

BIGAMISTS ARE NOT PUNISHED. Nest Plural Marriages Be Exposed.

President Joseph Morrell of Cache Stake Is Criticized.

Recent Rafting of United States Officers Calls Attention to a Notorious Marriage.

Despicable Notoriety Has Come to Several of the Leading Churchmen of Cache County through the disclosures recently made by deputy United States marshals who attempted to serve processes of the courts in the Smoot inquiry.

The developments give fresh proof to the fact that the major portion of the population of Cache county, possibly including law-breakers, assisting in shielding law-breakers, assisting in the work of the Federal officers.

The officers who had a summons to appear before the court, were told by Morrell's plural wife, Mary Danes, that she could not produce her husband for six days.

It is thought by many that the defiance of the government of the United States that is not condoned by a loyal friend to the government, and one that brings due criticism on this prominent churchman.

Attitude Contemptuously Defiant.

Such an attitude is regarded as not only contemptible, but contemptuously defiant. President Morrell, the officer has pointed out, was not a six-days' journey from home at that time. The day before she was absent from her home in that city.

It is said he overcame the scruples of the scrupulous young woman by presenting a forged letter, alleged to have been written by President Joseph F. Smith, sanctioning the proposed marriage to Hyde. The letterhead bore all the marks of genuineness, and, as the woman did not know the signature of the head of the church, she was persuaded it was the will of God that she yield herself to Ezra Hyde.

How Woman Was Duped.

Hyde even persuaded her to preserve the secret from his lawful wife. The marriage was performed by Hyde's brother. Whether he was deceived by a well executed forgery is not known.

But there was no prosecution. Officers of the courts did not arrest the bigamist because of the responsive influence of the recent developments of the Morrill case bear testimony to the fact, that they have the Hyde case probed lest the inquiry lead to a too careful scrutiny of the genuine plural marriages. It was not the act of wisdom to go into the Hyde bigamy case. And rather than submit to prosecution, Hyde submitted to a lawful family about him and left the county.

ARRIVES AT SEATTLE.

Great Northern Steamship Minnesota Was 77 Days on Voyage.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 24.—After a voyage of fifty-seven days steaming time, seventy-seven days actual time, the new transpacific liner Minnesota, owned by the Great Northern Steamship company, arrived here from New York at 10 o'clock tonight and dropped anchor off West Victoria, delaying the shipping of the Asiatic crew to be taken on there and it was abandoned.

However, the steamship City of Seattle had been in the straits held her at Victoria, carrying about 120 people and 600 tons of cargo. She was met at the entrance to the sound and escorted her to the city.

Extradition Papers for Chadwick.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 24.—Sheriff Barry today telegraphed Gov. Clegg of New York asking that the extradition papers for Leroy S. Chadwick, jointly indicted with his wife, Cassie L. Chadwick, on a charge of forgery, be granted on the Sheriff's arrival in Albany Monday.

CRITICISM OF INQUIRY, BUT SINCE THE POLICE PURSUED PROSECUTE THESE INQUIRIES, THE AVERAGE FRIEND OF THE CHURCH, IN OTHER WORDS, FRIENDS OF THEIR LEADERS ABOVE REPROACH THE LEADERS ARE SERVED WITH FIDELITY RATHER THAN THAT OUTSIDE THROUGH THEIR KNOWLEDGE, SCORE A POSSIBLE ADVANTAGE OVER THEM.

Justification for Disloyalty Claim. "These are the things," remarked one, "which give the country justification for the claim that the church is not as loyal to the Government as it is to the leaders. When the leaders are in the case of the president of the Cache stake, director of the Government, who are the direct agents of the United States Senate, with contempt, those who blindly follow those leaders and err, are not nearly so much to blame."

It is held by many that the example recently set by President Morrell, the most powerful in all Cache county, is a many wonder what the gentlemen in Cache county are often parties to the support of evidence of the wrong-doing of the ecclesiastical. It is contended that in the Mary Danes case, the homes of gentlemen are often found to be the most perfect hiding places.

No Utah is surprised at such a condition, especially if he has lived in a community that is indisputably controlled by the leaders of the dominant church. It is known that in such communities open resistance or defiance is certain to lead to almost immediate ostracism, commercially and socially.

Informers' Life Unpleasant. Few men are willing to brave the opposition that comes to an informer. The likelihood is not condoned but they are likewise not condoned. It is the awful loneliness that is felt by one who lives in a community, who knows the weakness of his fellow-men, and knows that he stands practically alone and in contempt because he refuses to conform to the customs of the community.

Rather than be cut off from communication and fellowship with those about him the average Utah, Mormon and non-Mormon, of the State, Mormon communities, confines his criticism of the offenses of the bigots and the fanatics of the community, to his intimates. Peace is sought rather than the point of self-justification. There is an excuse, local it is true, for one's suppressing knowledge of law-breaking, but peace to the informer is impossible.

The Morrill case in Cache recalls another circumstance which is the outgrowth of the condition in Utah. It has a pathetic side to it because it points out the possibilities of a system that permits men to commit crimes in the name of religion. That prosecution did not follow is due to the same condition that made it impossible for the United States officers to serve a summons on the plural wife of the president of the Cache stake.

According to the story often told in Cache but not generally known in Utah, Ezra Hyde, a married man, became enamored of a young woman in Logan and sought her as a plural wife. The young woman decided to enter into plural marriage with Hyde on the grounds that it would be in violation of the provisions of the marriage laws. Like others she believed in the divinity of polygamy, but she knew that plural marriages had been proscribed.

To Hyde's importunities she declared she would do nothing forbidden by the president of the church. But her faith in the president was the result of her unwillingness to do anything that would bring a man who made use of his pretended religion as a mantle to hide a crime.

FIERCE FIRE IN MINE.

Efforts to Check Flames Have Proved Unavailing. MAHANOG CITY, Pa., Dec. 24.—The fire that broke out in Mora colliery last night is still burning fiercely. All of the employees are fighting the fire. The mine may be totally destroyed.

Tongues of flame leaped forty feet high from the mine and all efforts to check the fire have so far proved unavailing. The stope has been almost entirely swept of timber from the pump-house, where the fire originated last night, to the surface, a distance of nearly 400 feet.

The roof and sides of the stope have collapsed in several places. Several mine inspectors, officials of the Dobson Coal company, who own the mine, and others spent almost the entire day in an effort to confine the fire to the main stope, but with what success they are unable to determine. The colliery, which is one of the largest in the region, is in no danger.

The petition letter was duly transmitted to the British Ambassador at Washington with the recommendation from His Majesty's Government that arrangements be made to arbitrate the claims. The question has been brought in this shape before the American State department, and is now under consideration.
