

TRADING IS SLACK DURING BIG OUTING

Everyone Took Holiday When the Travelers Came to Town.

REALTY FIELD MANAGES TO SHOW UP NORMAL

Various Stores Experience a Slight Falling Off in Usual Sales.

The absence of features in the business world during the past week is attributed to the fact that everybody has been occupied with the celebrations incident to the fifth annual outing and grand council meeting of the United Commercial Travelers, whose doings and those of the Fraternal Order of Eagles have engrossed the attention of the people practically all of the week.

In short, every one has been taking a vacation, and there have been no prominent features in any line of trade. It is like the story of the man, however, who had so much to do that he went fishing. The real estate market has not been notably quiet, in spite of this, and the report of the consumption of a large deal which involved the transfer of a large tract on West Temple, between First and Second South streets, has received the latter part of the week.

Building Active. The work of erecting new structures along Main street has been continued, and many other changes on side streets have been completed. Perhaps the most noticeable is the improvement of the property owned by Jacob Moritz, between Commercial street and Flum alley, which has added considerably to the appearance of Second South.

The reports of new homes all over the city continue to come in and show that there is no cessation of increase to the population. The new corners require homes, and many of the people who have been content with somewhat narrow quarters up to the present time have begun to spread out and to select better accommodation from the many handsome new structures being erected.

Furnishing Trade. The dealers in house furnishings have continued to do an excellent business, and although the volume of trade has varied greatly, scarcely any falling off in the average of trade has been discernible from week to week.

In the hardware lines, the call for refrigerators and gas heaters has followed the pace set by the home builders. There has been no falling off in the call for sporting goods and fishing tackle, tents, rubber boots, and the like, in fact everything which would form a part of the equipment for the angler was purchased in large quantities.

quite up to the standard for the past week, and as if in sympathy, the demand for automobile supplies has increased greatly. This is explained on the ground that the owners of machines were anxious to have their automobiles fitted up ready for the great parade of Thursday, and in preparation for expected trips incident to the coming of vacation time and summer outings. Farm supplies have fallen off somewhat, it is said, possibly because the farmers have been so busy with their equipment for the season, and there will be a lull for a while until the haying season is over. Machinery of all kinds has been active and the general trade in wholesale goods had not changed enough to occasion comment by the dealers.

With the Dry Goods Men. Among the dry goods dealers there has been some complaint of slow trading. It is said that people are buying those articles of clothing which are absolutely necessary, since there is no need for heavy wearing apparel, and few people anticipate the season in goods of that class. The days of the T. celebration were excellent in amount of trade, especially on account of the large number of people who came to the city to see the things to do their spring purchases.

The sale of linen goods has been the feature of the dry goods trade, and ladies' waists, of the sort that can be worn in any sort of weather, have also sold well. The lighter fabrics, especially those which belong to the summer season, have not been strong. This same thing applies also to underwear of all kinds, which has been unsold, except in those weights which could be used in any sort of weather.

In men's clothing and haberdashery the trade has been generally good, since the season has been far enough advanced to permit of the wearing of summer goods most of the time, and there has been a considerable tendency to discard winter clothing. The high price of wool and the completion of the National convention at Chicago are said to have produced an excellent feeling among business men here and the period of hesitancy in financial circles has given way to increased confidence. Bank clearings fell off considerably during the past week, but this event was regarded as due purely to local conditions and the absence of any great amount of speculation during the U. C. T. outing. Brokers report ample supplies of money to loan on hand and the call excellent. There apparently has been a steady gain in confidence for a number of weeks and the general tone of the financial world has decidedly strengthened.

CHIEF CLERK HEAD OF WAR DEPARTMENT FOR DAY

WASHINGTON, June 20.—John C. Scofield, chief clerk of the War Department, is head of the military establishment of the government today, in the absence of Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary Robert Shaw Oliver. General Oliver has gone to Pine Plains, N. Y., where for the next few days he will witness the military maneuvers there. He will return about the same time Mr. Taft does from Yale. It is expected that General Wright, who is to succeed Secretary Taft, will be in Washington several days before taking office in order to confer with Mr. Taft regarding pending matters by the advent of General Wright is not likely to result in any changes in the War Department. General Oliver will in all probability continue as Assistant Secretary until the close of President Roosevelt's administration.

Secretary Taft, upon his return to Washington next week, is expected to announce his plans for the summer, including the location of his headquarters. Mr. Fred W. Carpenter, Mr. Taft's secretary, has been with him for a number of years, and probably will be in close touch with him during the campaign. Three men were busy today in Secretary Taft's office answering the great mass of congratulatory dispatches which continue to arrive.

HITCHCOCK NOT TO MANAGE CAMPAIGN

be the part of wisdom to postpone definite action on both the chairmanship and the treasurership for a time. Later in the afternoon he said to a representative of the Associated Press:

What Taft Says. "It was deemed wise to defer action for the present, both as to a chairman and a treasurer of the committee. It was not a question that absolutely had to be decided today. On the decision finally reached momentous issues may depend, and we felt that it might be well for the smoke of the battle at Chicago to clear away before determining the matters before us. We have plenty of time and the sub-committee, which has full power to act, may be gotten together at almost any time. The time—July 1—and the place—Washington—were quite satisfactory to all parties to the conference. When we convene there, we shall be able to reach a conclusion that will be satisfactory to all."

