WELL KNOWN DEAD AND MANY MISSING

Turning of New Aveline at Fort Wayne, Ind., With Sickening Results.

BUILDING WAS OLD AND WENT LIKE TINDER

Guests Awakened From Slumber at Early Hour: Faced Barriers of Flames.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., May 3.—Ten lives were lost and thirteen seriously injured, is the result of a fire that destroyed the New Aveline hotel, Fort Wayne's principal hostelry, at an early hour today.

Chief of Police Anckenbruck said in a statement that he believed twenty bodies were still in the ruins. The entire interior of the building is smoldering heap of ruins, and how many dead are concealed by the debris is not known.

The Known Dead.

F. C. Phillips, Calumet, Mich.; face burned and head scorched. John Long, bartender, arms broken. The complete destruction of the interior of the hotel makes the work of recovering bodies a difficult task.

A massed heap of charred wood, bricks and twisted iron is piled up between the bare walls of the second story. Piece by piece this must be removed before a roll of the dead can be completed.

Started in Elevator Shaft. The fire was discovered at 3:30, this morning in the elevator shaft by Night watchman Ralph Hopkins. He dashed to the floor, alarming the guests, until flames, which had spread with appalling rapidity, drove him back. His efforts saved many lives.

The hotel was erected half a century ago, and the woodwork was dry as tinder. It burned like matchwood and in a few minutes from the time the fire was discovered the whole interior of the hotel was a mass of flames that laid the corridors and rooms with suffocating clouds of smoke and laid fiery fingers across all means of escape save the windows.

The fire department rescued many persons by means of ladders, but some, seized by the onward rush of the flames, leaped from high windows to the ground.

Leaped from Flames to Death. S. S. Johnson of Pana, Ill., jumped from the fifth story. His body struck balcony and bounded far into the street. He was crushed and bleeding as when picked up, and died a short time later in St. Joseph's hospital.

Many Narrow Escapes. There were many thrilling escapes. One H. Varnell of the Fort Wayne hotel team, his sister Mrs. John Hendricks, and John Hendricks of Chicago, manager of the Fort Wayne team, together with Master Hendricks, aged 5, barely escaped with their lives.

At a third story window was seen a man waving his arms. He shrieked: "Vain Appeal for Aid." God, men, save me, will no one help me.

ROYAL WEDDING IS BRILLIANT AFFAIR

Grand Duchess Marie Pavlovna Becomes Bride of Prince Wilhelm of Sweden.

SWEDISH AND RUSSIAN RULERS IN ATTENDANCE

Ceremonies Marked by Much Pomp and Elaborate Display of the Stately Court.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 3.—Prince Wilhelm of Sweden, second son of King Gustaf, the popular sailor prince who visited America in 1907, was married this afternoon to Grand Duchess Marie Pavlovna, cousin of the Emperor of Russia, and daughter of Grand Duke Paul Alexandrovich.

The ceremony took place at Tsarskoje Selo and was accompanied by all the pomp and brilliant display characteristic of the most stately court in Europe. The day was marked by a heavy fall of snow, which, however, failed to chill the enthusiasm of the great crowds that gathered around the palace to watch a glimpse of the emperor and other royal personages and the arriving guests.

In the evening a great state banquet was served at which toasts were drunk to the good understanding between Sweden and Russia recently reached in the Baltic agreement, to which today's wedding—the first in modern times between the ruling houses of the two countries—puts the seal.

Many Salutes Fired.

The beginning of the nuptial ceremonies was announced by the firing of five guns simultaneously this morning at 10 o'clock by the batteries at Tsarskoje Selo and by the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul in St. Petersburg. This was but the beginning of the noisy acclamations for the change of rulers which continued uninterruptedly throughout the afternoon and evening.

Invited wedding guests who took part in the ceremony assembled at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at the great palace at Tsarskoje Selo. Prince Andrew, president of the council of state, the principal ambassador, the emperor's principal wives, and a few of the highest dignitaries of the empire, found place in the small, blue and gold carpeted of the palace where the orthodox ceremony was performed. The other guests were seated according to rank in the various salons through which the bridal procession passed.

Ride Robbed by Thieves. The robbing of the bride was performed in accordance with court custom in the presence of the emperor and empress, who were dressed by the emperor and the dowager empress, assisted by their maids of honor and their ladies in waiting.

