Light Company Sued.

Suit was brought in the Third district court yesterday by Isabella Adamson to recover $2000 damages from the Utah Light & Railway company for personal injuries sustained December 5, 1911, while alighting from a street car on Main street between First and Second South streets.

Now is a good time to begin taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the medicine that cleanses the blood and clears the complexion.

Sue for Value of Oats.

Mary L. and C. R. Smith are plaintiffs in a suit brought in the Third district court yesterday against the Ogden Okoberly Land & Sheep company and John Y. Smith. It is alleged in the complaint that the defendants took to their own use September 19, 1911, 1100 bushels of oats stored at Hinkley Millard county, Utah, the property of the plaintiffs, and has continued to refuse to pay for the same.

Wherefore the plaintiffs ask for a judgment of $276, the value of the oats with interest.

Do you know that of all the minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the cold itself that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that it often leads to. Most of these are known as germ diseases. Pneumonia and consumption are among them. Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and cure your cold while you can? For sale by all dealers.
