BRINGS ACTION TO BREAK COAL TRUST

Attorney-General of Colorado Alleges Combination to Fix Exorbitant Prices.

DENVER, Nov. 2.—Suit to enjoin the retail dealers' combination from continuing its present high scale of prices and to force its dissolution was filed by Attorney-General W. H. Dickson. Eighty coal companies, including the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, one of the largest concerns in the West, are named as defendants in the action. In his complaint Attorney-General Dickson declares that the coal dealers have formed a combination to control the sale of coal in the State and have raised the price of coal and maintained it at a high and exorbitant scale. It is further alleged that the production of coal has been curtailed until it is less than the actual needs of customers. The plea for an injunction is based upon the common law, there being no anti-trust law in this State.

BEGGAR RETURNED ALMS WITH A $1000 BILL

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—On Christmas evening, 1898, John McNulty, a man in moderate circumstances, while returning to his home, aided a beggar who stopped him on the street and applied for alms. The man insisted on getting his benefactor's name and address, saying that some day perhaps he might be able to show his appreciation. McNulty thought no more of the matter until last night, upon returning from his work he opened a letter which had come for him and found inclosed a $1000 bill and a brief letter which read: "Dear Sir: Inclosed you will find $1000 in payment for your kindness and your merry Christmas given to me nine years ago, when I was broke and wanted a meal. I have traveled considerable in many places since that night, but I have always remembered your kindness. Take this and use it. Believe me, your P. F."

MASS CONVENTION OF INLAND COMMUNITIES

The conference of representative business men recently held at Wichita, Kan., to discuss the bettering of local conditions of the transportation of freight, has issued an address calling for a mass convention of inland communities to consider ways and means for undertaking the desired improvements. One of these addresses has been sent to the Manufacturers and Merchants' association of this city, and reads as follows: "Have you ever thought of the reasons necessitating the high freight rates which we are compelled to pay, and which the railroads justify by pointing out the small dividends they pay on their investments? It is because they have to make up by overcharging the inland towns the amounts they lose by hauling freight at less than cost and from favored so-called water competition ports."

PRESCOTT, Ariz., Nov. 2.—A lone highwayman, armed with a knife, tonight entered five hotels in this city, fatally wounded one of the guests who offered resistance and made his escape after robbing a score of people amounting during his single-handed raids. The man first made his appearance in the Scheurman hotel, where he was discovered by Robert Lutely. The latter tried to place his valuables and was almost cut by the assailant. A few minutes later the robber entered the Brinkmeyer hotel, where he secured considerable booty in rapid succession. He then visited the Head, Cliff and Globe hotels, in each instance terrorizing and robbing the inmates he encountered. He then made his escape.

RANK TREATMENT OF A FAITHFUL EMPLOYEE

The treatment which Harold E. Slater recently received at the hands of Sheriff Emery is much commented on by his friends of Slater these days. The sheriff has never had a more faithful assistant than Harold Slater. He has been a jailer and deputy for nearly a dozen years. His record has been marked with the strictest loyalty. He has never shirked a duty, no matter how unpleasant it was for him personally. But he was of error last month. His usual vigilance was relaxed for a few minutes and a prisoner escaped—not an important prisoner, either. The fellow was serving a jail sentence for petit larceny. He took advantage of Slater's absence for a visit to the office of the jail, made a dash for liberty, and he succeeded.

When the sheriff heard of it he sent a deputy to Slater to tell him he need not report for duty. He did not tell his faithful servant personally. He did not have the nerve. He knew that he had only seized the escapee as a means to carry out a thing he doubtlessly had been planning. When he was informed that the sheriff had suspended him, Slater hunted up the sheriff and asked for an explanation. He was informed that it was necessary to suspend him pending such time as he could think the matter over. Slater insisted on either retention or summary discharge. He refused the sheriff's offer of a furlough. And the sheriff decided to act finally. Slater was cut from the rolls on October 16, although he had worked ten days longer. So much for years of faithfulness.

That night Riss saw his way out and escaped, and Emery discharged Jailer John Lawson, whom he held responsible. It was a shameful piece of work to shift responsibility on Lawson, after refusing to charge guard the jail himself, and Sheriff Emery is coming in for criticism on this account and on account of his treatment of Slater that will make his ears burn when he hears of it.

PLAN COMBINATION OF CRACKER MAKERS

BALTIMORE, Nov. 2.—A combination of independent cracker manufacturers, to be known as the General Biscuit company, is now in process of formation, according to George D. Benjamin, a lawyer of this city. It is understood that about twenty-five independent companies will be in the projected combine. The capital stock will be $600,000, but for the present it will be issued only in sufficient amounts to absorb the plants desired. Mr. Benjamin stated that owing to the present money conditions the time was not opportune for launching the enterprise, but meanwhile plans will be carefully worked out. Baltimore, New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis are among the cities represented in the new company.

CLOTHING STOLEN WHILE HE SNOOZES

When John Carlson, with just about as much clothes on as a native of the tropical zone deports himself in, and too drunk to tell where he lives, was awakened by Policemen Staines and Burton in the stairway leading to the Salvation Army's barracks on Commercial avenue, about 10 o'clock last night, he was nearly frozen to death. Suits, hat, shoes, overcoat, coat and vest, sans shoes, he was staking like a man with buck age. Carlson said he did not know how he got there or where his clothes had gone. Suspecting that some one had snipped them from him in his drunken sleep and pawned them, the policeman made the rounds of the tailor shops and found them at the Grand Rapids tailor shop and pawned them. Carlson's brain was sufficiently cleared to identify his clothes and the tailor shop gave a description of the person who had sold them there that enabled the officers to capture a man giving the name of Daniel O'Connell, who placed his age at thirty-seven and said he is a stone cutter. O'Connell is charged with grand larceny. He sold the clothes for $2.25, it is claimed, but only 15 cents was found on him.
