

SUTHERLAND TAKES OATH AS JUSTICE

Chief Justice Taft Administers Judicial Obligation to Utah Jurist.

LARGE CROWD PRESENT Members of Court Greeted by President at the White House.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The Supreme Court reconvened today after the summer recess for the October term, and after including into office former senator George Sutherland, of Utah, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Associate Justice John H. Clarke, of Ohio, and admitting to practice thirty-five attorneys, adjourned to call at the White House for the usual visit of respect to the President.

When the court, headed by Chief Justice Taft, entered at noon the old Senate chamber in the Capitol, where the sessions of the court have been held for years, the chamber was crowded, while a long line of attorneys sought admittance to the corridor seeking admittance.

Justice Sutherland, in his robes, remained behind the screen at the rear of the bench, while the chief justice explained that a vacancy had occurred during the recess, and that the judicial oath would be administered to the new justice. Stepping to the platform beside the chief justice, Justice Sutherland impressively repeated the obligation, enunciating the duties after the chief justice distinctly and with emphasis. The chief justice then formally welcomed the newcomer to the bench, and he was conducted to his seat at the end to the left of the chief justice, where he was again welcomed, this time by Justice McReynolds, who occupied the next seat.

Justice Pitney was the only absentee, being confined to a sanitarium near his home in Marlinton, West Virginia. His colleagues upon the bench are apprehensive over his condition, which is serious, according to reports reaching here.

At the White House, the members of the court were ushered into the blue room, where formed in a horseshoe line they were joined by the President, who formally greeted each and then, in a running aside cordially engaged in a running conversation, in which several of the court members joined.

The court tomorrow will enter upon its task of hearing motions and arguments. The cases set for hearing during the day are those brought by William W. Knights to challenge the constitutionality of the Massachusetts income tax law, and five brought by the Consul-General of Portugal, arising out of bills for repairs and supplies furnished for vessels which, he contends, should have been settled through negotiations instead of courts. In the Massachusetts case the lower courts upheld the validity of the tax, while the State and lower courts held that Portugal had waived its sovereign immunity, and that they had jurisdiction.

The Council for Illinois and the Chicago Drainage District tomorrow will ask the court to leave to file an answer to the application of the State of Wisconsin for an injunction restraining the diversion of water from Lake Michigan in the Chicago River in such quantity as would continue present conditions, which Wisconsin claims amounts to interference with navigation.

VIRGINIA BISHOP CALLS ON AMERICA FOR NEW CRUSADE
(Continued From First Page.)
The Greek forces, the incidents of the retreat, and the reprisals effected, not only have we done all that is possible for relief and in aid of the refugees, but we have exerted in an appropriate manner our influence against all acts of cruelty and oppression.

On September 8, before the burning of Smyrna, the American high commissioner at Constantinople, in violation of his country's feeling in earnestly impressing upon the Turkish Nationalist authorities the importance of taking steps to insure the population of the occupied territories against reprisals. Instructions have been sent to consular and press representatives and to consular agents to urge the immediate peaceful settlement in the interest of humanity. I have stated this government's unequivocal approval of the allied proposals to insure effectively the protection of the Christian minorities and the freedom of the straits. American officials have intervened to secure the proclamation of the refugees from Smyrna, and thousands have been evacuated as a result of American initiative.

Partially Evacuate Zone.
(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 2.—The Turks have evacuated Kara-Birha, and retired from the neutral zone at this point, says a dispatch to the Times today from Constantinople. On the other hand, the dispatch says, Turkish forces have appeared within the neutral zone at Bergas, eighteen miles northeast of Chanak, and at Kusur-Keul, twelve miles south.

Warships Sailed for War Zone.
MALTA, Oct. 2.—The British destroyer flotilla and a number of L class submarines, with the submarine depot ship Laeta, are leaving for Constantinople today.

STATE FAIR NIGHT CROWD BEST EVER
(Continued From First Page.)
Athletes Cap Climax.
For downright sensational athletic work, the Bellair Brothers today topped the climax. Two brave athletes who attempted things that have never been before attempted by athletes in Richmond, they had a perfect score for the evening and the "high spot" brought the crowd to their feet, when one of the brothers leaped hand-in-hand with the other, to be lifted perpendicularly in the air and as straight as an arrow.

