intelligently to coordinate national business customs into an international process for the safe and orderly conduct of world commerce.

The National Bank of Commerce in New York is an associate of the leaders among these international commercial banks, and through them offers to its friends comprehensive aid in matters relating to foreign trade.

National Bank of Commerce in New York
Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits Over Fifty Million Dollars

den's family since June, 1917. He never was legally adopted. It was stated today that he was found ten months old, from a diet kitchen where his mother, who was employed as a chambermaid, left him in care, as her duties occupied her both by day and night.

Break On Wage Negotiations.
ATLANTA, Feb. 26.—Wage negotiations between the Georgia Railway and Power Company and its union employees were broken off today and representatives of the men said a strike probably would be called as soon as the men meet, which will be tomorrow night. Negotiations for a new contract have been in progress since the war-time agreement expired, January 1, and with the men withdrawing their demand for a "closed shop," settlement was reached on all points at issue except wages.

Such excellent values are offered, in practically every department, for this week's Friday shopper, that we find it impossible to select any one item for last-minute emphasis.
We recommend to women interested in economy a general tour of our store today. From a sale in Hair Ribbons to "Specials" in Rugs and Curtains at the Annex, from Wash Goods in the Basement to Children's Gingham Dresses on the Third Floor, there are items that will undoubtedly interest YOU.

Whitlock's Millinery
Friday and Saturday Specials
$5, $3.50, $7.50
500 New Models Fresh From New York. Emphatically the best values of the year in Millinery.

Whitlock's
315 East Broad Street.

Banks Hold the World Together
Every important country there is a native commercial bank which serves as a point of contact with world business.
These great international commercial banks have the same standards of financial ethics; they observe the same code of rules, and work together intelligently to coordinate national business customs into an international process for the safe and orderly conduct of world commerce.

The National Bank of Commerce in New York is an associate of the leaders among these international commercial banks, and through them offers to its friends comprehensive aid in matters relating to foreign trade.

National Bank of Commerce in New York
Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits Over Fifty Million Dollars

Whitlock's Millinery
Friday and Saturday Specials
$5, $3.50, $7.50
500 New Models Fresh From New York. Emphatically the best values of the year in Millinery.

Whitlock's
315 East Broad Street.

Banks Hold the World Together
Every important country there is a native commercial bank which serves as a point of contact with world business.
These great international commercial banks have the same standards of financial ethics; they observe the same code of rules, and work together intelligently to coordinate national business customs into an international process for the safe and orderly conduct of world commerce.

The National Bank of Commerce in New York is an associate of the leaders among these international commercial banks, and through them offers to its friends comprehensive aid in matters relating to foreign trade.

den's family since June, 1917. He never was legally adopted. It was stated today that he was found ten months old, from a diet kitchen where his mother, who was employed as a chambermaid, left him in care, as her duties occupied her both by day and night.

Break On Wage Negotiations.
ATLANTA, Feb. 26.—Wage negotiations between the Georgia Railway and Power Company and its union employees were broken off today and representatives of the men said a strike probably would be called as soon as the men meet, which will be tomorrow night. Negotiations for a new contract have been in progress since the war-time agreement expired, January 1, and with the men withdrawing their demand for a "closed shop," settlement was reached on all points at issue except wages.

Such excellent values are offered, in practically every department, for this week's Friday shopper, that we find it impossible to select any one item for last-minute emphasis.
We recommend to women interested in economy a general tour of our store today. From a sale in Hair Ribbons to "Specials" in Rugs and Curtains at the Annex, from Wash Goods in the Basement to Children's Gingham Dresses on the Third Floor, there are items that will undoubtedly interest YOU.

Whitlock's Millinery
Friday and Saturday Specials
$5, $3.50, $7.50
500 New Models Fresh From New York. Emphatically the best values of the year in Millinery.

Whitlock's
315 East Broad Street.

Banks Hold the World Together
Every important country there is a native commercial bank which serves as a point of contact with world business.
These great international commercial banks have the same standards of financial ethics; they observe the same code of rules, and work together intelligently to coordinate national business customs into an international process for the safe and orderly conduct of world commerce.

The National Bank of Commerce in New York is an associate of the leaders among these international commercial banks, and through them offers to its friends comprehensive aid in matters relating to foreign trade.

National Bank of Commerce in New York
Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits Over Fifty Million Dollars

Whitlock's Millinery
Friday and Saturday Specials
$5, $3.50, $7.50
500 New Models Fresh From New York. Emphatically the best values of the year in Millinery.

Whitlock's
315 East Broad Street.

Banks Hold the World Together
Every important country there is a native commercial bank which serves as a point of contact with world business.
These great international commercial banks have the same standards of financial ethics; they observe the same code of rules, and work together intelligently to coordinate national business customs into an international process for the safe and orderly conduct of world commerce.

