ATHER "GIM" and his Elders took another from the Miners yesterday afternoon and Salt Lake moved up one peg in the percentage column. Mighty Jamesy" Wiggs was the rubher artist for the local and the big fellow behaved right well. He was rapped ten times, but kept the taps pretty well scattered. His control was good and only one man received transportation to "Bandy" Bandelin dethe initial sack livered the shoots and twists for the ertherners, but he was more freely tatted. Thirteen safe ones are charged against him, besides two errors. Miners Rally in the Ninth,

The feature of the game was the vain effort of the Miners to bat out a victory in the final inning. Two runs were needed to the the score and two Butte runner were on the cushlons. Bandelin swatted ex a single, scoring Ward, and only ext a single, scoring Ward, and only one tally was needed to cause an extra hanns. Two men were gone and "Cy" Yashinder held the willow. The big pitcher leaned against a fast one with veggance in his actions and sent a ground-burner down toward Clark at first. Cark was there and made the put-out unas-isted, retiring the side and winning the rame.

How It Occurred.

How It Occurred.

The Saints won the game in the seventh lang, when three hits and an error by Vasbinder at first admitted two tallies. Muller was first up and dropped one safely over shortstop's head. Vasbinder let a throw from Handelin go through his hands and Muller strolled down to second. Hannivan pinched a single, advancing Muller to third. He himself stole second a moment later.

Fred Weed was next and after a few preliminary swings drove the sphore deep hoteleft field. Muller and Hannivan both scored and Weed was safe at second lefter the ball was returned. The next three up perished in order.

Two more tallies were chalked up in the fifth, when two doubles, a sacrifice and an error occurred. Wiggs opened up with one to the left garden, good for two lacks. Muller followed with another of the same kind and Wiggs came home, liannivan went to second and Muller nonged across the pan on Bandelin's error. This closed the performance for a while.

Two next double plays were pulled off

rwe heat double plays were pulled off yesterday and both were made in the same fashion. In the first inning Brujette fielded a fast one, tagged Runkle out at second and threw to Clark at first in time to beat Laily. In the third inning Runkle did the honors, nabbling Wiggs at second and firing the ball to best in time to head off Muller.

Swindells's Hand Broken.

Catcher Swindells suffered a broken hand in the aixth inning and was compelled to retire. "Utility" Spencer went tehind the bat. Shaffer went from first to third and Vasbinder went from right new to first. Quick occupied the right safer.

field to first. Quick occupied the right farden.

Ed Bruvette was the victim of one of "Sunny Jim" Shaffer's cruel jokes in the tighth. Bruyette went to third on a caught fly, but only beat the throw by a hair. "Sunny Jim" secreted the ball and told the pitcher to go ahead. Bruttle thoughtlessly stepped off the bag. Tag, you're it, laughed Shaffer, as he touched the Sait Lake stortstop and Bruyette went to the bench, while the bleachter roared with merriment.

With two out in the third, Flannery made a wild throw to first and two more tailies resulted. Wright caught the wild-throw fever in the fifth, giving life to Ferris, who scored. Wright pitched superb ball. Dammann was steady and the fruit-pickers were unable to place hits on him. Umpire Ward was notorlously partial, robbing the locals of two runs in the sixth on rank decisions. The Indians fought hard for today's game, the winning of which puts them in first place.

CAN FRANCISCO, June 19.-The Jeffries-Munroe match has been postponed to the last week in August. Manager Coffroth of the Yosemite club and Harry Pollock, manager for Munroe, were today at Harbin Springs, Jeffries's training place, and had an interview with the champion. Jeffries declared his ability and willingness to meet the Montana miner on June 30, but Coffroth, after consulting with the surgeon in attend-ance, decided that it would be the wiser course to allow the big puglist more time to recover from his injury. Manager Pollock was agreeable to the long postponement, provided that he had some assurance that the match would be carried out. He stipulated that Jeffries should post $5000 by next Monday night, guaranteeing his ap-pearance in the ring late in August. Jeffries agreed to post the forfeit would be carried out. He stipulated

In a game teeming with sensational plays the County Tossers defeated the city Twirlers in six innings at Caider's park yesterday afternoon by a score of it to 10. At the end of the second inning the city team had seven runs piled up against a goose-egg for the county players. In the fourth inning the fireworks started and the county boys not only shut out Manager Johnson's nine, but brought in two men and added eight more tailles in the fifth. In that inning Leaker knocked a home run for the Twirlers, but Umpire Higson called it a foul. The run, however, was fair and was counted, which, with two more by the city in the first haif of the sixth, made the score even at 10 to 10.

