THREE MEN DYING, RESULT OF FIGHT

Terrible Affray Between Two Austrian Factions in Bingham Canyon.

FULLY FORTY FOREIGNERS PARTICIPATE IN THE RIOT

Only Two of the Aggressors Are in Jail; Cause of the Battle.

BINGHAM, Dec. 27.—As the result of a battle between two armed factions of Austrians at the Highland Boy mine Friday night, Mike Bogdanovich, Joe Tresselt and Jim Anovitch are dying and two rioters named Dugovich and Zacherwitsch are in jail.

Fully forty Austrians participated in the riot, which was the outgrowth of the withdrawal of a bond for $50 which Mike Bogdan, the leading Austrian of the canyon, had put up for Steve Meyer, a countryman, who was released from custody Thursday and almost immediately re-arrested for shooting up the town and kicking the wife of Dugovich, at whose house he figured in a drunken brawl.

Are Fatally Wounded.

Bogdanovich was shot in the left shoulder, the bullet coming out of the left breast in the region of the heart. Tresselt's left eye was blown out by a bullet, which went through his head and out below the left ear. Anovitch was shot in the side, the bullet causing a wound which will result in his death. The men were given immediate medical attention, but are not expected to live more than a few hours.

The trouble started Friday when Meyer, who was under a bond of $50 on a charge of shooting up the town, broke his parole and was re-arrested. During the day he visited the Dugovich home, which is just above Mike Bogdan's, and kicked Mrs. Dugovich during a drunken brawl in which a number of Austrians participated. Learning that Bogdan had withdrawn his bond, Meyer obtained other assistance and, leaving the jail, went to the Dugovich home, where he surrounded himself with about twenty countrymen belonging to his faction.

A Battle Royal.

Bogdan was warned that trouble was brewing, and notified the officers, who made an investigation and decided the riot was a quarrel. When the officers had departed, Meyer and his gang gathered on the Dugovich porch and commenced throwing rocks at Bogdan's house. The latter came out to ascertain the cause of the demonstration. His appearance was a signal for the commencement of real hostilities, and he was met with a terrific fusillade of bullets. Bogdan called for members of his faction, and a noisy, enraged Austrians were in the heated fray. The neighborhood was aroused, and a successful effort made to end the riot. Bogdanovich and Tresselt of the Meyer faction, and Anovitch of the Bogdan's faction were given all medical aid possible, but little hope is vouchsafed for their recovery.

NEWLANDS TRIES TO RETAIN TROOPS

Represents to War Department That Goldfield Is in Need of Protection.

MESSAGE MAY BE SENT TO PRESIDENT

Administration Feels Special Session of Nevada Legislature Should Be Called.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Senator Newlands of Nevada is endeavoring to prevent withdrawal of the Government troops from Goldfield until some other means of protection is had. Today he called upon Secretary Taft at the War Department and strongly urged that execution of the order issued by the Secretary for the withdrawal of the troops next Monday be suspended until he has had an opportunity to communicate with Governor Sparks and endeavor to induce him to call the Nevada Legislature together. Secretary Taft has been advising with Secretary Root on this subject, and it is probable that the President will be communicated with at Pine Knot. There is every disposition to refrain from breaking in upon his privacy at this time, and the only excuse for doing so is found in the fact that unless the original order is modified the troops must leave Goldfield next Monday morning, and before the President returns to Washington.

Doubt as to Legal Right.

Administration officials feel that the present situation in the matter of Goldfield's case can not be continued in view of the doubt that exists as to the constitutional and legal right of the executive to employ any part of the regular army in Nevada under present conditions. Governor Sparks' attention has been repeatedly called to the fact that this constitutional doubt might be removed by the simple device of calling together the State Legislature, when that body could either give a warrant to use the regular troops or provide by legislation for raising a State force of some kind, either militia or police, sufficient to insure the maintenance of peace and the observance of law in Goldfield. It is believed that Senator Newlands' appeal today is an indication of the willingness of the Governor to recall his refusal to convene the Legislature in session, and that he will call it together, the Government troops would probably be retained at Goldfield until some other arrangements can be made.