The "Komical Katups" staged a travesty on "Bullfighting in Mexico" and, with well-trained dogs representing the "bulls" and the comedians the toreros, kept the audience in a good humor for fifteen minutes.

The "Spaving Ringers"—man and dog—closed the free show with a high diving performance that had the crowd breathless. The trial dive was from a height of 15 feet, and the diver was out of the tank of water in a few seconds after the plunge.

Almost as soon as the Ringers finished their act the fireworks began, and more spectacularly getting place was sent skyward. It included bonfires, skyrockets, Roman candles, whirligigs and set pieces that kept the crowd until the "Good Night" was set off.

The same program will be shown tonight, with "Dare-Devil" Wilson, the greatest act of its kind in existence. And the airplanes will also be in the air tonight with fire. Mabel Cody Flying Circus will be the big feature, with "Dare-Devil" McGowan and Miss Cody in the most sensational stunts.

MUDANIA MEETING TO DISCUSS PEACE PROPOSALS TODAY
(Continued From First Page.)
Greek outposts. These were being moved to withdraw, when reinforcements arrived and the Turks were thrown back across the boundary.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 2.—All in that part of the committee under the jurisdiction of the Constantinople government are being recruited for the Turkish army.

ISADORA DUNCAN ALLOWED TO LAND IN UNITED STATES

Dancer and Poet Husband, Zerge Yessenin, Released After Being Detained at Ellis Island for Twenty-Four Hours.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Isadora Duncan and her exuberant young poet husband, Zerge Yessenin, were permitted to land in the United States today after the Department of Justice had detained them twenty-four hours to learn whether the dancer who arrived from Moscow yesterday, was a courier for the Russian Soviet government.

Isadora was in a bad humor tonight, and she didn't reveal much happiness over being allowed by a board of inquiry at Ellis Island to enter the country.

"They held me because I came from Moscow," she said. "What did they ask me on they wanted to know if I was a classical dancer, executive has no authority to go beyond this, and there has been no action by Congress which would justify this government in an attempt by armed forces to pacify the Near East or to engage in acts of war in order to accomplish the results you desire with respect to which is inhabitants of that territory, and to determine the problems which have vexed Europe for generations."

A member of the committee investigating conditions in the Near East for American church and relief organizations.

CHARGE OFFICIALS TOOK LIQUOR SUPPLY FOR THEIR OWN USE
(Continued From First Page.)
between the date mentioned in the grand jury report.

The first intimation of such situation, Mr. Burns said, came to him when counsel for a defendant in a liquor case which had lapsed under the statute of limitations, filed claims for return of the several cases of whisky involved. Mr. Burns said he ordered that the property be returned at once, and then learned that it was no longer in the warehouse.

An inquiry was instituted and the result voluntarily submitted to the grand jury, according to Mr. Burns.

Several Hundred Cases Missing.
Attaches of the department estimated that "several hundred cases of assorted liquors were removed illegally from the department's custody since the warehouse was placed at upwards of $100,000 by D. T. Wright, counsel for Frank Bunch, one of the interested owners. Mr. Wright recently filed suit against Frank Barke, former chief of the Department of Justice's Bureau of Investigation; P. J. Ahearn and Henry P. Aldren, employees of the department, charging that they had unlawfully removed his clients' liquor from custody, and converted

TRAVELS 1,500 MILES TO TAKE HIS BRIDE
(By Associated Press.)
GREENVILLE, S. C., Oct. 2.—Having traveled 1,500 miles in a covered wagon and 200 miles by rail in order to arrive by the date set, George Albert Juber, 69 years old, farmer of Clinton, Iowa, was tonight married to Mrs. Alice Crawford Benson, of this city, after a correspondence courtship extending over a year.

The bridegroom left his Prairie schooner at Athens, Ga., because he could not reach Greenville by today in that conveyance. After the marriage, Juber announced he would go to the Georgia city to get his wagon and team, and return to Greenville to live.

PHILADELPHIA DETECTIVE THAT MRS. HALL ON SEPTEMBER 29 TOOK SOME GARMENTS TO BE CLEANED BY A DRY CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT, HE SAID, DID NOT SHOW THE EXACT NATURE OF THE WORK DONE ON THE CLOTHING.

In New York, representatives of the New Brunswick authorities received the co-operation of the district attorney's office in applying for a Supreme Court order permitting the removal of the Rev. Mr. Hall's body from its resting vault in Greenwood Cemetery for the purpose of a thorough autopsy. It is expected that the court order will be obtained tomorrow.