The city fell down after the second inning, when Joe MacKnight, third baseman for the Tossers, appeared on the field and trotested against the rooting of George Maycock for the city aggregation. George quit, but it was only because his voice gave out, but, sorry to say, the team went up in the air when he quit coaching official Score-Keeper George Canning got mixed with his book and got in an extra inning that was not played. His book, however, was official, as were the decisions of the umpire, and there was no appeal. The game, however, was but aix innings. There were about 250 people present at the game. HIGH BALL WINS THE DERBI

American Event There Was No Betting.

Champion Will Deposit $5000 Mon- English Lad, the Favorite, Came in Fourth-Time Was 2:33

> HICAGO, June 18.-Without feeling the touch of whip or spur, and running entirely on his own courage, High Ball, the three-year-old colt which W. M. Scheftel brought to Chicago from the East, won the American derby at Washington Park today. L. B. Dickerson's Woodson, one half a length in front of John A. Drake's Rapid Water. English Lad, favorite before the race, was fourth, hopelessly beaten, although he was coming strong at the end. The time, 2:33, equals the best time ever made for this event. The Picket won last year's derby in exactly the same time. W. M. Scheftel, owner of the winner, is a Wall street broker, and this is the first year he has figured prominently

Was Without Bookmakers.

Was Without Bookmakers.

For the first time in the history of the American derby the betting ring today was without bookmakers. There was some betting, of course, but it was without the knowledge of the 200 policemen scattered over the grounds in command of Assistant Chief of Police Schuettler. There were policemen everywhere—in the stand, in the paddock, in the betting ring, on the lawn, and in the field. Private detectives made up the rest of the army of $30 that were at the track to enforce the law and prevent betting. None, however, was necessary, as there was practically no attempt to violate the law. Any bets that were made were handled secrety. It was a pencil mark on the cuff or a scrawl on a programme. Usually the betting was transacted by signais. This system, however, went only for the big betters. As for the man of limited means, there was no chance for him today, and as a result he saved his money.

Great Crowd Present.

Great Crowd Present.

The absence of betting did not detract from the race itself, nor from the crowd. Spectators, perhaps, were less numerous than last year, when it was estimated that 69,000 persons passed through the gates. Today about 10,000 or 15,000 less saw the race. It was, however, the same riot of color on the lawns, clubhouse steps and in the infield. Tallybox, drags and other splendid turnouts were there in force, and the cheering was just as lusty at the finish.

Rode Magnificent Race.

Rode Magnificent Race.

The victory of the Eastern colt was popular, despite the many backers who had planed their faith in the winter books on English Lad, Moharib and Bill Curtis. Fuller, who had the mount on the winner, rode a magnificent race. High Ball was well within himself all the way and when challenged in the stretch had plenty to fall back upon.

Out of the 139 original nominations for the race sixteen faced the barrier today, Rainiand and Proofreader, two of last night's entries, were scratched, and Mayor David S. Rose and Copper Copperfield were scratched.

Eleven Minutes at Barrier.

Once in the starter's hands, Volney and High Ball kept the man with the flag busy, and the field was held at the barrier cleven minutes. With the tape finally released, Proceeds shot to the front and remained there for a quarter of the journey. The start was good, but ill tack beel some of the horses before half a furlong had been traversed. English Lad got in a pocket and was compelled to pull up. In doing so the favorite fell to his knees, only to recover his stride and to be bumped again. In this jam Bill Curtis was badly cut down, and his owner after the race said that he might never race ngain. Fort Hunter the Canadian coit, was blamed for the interference. This colt had a hard Journey also, getting into a pocket, then working free and leading for a short time. Those quick changes zettled any chance he might have had to win the race.

English Lad, after getting off sixth, soon fell back to thirteenth place, and remained there for more than two furlongs. Dominick gradually worked the favorite through the field in front of him, only to find himself cut off again. Moharib, next to English Lad, the most heavily-backed horse in the race, was less interfered with. In the single matches the officers hardly had a look in, but nevertheless the contests were interesting and productive of a number of phenomenal plays which brought forth liberal applause from the ladies and tennis lovers scated on the side

H. S Roberts defeated Lieut. Perker in the first single match by a score of 6 to 1. Roberts has a swift delivery, which is hard to return safely, if at all, and it was this style of playing which puzzled his opponent. Lieut.