The National Bank of Commerce in New York is an associate of the leaders among these international commercial banks, and through them offers to its friends comprehensive aid in matters relating to foreign trade.

den's family since June, 1917. He never was legally adopted. It was stated today that he was found ten months old, from a diet kitchen where his mother, who was employed as a chambermaid, left him in care, as her duties occupied her both by day and night.

Break On Wage Negotiations.
ATLANTA, Feb. 26.—Wage negotiations between the Georgia Railway and Power Company and its union employees were broken off today and representatives of the men said a strike probably would be called as soon as the men meet, which will be tomorrow night. Negotiations for a new contract have been in progress since the war-time agreement expired, January 1, and with the men withdrawing their demand for a "closed shop," settlement was reached on all points at issue except wages.

Such excellent values are offered, in practically every department, for this week's Friday shopper, that we find it impossible to select any one item for last-minute emphasis.
We recommend to women interested in economy a general tour of our store today. From a sale in Hair Ribbons to "Specials" in Rugs and Curtains at the Annex, from Wash Goods in the Basement to Children's Gingham Dresses on the Third Floor, there are items that will undoubtedly interest YOU.

Whitlock's Millinery
Friday and Saturday Specials
$5, $3.50, $7.50
500 New Models Fresh From New York. Emphatically the best values of the year in Millinery.

Whitlock's
315 East Broad Street.

Banks Hold the World Together
Every important country there is a native commercial bank which serves as a point of contact with world business.
These great international commercial banks have the same standards of financial ethics; they observe the same code of rules, and work together intelligently to coordinate national business customs into an international process for the safe and orderly conduct of world commerce.

The National Bank of Commerce in New York is an associate of the leaders among these international commercial banks, and through them offers to its friends comprehensive aid in matters relating to foreign trade.

National Bank of Commerce in New York
Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits Over Fifty Million Dollars

Whitlock's Millinery
Friday and Saturday Specials
$5, $3.50, $7.50
500 New Models Fresh From New York. Emphatically the best values of the year in Millinery.

Whitlock's
315 East Broad Street.

Banks Hold the World Together
Every important country there is a native commercial bank which serves as a point of contact with world business.
These great international commercial banks have the same standards of financial ethics; they observe the same code of rules, and work together intelligently to coordinate national business customs into an international process for the safe and orderly conduct of world commerce.

The National Bank of Commerce in New York is an associate of the leaders among these international commercial banks, and through them offers to its friends comprehensive aid in matters relating to foreign trade.

den's family since June, 1917. He never was legally adopted. It was stated today that he was found ten months old, from a diet kitchen where his mother, who was employed as a chambermaid, left him in care, as her duties occupied her both by day and night.

Break On Wage Negotiations.
ATLANTA, Feb. 26.—Wage negotiations between the Georgia Railway and Power Company and its union employees were broken off today and representatives of the men said a strike probably would be called as soon as the men meet, which will be tomorrow night. Negotiations for a new contract have been in progress since the war-time agreement expired, January 1, and with the men withdrawing their demand for a "closed shop," settlement was reached on all points at issue except wages.

Such excellent values are offered, in practically every department, for this week's Friday shopper, that we find it impossible to select any one item for last-minute emphasis.
We recommend to women interested in economy a general tour of our store today. From a sale in Hair Ribbons to "Specials" in Rugs and Curtains at the Annex, from Wash Goods in the Basement to Children's Gingham Dresses on the Third Floor, there are items that will undoubtedly interest YOU.

Whitlock's Millinery
Friday and Saturday Specials
$5, $3.50, $7.50
500 New Models Fresh From New York. Emphatically the best values of the year in Millinery.

Whitlock's
315 East Broad Street.

Banks Hold the World Together
Every important country there is a native commercial bank which serves as a point of contact with world business.
These great international commercial banks have the same standards of financial ethics; they observe the same code of rules, and work together intelligently to coordinate national business customs into an international process for the safe and orderly conduct of world commerce.

The National Bank of Commerce in New York is an associate of the leaders among these international commercial banks, and through them offers to its friends comprehensive aid in matters relating to foreign trade.

National Bank of Commerce in New York
Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits Over Fifty Million Dollars

Whitlock's Millinery
Friday and Saturday Specials
$5, $3.50, $7.50
500 New Models Fresh From New York. Emphatically the best values of the year in Millinery.

Whitlock's
315 East Broad Street.

Banks Hold the World Together
Every important country there is a native commercial bank which serves as a point of contact with world business.
These great international commercial banks have the same standards of financial ethics; they observe the same code of rules, and work together intelligently to coordinate national business customs into an international process for the safe and orderly conduct of world commerce.

