CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE

fudge Hanna Will Explain the Doctrine at the Salt Lake Theater This Evening.

Judge Septimus J. Hanna, one of the nost eminent advocates of Christian Scince in the country, will deliver a free ddress on the subject of his faith in the falt Lake Theater at 8 o'clock this evenng. Judge Hanna is a member of the oard of lectureship of the mother church. ie has been interested in Christian Sci-nce about seventeen years and began his ditor-in-chief of the Christian Science ournal and Sentinel for nine years, and ournal and Sentinel for nine years, and t the same time was first reader in the nother church at Boston. This work rought him in close touch with Mary saker Eddy, the founder of Christian Scince, and has thoroughly equipped him as lecturer on the subject.

Judge Hanna was admitted to the bar a Chicago about twenty-five years ago, shortly afterward he went to Colorado or his health and practiced law in that tate until he became interested in Christan Science. For about fourteen years he Judge has devoted his entire time to he cause which he believes helps men nto better physical, moral and spiritual onditions. In speaking of this cause he ecently said:

"Wrong ideas concerning the principles f Christian Science are in the minds of great many, but I think I can say in ill truthfulness that the change of sentisent is in our favor. I am not bossting then I say that in every community there Christian Science has been estabshed our adherents embrace many of the
