WOMAN ASKS FOR DIVORCE CHARGING NEGLECT AND CRUELTY.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, Nov. 23.—On February 15 Charles A. Keller spat a mouthful of coffee in her face, according to a complaint for divorce filed with the clerk today by Ella Keller.

She says that her husband has failed to furnish her and their minor child with the common necessities of life. She also complains that he has frequently maltreated her, and that he has attacked her with his hands, and has inflicted upon her body, and especially her face, numerous and frequent acts of violence. They were married in this city August 2 years. Mrs. Keller asks that she be awarded her custody and maintenance alimony in addition to a divorce.

Her answer to a divorce complaint filed by George A. Watts some time ago is that she denies that she is to blame for the marital unhappiness. On the contrary, she says that her husband has inflicted upon her numerous times. As he came into the house of property of $5,000 value, she says she is entitled to a portion of it.

Notes of American Folk.

AMERICAN FOLK, Utah, Nov. 23.—The public exercises and program to be given at the city hall at 11 o'clock on Thursday, Nov. 28, will be a pretentious affair. One of the drawing features will be the awards of $170 in cash prizes, to the winners of the city improvement contest, started last spring by the local Commercial club.

President John R. Winder, of Salt Lake City, spent part of the week in this city, during which time he visited the public schools, and was very much taken up with the manner in which the large army of children are so nicely handled.

Miss Mae Holman, one of the local teachers, will spend Thanksgiving Day in Willard City, as the guest of Misses Lottie and Katie Owens.

ALLOTMENT MADE FOR SHEEP GRAZING

Special to The Tribune.
AMERICAN FOLK, Nov. 23.—The following, which deals with the grazing permits for sheepmen for 1908, will be of considerable interest to the many sheep raisers of this place:

The allotment for sheep grazing on the Utah national forest reserve for the season of 1908, based on the number of grown sheep grazed in 1907, with the exception of the districts of districts 18 and 19, will be as follows: All permits for less than 1,000 head will be increased 20 per cent, provided that this does not in any case increase the number to more than 1,100 head. All permits for from 1,000 to 1,400 head will be increased 10 per cent, provided this does not advance them to over 1,400 head. All permits for from 1,400 to 2,000 head will be renewed without reduction in number. All permits for from 2,001 to 2,900 head will be reduced 5 per cent, provided none is reduced below 2,000 head. All permits for from 3,001 up will be reduced 10 per cent, provided none is reduced below 2,800. Owing to the fact that a large portion of districts 18 and 19 are used for lambing, these districts are now being grazed to their full capacity and no permit holder will be given an increase in 1908 unless he will accept range which is not fully occupied at present.

Deny Harriman's Dictation.

The defendants deny that they voted for J. T. Harahan and against Stuyvesant Fish in the election for president of the Illinois Central railroad at the behest of E. H. Harriman, asserting that their action was taken because "the said dictation of the funds of the Illinois Central Railroad company," had "used his power as president of the said company to further his personal interests, to the great peril and financial injury of the railroad."

FATE OF STEVE ADAMS IN THE JURY'S HANDS

SPOKANE, Nov. 23.—A special to the Spokesman-Review from Rathdrum, Idaho, says: Judge W. W. Wood finished his instruction on trial here for the murder of Fred Tyler at 3:30 o'clock tonight. They were in favor of the State in that they stated, should it be shown that a special inducement had been offered Adams by Detective McFarland, of the Pinkertons, it might be considered a verdict of guilty found.

IDAHO TEACHERS PLAN MEETING IN BOISE

Special to The Tribune.
BOISE, Ida., Nov. 23.—Prof. G. A. Axline of the Albion Normal school, president of the State Teachers' association, is in the city arranging for the annual meeting of the association to be held here December 26 to 28, inclusive. President Axline says the program will include some prominent speakers from outside of the State, among them being Dr. Richard G. Bonn, who is principal of the foremost educational lecturers in the country. He addressed the summer normal here last summer. A number of State superintendents from other States are expected to be present.

OVER TWO THOUSAND PENSIONERS IN IDAHO

Special to The Tribune.
BOISE, Ida., Nov. 23.—According to an order just issued by A. M. Rowe, department commander of the Idaho Grand Army of the Republic, there are 2,205 pensioners in this state, which indicates that there are about 2,000 veterans of the civil war living in Idaho. The number of exempted rises to a point, it does not believe an emergency exists demanding such action on his part, but that if an emergency should arise he would not hesitate to call the members together.

Eagleston Will Fight.

Special to The Tribune.
BOISE, Ida., Nov. 23.—According to the document just received from Washington by Surveyor-General Eagleston, the charge filed against him at Washington is insubordination. Mr. Eagleston is to at once file with the department a certified copy of the records, and he says he is confident he can meet the charges in a manner that will be entirely satisfactory to the Washington authorities.

Held on Larceny Charge.

Special to The Tribune.
LOGAN, Nov. 23.—District Attorney Holton has finally filed an information against John Jamison and M. P. Monro, who, about six weeks ago, were alleged to have picked the pocket of P. C. Nelson at a football game on the R. V. campus. They were held at the time on a charge of robbery, but the information now filed reduces this to petit larceny.

Horse Injures Child.