In addition to examining Miss Mills, Prosecutor Beckman today questioned Louis E. Gist, a maid in the Hall home. Sidney Carpenter, a first cousin of Mrs. Hall, who was at the courthouse today, but was told he had been called by mistake. At the same time it was said that a drawer containing letters had disappeared from a bureau in the Hall home, and that the prosecutor was trying to find out what had become of it.

Garlic Eaters Banned by the King of Spain
(By Universal Service.)
Special Wireless Dispatch.
PARIS, Oct. 2.—By royal edict King Alfonso, of Spain, has forbidden all persons coming in contact with him to eat garlic, says The Matin, which comments: "Veritably the King is at his wit's end to invent methods of oppression. If it is necessary, as a protest against another of these acts of royal tyranny, hundreds of garlic eaters will rally to the cause of democracy."

According to Mr. Wright, a private inquiry made after the liquor was taken from the local warehouse. He declared these reports were available for presentation to the grand jury, but was unable to say whether they had been presented.

Private Detective Busy.
According to Mr. Wright, the private detective was placed on the case when repeated efforts to obtain return of seized liquor in certain closed cases were unsuccessful. The activity of this operative soon became known to high officials of the department, he said, and these lent their active co-operation.

The liquor stocks covered in the grand jury report were those taken during the operation of the 1904 honesty amendment which prohibited sale of alcoholic beverages within the District during the early months of the war and during the period when purchases in adjacent territory were still permissible. The Department of Justice was made the enforcing agency and, while individuals were permitted to bring reasonable quantities into the District for their own use, agents of the department exercised supervision over the stream which immediately began to flow through the local station and along each of the roads entering Washington.

It is a matter of record, according to attorneys who were interested in the legal phases of the situation, that few convictions resulted from the seizures of incoming stocks. In many cases, however, the defendants failed to apply for a return of their property after a case was settled and the stocks in storage grew to proportions which, at present-day prices, would have represented a large fortune.

Dry Officers Indicted.
Indictments were returned by the District of Columbia grand jury today against Max Halperin, an attorney, and Melville Sternfels, both of New York, and William E. J. Hayden and Ivan P. Pennyworth, employees in the office of the chief prohibition agents. They are charged with conspiring to remove from government files, books, records and other documents relating to renewal permits of various distillers and wholesale druggists.

The two New York men are under a bail of $25,000 each following their arrest last August at a prominent club on Sixteenth Street here, where they had engaged a room and where they were employed to have been sent by the employees in the prohibition agent's office with certain papers from the files of the office relating to distillery permits. The men were surprised by prohibition officers and taken into custody. Personal bonds were accepted for the two clerks.

The indictment relates that the files obtained pertained to the re-

Garlic Eaters Banned by the King of Spain

(By Universal Service.)
Special Wireless Dispatch.
PARIS, Oct. 2.—By royal edict King Alfonso, of Spain, has forbidden all persons coming in contact with him to eat garlic, says The Matin, which comments: "Veritably the King is at his wit's end to invent methods of oppression. If it is necessary, as a protest against another of these acts of royal tyranny, hundreds of garlic eaters will rally to the cause of democracy."

According to Mr. Wright, a private inquiry made after the liquor was taken from the local warehouse. He declared these reports were available for presentation to the grand jury, but was unable to say whether they had been presented.

Private Detective Busy.
According to Mr. Wright, the private detective was placed on the case when repeated efforts to obtain return of seized liquor in certain closed cases were unsuccessful. The activity of this operative soon became known to high officials of the department, he said, and these lent their active co-operation.

The liquor stocks covered in the grand jury report were those taken during the operation of the 1904 honesty amendment which prohibited sale of alcoholic beverages within the District during the early months of the war and during the period when purchases in adjacent territory were still permissible. The Department of Justice was made the enforcing agency and, while individuals were permitted to bring reasonable quantities into the District for their own use, agents of the department exercised supervision over the stream which immediately began to flow through the local station and along each of the roads entering Washington.

It is a matter of record, according to attorneys who were interested in the legal phases of the situation, that few convictions resulted from the seizures of incoming stocks. In many cases, however, the defendants failed to apply for a return of their property after a case was settled and the stocks in storage grew to proportions which, at present-day prices, would have represented a large fortune.

