

LITTLE PEOPLE MAKE BUTTER

Those in Room Seven, Grant School, Instructed in the Art.

PRESENT THE PRINCIPAL WITH THEIR PRODUCTS

Study of the Early Puritans and the First Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. Hallock, principal of the Franklin school, will have occasion to remember for some time his birthday of 1905. The boys of the seventh grade planned a special gift for him, and on last Thursday presented him with a most excellent hat-rack which they had made in their workshop. It was a complete surprise to Mr. Hallock, but he was able to thank the boys most sincerely for their thoughtfulness.

Learn to Make Butter.
The little people of room 7 of the Grant school, under the direction of their teacher, Miss Horne, were instructed in butter-making the past week, and so well did they perform the task of churning in a jar that they were able to present their principal, Mr. Martin, with a pound of butter.

Make Bread, Too.
The children of all the primary schools have been working along the line of bread and butter-making, and in the Lafayette school the little ones were allowed to take their loaf of bread home and cook it for themselves after they had studied the making of it in the schoolroom.

Study of Early Puritans.
In the study now of the early Puritans and the first Thanksgiving day, the children have been interested in reading the story of the Pilgrims and studying the dress and customs of these early settlers.

In the seventh ward school the children of room 1, under the supervision of Miss Woodcock, have made most beautiful little booklets containing their cuttings and drawings of the Pilgrim settlers. Some of these show most excellent taste and good judgment in arrangement.

In the Quirrh School.
The pupils of the sixth A at the Quirrh school have gotten some splendid results in a case of a Puritan maiden. These are done both in the black and white and in the water color, and some work shows much artistic ability. Miss Canfield has also very fine work in water-color landscape drawing from the same grade.

Hiawatha Books.
Miss Potter, teacher of room 1 in the Lowell school, has had her children busy making some original Hiawatha books on the style of the old Mother Goose rhymes. The word Hiawatha standing out in red letters and the pictures illustrating each line are done in black. Each little story has formed an interesting reading lesson before being placed in the book, and the children have the books ready now to be taken home and to be read by the members of the family.

Here is the Poem.
H—Stands for Hiawatha, now, isn't that cute?
I—For Iago, who taught him to shoot.
A—For the arrows made for his bow.
W—Stands for Wabigoon, you know, you know.
A—For the animals Hiawatha loved.
T—For the tales told of moon and stars above.
H—Stands for his family.
A—That's for all—the story is told.

Arranging for Lecture.
The executive committee and the building representatives of the Teachers' association held a meeting at the school on Wednesday and all arrangements for the coming of the noted cartoonist, Mr. Odell, were completed. He will appear in Barrett hall on Friday, December 15, and the teachers are expecting the building to be packed at that time. Much enthusiasm is being caused by the master Brown lecture, and standing room will probably be had at a premium. The president of the association named Mr. Kessler, Mr. Barrett and Mrs. Shepard a committee on advertising and printing.

About the Teachers.
Miss Corbett, supervisor of sewing, has had to absent herself from her post of duty because of illness.
Miss Blanche Cherry was out for a few days and Miss Davis substituted for her.
Miss Katharine Moffatt and Miss Morris have been out of the Pequot for a few days, owing to illness.
Miss Lake of the sixth and seventh grades at the Sumner has been in the hospital for the past week, owing to the crowded condition of the room, and Mr. Angell has the class now in charge in the recitation room of that building.
Miss Lewis has been transferred to the Sumner and is relieving the crowded rooms by doing the reading and literature work.

Shocked Over Death of Mrs. Ames.
The teachers were greatly shocked at the news of the untimely death of Mrs. Ames of the Washoe school, who has been one of the most able and conscientious of teachers in many years. Mrs. Ames went to the hospital on Sunday and passed away on Wednesday, never rallying from the operation, she was beloved by all who knew her. The Teachers' association sent a beautiful tribute of flowers.

