

SILEN VOTERS MAY SAVE UTAH

Ten Thousand Mormons
With New Party.

Not Saying Anything, but Working While Fishes

Realize That Smoot Has Been a Drag
to Progress and Oppose Church
Rule in Politics.

While many of the Smootier element imagine that the American party is not taking hold with its principles upon politics in Utah, because of the easy manner in which Apostle Smoot has executed church influence to accomplish his designs, the coming election may prove a revelation to them, such as they have not had since the palmy days of the prophets, seers and revelators of the Mormon church.

The foregoing paragraph is based upon an interview with one of the most prominent workers and business men in Salt Lake City. This man's name is withheld for obvious reasons, but what he says upon the present situation of politics in Utah may be made public for the benefit of all who have the welfare of the State of Utah at heart.

Returned From the East.

This well-known Mormon has just recently returned from a trip throughout the East, during which he made an extended visit to the World's fair and a fortnight's stay at Chicago. He reached home the day before the mass meeting held by the American party at the Grand theater, and in discussing the evidences of church influence that were so conspicuously illustrated in the church Republican convention of Thursday and Friday, he said:

"I am a native born citizen of Utah. My wife and myself are members in good standing of the Mormon church. My father and mother were Mormons. All my relatives and nearly all my friends are Mormons. I believe in the Mormon religion, but we have come to the conclusion that there is no reason why the Mormon church should attempt to rule in politics or in business affairs, and while we are not making a display of our sentiment upon this subject, we expect to go to the polls next November and let the silent white ballot tell the story of our rebellion against ecclesiastical control in politics.

Reasons for Silence.

"You may ask, believing as I do, why I do not come out and openly express my sentiments, and in answer to that I say that I know too well the influence of the Mormon church, not only in religion, but in politics and in all other affairs of life where it attempts to exert influence. I have seen the effects of resistance as exemplified in the case of Moses Thatcher, who not only stood as well in the church as I do, but was a member of the apostolic quorum. When a man like Thatcher was killed and excommunicated for no offense whatever, those of us who care for our standing in the church, while we object to the sacrifice of our political principles at the behest of church bosses, we hesitate to bring down upon ourselves and our families the vengeance which the Lord sends in mine, but which is exercised by the apostles of the Mormon church with no mercy and without justice.

"The younger generation of Mormons are un- and doing. Their eyes are wide open and their ears are pinned back. They can see, as well as any Gentile, the disastrous effect of church influence upon the commercial and industrial prosperity of Utah. They have been abroad and see how other communities have prospered, and they have come home and easily place the blame where it belongs. They have seen certain men high in the councils of the church grow eminent out of their religion, while all that rest of us get is the divine right to pay our tithing.

Uniting for Liberty.

"We are getting tired of this and we have resolved to do what we can to achieve independence for the people of Utah. Ever since this American party movement began we have quietly communicated with each other without the aid, consent or knowledge of the bishops of our various and several wards, and we have determined to join in the movement for the prosperity of Utah, for ourselves and for our families. I believe that there will be 10,000 Mormons in this State who will join in this new movement so far as voting is concerned, but who are keener than most as to causes which are animating them.

"We believe that this fight on the part of the church to control the politics of the State has been a detriment to us in a business way, and has placed us in a humiliating attitude before the people of this country. When Smoot was not only permitted but urged by the first presidency of the Mormon church to become a Senator from Utah, the day for denials of church interference in politics was useless.

Smoot as the Proof.

"Smoot's election and his every act since has furnished a positive proof of what the church can do and will do, if permitted by the better element of Mormonism. In the first place Smoot is not a representative of either the ability or sincerity of the Mormon faith. He is merely a tool of those who are using him for their own financial benefit. The Mormons as a body are willing and anxious to obey the laws of the State and the United States, but they have been placed at the mercy of the Smoots and Smiths, who represent the worst features of the old religion, which should be and must be relegated to the rear.

"The people of the State must unite for the benefit of Utah, regardless of differences in religious and political opinions, and the only way they can do it is at the ballot box by voting ticket under the emblem of the National party. If people only knew, a majority of the Mormon church are against Smoot and church domination, and they are at war with a misguided and apostate to enter politics. They realize that the time has come to redeem the State in the eyes of the world.

Looked Upon as Curiousities.

