

fine weavers for making unnecessary waste or carelessly handling material.

The Fines Imposed. "The following is the list of fines imposed, and they are only half of what is imposed in other mills throughout the country."

- Threads cut, 1/2c each. Wrong draws, 1/2c each. Coarse ends, 1/2c each. Mangle, 1/2c each. Broken picks, 5c each. Coarse picks, 5c each.

"Filling drawing in on the sides, light and heavy places and uneven weaving, filling knots, floats, holes, etc., 25 cents to 50 cents."

"We are paying higher wages to our employees," said Manager Bassett, "and offering better facilities to them and imposing lighter fines upon them than other woolen mills in the United States."

Amicably Settled. "When I arrived at the mills this morning I found that the employees of the weaving department were not at work and found that the cause was a misunderstanding of the rules and regulations posted. I requested them to appoint a committee of two men and two women, which they did, and Superintendent Dunham and myself proceeded to explain matters to them showing letters from other woolen concerns, the scales paid and fines imposed and they expressed themselves as satisfied and that they were receiving fair and impartial treatment. By noon all the weavers were at work again."

"There has been a feeling of discontent existing for some time among the employees of the mill and all expected the bad feeling to culminate in trouble sooner or later, but the employees seem to be satisfied and much better feeling now exists all around."

TROUBLE NOT UNEXPECTED.

Candidate Cutler Says Provo Mills Operated in Interest of Employees.

John C. Cutler, Republican candidate for Governor, who is one of the heaviest stockholders in the Provo Woolen mills, said last evening after a long talk that he had not heard of the strike of the weavers at Provo. He intimated in the course of conversation that some trouble of the kind had been expected, and made the remark that if the employees of the mill were not willing to work under the present arrangement and for the wages they have been receiving, that the mill probably would be sold and the money invested in it placed in other ways.

"The Provo Woolen mills have been operated for some time," said Mr. Cutler, "in the interests of the employees. The capitalists who own it can find far more profitable investments for their money. With the exception of two years, when half of the dividend was paid in cash, the stockholders' dividends of 4 per cent a year have been paid in merchandise. The dividend is not enough to buy the stock, and it is, and when it is paid in merchandise, it may readily be seen that there is very little profit in the operation of the mill."

Paying All Mill Can Afford.

"In other years when the employees thought that they should get more wages we have permitted a committee from their ranks to investigate the books of the company and ascertain therefrom if the company is able to pay any more wages. When I was manager of the mill some years ago such a committee was organized and reported that the owners were paying all that they could."

"I will say now that the same proposition is open to them. If the employees wish to look over the books and ascertain whether we can pay more money, I, as the third largest owner of stock, will say for the others that they may do so at any time."

When Mr. Cutler was informed that the alleged complaint against the management was the imposing of severe and unnecessary fines and the fact that wages were paid in scrip of the Mormon church, he replied that the wages were not all paid in scrip. "Part of the wages are paid in scrip and part in cash," he said, "and in this the employees have the best of the bargain, for all the profits received by the stockholders are paid in merchandise."

"As to the severe fines imposed, it may be the case that discipline is being maintained in this way. Some time ago we decided to undertake the manufacture of a new grade of goods. As we found it necessary to get a new manufacturing superintendent from the East, whose name is Dunham. The former superintendent was a Utah man and a Mormon, and was acquainted with most of the employees and their families."

Little Stricter Management. "The new man is not a Mormon, and he expressed himself to me soon after taking the position to the effect that things had been allowed to run a little loose around the mill and that it was his intention to become a little stricter and manage the employees more after the fashion of Eastern mill superintendents. It is possible that he has found it necessary to inflict fines in following out this course. Another thing is that the manufacture of these new goods, the employees probably are a little slow in learning, and as they are paid by the piece probably are not making as much as usual."

Asked as to the average weekly wage of employees of the mills, Mr. Cutler said that the men, women and girls employed as weavers averaged about $12 a week each, and that was paid by the piece. The rest of the wages, as much as they could earn in Eastern mills. He said that the employees numbered about 200 and that many of them were girls who live at home with their parents in Provo. The company maintains no company houses and all the mill operators, he said, had homes in or around Provo.

