home of Mrs. C. A. Eldredge was one of a beautiful wedding Tuesday evening, when her daughter, Mary Eldredge, became the wife of Lee E. Richards. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Bishop Ben Eldredge in the presence of the family and close friends. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin and red in lace. A long tulle veil hung from her gown, caught with a pin. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. She was attended by three nieces, Miss Chloe Smoot, Miss Edna Nacey, and Miss Edna Nacey, all of honor, was prettily gowned in white crepe over tulle and carried sweet peas. Miss Chloe Bateman was the bridesmaid, and wore a white gown and carried pink sweet peas. Evan Richards was best man. A wedding supper was served at the home of Mrs. Richards. During the evening the delightful music was furnished by Hawaiian Troubadours. The ceremony was profusely decorated with sweet peas and goldenglow. Mr. Richards will leave today for New York and sail on August 25 on the German Lloyd steamer Wilhelm Grosser for France. Mr. Richards has been appointed one of the judges of the National Salon exhibition in Paris. They will spend a year or there. Among the out-of-town guests who were at the wedding were Read Smoot of Provo, who is a brother of the bride; Mrs. Theodore L. of Elgin, Nev., another sister; and Mrs. Ernest Eldredge of Portland, Or., and Mr. and Mrs. Guy S. of Tacoma.

as Helen Boes entertained players at the tables at a large and brilliant party at her home Tuesday evening in honor of Cadet Charles of West Point. The rooms were fully decorated in the Japanese American flag with pennants in Point colors, gray, black and gold, palms and sweet peas. The tally were hand-painted pennants. At the end of each game two captains, Harrison and Clayton Thatcher, lieutenants, Mrs. J. C. Hanchett, Miss Anna Stahl, gave the signal the bugle. The refreshments and prizes were carried out in compliance with the rules.

as Carol Evans with a party of friends from the St. Louis Art school, have spent the summer traveling and will sail from here Saturday, August 22, and return here early in September. Miss Evans' mother, Mrs. Evans, who has spent the summer at Westland, will return about the same time.

The Teeth of School Children

Should Be Frequently Examined

A little attention paid to the teeth of a child will often save years of suffering and humiliation later in life. A slight correction now and then will insure perfect uniformity of the teeth. Special attention should be given to the teeth of children in school. We examine the teeth of children and give advice free of charge.
