

WATER MIGHTY HOT FOR JONES

Infirmary Affairs Are in a Muddle.

Brother Penrose Is Asked
Many Questions Concerning Son-in-Law.

Padding of Payrolls, False Swearing, Shameless Discrimination Against Gentiles Not All of It.

Now that Apostle Penrose of the Deseret News has undertaken a defense of his son-in-law, W. R. Jones, Jr., who is superintendent of the county infirmary, the people of Salt Lake will be following the questions touching the management.

First—Did Superintendent Jones not pad the payrolls of the infirmary last month and make affidavit that he performed five days' service for $18.35, which he did not perform, and did he not certify to the correctness of the same amount of service for Reese Jones, James H. Hayford, S. J. R. Miller and Carrie Teiford, employees of the infirmary, who were paid in addition to a full month's salary?

Second—Did he not know that the claims were unlawful and that no service was rendered for the amounts?

Third—Did Commissioner W. W. Wilson not know when he approved the claims, that they were illegal?

Fourth—Is not the item covered in voucher No. 10,431, dated August 31, 1904, and filed and paid September 6, 1904, in favor of Superintendent W. R. Jones, Jr., for $18.35, which reads, "5 days' pay and $10 per month in place of ten days' vacation," a fraud?

Fifth—Are not vouchers 10,422, 10,435, 10,446 and 10,450, which Superintendent Jones certified as correct, not all frauds, and does the superintendent not certify that the claims cover labor that was not performed and could not possibly have been performed under the law?

Sixth—Will the News explain for Superintendent Jones if it is not true that last year a wagon load of potatoes grown on the infirmary farm was sacked and hauled to the home of one of the County Commissioners? And will it not explain where it will be found that the county was reimbursed for the potatoes, and if it is not true that there was a shortage of potatoes at the infirmary?

Seventh—While the apostle is thus explaining for his son-in-law, let him tell why it was that the News heretofore abroad that a feast was given the inmates at the infirmary last July 4, when, as a matter of fact, the feast was to himself (the apostle) and to the family of the superintendent, and that all the inmates got of the feast was a plate of ice cream and a small piece of cake? Why was the public imposed on by that statement?

Eighth—Are there not eight cows milked at the infirmary and the inmates given skimmed milk and butter but once a week? What becomes of the cream? What becomes of the chickens and eggs produced at public cost?

Ninth—Why was Superintendent Jones removed by Commissioners Horne and Harker about two years ago, and why was he rehired when James H. Anderson secured control of the board?

Tenth—Why was James Sabine, pauper clerk, relieved about the same time and rehired when James H. Anderson secured control?

Eleventh—Let the apostle-editor also explain why he lied when he said there are but twenty-four Mormon inmates and eighty non-Mormon inmates at the infirmary.

Twelfth—Let him tell why it is the superintendent of the infirmary—his son-in-law, W. R. Jones, Jr.—is paid a salary in excess of that paid his predecessors, and at the same time his family, consisting of a wife, two grown daughters, two half-grown sons and a little daughter, are also maintained there at great cost to the public. Let him explain if it is not true under such circumstances that much of the domestic labor of other almshouses is performed by the members of a superintendent's family as a compensation for their maintenance.

Thirteenth—Let it be denied or explained.

WHY APPENDICITIS?

Why is appendicitis so common today? Because we have got into the pernicious habit of eating too fast.

Dr. Curtis, the great authority on this disease, says: "Appendicitis often follows the eating of a very heavy or particularly large or indigestible meal."

After carefully following a foolish custom, you can insure your safety by taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

It is an accepted scientific truth, which admits of no dispute, that if you will only keep your digestive apparatus in good order, you will never suffer from this dread disease, which, at best, means a weakening operation, with long weeks wasted in bed, and big doctor's and surgeon's bills to pay as souvenirs.

Keep your appendix in health by the proper use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets whenever you have laid yourself open to danger by overeating, and upon the least sign of stomach or intestinal trouble, for otherwise, at any time, this dangerous disease may lay you low.

The curative influence of this great medicine is quickly shown in the gentle, soothing effect it has on all inflamed conditions of any part of the digestive tract. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets tone all these parts up to a proper condition of perfect health.

They also make away with all the causes of irritation, indigestion or indigestion, by helping to dissolve, digest and assimilate, or put to proper use, all the food which is lying around in odd corners of your digestive apparatus, fermenting, rotting and curdling, like so much grime in a dirty sink.

In these natural and perfectly simple ways, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets restore all sufferers, from any form of dyspepsia, trouble, to health.

They are safe and reliable. They never fail to relieve and cure, quickly and permanently. Use them, and you need never worry about your appendix verminiformis.

Had a Battle With Dynamiters

Robbers Blow Safe in Continental
Oil Company's Office and Night
Watchman Opens Fire.

