HOOTED THE TEACHERS.

School Children in Chicago Go on a Strike. CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Fifty boy pickets stationed about the McAllister public school here prevented pupils from entering today. None of the pickets is more than 15 years old.

Outside the picket cordon a crowd of 700 boys and girls hooted and yelled at the teachers looking from school windows. Every infant striker wore a badge to show that he or she belonged to a "union." Some of the badges were merely scraps of paper with the word "Union" scrawled across it. Others wore buttons which their fathers had worn. Many of the strikers carried clubs. They threatened violence against any child daring to enter the school yard.

The picketing was the result of a "strike" which was caused by a mistaken belief of the children that an assistant kindergarten teacher was colored. After a detail of six policemen had been sent to the school to preserve order, the "striking" was "settled." A committee appointed by the youthful "strikers" learned that the rumor of a colored teacher having been employed in the school was false. About 80 per cent of the strikers went back to their classes. Trust officers began a search for the absentees.

SIX ROUNDS TO DRAW.

This the Result in McGovern-Murphy Fight.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—The Hughey McGovern-Murphy fight here tonight resulted in a six-round draw. There was only one knock-down during the entire contest, and that was at the beginning of the first round, when Tommy Murphy went down from a right swing to the head. He was up again in a moment, however, and returned the blow with another, which opened a cut over McGovern's eye. Murphy was the aggressor at the start, but McGovern did not seek to avoid him at any time and the exchange of blows was rapid and severe all the time the men were on their feet. At the end of the bout both showed signs of weariness and distress, but neither had at any time secured a decided advantage.

Yale Freshmen Winners. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 28.—The annual wrestling match between sophomores and freshmen of Yale was held tonight on the campus. For the first time in ten years the freshman class was victorious in a majority of the wrestling matches. They won the light weight and middleweight bouts, the sophomores securing the heavyweight bout.

ATTACHED TO RUSSIANS. Capt. Boyd, Tenth U. S. Cavalry, Will Witness Battles. LONDON, Sept. 28.—The Daily Telegraph's Simlinitin correspondent, under date of September 28, says that Capt. Boyd, an American officer on leave, is going to join the Russians from Simlinitin.

The officer alluded to in the London Daily Telegraph's dispatch is Capt. Charles T. Boyd of the Tenth Cavalry, assigned to duty at the University of Nevada, who has been for some time in the war zone with an old friend, Maj. Lewis L. Seaman of New York, a former volunteer officer. Capt. Boyd was formerly Major in the Eleventh Volunteer Cavalry.

WORK OF THE COSSACKS. Remarkable Performances by Gen. Rennenkamp's Forces. MUKDEN, Sept. 28.—The march of Gen. Rennenkamp's Cossacks around the Japanese right flank, which was mentioned in these dispatches on September 25, was a remarkable performance. Accompanied by a battery of artillery, the Cossacks covered eighty miles in fifty-two hours. They struck the enemy north of Ben-shan-tze on September 19 and thence continued south, circling the Japanese right flank and coming unexpectedly on the Japanese line of communications near Henshu on the bank of the Taiho river, September 22, inflicting much damage. The Japanese were thrown into great confusion, but the Cossacks retired with a loss of only two killed and a few wounded. Dr. Matvelev, who was captured by the Japanese at Liao Yang, says that the Japanese are suffering severely from dysentery, many of them having lost their assistance in combating the disease. Japanese officers of the staff are excellent linguists and many of them speak English and German as well as some Russian.

The Japanese army is living almost entirely on rice and preserved foods, but it is comfortably equipped, many officers having even arm chairs among their baggage. The principal Japanese fear is for forage for their horses, which during the winter the country is swept clean for seven miles on each side of the railway and the inhabitants are reluctant to sell anything.

OUTPOST SKIRMISHES. Russians and Japs Clash Along Entire Front. ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 28.—Movements at the front, so far as disclosed by the meager dispatches received here, are confined almost entirely to continuous outpost skirmishes, by means of which Gen. Kuropatkin is keeping in close touch with the Japanese along the whole of their front. Field Marshal Oyama's advance appears to be extremely deliberate. There are no indications as yet that he has begun to overlap Russian positions. The superiority of the Russian cavalry is beginning to be apparent. They have had the best of it in a number of minor encounters. It appears that Gen. Rennenkamp's movement to the southward on September 19 extended beyond the distance indicated by first reports. His Cossacks made a rapid sweep on September 22 and struck a Japanese force at Henshu, threatening their communications and causing much alarm. Reinforcements are arriving at Mukden and many convalescents are already returning to duty.

It is reported that Gen. Kuropatkin has made a requisition upon the authorities here for additional officers, to make up the heavy losses by killed and wounded in the battle of Liao Yang.

Winter Equipment for Japs. LONDON, Sept. 28.—The Daily Mail's Liao Yang correspondent, telegraphing September 23, says: "The winter equipment for the Japanese troops is completed. Fresh supplies of ammunition have arrived and the army is ready to march at a moment's notice. The personal treatment of foreign correspondents with the Japanese has been completely revolutionized."

QUIET AT MUKDEN.

Reinforcements for Russians Are Rapidly Arriving.

MUKDEN, Sept. 28.—Many alarmists and reconnaissance are reported to headquarters here, but except for these quiet still prevails. In the fighting that has been taking place the Russian scouts have almost invariably shown superiority to the Japanese, both in riding and fighting.

The Japanese movement up the Taiho river appears to be by a comparatively small force. Barring parties from the Russian army bring in many prisoners. Reinforcements are rapidly arriving. Over one thousand convalescents have returned to duty.

The railway is in good working condition. Officers are distributing the reserve of stores that were brought up from Liao Yang, as adequate supplies are now coming in from the north.

Details of the fighting near Inpa, between Ben-shan-tze and the railroad, on September 26, show that Gen. Mitchenko's scouts, accompanied by a battery of artillery, attacked a Japanese position, where they were a battery of artillery, two squadrons of cavalry and two companies of infantry. The Japanese were shelled out of their position on a hill and suffered heavy loss. As they retired under cover of darkness, having lost only three men. The Japanese are sending out large parties of scouts daily, with the object of checking the Russians' continuous raids.