"It has come to such a pass that men of Utah traveling in other States are constantly looked upon as some strange sort of a creature, because of the actions of these very men who are the cause of their own financial loss and the expense of the Mormon church and the Mormon people. There is no cause of quarrel between Mormons and Gentiles. All intelligent citizens ought to be united on the proposition to send only good men of irreproachable reputation to represent us in the State House and in the halls of Congress. I have realized this quite to plainly as I have on my recent trip East, when I suffered the indignity of being pointed out as if I were some uncouth being, and heard children remark within my presence to their parents: 'Why, is he a Mormon?' He does not look any different from what we do."

Then I come back home mortified and indignant over the prejudice and misrepresentation that Red Smoot has provoked and the leaders of my church have urged and permitted. It has reached a point where I and other good Mormons are ashamed to admit that we are Mormons, away from home, and when we have determined, now that we are at home, to use all our powers to aid the American party in removing this stigma from our State and from our families."

ANTI-PARKER LEAGUE.

One Has Just Been Organized in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—The Anti-Parker Democratic National league, with the object of enlisting every Democrat opposed to the Democratic Presidential nominee, has just been organized in Chicago. It was announced that the league will have branches in every county in the Northern States and in a good many of those in the South.

The officers of the league are: President, A. W. Maxwell, former chairman of the Iowa Democratic State committee.

Vice-president, Thomas E. Haskins, former chairman of the Illinois State Democratic committee.

Secretary, George P. Locke, former chairman of the Kansas State executive committee.

Treasurer, Michael D. Callahan of the Chicago and Western Indiana railroad.

The objects of the league, as outlined by Mr. Locke, are as follows: "To get in touch with every Democrat who is opposed to the election of Parker. To work against the undercurrent element that controlled the St. Louis convention. To reorganize the Democratic party, so that it will be in a position to elect a Democratic candidate when one of Democratic principles is nominated four years hence."

It was said that the names of 10,000 disaffected Democrats already had been secured.

VANDERBILT A QUITTER.

Refuses to Accept Republican Nomination for Congress.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Cornelius Vanderbilt has notified the Republican leaders of New York county that he will not accept the offer of the Republican nomination in the Thirtieth Congressional district. He was urged last week to accept the nomination by representatives of the local leaders.

The present Representative from that district is Francis Burton Harrison, who was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor by the Democratic convention just held at Saratoga.

WEDS DIVORCED WIFE.

Arnold Daly and Mary Blyth Have Become Reconciled.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—An interesting event in the theatrical world is the reconciliation and remarriage of Arnold Daly, the star in "Candida," and Mary Blyth, as his wife is known on the stage. Daly and his wife were divorced about two years ago. Mrs. Daly was awarded the custody of their little daughter, and she went to live with her relatives. The couple remained friends after their legal separation and Daly was allowed by the court to visit the daughter at stated intervals.

Mrs. Daly was a member of Nat Goodwin's company last season, and at the end of the tour she went to California for the summer, taking the child along. She went to Santa Monica in May and was there when Daly made the trip across the continent to San Francisco last month. It is said by Daly's friends that his desire to win his wife back had much to do with his going to California. While in San Francisco Daly met his wife and effected a reconciliation. They were remarried and when the "Candida" company returned to New York she came along. Their friends are rejoicing.

Mary Blyth is a Southern and a tall and strikingly handsome woman of the brunette type. Now that she and Daly have been reunited, it is believed that she will permanently retire from the stage.

ADVOCATES PECUL AR STRIKE

Woman Urges Women to Refuse to Cook for Husbands.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Sept. 24.—Mrs. Charles W. Foulks of this city, principal speaker at the Twenty-first annual convention of the Lawrence County Christian Temperance union, has advocated a strike among the married women if their husbands refuse to give them the right of suffrage, so the women can vote down the liquor traffic. She said: "If the men do not recognize our right to political suffrage the women should retaliate by refusing to cook for the men. In this manner the men will soon be brought to their senses and will recognize a woman's power."

GOING TO NEW YORK.

Child Runs Away to See Her Uncle in Great City.

UTICA, N. Y., Sept. 24.—"Mr. Hogan of New York." With this address on her mind thirteen-year-old Mary Ryan of Painesville, O., ran away from home yesterday with $30 that her mother had given her to pay a bill, boarded a train and started out to find an uncle she had never seen. She knew that his name was Hogan and that he lived in New York.