The three principal owners of the Provo Woolen mills are the Home Fire Insurance company of Utah, Senator Reed Smoot and John C. Cutler. The company is capitalized for $300,000, of which 235,900 shares of a par value of $1 each have been issued.

Mr. Cutler said that his Salt Lake house had been the agent for the mills for twenty-seven years and that while at first his house handled nothing but the Provo goods, now it only handled about 10 per cent of the goods, the rest being shipped direct from the mills to clothing manufacturers in the East, who made the goods up into suits. "The closing of the mills will not affect me in the least," said Mr. Cutler, "and if the employees are unwilling to work any more, we will close the mill and sell out the stock. We can get far better returns for our money in other lines of business. The mills have been kept in operation as long as they have more for the purpose of providing employment for people dependent on them for their daily bread than for anything but the profit."

It is thought that the employees will be disappointed in disposing of the property, for a valuable water right that goes with the mill has long been sought after."

The tenor of Mr. Cutler's interview was that the employees had nothing to gain by the strike, would only mean, he held, the closing of the mills and the throwing of 200 people out of work.

SALT LAKERS ARE INDIGNANT

Will Rebuke Political Machine.

Rottenness and Mismanagement of County Generally Discussed.

American Party Ticket Will Be Supported to Enable Taxpayers to Investigate.

Daily the opinion grows that the Smoots will lose every man on the Salt Lake county ticket. The fight in the county is taking distinct shape between the Democratic ticket and the American ticket.

Politicians who have been mixing with the people say there is a powerful undercurrent for the nomination of the American party, both because of the issue it is making a fight for and because the taxpayers are astounded at the revelations The Tribune has been making of the mismanagement of the affairs of Salt Lake county.

For a long time there has been a suspicion that everything has not been as it should be in the county. Taxes to the extent of nearly one million dollars have been collected during the past four years. In addition to nearly two hundred thousands in fees, licenses, etc., what has there been in the way of improvements or betterments to show for it?

Few Public Improvements. Not a dollar has been paid on the magnificent joint building. That big debt is yet to be met. And at the rate which the so-called Republican clique is piling up the expenses the Lord only knows how the county health bonds will be met unless there is a raise in the tax rates.

Taxpayers of Salt Lake feel that they are being gouged. The rate is too high, and it is a struggle for many business men even to meet this obligation. Many men with small incomes, who are struggling to pay for a home, find that the assessment against them is a load hard to carry.

Ugly Machine Methods.

Yet the clique controlled by the Smoots and the Republican Party in Salt Lake county by the young man who wants to be County Clerk and supported faithfully by Sheriff Emery, John C. Mackay, E. D. Miller and others of its own guards, are the public funds with such indifference to public interest that its record has become a scandal.

Why should these men be elected? What is there so sacred in their positions that they should be sustained with such an unenviable record as the machine has made?

Have they served the public well? Is there any reason to believe that the Salt Lake county really had an agency by which a rotten political organization is sustained and perpetuated?

There is nothing in the way of improvement to be hoped for through the Democratic candidates. They are under the domination of Apocrite Penton, would bring such pressure to bear on the church leaders that they would not permit Democrats to change the present system.

Frauds Would Be Covered.

Why would he do so? Because anything looking to reform will mean the exposure and prosecution of his son-in-law, William K. Jensen, and it would mean to uncover the methods of James H. Anderson.

Apocrite Penton would not for a moment tolerate a Republican board of Democratic board's hunting down the men who have so abused the public's confidence. It is now a family affair.

No possible relief can be hoped for through the old parties. Every fair-minded man knows this. There can be but one way to a searching investigation, and that is through the nominees of the American party. They are free to do as they please, and they are free to fear. They dare to do their duty.

Every taxpayer should vote independently this year—lots year of all years.