Sang Tribune Anthems.
The pupils of the upper grades of the Lafayette school had a most interesting afternoon on Thursday. They met in the assembly room and spent some time in singing over two hundred of the prize songs of "The Sunday Tribune." Well drilled they were in singing "Utah, We'll Sing Thee," "Bright Stars of Glory," "We'll Sing Thee," and "Bright Stars of Glory."

Much enthusiasm has been aroused in the schools over the songs that are entered in the competition and children are already securing songs for their favorite.

The program for the State Teachers' association has just been placed in the hands of the principals and teachers, and it is certainly one of the best ever prepared. No teacher can afford to miss any part of it and the lecturers of G. Stanley Hall and Mrs. Cooley will be of unlimited value.

To Commemorate Harvest Feast.
Teachers and pupils are looking forward with great anticipation to the Thanksgiving holiday and all departments of the schools are preparing and arranging suitable exercises to commemorate the harvest feast.

Basket-Ball Game.
The basket-ball game to be played by the teachers of the Lowell and Lincoln schools will take place next Friday at the Hildens college grounds. The ladies are assured a large attendance, no matter what the price of admission which, however, is understood to be free, but only warm and close friends of the opposing teams will be admitted.

In the High School.
Prof. Clark of the high school spoke at the University club this week on the subject "Some Engineering Difficulties of the Panama Canal." His lecture was most interesting and instructive and was greatly appreciated by his audience.

Original Plans Changed.
The original plans for the gymnasium have been somewhat modified, but the limited appropriation by the board. This building will be located near the northwest corner, and building and probably will be connected with it by a hallway or covered archway.

Honor vs. Craft.
Prof. Eaton spoke at the assembly of the University club on Wednesday on the subject "Honor Versus Craft." This address will be long remembered by those fortunate enough to hear it and will be a most interesting and new strength to the character of each young man and woman present.

Group has already been broken and the foundation begun for the new manual training building at the high school. The building is located near the northwest corner, and when completed, will be a valuable addition to the high school buildings.

Send Requests to Eliot.
President Charles W. Eliot, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass. May I not request, in view of the tragedy on Ohio held today, that you will invite a meeting of university and college presidents to undertake the reform or abolition of football.

"HENRY MAC CRACKEN" Is Inexpressibly Shocked.
"I am inexpressibly pained and shocked to hear of Mr. Moore's death. I will say that I have within the last thirty days said to members of the faculty that I have only waited for some of the older and larger universities to lead in favor of the abolition of the complete reform of football. I repeated this at the last meeting of the faculty. I have not felt it to be the duty of New York university to stand in the roughest work. We have discouraged any attempt to play football on a great scale here and have not allowed it to stand the roughest work. Our special line of dress shoes, in kid or calf, Blucher and lace styles, represent good shoemaking, style and wear."

CALLS FOR COMPLETE REFORM OF FOOTBALL

Horrors of the Great Game Lead Chancellor MacCracken to Act.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—William Moore, right half-back of the Union college football team, died tonight from injuries received today in a game with New York university. He was 19 years old and lived at Schenectady, N. Y. Moore was knocked unconscious by a blow on the head while he was carrying the ball and bucking the line. He died about six hours after receiving the injury, from cerebral hemorrhage.

Chancellor MacCracken of the New York university was informed of the tragedy tonight while visiting his son-in-law, E. Stockwell, in Beverly, N. J. The chancellor immediately sent the following telegram to President Eliot of Harvard university:

"I am inexpressibly pained and shocked to hear of Mr. Moore's death. I will say that I have within the last thirty days said to members of the faculty that I have only waited for some of the older and larger universities to lead in favor of the abolition of the complete reform of football. I repeated this at the last meeting of the faculty. I have not felt it to be the duty of New York university to stand in the roughest work. We have discouraged any attempt to play football on a great scale here and have not allowed it to stand the roughest work. Our special line of dress shoes, in kid or calf, Blucher and lace styles, represent good shoemaking, style and wear."

Still Another Victim.
SEDALIA, Mo., Nov. 25.—Robert Brown, aged 15 years, was fatally injured in a football game today. He is paralyzed from the neck to the feet and has not spoken since he was hurt.

