

CHARGE OF BIGAMY LEADS TO ARREST

Colorado Mining Man Said to Have Left Lawful Wife for Young Girl.

DENVER, Colo., July 21.—On a complaint sworn to by Special Officer J. S. Phillips of the juvenile court, Albert Ives, a well-known mining man, who owns large mining interests in Ely, Nev., was placed under arrest on the charge of bigamy. Ives is charged with marrying 16-year-old Hazel Barter, while he has a wife and 11-year-old daughter living. The marriage is alleged to have occurred at Golden, Colo., June 11, and the charge is made that the mother of the girl, although acquainted with the fact that Ives was already married, accompanied Ives and her daughter and witnessed the ceremony. Officer Phillips said today that the girl would be sent to the detention home.

VACATION OF TAFT FAVORED BY WEATHER

BAR HARBOR, July 21.—Another day of ideal weather called President Taft early ashore from the Mayflower, and before 9 o'clock he was on his way to the golf links of the Kebo Valley club. Mr. Taft made a low score of 99 for the eighteen holes in his trial yesterday, but expects to beat that today. Today's luncheon engagement for the Taft party was with the Nicholas Andersons of Washington. Mr. Taft will also hold a reception for the summer colony at the club this afternoon. Some time before nightfall he expects to have a conference with Chairman H. C. Kinney of the tariff commission. The regular residents of the island here are keenly disappointed over the evident intention of the president to devote the entire time of his three days' stay to the fashionable cottagers from New York. First Selectman Bunker, head of the town government, wired to Eastport the other day asking Mr. Taft if he would consent to make a little speech to the townspeople, but as yet there has been no such arrangement made.

To Get Close to Nature and to appreciate the beauties of the wilds one must get away from the regular beaten paths. At such a time a shack in the woods eclipses the luxuries of a palace. A case or two of will materially assist in making these outings brighter and happier. No camping outfit is complete without it.

ASK MY PATIENTS

Nothing tells so convincingly a story of the merits of the new drugless science, CHIROPRACTIC, as the testimonials of my patients.

Ask those I have cured. Ask those I have helped after they had met with small success under other methods of treatment.

I have been practicing in Salt Lake for several years, in which time I have made many friends by the good relief I have brought to their sufferings.

If you are laboring under the handicap of stomach, liver, kidney trouble, backache, headache, rheumatism, nervous disorder or female distress, call on me for free consultation and examination. Understand me when I say that I am glad to give my time to the looking into your case.

CHIROPRACTIC adjustments have helped and cured hundreds after drugs and the surgeon's knife have failed.

Hibernians Settle Down to Real Work in Convention

PORTLAND, Or., July 21.—Revision of the constitution and the drawing of resolutions embodying the future policy of the organization, the hardest work ahead of the national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians were initiated this morning by the various committees having these features in charge.

The report of the national board of directors, containing numerous recommendations for the welfare of the order, was submitted and referred to the committee on legislation. The members of the minor body at once left the convention chamber and began their deliberations in an anteroom. Its report will not be made until late today or tomorrow. Until the reports begin to come in it is expected the work of the convention will lag.

Keen interest is being taken in the contest for the presidency of the order for the next biennial period. Contrary to rumors it was authoritatively stated this morning that none of the avowed candidates had withdrawn from the race. They are four in number, as follows:

Matthew Cummings, the incumbent, Neponset, Mass.; James J. Regan, the vice president, St. Paul, Minn.; Joseph McLaughlin, Philadelphia; Prof. M. G. Rohan, Marquette university. Each candidate has a host of adherents and a pretty contest is in prospect. The election probably will take place tomorrow.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 21.—With the liveliest manifestation of enthusiasm, the officers and delegates placed the seal of their approbation on making Irish history a compulsory study in all Catholic schools and academies. A report of the committee on resolutions, of which Mr. Arthur Teeling is chairman, extolling the policy adopted by the Right Rev. John P. Carroll, bishop of Hawaii, in regard to the institutions in his diocese, was presented.

The report of the church extension committee, also presented by Mr. Teeling, contained a number of recommendations, the most important of which was the endorsement of the policy of a biennial policy of appropriating $250,000 for expenses for the societies of American Catholic societies.

RELATION OF AVIATION TO THE WEATHER POINTED OUT

NEW YORK, July 21.—An exhaustive study of typical wind and weather conditions for the benefit of aviators planning flights between New York and St. Louis and Chicago, has been made by H. James Scarr of the New York weather bureau.

"The flights will have to be started from the western end," he says, "because of the tendency of prevailing winds. It will also require some skillful figuring for the aviator to complete his trip within the specified time and at the same time avoid unfavorable winds. The tendency of the winds is to travel from west to east in barometric waves. These waves have deep troughs, which indicate storm conditions and high crests which indicate high barometric periods. The aviator must start on his flying journey as soon as possible after the passage of lower barometric pressure so as to get the full benefit of the crest of the wind wave.

"These waves pass at the rate of from 500 to 1500 miles every twenty-four hours. As can obviously be seen, it will require a very fast aeroplane to keep pace with the movement of the crest or calm wave. But more likely than not, before he travels 500 miles, he will have to come to ground and another period of calm weather approaches. As to the routes, my observations appear to favor the southern course, by way of Parkersburg and Baltimore. If possible, the aviator should avoid coming by way of Albany."

FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF GEORGE'S CORONATION

LONDON, July 21.—The picturesque ceremony attendant upon the accession of King George was re-enacted today when the various officers of arms proclaimed his majesty's pleasure that the coronation of the king and queen take place in June 1911, on a day to be later determined.

St. Alfred Scott-Gatty, garter king of arms, mounted the ornate throne of the friary court in St. James palace and read the royal proclamation. Grouped about him were the officers of arms, the high bailiff of Westminster and the life guards. The Duke of Connaught and others of the royal family looked on from Marlborough house.

The proceedings were repeated at Charlton Cross and at Temple Bar, where admittance to the Ancient City of London was solemnly demanded, and at the royal exchange.

THE CALL OF OPPORTUNITY

New Candidates, Look Here

Fifteen candidates in District Number 6 have an aggregate vote total of but 102,555 votes. Six candidates in District Number 7 have an aggregate vote total of but 17,400 votes. Four candidates in District Number 8 have an aggregate vote total of but 80,815 votes.

Do you realize what this means? In other words ten new yearly subscriptions to The Tribune or twenty new yearly subscriptions to The Telegram would give an entirely new candidate in district 6 precedence over all contestants now entered in this division. Two new yearly subscriptions to The Tribune or four new yearly subscriptions to The Telegram would give a new contestant the lead in District 7. In district 8 eight new yearly subscriptions to The Tribune or sixteen new yearly subscriptions to The Telegram would give a new contestant the lead. If this isn't the call of opportunity for HUSTLERS the managers of the contest are badly off.

Districts 6, 7 and 8 are the states of Idaho, Wyoming and Nevada respectively. And the opportunity for new candidates is not restricted to these three districts by any means. In every division in the contest, with the possible exception of one, there is a great chance for new aspirants to come into the race and get the very best district, and perhaps the capital, prizes.

Of course if you aren't energetic and willing to devote a little effort to the work there is no use trying, but for hustlers—men and women who mean business and desire to get their money's worth in exchange for just a little work The Tribune and Telegram's $10,000 contest affords the opportunity of a lifetime.

If you do not understand how to enter the contest or how to secure votes phone or write the contest department and full particulars and suggestions that will help you will be given free of charge.