Dry Officers Indicted.
Indictments were returned by the District of Columbia grand jury today against Max Halperin, an attorney, and Melville Sternfels, both of New York, and William E. J. Hayden and Ivan P. Pennyworth, employees in the office of the chief prohibition agents. They are charged with conspiring to remove from government files, books, records and other documents relating to renewal permits of various distillers and wholesale druggists.

The two New York men are under a bail of $25,000 each following their arrest last August at a prominent club on Sixteenth Street here, where they had engaged a room and where they were employed to have been sent by the employees in the prohibition agent's office with certain papers from the files of the office relating to distillery permits. The men were surprised by prohibition officers and taken into custody. Personal bonds were accepted for the two clerks.

The indictment relates that the files obtained pertained to the re-

NEW YORK
HOTEL ASTOR
Where you breathe the sparkling atmosphere of that New York where have come to enjoy — Where you are but a step from the playhouses and shops you have come to visit — Where you find in your rooms the comfort and rest of your own home.

To have stayed at the ASTOR is to have lived in New York
A rare combination of comfort and economy $3.50 a day and upward
FREDK A. MUSCHENHEIM

NEW YORK
HOTEL RICHMOND
Where Food and Service Reign—Southern Style Cooking Our Specialty
VISIT OUR WINTER GARDEN Ninth Floor.

RICHMOND CAFETERIA
Eighth and Franklin Streets.
It Is the FOOD That Counts!

The Y. W. C. A. Cafeteria
FIRST AND BEST.
Fifth Street Near Main.
Breakfast, 7:15-9. Lunch, 11:30-2:45. Supper, 5:30-7:30.

Mills' Pharmacy
915 East Main Street.
LUNCHEONETTE
Business Men's Lunch, 35c
Large Club Sandwich, 25c
Chicken Salad Sandwich, 15c
Successor to W. R. Staples

Hanover Apartment Cafe
Cor. Andrus and Franklin Sts.
Opposite Jefferson Hotel.
Old Virginia Cooking. Individual Service. Special rates to parties. We do satisfy.

GOOD YEAR
For Sale by Winn Auto Supply Co.
1209 West Broad Street,
240 North Ninth Street,
North End Chamberlayne Avenue.

BUMPER CROPS
Although 1922 has presented our farmers with more real bumper crops than for several years, it will still take the best of management in the marketing of these crops to make the year a profitable one. Every farmer can get some good suggestions out of our R. F. D. Letter, which issues on the first day of each month.

Visit Our Booth and Rest Room—Main Building, Virginia State Fair.

American National Bank
Richmond, Virginia.

prices, would have represented a large fortune.

The liquor stocks covered in the grand jury report were those taken during the operation of the 1904 honesty amendment which prohibited sale of alcoholic beverages within the District during the early months of the war and during the period when purchases in adjacent territory were still permissible. The Department of Justice was made the enforcing agency and, while individuals were permitted to bring reasonable quantities into the District for their own use, agents of the department exercised supervision over the stream which immediately began to flow through the local station and along each of the roads entering Washington.

It is a matter of record, according to attorneys who were interested in the legal phases of the situation, that few convictions resulted from the seizures of incoming stocks. In many cases, however, the defendants failed to apply for a return of their property after a case was settled and the stocks in storage grew to proportions which, at present-day prices, would have represented a large fortune.

Dry Officers Indicted.
Indictments were returned by the District of Columbia grand jury today against Max Halperin, an attorney, and Melville Sternfels, both of New York, and William E. J. Hayden and Ivan P. Pennyworth, employees in the office of the chief prohibition agents. They are charged with conspiring to remove from government files, books, records and other documents relating to renewal permits of various distillers and wholesale druggists.

The two New York men are under a bail of $25,000 each following their arrest last August at a prominent club on Sixteenth Street here, where they had engaged a room and where they were employed to have been sent by the employees in the prohibition agent's office with certain papers from the files of the office relating to distillery permits. The men were surprised by prohibition officers and taken into custody. Personal bonds were accepted for the two clerks.

The indictment relates that the files obtained pertained to the re-

NEW YORK
HOTEL ASTOR
Where you breathe the sparkling atmosphere of that New York where have come to enjoy — Where you are but a step from the playhouses and shops you have come to visit — Where you find in your rooms the comfort and rest of your own home.