One of the Republican speakers who refused to make speeches for the Republicans two weeks ago because the "stuff" was not forthcoming, and who offered to speak for the Democratic campaign committee for the "coin," will transfer his allegiance to the American party from Salt Lake county to northern Utah this week, according to the schedules.

Beware of "roobacks" and register.

The supreme humor of the campaign is the one which Judge O. W. Powers and President Brigham H. Roberts are tickling each other.

Politicians figure that Eugene V. Debs the Socialist candidate for President, will poll 1800 votes in Salt Lake county, and 5000 in the State.

Judge O. W. Powers has delivered an even fifty speeches since the opening of the campaign.

Register today. If you cannot register today register tomorrow. Tomorrow is the last day. No one can register after is not on the registration books.

The Smoots have prevailed upon Goddard to make a few more speeches. He is again among the hostings.

A few days ago one of the subsidized weeklies circulated the report that United States District Attorney Lippman and United States Marshal Hoywood had "weakened" on the American party. This Simple Remedy for Catarrh

Just Breathe Hyomei Four Times a Day and Be Cured.

If a few years ago some one had said you can cure catarrh by breathing air charged with healing balsams, the idea would have been ridiculed and it remained for that eminent investigator, R. T. Booth, to discover in Hyomei this method of cure.

Breathe Hyomei through the inhaler for a few minutes four times a day and it will cure the worst case of catarrh. It soothes and heals the mucous membrane of the air passages, prevents irritation, and effects a complete and lasting cure.

In Salt Lake City there are scores of well known people who have been cured of catarrh by Hyomei. If it does not help you, F. C. Schramm will return the money you paid for Hyomei.

was given much currency by the Smoots. It is a silly story and was disproved within an hour.

The two Federal officials made a contribution of $1000 each to the campaign fund, through National Committee man C. E. Looney, and this is all there was to the story. It was another of Chairman Sperry's pipe dreams.

This was overheard at the Wilson hotel. Some time ago a man was attempting to persuade his wife to vote the American ticket, when she said: "You know I am a Mormon, and that objection to my making any vote that you are a non-Mormon. I cannot vote the American ticket. The teachers have been to my home and told me that I should do it."

Voters of the Seventeenth district will be registered today. The Salt Lake meeting-house instead of at the residence of Registrar T. W. Green, 434 West Fifth South, as heretofore.

Judge J. E. Frick, who has been especially active in the fight on the American ticket, is quoted as saying: "I attended last week when asked 'What about the American party?' It would be like firing bird shot at a battleship."

That's what most persons think about it. The Judge's assaults would have about as much effect on the American party as bird shot fired against an armored cruiser.

There is a story out that great "cubs" of greenbacks have been received from Chicago by the Smoot State committee. It is generally discredited.

A number of Salt Laker will go to Ogden Wednesday afternoon to attend the American party rally.

Register today. Unless you register you cannot vote.

It comes to The Tribune with such assurance of fact that it must be believed, that representatives of the Anderson-Emery-Clague clique in Salt Lake county are visiting those who have been favored in the manner of tax remittances and telling these persons that if they do not vote for the American party, the clique's nominees for County Commissioner, they will have their homes sold for a scandal.

The clique is determined to keep the people from knowing the rotten condition of the county affairs.

When the old party candidates for County Attorney and County Commissioner are on for your vote next week, ask them if they will help to search out the men who have been robbing the taxpayers of Salt Lake county, and if they will take legal action against the offenders.

If they promise they will, reflect on the situation in the year to come. Mind whether or not it will be possible for them to keep such promises.

There is reason to believe that "Jody" Eldredge's friends on the county committee are bending their efforts and using the money contributed by the other candidates to elect "Jody" regardless of the others on the ticket with the exception of Sheriff Emery and the nominees for County Commissioner.

One candidate is convinced of this fact and he is justly sore about it.

It is anything to save Cutler with the church crowd in the State and anything to keep the people from looking into the rotten condition of the Anderson-Eldredge-Emery clique. Other things will be sacrificed to accomplish these ends.