Special to The Tribune.
LOGAN, Nov. 23.—As Caddie, the 12-year-old daughter of William Brown of this city, was driving a horse out of a lane last evening, the animal either kicked or struck her on the head, cutting a severe gash in her scalp and breaking her jawbone in two places. Her condition is serious.

DEFENDANTS ANSWER COMPLAINT OF FISH

John Jacob Astor and Associates Lend New Phase to Illinois Central Suit.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Answers, demurrers and bills of exceptions to the injunction suit brought by Stuyvesant Fish and others in the Illinois Central imbroglio were filed today. The answer of John Jacob Astor, A. G. Hackstaff, John W. Auchincloss, Cornelius Vanderbilt and J. T. Harahan, which is made joint, is the most important of the documents. Numerous charges regarding Mr. Fish's acts as president of the railroad are contained in it. It is claimed that inasmuch as Fish, acting as proxy, has in times past often voted the stock held by the Railroad Securities company at meetings of the Illinois Central Railroad company, he is thereby estopped from now objecting to the ownership of the Railroad Securities company of Illinois Central shares.

JACK'S NAME IS ENTERED IN THE POLICE STATION BLOTTER

Entered in the "blotter" at the police station, among "vags," "drunks," thieves, burglars and "stickups," is the name Jack—just plain, simple Jack. Jack's last name isn't recorded, for the reason that he is a dog, a pug dog at that.

There will be no trial in Jack's case because there is no charge, but if there was one it would be disturbing the peace and acting in a manner entirely unbecomingly good doggie.

Jack is the property of Mrs. J. Travis of Big Piney, Wyo. He came to Salt Lake with his mistress two or three days ago and stopped at the White House, Second South and Main streets. Jack behaved himself as all good dogs do in the daytime, but at night the new surroundings and their loneliness overcame him and he set up, not one, but many, howls, breaking the sleep of the guests of the hostelry. Naturally there was a big howl from the guests at Jack's midnight concert of yelps, growls and like noises, and

TWO INSANE MEN ARE CONFINED IN THE JAIL

John L. Prye and John Bushick Have Peculiar Hallucinations.

Deputy Sheriffs Emery, Sperry and Steele Saturday reduced the insane portion of the population at large by two, bringing in to the county jail John L. Prye and John Bushick.

Bushick, Austrian, who is a life cripple, is violently insane. At the county infirmary, of which he had been an inmate since February, he attacked Joseph Cottrell, keeper, with his crutches, also Alf Kendall and a youthful inmate known only as Johnny, who is a paralytic. The latter was unable to avoid Bushick and stood in danger of his life until assistance arrived and stopped Bushick in his murderous assault.

MESSENGER BOY HURT BY FALL FROM WHEEL

Joseph Smith of 238 South Second East a messenger boy for the Jubilee service, plunged from his bicycle as he was returning from delivering a message at Third and B streets Saturday night, and striking his head against the curb, he was killed. He was 15 years of age, and simple open to the skull, split his lip and cut his right wrist. Dr. B. E. Steele dressed his injuries at the Emergency hospital.

WESTON NEARING CHICAGO.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Nov. 23.—Weston, the postmaster, arrived at Logansport, Ind., at 11 o'clock Saturday morning and started for Chicago Monday morning. He was given a great reception at Kendallville, where he had supper.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

Over half a million dollars was the advance subscription for seats at the Metropolitan Opera house in New York for the grand opera season.

The performance of Offenbach's opera, "Les Contes d'Hoffman," given in New York this week, was announced as the first presentation in America. This is erroneous, as it was presented in New York in 1883 by the Maurice Grau opera company.

Mme. Emma Eames, who has returned from Europe, will appear in the role of Iris, which she is to create, in Mascagni's opera, "Iris," in the Metropolitan opera house, New York, on December 4.

Mme. Nordica has recovered from her illness and is again singing the title role in "La Gioconda."

Gilbert and Sullivan operas have been revived in the old Crystal palace, London, under the direction of George O. Starr, who for many years was connected with Barnum & Bailey's "great."

A new conductor in the person of Rodolfo Ferrari, from the Teatro Macanotti, Rome, was introduced in New York this week.

Bonci, the tenor who was the cause of a lively fight between Hammerstein and Conried, will appear in Philadelphia as the star in "Rigoletto" on December 3.

A great concert was given at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia on Thursday last evening by the Jungfer Maennchen of that city. The society, in its fifty-five years of existence, has won many triumphs, its greatest, probably, being the winning of the $10,000 prize donated by the Emperor of Germany in 1900.

The season of grand opera at the Metropolitan opera house, New York, has been increased to twenty weeks. Among the novelties and revivals which the repertory of the house already has so extensive, is to be increased, are, besides "Adriana Lecouvreur," "Giordano's "Siberia" and "Andrea Chénier," Mascagni's "Iris," "Bollo's "Meistofel," Mozart's "Don Giovanni" and "La Nozze di Figaro."

Vilma Mandl Schaeffer is the latest musical phenomenon. She is the discovery of Emily Grant von Tetzel, well known as a musical critic and singer in New York for many years. Miss von Tetzel went West to develop her voice, and while doing so discovered Miss Mandl, or Miss Schaeffer, as she is known. She is only 19, but she has a voice which, if it will do all that is claimed for it, should classify her as a musical work; it is said she has a range of five octaves, and can ascend eight notes above Patti's high F.