Mr. Hitchcock, Mr. Taft stated, was in a state bordering on nervous collapse and needed a good rest. Secretary Taft's discussion of the subject with the members of the committee substantially was an elaborate discussion. With this view the committee fully agreed. It will be noted that the official statement does not say that Mr. Hitchcock declined the chairmanship, but that he declined to be considered for the position on account of his health. No statement was authorized by anybody that he had declined the proffer of the place or that the proffer had been made to him.

It can be seen that the proceedings of today have not eliminated Mr. Hitchcock from consideration and that he undoubtedly will be an important factor in the equation which will be reduced by the conference when they meet on July 1 in Washington.

Entertained by Brother. At the conclusion of the conference luncheon served at the residence of Charles P. Taft. Later the members of the committee were taken in automobiles to the Cincinnati Country club, where they spent the remainder of the afternoon.

Secretary Taft remained quietly at the residence of his brother, receiving calls from his friends and trying to keep cool by a bit of rest. He was on one of the most sweltering days of the early summer.

He will remain as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Taft until tomorrow afternoon, when he will leave for New Haven, Conn., to attend a meeting of the Yale corporation, of which he is a member, and be present on Tuesday at the graduation exercises of 1878—also to attend on Wednesday the commencement exercises at Yale. It is not unlikely that he may conclude to witness the Yale-Harvard boat race on Thursday, but as to that he has not determined definitely.

In connection with his class exercises he recalled the fact that both he and his running mate, Representative Sherman, were graduated in 1878—from Yale and Mr. Sherman from Hamilton college. It was not until today that Secretary Taft was aware of this notable coincidence. Mr. Sherman, the Vice-Presidential nominee, left tonight for Cleveland via the Big Four road. He was accompanied by former Governor Myron T. Herrick and a few other friends. He will pass Sunday in Cleveland and expects to leave that city tomorrow night for Buffalo on one of the Lake Erie steamers. He will reach his home in Utica, N. Y., late Monday afternoon.

Mr. Sherman has been notified that the citizens of Utica are preparing to give him a right royal welcome on his home coming.

The report was current tonight that Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts and Chester I. Long of Kansas were the two names that were given by the sub-committee of the Republican national committee, with Secretary, concerning the selection of a chairman for the committee. No official confirmation of this rumor can be made at this hour, but it is not considered at all impossible that these names were mentioned, as it is generally understood that the discussion in the conference assumed a very wide range.

REWARD OF $3000 FOR MAIL POUCH ROBBER

KANSAS CITY, June 20.—A reward of $3000 has been offered by the government for the arrest and conviction of the thief who took the $50,000 mail pouch from the Union depot in Kansas City Jan. 6. News of the reward has been sent to all points in the United States by the chief inspector of the post office department in Washington. The inspectors have no information of the whereabouts of the negro suspected of the robbery. He went from here to Denver, where all trace of him was lost.

The stolen pouch was destined from Los Angeles to New York. Notice to Nurses. Nurses who have studied with Dr. M. C. Roberts are invited to the annual reception Tuesday evening, June 30, 1908, from 6 to 10, in Crest Dan amusement hall, Ashton avenue and Seventh East streets. Communicate with Gertrude Tobiasson, Forest Dale, before date of reception.

American Day at Lagoon To Be a History-Making Outing

American day at Lagoon next Saturday will be a record-breaker. Those who are members of and in sympathy with the party of progress will gather at the "Prettiest Spot in Utah" to spend the day at recreation. Those saints who can escape the vigilance of the elders, the bishops and the remaining members of the church, beneath the restful trees at Lagoon to witness a "regular day." From early morning until after midnight the fun will prevail, an unusually attractive program having been arranged by the committee, which propose that American day shall be the "heat ever."

The "First American Judicial convention" will be held in this city at 9 o'clock next Saturday morning, when delegates from Tooele, Summit and Salt Lake counties will nominate candidates for the four judgeships of the Third district, and a candidate for the office of District Attorney. Unless arrangements miscarry the convention will convene at 10 o'clock the next morning, and the delegates will journey to Lagoon, where they will participate in the merry-making.

The arrangement committee, consisting of Earl Ripley, A. L. Bratton, George R. Hancock, A. J. Charon and P. E. Connor, is out with the announcement that a good time is guaranteed to all who attend. At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon there will be a baseball game between the Tribune Americans and the Bonafide teams. Each team has a bunch of good players who are preparing hard for the game. Each announces its intention of winning, and the prospects are for one of the finest games witnessed this season.

Other sporting events are being arranged. During the afternoon those who care to listen to good music and short addresses will have an opportunity of hearing both Judge Ripley and Mr. W. H. Wood. Those selected as the speakers and the well known oratorical ability of each is a guarantee of a large attendance for this part of the program.

In order that all may be made well

GREAT GARDEN PARTY CLOSES SOCIAL SEASON

Many Prominent Americans Are Present at Reception by King Edward and His Queen.

WINDSOR, June 20.—The great garden party on the grounds of Windsor castle, with which of recent years King Edward and Queen Alexandra have brought to a close the social functions of Ascot week, was held this afternoon. Upwards of 8000 persons poured into the royal borough of Windsor, bound for the castle. The participants included the foreign diplomats, their staffs and their families, the members of the Cabinet, representatives of the colonies, prominent divines and the members of the House of Lords and the House of Commons, naval and military officers and representatives of the musical, dramatic and literary professions.

A forest of marquee tents had been erected on the east lawn which had been mowed until the green sward glowed like rich velvet. The King and Queen received their guests in prettily decorated tents on the east terrace. Among the Americans present were Ambassador and Mrs. Reid and the wives of the Embassy staff; D. O. Mills, Ogden Mills and Miss Mills, Jennie Cro-
