NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—Operations in the market were naturally circumscribed by the approaching holidays and the question of business on the leading exchanges. There was, however, a moderate degree of activity, with a certain strength in a number of the more active issues. Interest continued largely around the local transactions, which were still an absence of speculation as to the effect of the 7 per cent guarantee on Metropolitan Street railway has been the cause of more than the usual Metropolitan shares, and Metropolitan Street railway were distinctly heavy. Third street bonds were very strong, presumably on the strength of the new deal would be a position. ...Money and Exchange. NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—Money on call nominal; no loans. Time loans strong.
