GAVE UP THE STONES.

Mrs. Ryckman Surrenders Diamonds and Is Adjudged in Contempt.

Judge Stewart administered a severe scoring yesterday to Attorneys Sawyer and Ryckman, who represent Mrs. Gertrude Ryckman in the case of Gleech s. Ryckman. They, it is alleged advised their client not to comply with the order of the court to appear and produce the diamonds which Margarita Gleech seeks to recover from Mrs. Ryckman. His honor made an order directing both attorneys to appear in court on Saturday and show cause why they should not be committed for conhe court yesterday on a bench warran issued by Judge Stewart on Saturday, and had to explain why she had not obeyed the court. She said that her attorneys had advised her that they had some more papers to file before the diamonds were produced, and that she should not show them until they had done so. When the bench warrant was issued on Saturday the defendant placed the jewels in Sheriff Emery's hands, so Attorney Wanless, representing the plaintiff, suggested that the contempt proceedings against Mrs. Ryckman be continued indefinitely. But his honor decided that they must be continued until Saturday, when the attorneys would have a chance to explain the advice to their client.

Mr. Sawyer said last evening: "I air. Sawyer said last evening: I have had nothing to do with the case. It was Ryckman's case. He was in Wyoming when the order to appear in court was returnable. I had notified him of it. I advised Mrs. Ryckman to protect him, but to turn over the proportive when the court in the case. erty when the proper time came. When that time came, I advised her to turn over the property at once. She did so, and was then notified by the deputy sheriff that it would be advisable to appear in court this morning. She so ap-peared without process, and unrepre-sented by attorney. In endeayoring to explain her side of the matter she mentioned my name, and that is the way I was dragged into the affair."

SALTLAKEWILL SUPPLY CEMENT

Company Gets Big Contract.

Wins Out in Competition With Three Other Large Firms.

Will Supply 14,000 Barrels of Cement for the Government Work on Minidoka Dam.

Contracts were signed yesterday by the Portland Cement company of this city by which it is to furnish to the Government, for construction work on the Minidoka irrigation project in Idaho, 14,000 barrels of cement at $2.95 a barrel, the total amount of money to be paid being $41,300.

This great order was secured by the Utah company in competition with three other of the foremost cement concerns of the West, the bids of the others having been as follows: Portland Cement company, Denver, $3.26 a barrel, or $45,640; Kansas Portland Cement company, $3.37 a barrel, or $47,180; Allas Portland Cement company, $3.71 a barrel, or $51,980.

The extent of the contract may be better realized when it is known that to transport the amount of cement called for nearly 200 cars would be required, as the cars are ordinarily loaded.

An indication of the increased ac-tivity in building and kindred indus-tries in Salt Lake City and her territory is the fact that the business of the Portland Cement company of Utah has more than doubled in the last year. The company yesterday closed the contract for fifteen carloads of cement for the new Overland hotel to be built Acting President McDonald Returns After Resting for a Week.

J G. McDonald, acting president of the Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing society, returned yesterday from Colorado Springs, where he had been for a week's rest before entering upon the active duties of preparing for the coming State fair, which it is promised, is to be much the biggest and best ever

"We have more and cleaner attractions than ever before," said Mr. McDonald, and with the excellent crops of the season the strictly agricultural exhibits are going to exceed anything we have ever had in that line. We have cut out all fakes and fakirs and will have only first-class attractions, and there will be plenty of them. Arrangements have already been made for many of these and we will be able in a few days to announce nearly the complete list. The diving horses, which disappointed us last year by their non-appearance, are already here, and the tanks for use in carrying out their performance are being built. Then we have closed the contract with a carrival company which presents free attractions which are clean and really meritorious, with no snake-swallowing or mud-eating sideshows."

WILL CONSIDER COAL PRICE

But the Commercial Club Feels Kindly Toward the Retail Dealers.

