MARRIES GIRL AND THIS SETTLES ABDUCTION CASE

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, July 23.-The finale to the Christensen abduction case came today, when C. M. Brown and Miss Gladys Christensen were married in the office of Sheriff Balley by Judge Howell, Brown was arrested in St. Louis, accused of abducting the Christensen girl and taking her to the World's Fair city. He was brought back by Sheriff Rigby of Cache county and lodged in the Weber county jail, to be held to answer to the charge of abduction.

Brown today petitioned cupid Hollings-worth for a permit to make the girl his wife and this settled the case.

Elljah Farr was today appointed ad-ministrator of the estate of Mrs. East-man in the matter of the estate of Wil-liam Rose, deceased. The appointment is for the purpose of bringing suit to adjudicate the estate.

As announced in The Tribune some months ago the union depot at Ogden is to be materially enlarged. Another story is to be added and an addition put on the

The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schwartz died suddenly last evening of convulsions. The funeral will be held from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Hancock, 2340 Jefferson avenue, at 3 o clock p. m. temorrow.

The preliminary hearing of Due, Anderson and Austin for the Glenwood park tragedy, was again postponed until tomorrow.

A man named Johnson reported to the police that his room in the Bennet block had been entered by burglars and $10 in cash and a few other valuables stolen.

The funeral of Peder Otteson will take place Sunday afternoon from the Swedish Lutheran church.

A coroner's inquest will be held over Peder Otterson, who was killed in the railroad yards Wednesday morning. The jury is composed of H. A. Shupe, William Raymond and M. J. West. The investi-gation may take place tomorrow.

Glenwood park is arranging for a grand celebration of Pioneer day.

Business will be generally suspended Monday in honor of Pioneer day.

Nanhe Tout will leave London on July 28, accompanied by her father, E. F. Tout, for a visit to her home in Ogden, she will stay in Utah but a short time, but the people of Sait Lake and Ogden will have a chance to hear her sing. The town is full of railroad men out of a job today, as fourteen crews have been laid off on the Sait Lake division of the the Southern Pacific, as well as a large number of men along the cut-off. The recent strike of the meat-cutters has had much to do with the discharge of the men, as it has practically stopped the shipment of cattle.

AMERICAN FORK GRANTS 100-YEAR FRANCHISE

Special to The Tribune. AMERICAN FORK, July 23 .- Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Driggs of Pleasant Grove have announced the wedding of their daughter, Maud, to Bernard Christensen of this place during the early part of September. Mr. Christensen is one of American Fork's most popular young men. The waterworks here have been shut fown for two days owing to a breakdown in the pumping plant. The break is expected to be repaired for work tonight.

The Council, in connection with some of the citizens of American Fork, met to consider the granting of an electric railway franchise, and decided by a manimous vote to instruct the City Council to grant the Same. The length of time desired is 100 years, the promoters claiming that unless they could secure a franchise for that length of time and without any compensation, they would not be able to consider the building of a line from Logan to Payson.

consider the building of a line trong to Payson.

Those present representing the railway interests were B. Mahler of Cleveland, O. and S. R. Thurman of Provo. They said that citizens could invest in the enterprise from $1000 to $10,000 if they so chose. It is expected that the road will cost in the neighborhood of $3,000,000.

RAID AND FINES FOR OBJECTIONABLE CLASS

Special to The Tribune.

PARK CITY, July 22.-The Marshall and officers this morning raided the tenderlion district and made a round-up of all the male inmates of the houses there. It has been a policy of Marshal McDonough ever since he has been in to drive this objectionable class of citizens out of town, and with a few more arrests and fines to pay, such as Judge Lockhart imposed this morning, the move will be entirely successful.

Sheriff Mair returned today from his chase after the man who had stolen James Berry's horse. After tracking the man to Salt Lake the trail was lost completely and the criminal was not
