

BEAVER COUNTY IS SCENE OF SUCCESS

Progressive Company Turning Up Good Ores Upon Several New Spots.

PARALLEL VEIN HAD IN WORKING SHAFT

Company Fast Establishing the Merits of Its Star District Property.

The several Salt Lake investors composing the official family of the Progressive Mining company, now operating a splendid property in the Star district of Beaver county, on Wednesday were in receipt of fine reports from this mine, developments each day adding to the value of their holdings.

To the surprise of the management several days ago the bottom of the shaft being heavily overworked, and while the surface indications pointed to the fact that there should be a second vein somewhere near, the management hardly expected to find it where it did.

In what is known as the Express tunnel, a working on the property that was started some years ago by the first owners, the management has been doing some exploratory work, and the result is that some extremely fine ore has been found there.

Surface work upon the Johnson claim has uncovered several showings of ore, the values ranging around 11.5 per cent lead, 3.2 ounces silver and 80 cents gold.

The Balaklala directors have decided to call a special meeting of the stockholders for Feb. 23, when action will be taken on increasing the authorized capitalization from 400,000 to 600,000 shares.

This issue of stock will provide funds for extensive development work, for enlarging the capacity of the smelter now under construction.

RAMSEY IS COMING OUT FULL FLEDGED

Captain Mayne Is Enthusiastic Over the Prospects for the District.

That Ramsey has as bright an outlook as any gold camp of the Sagebrush State, and that there are thirteen prospects at least now working in ore, is the assertion made to The Tribune Wednesday by Capt. A. H. Mayne, formerly of this city.

Captain Mayne is interested in the Round Mountain Combination property at Round Mountain, and adds his evidence to that given so generously of late regarding the permanency of this gold district.

He states that the Mayne Goldfield property is making fine headway with new equipment and results should be rolling in fast.

NEW MINING FIELD ON THE COLORADO

Gold Butte Mines Company Is Hard at Work on River Property.

TIMELY WARNING TO PROSPECTORS IS GIVEN

Ample Provision for Maintenance Should Be Made Before Striking Out.

In view of the fact that there are numerous Salt Lake investors who are interested in mining properties along the Colorado river, and who are members of organizations that are employing considerable effort in opening up these possessions in spite of the fact that there never has been a boom in that section, the facts that are obtainable regarding this region are of double interest to local circles.

Mr. Graham, one of the directors of the Gold Butte company, recently returned from the Colorado river property of that organization, and he was asked by The Tribune Wednesday to go into more detail regarding this section.

Mr. Graham stated that this region was one of splendid promise.

Mr. Graham stated that this region was one of splendid promise. It is a scramble for properties there this summer, he stated. "I think it is proper to give one point that should be closely considered by all who contemplate going into the west under an abundance of water and vast stretches of grand scenic wonders, the neighborhood of Griggs' ferry is a barren desert. While from the present date to June animals will find plenty of picking, it must be remembered that there is not a bite for man to eat at any season of the year.

The nearest place where supplies can be had is at a small store in Gold Butte, distant by road twenty-six miles. At St. Thomas, fifty miles away, is another supply point, and between there and Moapa, twenty-three miles, are two or three stores.

DELAY IN FORMING ONE BIG COMPANY

Bingham Central and Standard Copper Deal Not Yet Reaching Decision.

It is evident that the process of consolidating the Bingham Central and the Bingham Standard Copper companies must be delayed for a while longer, for those most intimately concerned are unable to make any predictions as regards the day of getting together for this purpose.

Samuel Newhouse, president of both companies and the heaviest stockholder in the Standard, left Wednesday evening for the South, and stated, before his departure, that he would be gone three days or more.

Mr. Jackling stated yesterday that his trip East had been most pleasant and successful, and that he could add very little of interest to the affairs of the Utah Copper company in addition to what has already appeared in print.