The bride wore a crown of gold and diamonds, and from her shoulders hung a long, fringed mantle of strawberry-colored velvet with gold fringe.

The procession of the train of this garment was borne by five court chamberlains. As soon as the bride was completely arrayed, Prince Wilhelm was notified by the master of ceremonies and conducted to the fourth apartment, where Grand Duchess Marie was awaiting.

A salute of 21 guns and a blare of trumpets announced the start of the procession. The bride and groom, escorted by the emperor and empress, followed by a score of Russian grand dukes and grand duchesses, including the three oldest daughters of Emperor Nicholas, Grand Duchess Olga, Grand Duchess Tatiana and Grand Duchess Marie, the eldest being 13 years old.

This is the first time the emperor's daughters have appeared in state. The little crown prince, who is long engaged to be married, and the Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaievitch, president of the commission of national defense, were also summoned to the Caucasus because of the war clouds on the Turkish frontier.

The grand duchesses, like all the invited guests, wore the traditional Russian court costume of high part corset, cape and low-cut dresses.

Elaborate Ceremonies. The imperial guests were received at the chapel doors, the metropolitan, of the emperor had been blessed and sprinkled with holy water, he conducted the bride and groom to the altar, where the golden gates on the high altar. The wedding rings were brought from the altar on golden salvers and placed upon the fingers of the bride and the bridegroom by the emperor's confessor.

The procession then completed the rites of the Russian marriage service, two of the bride's nearest relatives holding crowns over the heads of the bridal pair during the ceremony.

While the tea was being chanted an imperial salute of 101 guns was fired. The emperor then returned to one of the auto salons, where the Lutheran marriage ceremony was performed by the Swedish bishop.

The nuptial dinner was served at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. The guests, including the emperor and empress, the imperial family and to their loyal Russian subjects.

Court Dance Held. After the dinner the members of the imperial family and their royal guests participated in a polonaise. This stately procession around the great reception hall was something in the nature of the "Hohenzollern torch dance."

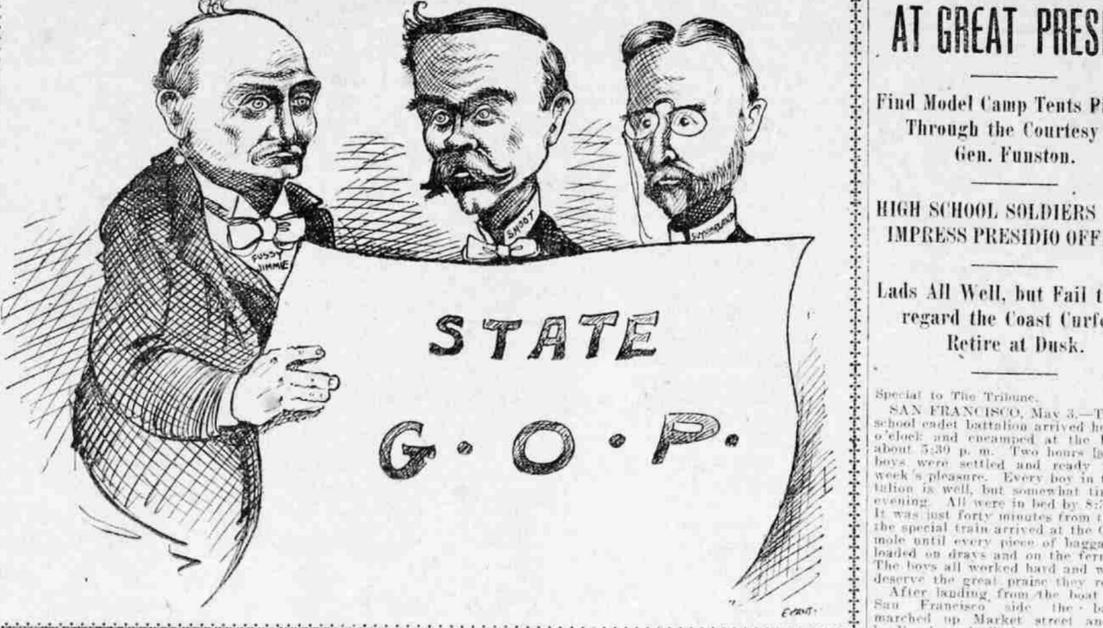

After this function the guests were taken to the private residence of the emperor, the bridal pair riding with their sponsors in a gala equipage. The emperor, the empress and the dowager empress were surrounded by torch bearers and escorted by a company of the emperor's Cossack guard in brilliant blue and scarlet uniforms.