Safe blowers battled with Frank Caldwell, night yardmaster of the Rio Grande Western railway, early this morning, after having blown open the vault doors of the Continental Oil company's offices. The two crooks fled through the darkness and escaped in the broad yards near the scene of their crime. Their tools were left behind.

Caldwell had been left to guard the place by the night watchman, who was notifying the police by phone that the safe was attacked. The watchman was returning from lunch when he heard the noise of the explosion of a charge of nitro-glycerine. This tore apart the vault doors, exposing the small safe within. In this latter was a large amount of money.

As the watchman heard the explosion he saw a man near the office building, which stands on Second South, near the intersection of the railway tracks. This man dodged behind the oil tank. The watchman ran and found Caldwell, whom he left on guard with his revolver. As Caldwell watched he saw the crooks leave the building and run toward the railway yards.

Caldwell fired after the fleeing crooks. They stopped and returned the fire. Caldwell fired five shots, and the robbers fled. By this time police headquarters was talking over the wire with the watchman. The wagon came to the second street, where it was stopped by Patrolman Smoot. By this time the thieves were gone.

A jumpy, some fuse, a punch and a brace were found by the twisted vault doors.

Why Superintendent Jones bought from a meat market thirty pounds of mutton for 50 cents and fed it to the inmates. And is not true that the steward advised one of the inmates for whom he had a liking, "not to eat any mutton today? Also, if the steward did not show him the bill, the 3-cent meat?"

Fourteenth—Is it not a fact that Superintendent Jones pays little attention to the infirmary, but that the real superintendent is J. H. Hayford, who is on the roll as steward, but who performs nothing in the character of a steward's duties? When the Deseret News asked these fourteen questions, The Tribune has a few more, touching the mismanagement of the infirmary.

Especially would the public be pleased to hear what the News has to say about questions Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10. Now, do not "ramble," Brother Penrose. If the News has not the space for such formal subjects, The Tribune will publish the explanations. The public deserves to know, and since it is a sort of family affair, let the facts be heard.

The Deseret News, without searching the records of the county, makes a broad claim that the public funds of Salt Lake county are diverted into Mormon business houses. Let us, for example, look into the item of infirmary maintenance for September of 1904. This is the last report made by Superintendent William R. Jones, Jr. Here are the items:

Thurston Coal and Lumber Co. (Mormon)	$25.50
Barton & Co. (Mormon)	17.35
Harmon & Co. (Mormon)	11.90
George F. Peck Lumber Co. (Mormon)	1.35
Solomon Bros. (Mormon)	3.95
W. R. Jones, Jr. (Mormon)	6.20
H. Dinwoodey Furniture Co. (Mormon)	4.15
W. S. Bateman (Mormon)	34.95
Barton & Co. (Mormon)	11.85
Knights & Co. (Mormon)	54.15
Newman Shoe Co. (Mormon)	12.25
Joseph & William Taylor (Mormon)	15.00
R. K. Thomas & Co. (Mormon)	12.35
R. E. Taylor (Mormon)	20.00
Z. M. L. (Mormon)	57.68
State Street market. (Mormon)	49.10
DeLong & Smith (Mormon)	4.00
Dunyon Coal Co. (Mormon)	19.20

Total Mormon $756.35

In the following items the accounts are in favor of Gentile houses, part Gentile very generous, the other doubtful:

Godde-Pitts Drug Co.	$3.35
Star Lubricating Oil Co.	25.47
Theo. Hupfenbeck	4.85
Harmon & Co.	19.50
W. R. Andrew	19.50
King Hardware Co.	1.25
W. H. Harker	8.70
Bamberger Coal Co.	11.25

Total $106.57

Of prominent Gentile houses, Salt Lake county which pay taxes equal if not in excess of the houses that got last month's infirmary trade, will be found the following:

Smith Drug Co.	$99.00
Keth-O'Brien	60.00
Walker Bros.	60.00
Auerbach's	60.00
W. S. Henderson	60.00
Palace Meat market	60.00

Total $559.00

Some one who is doubtless working in the interest of Sheriff Frank Emery in his candidacy for reelection, has started the report that Joseph H. Raleigh, the American party nominee for Sheriff, was in charge of the guard during the coal troubles in Carbon county last winter.

The story is being noised around labor circles and has caused some commotion. There is not a word of truth in the charge. Mr. Raleigh was not a guard nor had he anything whatever to do with that trouble.

James Ingelbrecht spoke at a Republican rally at Circleville last night.

"Jodey" Eldredge has been sent by the State of Kansas to the county to help give the "thirty-third degree" to some of the Republicans who are off on Smootism.

The Young Men's Democratic club will give a smoker Thursday night.