Mary had read her uncle's letter about the wonders of the metropolis and her mother had promised to take her to New York. When Mary was five years old she had been to New York, and she decided that now was the proper time to make the journey. She bought a new traveling hat, because she heard that women didn't travel in white ones like her. Then she started East.

When a big policeman entered the train here, in accordance with a telegram from Mary's father, and asked her if she wouldn't get out, she said: "I can't. I'm going to New York to see my uncle, Mr. Hogan. I don't know where he lives, but I'll ask a policeman. They must know him, for he has lived here a long while. I know I won't get lost. I go out in Painesville alone often."

Mary's father, a trainman on the Baltimore & Ohio, will come here and take her back.

DOG PLAYS DETECT V.

Finds a Horse Stolen From His Master.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Reinhardt Deuchen of Paterson, N. Y., is indebted to a St. Bernard dog for finding a horse that was stolen last July, and the man who received the stolen animal is in the Passaic county jail. It is customary for Deuchen's son to go to market every Tuesday morning, and he is always accompanied by the dog. While passing a vegetable wagon on Main street yesterday morning young Deuchen noticed the dog stop near the horse attached to it. He tried to coax the animal away, but it refused to obey.

Deuchen went home, told his father, and when father and son returned they found the faithful dog sitting in front of the horse. Mr. Deuchen at once recognized the horse as his own, and after questioning Marshall Corn, the farmer in charge of the horse, took him to police headquarters. Corn told the police he bought the horse a few weeks ago. He was unable to furnish $500 bail.

OLLIE MACK IN TROUBLE.

Wife of Actor Charges Him With Violation of Marriage Vows.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Catherine Trumbull, an actress, known on the stage as Kitty Beck, applied to the Supreme court today for $100 a week alimony and $1000 counsel fees, pending a suit for absolute divorce against Ollie Mack, the actor, of the firm of Murray & Mack. In his answer to the complaint it is alleged that the defendant has violated his marriage vows "in almost every State and city in the United States, almost continuously."

Myrtle Loving of San Francisco is named as one of the many co-respondents. In his answer Mack denies every charge made by his wife and makes the counter charge of intemperance, alleging specifically that she drank ginger ale highballs. He also says his wife is earning $75 weekly as an actress and owns a house and lot in Astor Park. The court allowed the counsel for Mrs. Trumbull to examine the papers and submit a reply and will announce its decision later.

CONGRESS OF SCIENTISTS.

Scientific World Is Enlightened Through the Discussions.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 24.—The sectional meetings of the International Congress of Arts and Sciences concluded today and the congress will adjourn tomorrow after holding two sessions pertaining to religious discussions at the World's fair grounds. The work as performed by the congress means that the scientific world has been enlightened through the deliberations and discussions to a far greater extent than ever before accomplished.

Stands for "Some people don't like us." It's a fact, and there's no use beating around the bush about it. We Collect Bad Debts from Dead Beats. There may come a time when we will be awarded a prize at the State fair for the best exhibit of Bad Debts Collected; if so you want to come and see the exhibit. We will guarantee an exhibit that will interest the most languid and cause smiles of approbation to ripple over faces that haven't rippled for years. Here's a sample of a few we collected last week:

WE COLLECTED	WE COLLECTED
$125.00	$64.00
In gold last week for William Ray & Mack. It was an old worn and battered note, had to be pinned to itself.	Last week for W. J. Robinson of Greenville. It was an old debt fourteen years of age. Had two suits in court over this, and won both.
WE COLLECTED	WE COLLECTED
$35.00	$75.00
Last week for Mrs. Anna Liddy, for room and board from a skip out R. R. man.	Last week for Jacob Aurea from a man in Oklahoma. The man was his friend years ago and Aurea loaned him the money.
WE COLLECTED	WE COLLECTED
$29.95	$115.00
Last week for Castleton Bros., for a grocery bill seventeen years old. The man that paid it says he'll hire us when he has a hard case to fight and wants to win it.	Last week for The Murray Mercantile Co. from a man who went into bankruptcy. We had two fights in court over this, but we won in both courts.

Does anybody owe you? Do you want the money? If so write or call on us. If we did not know we could collect your bills we would not be spending $500 this year for advertising. This ad will bring us Bad Debts to collect. We will collect them and make commissions thereon. Don't think your bills are too bad—but send them in.