At a late hour in the evening the bridal pair took a special train for St. Peter-

CLEVELAND GAINING GROUND, IS REPORT

Official Denial of Story That He Suffers From Cancer of the Stomach.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., May 3.—The condition of former President Grover Cleveland, who is said by physicians to be suffering from acute indigestion, continues to show daily improvement, according to the report of a geological survey.

The patient spent a quiet Sunday at the Lakewood hotel today, and Mrs. Cleveland expressed herself as pleased to night with the improvement made.

Mr. Cleveland is reportedly in good health, and for that reason they were not given a grand reception. The camp is located in the most beautiful part of the Presidio, with plenty of water and grass near at hand and within two blocks of the Jackson street car line.

HIGH SCHOOL SOLDIERS IMPRESS PRESIDIO OFFICERS

Lads All Well, but Fail to Disregard the Coast Curfew; Retire at Dusk.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—The high school cadet battalion arrived here at 3 o'clock and encamped at the Presidio about 5:30. Two hours later the boys were settled and ready for the week's pleasure. Every boy in the battalion is well, but somewhat tired this evening.

All were in bed by 8:30 p. m. It was not until 10:30 that the special train arrived at the Oakland mole until every piece of baggage was loaded on drays and on the ferry boat. The boys all worked hard and well and deserve great praise for their fine conduct.

After landing from the boat on the San Francisco side the battalion marched up Market street and were loudly cheered all along the way. They marched to Filmore street and thence to Union, where they boarded street cars and rode the rest of the way to camp.

When they arrived at the camping grounds, much to their surprise, it was found that the regulars at the Presidio, who express the hope that the progress of her husband's recovery may permit an early return to their home at Boston.

FRISCO READY TO WELCOME FLEET

City Has Taken on Gala Appearance in Honor of the Great Event.

SPECIAL TRAINS FROM ZION ARRIVE SAFELY

Expected That 800,000 Persons Will Watch Naval Demonstration Next Wednesday.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—In eager expectancy San Francisco is awaiting the arrival of the Atlantic battleship fleet. The meats are baked, the house is in order and the feast is set.

The members of the household are clothed in their best raiment and are busy with the final arrangements of low and other adornment.

Fluttering flags, many portraits and streamers and Rear Admiral Evans's picture are everywhere. Market street is a long vista of banners in the national colors and flags waving from white poles fifty feet high, every one hundred feet, one large and a cluster of five smaller flags flying from each pole, with a single flag in the huge red, white and blue shield on the tall ferry tower. On each side of the tower, which stands on the cables, are the words "Welcome to the Atlantic Fleet" in the kaleidoscopic colors of the international navy signal code.

Relatives and friends are coming in from the north, south and east to assist in the entertainment and to witness the pomp and pageantry of an event which marks the beginning of the Pacific ocean. It is estimated that there will be between 800,000 and 1,000,000 persons in San Francisco on the day that the fleet arrives.

The suburban cities adjacent to the bay, and towns within a radius of 50 miles, will practically be depopulated and will contribute 200,000 while the railroad companies estimate that they will bring at least 150,000 from points as far east as Omaha and from British Columbia to the north to the international boundary line on the coast. The Southern Pacific company has placed 250 extra cars and sleepers in commission in addition to the regular equipment. Extra special trains from California points and the Pacific coast States are scheduled.

Two specials, one of nine sleepers, carrying the south-bound train, and the other of ten sleepers, carrying the north-bound train, will arrive in San Francisco this evening from Salt Lake City. Three extra trains are reported out of Portland by the Southern Pacific and all trains north, east and south are running in two and three sections.

Governor Sheldon and his party of 100 from Alaska, will arrive in a special train Tuesday night.

Practically all reservations in the big hotels are taken. The fairmont stopped making reservations a month ago, but gave assurance that there will be ample accommodations. More than 40,000 people have been listed with the committee, which has established an information bureau at the Ferry building.

On Wednesday, from the vantage point of hill and steamers will be seen the most imposing and spectacular parade in modern naval history, in which a total of forty-two warships, including the Golden Gate in single line formation and deep anchor amid the roar of 12-inch guns, the muffled thud of the shells of a million people and the shrieks of steam whistles.