"The question of the advance of the price of coal in the city will probably be brought to the attention of the board of governors of the Commercial club at their next meeting," said Secretary Fisher Harris last night, "but I am not prepared to say that anything will or can be done. I am informed that the late be done. I am informed that the late raise was made by the retailers, that the price at the mines and the cost of transportation is the same as before. I am further informed that the retailers assert that the reason the advance was made was because they have been selling coal without profit. If this is true the situation is quite different from that of last winter, when the price was advanced by the producers. It might be a difficult matter to induce dealers to sell a conimodity at a less figure than will yield them a reasonable profit, and I cannot say that an attempt will be made to do so."

man Womans' Club of Buffalo, N. Y., after doctoring for two years, was finally cured of her kidney trouble by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Of all the diseases known with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless prompt and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Mrs. Pinkham, early in her career, gave careful study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—made sure that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was certain to control that dreaded disease, woman's kidney troubles. The Vegetable Compound acts in harmony with the laws that govern the entire female system, and while there are many so called remedies for kidney troubles. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women. for women.

Read What Mrs. Weisslitz Says.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—For two years my life was simply a burden, I suffered so with female troubles, and pains across my back and loins. The doctor told me that I had kidney troubles and prescribed for me. For three months I took his medicines, but grew steadily worse. My husband then advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and brought home a bottle. It is the greatest blessing ever brought to our home. Within three months I was a changed woman. My pain had disappeared, my complexion became clear, my eyes bright, and my entire system in good shape."—Mrs. PAULA WEISSLITZ, 176 Seneca St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Proof that Kidney Trouble can be Cared by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I feel very thankful to you for the good your medicine has done me. I had doctored for years and was steadily growing worse. I had trouble with my kidneys, and two doctors told me I had Bright's disease; also had falling of the womb, and could not walk a block at a time. My back and head ached all the time, and I was so nervous I could not sleep; had hysteria and fainting spells, was tired all the time, had such a pain in my left side that I could hardly stand at times without putting my foot on something.

"I doctored with several good doctors, but they did not help me any.

I took, in all, twelve bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, five boxes of Liver Pills, and used three packages of Sanative Wash, and feel like a new woman, can eat and sleep well, do all my own work, and can walk two miles without feeling over tired. The doctors tell me that my kidneys are all right now. I am so happy to be well, and I feel that I owe it all to your medicine."—Mrs. OPAL STRONG,

Pressing to Death

Pressing to Death.

By the statues of Illinois it is provided that when a person is arraigned in court to answer to an indictment if he refuses to plead the court shall order that a plea of not guilty be entered for him. If the court proceeds to try the case without a plea, such omission is good ground for setting aside a verdiet of guilty for the reason that without a plea of not guilty there is no issue presented to the lury to try. John F. Gotting, in the eleventh American criminal reports, points out that under the old English law if a prisoner stood mute and falled to plead to the indictment a jury was impanied to determine whether his conduct came from obstinacy or from a natural impediment. According to Blackstone if the prisoner was found to be obstinately mute and the indictment was for high treason it was settled that his silence was equivalent to a conviction and that judgment and execution should follow. This same rule applied to petit larceny and misderneanors but upon appeals or indictments for other felonies, or petit treason, according to the ancient law the prisoner was not deemed convicted, but, because of his obstinacy, he received "the terrible sentence of penance or peine." and was pressed to death. Blackstone thus describes this punishment: "That the prisoner he remanded to the prison from whence he came and put in a low, dark chamber, and there be laid on his back on the bure floor naked, unless decency forbids; that there be placed upon his body as great a weight of iron as he could bear and more; that he should have no suatenance, save only on the first day three morsels of the worst bread, and on the second day three drafts of standing water that should he nearest the prison door, and in this situation this should be alternately his daily diet till he died, or us anciently the judgment ran) till he answered.

During the trials for witchcraft in New England a respectable citizen being so accused, knowing that by reason of the excitement of the times a plea of not guilty and trial would result in a conviction with confiscation of property, and the same judgment would follow a plea of guilty, refused to plead, thereby preventing a conviction and enabling his family to retain his property. The court ordered that he be pressed because of his obstinacy. The order was carried out and the victim died.—Chicago News.