To have stayed at the ASTOR is to have lived in New York
A rare combination of comfort and economy $3.50 a day and upward
FREDK A. MUSCHENHEIM

NEW YORK
HOTEL RICHMOND
Where Food and Service Reign—Southern Style Cooking Our Specialty
VISIT OUR WINTER GARDEN Ninth Floor.

RICHMOND CAFETERIA
Eighth and Franklin Streets.
It Is the FOOD That Counts!

The Y. W. C. A. Cafeteria
FIRST AND BEST.
Fifth Street Near Main.
Breakfast, 7:15-9. Lunch, 11:30-2:45. Supper, 5:30-7:30.

Mills' Pharmacy
915 East Main Street.
LUNCHEONETTE
Business Men's Lunch, 35c
Large Club Sandwich, 25c
Chicken Salad Sandwich, 15c
Successor to W. R. Staples

Hanover Apartment Cafe
Cor. Andrus and Franklin Sts.
Opposite Jefferson Hotel.
Old Virginia Cooking. Individual Service. Special rates to parties. We do satisfy.

GOOD YEAR
For Sale by Winn Auto Supply Co.
1209 West Broad Street,
240 North Ninth Street,
North End Chamberlayne Avenue.

BUMPER CROPS
Although 1922 has presented our farmers with more real bumper crops than for several years, it will still take the best of management in the marketing of these crops to make the year a profitable one. Every farmer can get some good suggestions out of our R. F. D. Letter, which issues on the first day of each month.

Visit Our Booth and Rest Room—Main Building, Virginia State Fair.

American National Bank
Richmond, Virginia.

newswall of permits of the Bureau Drug Company and the Stewart Distillers sought to have taken from the files the records of the Lee Drug Company, Greenwald Brothers, Rogers Distillery, K and M Chemical Company, Salsator & Co., and the Golden Gate Fruit Company.

A better salt, "Jack Frost" Ask your grocer for it.—Adv.

Ask for Horlick's THE ORIGINAL Malted Milk Safe Milk For Infants, Invalids & Children
The Original Food-Drink for All Ages. Quick Lunch Home, Office & Fountain. Rich Milk, Malted Grain Extract in Powder & Tablet forms. Nourishing, No cooking. Avoid Imitations and Substitutes

Armstrong's Linoleum

for Every Floor in the House

Beautiful Floors make more beautiful rooms

If you are building or remodeling your home, give thought to the decorative value of linoleum floors.

Write for our booklet, "Decorative Linoleum Floors." It contains twenty-four color-plates showing patterns of Armstrong's Linoleum in inlaid parquetry designs, carpet in-lays, Jaspés (two-tone), and marble tile in-lays. You can take this book to a store and show the merchant exactly what you want to see.

Modern linoleum makes a real floor. When the best quality of linoleum is properly laid, it makes a permanent floor with these advantages:

- Linoleum floors are the easiest of all floors to keep clean. They are quiet to the tread, warm to the touch, and can be kept looking new by occasional waxing and polishing. Grease and dirt do not rub into linoleum. With your rugs here and there, you have a floor that never needs refinishing and that is sure to be admired.
- Any good furniture or department store will gladly give you estimates on the cost of Armstrong's Linoleum put down in your home.

Armstrong's Linoleum Rugs

For people who live in apartments or who have houses on short leases and consequently do not wish to install permanent linoleum floors, Armstrong's Linoleum is also made in the form of bordered rugs. Thirty attractive patterns in four sizes from 6 x 9 feet to 9 x 12 feet.

How to Lay Linoleum on Wood Floors

In summer the moisture in the air causes wood floors to expand. In winter they dry out and contract with the cracks between the boards. Your linoleum floor, therefore, should be cemented (not tacked) over a lining of builder's deadening felt which has been previously glued to the bare floor boards. The felt takes up expansion and contraction and gives you a permanent, waterproof, good-looking floor. The added service and wear this method gives are well worth the extra cost.

ARMSTRONG CORK COMPANY, LINOLEUM DIVISION
Lancaster, Pennsylvania
Atlanta Office—1228 Candler Building
Look for the CIRCLE "A" trademark on the burlap back

COMPLETE STOCK OF Armstrong Linoleum and Druggatts Southern Furniture Co. Inc.
2 East Broad Street.

Delightful New Designs in Bracelet Watches

Wedding and Engagement Rings in Many New Designs.

WATKINS & YARBROUGH Jewelers
200 E. Broad