For the past month has been under treatment at Paso Robles Hot Springs, has just recovered, that he will reassume command of the fleet of the Pacific Tuesday afternoon, just before sailing for this city. The fleet will arrive off the Golden Gate Tuesday evening, and will be joined by the Pacific squadron of armored cruisers of the west Virginia type and Rear Admiral Grayson, the following morning at 5 o'clock.

Will Lead Log Line. At noon the flagship Connecticut, flying the flag of Rear Admiral Evans, will, on a full tide, lead the battleship, every cruiser, torpedo boat, gunboat, hospital, supply and other auxiliary vessels past the Golden Gate in single line formation and deep anchor amid the roar of 12-inch guns, the muffled thud of the shells of a million people and the shrieks of steam whistles.

When you break the rules," an army officer is quoted as having said, "you are the limit."

The fair way of the fleet through the bay will be lined with hundreds of excursion steamers and motor boats. The most stringent regulations have been issued for the policing and patrolling of the bay and heavy penalties will be imposed for any violation. Officers from the revenue cutter service, under command of Captain Jacobson, will be on duty as collector of the Port Frederick S. Stratton has advised that every possible precaution is taken to insure the safety of the fleet in four column formation, commencing at Hunter's point, where they will repeat the outrage of Friday night on the North Beach.

A telephone message from the station agent at Melrose informed the officers of the fleet, repeating all the details as given by Holan.

His story is believed by those who hear it to be the truth, as some time ago several sticks of dynamite were found on the Short Line tracks and upon his confession the perpetrator is now serving time in the Deer Lodge penitentiary.

PARDO SENDS TROOPS TO HUNT INSURGENTS

President of Peru Takes Precautions to Check Any Incipient Outbreak.

LIMA, Peru, May 3.—Government troops have been sent out by President Pardo on receipt of reports here that an insurrection was brewing not far from this city. Alarm was felt in government circles on Friday night when it was rumored that the insurgent leader, Dr. Durand, with 200 of his men, attempted to cut the wires of the electric lighting plant which supplies the center for the lighting of Lima and the suburbs. If an attempt was made it was not successful and the troops have not yet succeeded in locating Durand.

President Pardo passed Sunday night in the barracks and this morning additional troops were sent out in search of the alleged insurgent. A number of arrests were made in the city of persons suspected of complicity in the movement, but Lima itself presents no unusual aspects and the idea of an extensive movement looking to a revolution is not generally believed.

There is no doubt, however, that the insurgent bands have been at work in the vicinity of Lima, although the latest reports indicate that the whole republic is quiet. Soldiers are now moving both north and south and they have found quantities of cartridges and dynamite along the railroad lines. It is reported also, but the report has not been confirmed, that recently a railroad bridge was blown up. The troops have been ordered to take the utmost precaution not to give the insurgents any opportunity so surprise them.

Last night the theaters were in full swing in Lima and at Callao and the English club gave a ball.

INDIA IS CAUSING ENGLAND ANXIETY

LONDON, May 3.—India is a source of considerable anxiety to the British government at the present moment. The difficulties with the Mohandas seemed on Friday to have been settled, but according to reports received here, a new danger threatened. An attempt was made by a large Afghan force, numbering from 12,000 to 20,000, which went across the border divided into two bodies, to seize the blockhouse of Khyber Pass, near Landi Kotal. The attack was repulsed with trifling casualties among the British, but the Afghans remained in front of Landi Kotal and another body is reported to be moving into the Bazar valley by way of Livot pass.

The morning newspapers concern the forces, recently despatched to quell the trouble, has gone to Jamrud, a few miles from Peshawar, at the entrance of Khyber Pass, and is hastening forward his troops to meet the new development.

All frontier telegrams are carefully censored at Simla. From Calcutta comes news of the discovery of a plot to murder Europeans by means of bombs. The conspiracy appears to be of an extensive character, and many arrests have been made. The responsibility for the plot is placed on the natives, a number of incriminating documents having been seized together with a supply of bombs and other explosives.

The discovery of the plot was made through the arrest and confession of the author of the bomb outrage at Almora, Friday, and the fact that the author of the same name in Bengal, in which two Europeans were killed.

Death List of Fire and Explosion Grows. CHICAGO, May 3.—The finding of another body today in the ruins of the Friday night explosion, at the hotel, which was wrecked by an explosion and fire, has added to the list of the dead. The body was identified as that of William Leize, a watchman. One of the bodies previously recovered was believed to be that of Lonze.