The National Bank of Commerce in New York is an associate of the leaders among these international commercial banks, and through them offers to its friends comprehensive aid in matters relating to foreign trade.

Thalhimer Brothers
BROAD AT FIFTH.
"Friday" in Everything
Such excellent values are offered, in practically every department, for this week's Friday shopper, that we find it impossible to select any one item for last-minute emphasis.
We recommend to women interested in economy a general tour of our store today. From a sale in Hair Ribbons to "Specials" in Rugs and Curtains at the Annex, from Wash Goods in the Basement to Children's Gingham Dresses on the Third Floor, there are items that will undoubtedly interest YOU.

Buy an American The Balanced Six
Over Four Hundred Newspapers throughout the United States agree that it is impossible to distinguish Edison's re-creation of the human voice from the original.
The NEW EDISON "The Phonograph With a Soul"
THE C. B. Haynes Co., Inc. 10 and 21 W. Broad Street.

It's a Good Idea
To buy a new piece of Furniture every now and then, and thus keep the home looking new and fresh and up to date.
Few families can expect to furnish the home anew very often, but any one can keep it looking well furnished by replacing the much worn or out-of-date articles one at a time.
Why not take an inventory of your home furnishings, and lay your plans this year for the replacing of those things which have lost their usefulness?
Keep your home looking new, fresh and up to date.
Sydnor & Hundley
Furniture Carpets Draperies

...in the proposed Fiume settlement, which would not be acceptable to the government of the United States.

...Lloyd George and Clemenceau replying under date of January 17, disclaimed any intention of making a definite settlement without the views of the United States, but had taken it up at the point at which it was left when Under Secretary Poincaré returned to Washington.

...The British and French Premier argued that the disappearance of the free state of Fiume would permit 2,000,000 Jugo-Slavs with their Patriotic and that the Adriatic settlement was such as to afford satisfaction "to the necessary requirements to all parties concerned."

...President Wilson's reply of February 11 said he could not believe that any Italian government could have already had received the well-merited condemnation of the French and British governments concerning the settlement of December 9, can in any sense be regarded as "right."

...President Wilson's note said that whereas the agreement of December 9, 1918, had been a "great advantage" conferred on Jugo-Slavia at the time, in their discussions they had found, he said, that "nobody desired the continuation of the free state of Fiume," and that "the net result of the agreement was to give Jugo-Slavia 100,000 more Jugo-Slavs than the original proposal."

...President Wilson's note said that whereas the agreement of December 9, 1918, had been a "great advantage" conferred on Jugo-Slavia at the time, in their discussions they had found, he said, that "nobody desired the continuation of the free state of Fiume," and that "the net result of the agreement was to give Jugo-Slavia 100,000 more Jugo-Slavs than the original proposal."

...President Wilson's note said that whereas the agreement of December 9, 1918, had been a "great advantage" conferred on Jugo-Slavia at the time, in their discussions they had found, he said, that "nobody desired the continuation of the free state of Fiume," and that "the net result of the agreement was to give Jugo-Slavia 100,000 more Jugo-Slavs than the original proposal."

...President Wilson's note said that whereas the agreement of December 9, 1918, had been a "great advantage" conferred on Jugo-Slavia at the time, in their discussions they had found, he said, that "nobody desired the continuation of the free state of Fiume," and that "the net result of the agreement was to give Jugo-Slavia 100,000 more Jugo-Slavs than the original proposal."

...President Wilson's note said that whereas the agreement of December 9, 1918, had been a "great advantage" conferred on Jugo-Slavia at the time, in their discussions they had found, he said, that "nobody desired the continuation of the free state of Fiume," and that "the net result of the agreement was to give Jugo-Slavia 100,000 more Jugo-Slavs than the original proposal."

...President Wilson's note said that whereas the agreement of December 9, 1918, had been a "great advantage" conferred on Jugo-Slavia at the time, in their discussions they had found, he said, that "nobody desired the continuation of the free state of Fiume," and that "the net result of the agreement was to give Jugo-Slavia 100,000 more Jugo-Slavs than the original proposal."

...President Wilson's note said that whereas the agreement of December 9, 1918, had been a "great advantage" conferred on Jugo-Slavia at the time, in their discussions they had found, he said, that "nobody desired the continuation of the free state of Fiume," and that "the net result of the agreement was to give Jugo-Slavia 100,000 more Jugo-Slavs than the original proposal."

...President Wilson's note said that whereas the agreement of December 9, 1918, had been a "great advantage" conferred on Jugo-Slavia at the time, in their discussions they had found, he said, that "nobody desired the continuation of the free state of Fiume," and that "the net result of the agreement was to give Jugo-Slavia 100,000 more Jugo-Slavs than the original proposal."

Make Less Housework!
What's the use of cooking when you can have POST TOASTIES
—says Bobby