Judge O. W. Powers has dubbed Judge J. E. Frick the "chicken-eater." It seems that Judge Frick very frequently tells how very generous the good women of Utah have been to their chickens.

Judge Powers says that the reason Judge Frick is so profuse in his thanks is that when Judge Frick came from it is the custom to feed campaign speakers on salt pork. But here in Utah chicken is not a luxury.

CROSBY RUNS FOR THE OFFICE

How Obedience Is Rewarded.

"Took Counsel" From Church Authorities and Went to Arizona.

Yet the Deseret News Insisted That the Church Had No Political Designs.

A year ago last April The Tribune published in its news columns a story to the effect that the authorities of the Mormon church were evidently planning to get control of the politics of Arizona and New Mexico by the time they were ready for Statehood. To accomplish this purpose, The Tribune set forth that they appeared to be adopting the plan of transplanting bright young Mormon attorneys and politicians from Utah to those States, and cited as an instance the transfer of George H. Crosby from Richfield, Sevier county, to St. Johns, Ariz.

Unlimited Prospects.

"This transfer was decided upon at the recent conference," said The Tribune in the article referred to above. "David Udall, the president of the St. Johns, Ariz., asked Mr. Crosby if he were willing to go. He held out the allurement that there was not a Mormon lawyer in the entire Territory of Arizona; that he could start in as Prosecuting Attorney for Apache county, and that the way was laid for the bright prospects ahead of him."

"Mr. Crosby," announced his willingness to go. President Udall then consulted with the church authorities and the region in Utah as quickly as possible and move his family to St. Johns. Discussing the matter with Mr. Crosby, said he understood it to be the present policy of the church authorities to transplant a large number of the young attorneys in Salt Lake who have recently graduated from law schools and who are finding it difficult to crowd in upon the old lawyers of this city.

"Another Malicious Canard." In which, after reviewing The Tribune article, it denied the truth of the story flatly, saying in part:

"However that may be, the whole story is founded on fiction, and there is a little of truth in it that there is scarcely a thread of it in the entire blanket of falsehood. Crosby, a young attorney, has been called to go to Arizona, there is no such policy contemplated as that formulated by the imagination of 'The Tribune' writer, nothing of the kind was adopted or talked of at the recent conference. The man referred to has not been appointed or requested or set apart to remove from Utah. The entire theory of the Tribune, based on its silly assumption, is entirely thrown to the winds. The article is as clear as though the whole fabrication was made of thin glass."

News Fit No. 2.

In another editorial of April 12, The News had this to say concerning the Crosby matter, under the heading, "Without Honor or Shame."

"Of course, after making a false and full attack on the authorities of the Mormon church, The Salt Lake Tribune, notwithstanding the exposure of its wrong assertions and irrational deductions, refuses to correct its errors and repeats its misstatements for the purpose of deceiving the public and furthering its own political ends."

"The story published about a number of young attorneys being selected to be sent to Arizona for political purposes was and is entirely void of foundation. It was founded on fiction. But it persists in avowing that the nonsense it uttered came from George H. Crosby, on his receiving a 'call' and being 'set apart' by the church authorities to go to Arizona to practice law. In truth, this 'Mormon lawyer' told a Tribune reporter anything to that effect, uttered a shameful falsehood. The evidence, however, goes to show that what he did say has been completely amplified and commented upon in the usual manner."

"We repeat, on the authority of the first presidency of the church, that neither George H. Crosby, nor any other young attorney, has been called, appointed, set apart, selected or advised, to move from Utah to Arizona for any such purpose as that outlined in The Tribune. Then, on April 15, The Tribune published an interview with George H. Crosby, in which was contained the substance of the first story printed in The Tribune. The story was a special from Richfield, where Mr. Crosby then lived, and was, in part, as follows:

Crosby Confirms Tribune.

"In talking with a friend of mine, who is a Tribune reporter," said Mr. Crosby, "I said in substance, 'I am going to St. Johns, Arizona, to practice law. I have been called to go.' The opportunities were good, because the president of the church had called me to go. I explained that law was not one of my kind in Apache county, and not a Mormon lawyer in the Territory. I said that I was a friend of mine, not necessarily a Mormon friend, told me that the District Attorney of Apache county, I said that until I should obtain a lucrative practice I expected to teach school. I said that I would be the principal of a school, but that as teacher I hoped to receive a salary of $50 per month."

"I further remarked, as reported by The Tribune, that the Mormon leaders had advised young Mormon teachers and lawyers not to congregate in the cities, but to move out to the colonies, of which counsel I thoroughly approve. When asked whether the requests of the church authorities to do certain things are called orders, I replied that such requests were usually known as calls. I remembered saying nothing about politics. Neither did the stake president, nor Apostle Woodruff, nor President Smith."