It will be the greatest day in the history of Salt Lake county's affairs when investigation is made of the mismanagement and the criminality of the present Republican clique.

And the best work that a taxpayer can do for himself is to vote for the American party.

Great Duty of Taxpayers.

It is election day for the election of H. G. McMillan and Jerome Boardman, County Commissioners.

It will be but a few weeks from the time they take charge of the county. They will be in the saddle and the methods will be instituted into the county which have already pointed out in this paper as reasons for an investigation.

The public is naturally interested. The taxpayers have long since been persuaded that the tax rate is too high, and that it is a struggle for many business men even to meet this obligation. Many men with small incomes, who are struggling to pay for a home, find that the assessment against them is a load hard to carry.

One of Brigham's best known citizens in Salt Lake yesterday, said he was of the opinion that there would be more votes in Brigham for the American party than for the Republican local tickets. This is the territory which one of the subsidized weeklies is trying to give the American party to exceed a dozen votes.

Friday night at the Salt Lake Theatre until a special party for the American party of Utah will be held. Senator Frank J. Cannon and others will speak there will be a fine musical programme, and everybody will be welcome.

Every family that is friendly to the American party should make it a point to attend. It will be a glorious meeting.

Word comes from Eureka that many persons are expected to hear Senator Frank J. Cannon and Judge Ogden Hiles there Thursday night.

"Was Brigham H. Roberts sent into the field for Judge O. W. Powers just to prove that the church has no influence in politics?" asked a politician. "It looks very much as though the old cry of 'Liberals' which the friends of Howell are making up the church vote against the Judge."

"Do you know that eleven polygamists are candidates for the Republican State ticket?" asked a Salt Laker and a Republican. "Well, it is a Democratic ticket, and they are working for the Democrats. They are becoming good women of the State are becoming friends to the American party."

Those who do not know where their registration places are should call up American party headquarters (telephone 444) and instructions will be given. If necessary, carriages will be sent.

See to it that your friends have registered, after your own name is on the books.

CHURCH INFLUENCE AT WORK.

Sample of the Way "Counsel" Is Conveyed to Voters in Sevier County.

Special to The Tribune. RICHFIELD, Oct. 31.—A part of the methods used at a recent meeting held in Annabella and Koshaream, to try to win votes for certain candidates on the Republican county ticket affords some light on one kind of "church influence" at work in politics. At the rallies mentioned in the last issue of this paper, in support of the candidacy of two of the nominees on the ticket, spoke about as follows: "I do not want to be understood as bringing any religious considerations into this political campaign, but I just want to call your attention to the fact that Brother Martin Jensen, who is a candidate for County Commissioner, is one of the quorum of seventies of this stake, and he is a member of the Sunday-school association of this stake and was with the academy expedition to Central America, and you should vote for him."

The evident purpose of the references, notwithstanding the attempt of the speaker to cover up any willful intent to prejudice the votes by the introduction of matters entirely foreign to political considerations, was so palpable that it has been fully discussed in the rallies in the two places, and quite generally condemned.

It is understood that the same appeal has been made in other places, but is done privately and in a manner that is calculated to have more influence.

STILL FOR SILVER.

Judge King Says Democrats Haven't Changed, but Don't Like Roosevelt.

Special to The Tribune. SPRINGVILLE, Oct. 31.—The Democrats of Springville held a rally here tonight, with Hon. William H. King as the speaker. The hall was comfortably filled. The eloquent speaker devoted the most of his time to trying to make his hearers believe that the Democratic party was not to blame for the financial panic in this country during the Cleveland administration. He said that the panic, which was general the world over, began during Harrison's administration, and that the Democrats still believe in the free coinage of silver, but were forced to give up the issue for the time being, as they could not convert the American people to the silver standard just at this time. He wound up his speech by attacking President Roosevelt, saying that he was all in favor of Roosevelt. Great Britain, he said, is anxious to have Roosevelt elected, as that nation sees in him a partner in its land grabbing and colonizing schemes.
