The First Real Estate Agent in Richmond
 —WAS—
WELLINGTON GODDIN

who commenced business in the year 1837. By special action of the City Council, he was granted the First Real Estate Auctioneer's License in 1845.

Succeeded by his son, the late JOHN T. GODDIN, who in turn was succeeded by his sons, members of the present firm, this business has been in continuous operation for more than eighty years, enjoying the patronage and esteem of the public for three generations.

With methods of proven stability and integrity, coupled with modern ideas of business, the present firm is better than ever equipped to serve your needs.

If you wish to buy or sell, rent, mortgage or lend money on real estate, we will be glad to serve you.

Let us know your requirements.

APPRECIATING THE LIBERAL PATRONAGE OF OUR FRIENDS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC DURING THE PAST HALF CENTURY, WE WISH YOU, ONE AND ALL

A Happy and Prosperous New Year
 AND BEG TO ANNOUNCE, ON ACCOUNT OF POST-OFFICE IMPROVEMENTS, WE HAVE MOVED TO

618 EAST MAIN STREET

adjoining Richmond Bank and Trust Company building, next to corner Seventh and Main Streets, where we will be pleased to see our friends and customers until we BUY OR BUILD A PERMANENT HOME. Our change of location will in no wise alter the CONSERVATIVE policy, or lessen the quality of service we have given our friends and clients for the past FIFTY YEARS, a continuance of which we gratefully pledge to all who will allow us the privilege and pleasure of serving them in the future.
 Faithfully yours

J. Thompson Brown & Co.

Our Best Wishes
 For a Happy and Prosperous New Year.