WIDENS LIBERAL BREACH
Lord Rosebery Refuses to Stand for Home Rule.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Speaking at Bodmin, Cornwall, tonight, Lord Rosebery repudiated the stand taken by Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, leader of the Liberal party, in favor of home rule for Ireland and during his speech at Stirling, Thursday night, thus emphasizing the split in the Liberal party.

Speaking elaborately, Lord Rosebery said he objected to raising the banner of home rule, not only on account of high constitutional objections and also on account of the welfare of the Irish people, but mainly because it impaired the unity of the Free Trade party and indefinitely postponed the tasks of social and educational reform.

"I state emphatically and explicitly," he concluded, "that I cannot serve under that banner."

HALPIN NOT A CANDIDATE
Executive Committee Recommends Odell Man for Successor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—William Halpin, chairman of the Republican county committee, today announced that he would not be a candidate for reelection to that position. He added that the opposition of certain large corporations of this city to his candidacy, because he approved of the repeal of the liquor laws in the recent campaign, was the reason for his retirement.

This announcement was made at a meeting of the executive committee of the Republican county committee, at which thirty members were present. The committee recommended the name of Odell Man for the position in the coming caucus at which the Republican Assembly District committees will elect a county chair.

Mr. Parsons is favored by former Gov. Odell. His opponent, J. V. Olcott, is supported by Senator Platt.

Japan's Protectorate Recognized.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Secretary Root has informed the Japanese Government that he will hereafter conduct affairs relating to Korea through the Japanese legation here.

The Korean legation in Washington will be withdrawn and all business relating to Korea will be transacted through the Japanese Government. Mr. Morgan, our Minister to Seoul, will necessarily be withdrawn but it is the intention of the State department to provide another diplomatic post for him.

Russia's Budget.
LONDON, Nov. 25.—A dispatch to a news agency from St. Petersburg says the Minister of Finance has completed the budget for the coming year and that the revenue is estimated at $1,077,000,000 and the expenditure at $1,028,000,000.

Judgment for Plaintiff.
Judge Morse has rendered a decree in favor of the plaintiff, quieting the title to certain property at San Jose in the case of W. Wilson against James Sabine, Jr.

FLASHES FROM THE WIRE
Sarah Bernhardt, the French tragedienne, is to build and manage a theatre in New York, according to her manager, W. P. Connor. The new playhouse, which is to be named the Bernhardt theatre, will be located on the Metropolitan opera-house, at Thirty-ninth street and Broadway.

At an early hour Saturday morning unknown burglars dynamited the safe in the general merchandise store of the Thomas Silk company at Forestville, Cal., in which the postoffice is located. Between $100 and $200 in cash was secured, some of it government money. The robbers escaped, leaving a small town about twelve miles from Santa Rosa.

A movement has been begun in Chicago by members of the Iroquois club to hold a convention in Chicago of representatives of all the national political clubs throughout the country to discuss ways and means of securing Federal supervision of life insurance companies.

The food throughout Italy is causing serious damage. Most of the Campana Romana is under water, and even the neighborhood of Rome is inundated. The famous basilica of St. Paul's is surrounded by water and sections have been established to approach it. The Tiber has risen forty-five feet at one spot and may break the embankment and inundate the city, as in 1895.

The President has directed the appointment of the Rev. Edward S. Travers, assistant rector of Trinity church, Boston, Mass., as chaplain of the United States military academy at West Point, to succeed the Rev. Herbert Shipman, resigning.

Dr. Daniel Shepherson died in Honolulu Saturday. He formerly was an associate of President Harper of the University of Chicago and also assistant pastor of the First Baptist church of that city. He had been in Honolulu since last September, temporarily filling the pulpit of the Central Union church.

A ROOM-MAKING SHOE SALE

Anticipating the recent sharp advances in leather, this store contracted for larger amounts of shoes than usual to secure liberal price concessions. The result is the best popular priced shoe stock in Salt Lake. But we've too much of a good thing, and the overcrowded condition of our store and reserve stock room, coupled with the fact that immense shipments are on the way, make room at a premium. So we offer prices of remarkable fascination.
