

"Blue Monday."—The public wash house. A picturesque scene along the banks of the Adyar River, near Madras, India, where the native women gather to do their weekly wash.

King of Swat.—"Babe" Ruth (left), and "Home Run" Baker, present and past "home run kings," who are expected to bat the Yankees into the 1921 World's Series.

King of Sprinters.—Charles Paddock, University of Southern California sprinter, broke the world's record for 220 yards in a meet at Berkeley, Calif., Saturday, March 26th. Paddock broke the tape in 0.20 4/5s., which is two-fifths of a second faster than the old mark. The photo shows Paddock in a stirring finish.

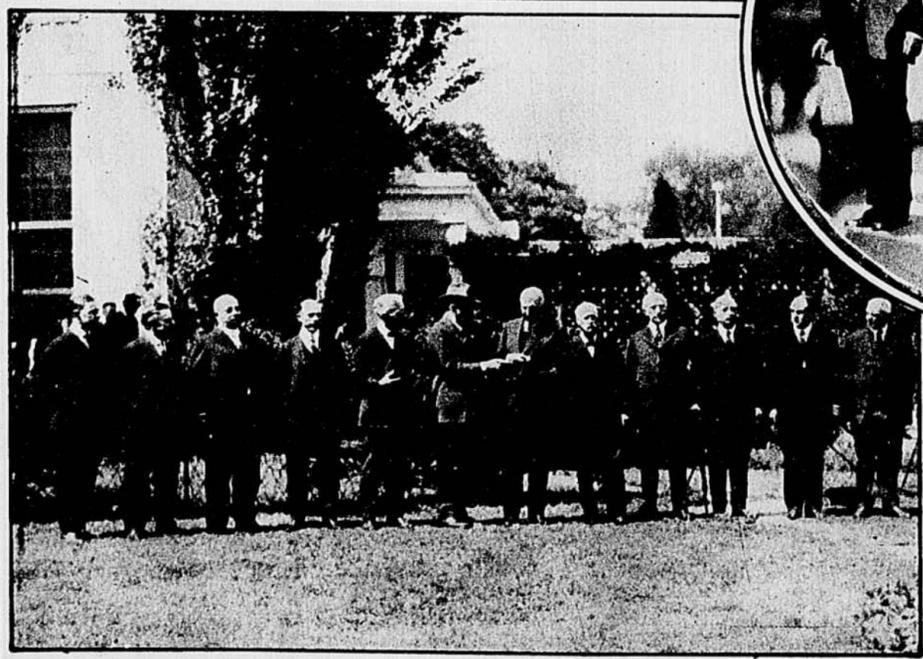

Prince Clearing the Hurdle.—H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, clearing the last hurdle in the recent Inter-Regimental Chase of the Brigade Guards at Astwell Mill.

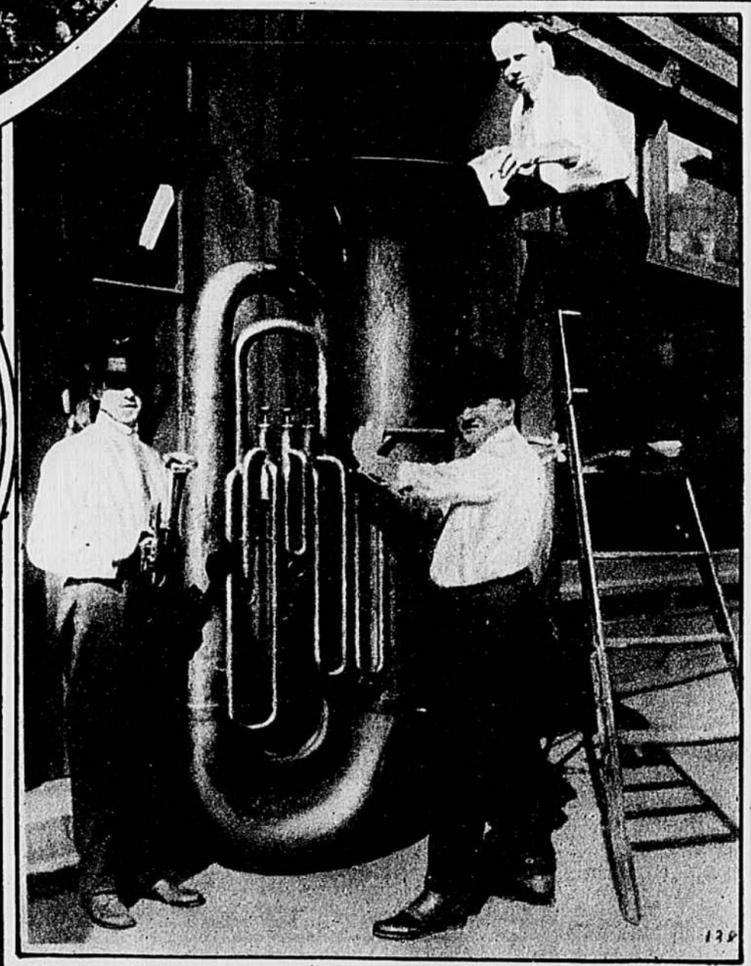

Touring the World.—Crown Prince Hirohito of Japan, photographed in Tokio just before his departure for a tour of the world aboard a Japanese ship. The heir to the throne of Nippon will arrive in Europe shortly, and it is possible that he will visit the United States.

President Entertains Famous Beauty.—One of the recent callers at the White House was Lillian Russell. She was the guest at an informal luncheon given by the Chief Executive and the First Lady of the Land.

Knights of Pythias at White House.—A delegation of knights called on President Harding recently with the historic Bible used by Justus H. Rathbone in 1864, when he founded Washington Lodge No. 1.

Something to Blow About.—Here is a man's size horn for you. It was made by the Carl Fischer Company of New York, for exhibition purposes, and is the largest in the world.