BOTH SIDES WAITING TO HEAR FROM COURT

GOLDFIELD, Nev., Dec. 27.—Both sides of the labor controversy in Goldfield are tonight anxiously awaiting the decision of the United States circuit court in an injunction against the Western Federation of Miners and the Goldfield Miners' union. Prohibiting them from picketing the mines and compelling them to cease meeting or conducting the business of the union in the town.

EMPRESS OF RUSSIA ILL; REPORTS CONFLICT

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 27.—No official announcement was made today concerning the illness of the Empress Alexandra, which leads to the presumption that there has been no new alarming development in her illness. For some time Her Majesty has been suffering from a slight attack of influenza. Previously she had consulted a specialist and had submitted to a severe regimen to reduce her weight, and her present affliction is ascribed to this.

MYSTERY OF WOMAN'S MURDER YET UNSOLVED

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—The mystery surrounding the circumstances of the murder of the unknown woman, whose body was found recently submerged in a pond on the outskirts of Harrison, N. J., appears no nearer solution today. The Newark police are tonight searching for the slayer, who was appointed by the Newark police to be in charge of the woman's funeral on Christmas day. Evidence was found today that the woman was seen in Newark on Christmas eve by William Snyder, a carpenter, who stated, after seeing the body, that the young woman had spoken to him in Newark on the night before Christmas and asked him to be directed to a restaurant. He said the woman told him that she was a stranger.

BLACKMAIL OR RUIN!

TIGRESS OF CHINA IS SHOWING HER CLAWS

Government Alarmed by Agitation; Public Meetings in Peking Suppressed.

PEKING, Dec. 27.—The Dowager Empress has given verbal orders to the Interior department and to the police to suppress all public meetings in Peking, and there is reason to believe that this order will be extended to the provinces.

Government Alarmed.

The movement has reached such magnitude that the government is thoroughly alarmed, and it is today striving to fill a conciliatory position between the agitators and those who consider themselves to be aggrieved. The people of the Kiang province have sent some delegates here to protect their interests. These delegates the foreign board has taken into its confidence, opening its archives to them and asking them to make a careful examination of the position of the Chinese government with regard to Great Britain and then to recommend a solution of the difficulty.

MALONEY'S STATEMENT DOES NOT TELL TRUTH

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27.—Martin Maloney today, through a personal friend, issued the following statement upon the affairs of Helen Maloney, or Mrs. Herbert Osborne, who claimed a sensation by eloping with Sammie Jackson, a young Englishman, three months ago, after having married young Osborne, who at the time was a Princeton student.

RULINGS OF INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

INRUSH OF MEDICANTS ALARMING NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Bands of migratory mendicants and hundreds of unemployed workmen from other cities are pouring into New York and the influx of dependents on the municipality has developed a situation which the charitable institutions are unable to meet. Hundreds of applicants for clothing, food and lodging are being turned away daily by philanthropic institutions, and to consider those extraordinary conditions an informal meeting was held today by representatives of twenty charitable organizations.

Portion of Missing Securities Located

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—The announcement that missing securities of the Colton estate had been found, tucked away in an odd corner of the California Safe Deposit and Trust company today, caused a stir among the officials of the District Attorney's office, which is directing the prosecution of Bankers Brown and Barnett, who are accused of concealment of the certificates. Investigation showed that only a few stocks and certificates had been unearthed by lawyer Cushing. They were mostly shares of mining companies whose value is problematical. Cushing said that they did not appear to be negotiable. It is said that the finding of the stocks will have no effect on the prosecution of Brown and Barnett, as they have not been accused of the embezzlement of the stocks unearthed today. The missing securities, valued at $295,000, have not yet been located.

General Drude Recalled.

PARIS, Dec. 27.—It was announced today that General Drude, who has been in command of the French troops in Morocco, is again down with the fever and that as his own request he has been recalled. BATTLE OF STAFF AGAINST THE LINE

Navy Department Will Try Scheme of Having Surgeon Command Hospital Ship.

SENATOR HALE STANDS WITH ADMIRAL BROWNSON

Declares Government Might as Well Turn Vessel Over to a Chaplain.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—The orders assigning Surgeon Charles F. Stokes to the command of the hospital ship Relief are expected to be signed very soon, it having been definitely decided, according to Secretary Metcalf, to appoint him to that position. With this end in view, every effort will be made to obtain a merchant crew and master for the vessel. Failing to man the Relief with a crew from the merchant marine, the enlisted force of the navy will be drawn on and a line officer assigned as captain, in which case he will have command.

While the ship is practically ready for service, there are a number of things to be done to put her in the best of shape, which will take probably until the 1st of February. The scheme of having a medical officer command the Relief, in the event that a merchant crew is secured, is to have a trial for at least six months, and if the experiment proves satisfactory, then the expectation is that the assignment of a surgeon to command hospital ships will be a permanent feature of naval administration.

Brownsion Loses Money.

Admiral Brownsion's relinquishment of his position as chief of the bureau of navigation, carrying with it, as it did, ex officio connection with the naval general board, will result in a considerable loss of pay to the officer. Being entirely without duty and relegated to the retired list, his income will be diminished in the first place by the loss of 25 per cent of the full pay to have an admiral on the active list—namely, $7,500 a year. Also he will no longer receive the allowance to an active officer of his grade of $1,500 a year for quarters and $200 a year for heat and light. It so happens, however, that Admiral Brownsion is a man of independent means and able to disregard financial conditions in taking his stand as champion of the line in the present battle with the staff.

Hale Praises Admiral.

Senator Hale, chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs, voiced frankly his attitude toward the resignation of Admiral Brownsion as chief of the bureau of navigation.

Mr. Hale continued: "I think that Admiral Brownsion has acted with praiseworthy courage and promptness in tendering his resignation," said Senator Hale, adding that he had seen the admiral since his resignation.

Says Reasons Are Plain.

When asked for his reasons for the position taken Senator Hale replied: "They are entirely in the interests of discipline. Think what might happen if the command of the vessels should be turned over to a chaplain, or to a paymaster. And it is just as reasonable to put the crews of a naval fleet under the charge of those officers as it is to place them under the command of a surgeon."

Fatally Wounded and Robbed.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 27.—Robbers entered the home of Cameron Cobb, the railroad bridge at West Pittston, early today, and after fracturing his skull with a blunt instrument, robbed him of $300. He cannot survive.

DENSE FOG CAUSE OF FATAL WRECK

Three Persons Killed and Seventeen Injured in Collision at Camden, N. J.

IMPOSSIBLE FOR ENGINEERS TO SEE THE SIGNALS

Wreckage Catches Fire, but Heroic Work of Rescuers Saves Many Lives.

CAMDEN, N. J., Dec. 27.—Three persons were killed and seventeen injured in a collision on the elevated tracks of the Pennsylvania lines just outside the station here today, when a Pemberton accommodation train ran into the rear of an Atlantic City express. A heavy fog was the principal contributory cause of the accident.

The Dead:

C. H. BROWN, Moorestown, N. J.
J. L. GARBARINI, Mount Holly, N. J.

Bodily Injured:

Robert Clark of Merchantville, suffered contusions on legs and chest and his ears were cut.
J. K. Mendenhall of Hainsport, N. J.
William Mason, Mount Holly.
A. H. Muleford of Merchantville.
Bernard Stafford of Merchantville.

Engines Moving Slowly.

The fog was so thick that the engineers of the two trains were running cautiously and just outside the station the Atlantic City train was signalled to stop. The engineer of the Pemberton train failed to see the Atlantic City train in time to avoid a collision, but he instantly jammed his brakes down hard when he saw the train through the fog. The sudden jolt forced the tender of the Pemberton train into the first car, wrecking it badly and either killing or injuring everybody in the coach. The train, however, did not come to a full stop, but slipped into the rear of the Atlantic City express, causing the tender to still further telescope the first car. The force of the collision was slight and no one was injured in the forward train. Coals from the locomotive of the Pemberton train set the wreckage afire and it was at first feared that many of the injured would be pinned under the heavy twisted iron and wood would be burned to death, but the prompt action of the Camden fire department in extinguishing the flames and the efficient rescue work of the uninjured passengers subsequently saved many lives.

REPRIEVE CAME AS BLACK CAP WAS READY

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 27.—Just as the black cap was about to be placed over the head of Henry Thaxton, a negro, convicted of the killing of S. T. Huntsucker, a white man, a telegram arrived from the governor, staying the execution for fifteen days. The Sheriff read the message aloud. The prisoner raised his hands and said: "I thank God for all the prisoners in the jail gave a cheer, and Thaxton was led back to his cell praying and weeping."
