

SOCIETY

Mr. William Igleheart, Popular Salt Lake Woman, Who Has Been Honored in Berkeley.

All matter for Sunday society page must be in this office by noon Saturday. Club notes, etc., should be in by Friday evening.

The annual May Day dance, which has been given by the young society girls with such marked success for the past two years, will be given again this year, though the exact date and place have not yet been determined. A meeting of the young girls will be held on Monday at 10 o'clock with Miss Virginia Beauty, who will be the chairman of the general committee of arrangements. The ball will be for the benefit of the Playgrounds association and also to help with the general work of the Federation of Women's Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Charles Miller entertained a party of sixteen guests at a dinner last evening in compliment to their guest, Mrs. William R. Foster of New York. Tall Easter lilies were used for the table decorations with fine effect, and the whole was lighted by yellow-tinted candles, the two colors of white and yellow combining in the minor decorations.

The tickets for the Press club ball to be given next Monday night at the Hotel Utah are going rapidly in the next few days, and all the friends of the club are planning to attend this affair, which will be one of the best dancing events before the summer season. Small sewing parties are in order each day where costumes are planned for the younger guests for the affair.

Word comes from Berkeley that Mrs. William Igleheart has been offered the position of lecturer and dramatic reader at a large girls' school there, to give two readings a month during the next school year, which opens in August. This is interesting news to the local friends of Mrs. Igleheart, who are most appreciative of the honor done her.

The ladies of Fort Douglas received their friends informally all yesterday afternoon, and a constant stream of callers from town conveyed many messages from the city to the post to make her calls.

Mr. and Mrs. Shanahan of Grand Rapids, Mich., and their daughter, Miss Florence Shanahan, who have spent the last few days here, left yesterday for their home. The family were guests at the Hotel Utah, but Miss Shanahan was entertained by former classmates at the home of Miss Marie Odell and the Bonoma King.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Schramm have moved to their new home in Federal Heights, the Throckmorton bungalow.

News and Notes of Women's Clubs

The United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet tonight with Mrs. J. F. MacGregor in the Zimmerman apartments on E and First avenue.

The current events and current literature section of the Ladies Literary club will meet this afternoon at the clubhouse. Mrs. George Orr will give a talk on "The City of Mexico" and will show views of the city collected on a recent trip. Current events will be reported by Mrs. George Klidder.

The Ray View Reading club was entertained with a Kensington yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. A. Dunyon, 22 H street.

The College club met Thursday night with Miss Dorothy Weber on P street and Third avenue.

The Pan-Hellenic society was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Gustafson, Mrs. Howard Lawson and Mrs. Charlie Sappington at the home of Mrs. Gustafson, 79 Twelfth East street.

Workshop Is Burned.
A barn and workshop belonging to L. M. Erickson at 1074 South Seventh East street was destroyed by fire yesterday morning at 4 o'clock. The flames originated from sparks flying from a neighborhood chimney. The central station motor engine and the trucks from stations No. 5 and 7 responded to the alarm and were in service one hour and a half. The loss was $250 to the building and $50 to the contents.

Pleads Not Guilty.
E. S. Slater, who was brought back from Denver two weeks ago to face a charge of grand larceny, was arraigned before Justice H. S. Harper yesterday and pleaded not guilty. He was committed to the county jail in default of $1000 bail. Slater is alleged to have stolen a cash box containing $200 from the Alouette hotel. The money belonged to the Court saloon at Fourth South and State streets.

Bradley Discharged.
On motion of the county attorney, the charge against John Bradley of obtaining money under false pretenses was dismissed in the court of Justice H. S. Harper yesterday. Bradley, who is said to have issued a worthless check, was arrested recently in Provo and returned to Salt Lake. The amount involved in the check was made good.

"Breakfast is Ready!"

You don't believe it—but it must be true, for the house is filled with the pleasant aroma of something good to eat. You don't believe any one could prepare breakfast in so short a time. Of course it's a the kind that's so easily and quickly prepared and so appetizing and nourishing. Shredded Wheat is ready-cooked, ready-to-serve. For breakfast heat the biscuit in oven to restore its crispness, then pour hot milk over it, adding a little cream. Salt or sweeten to suit the taste. Nothing so warming and satisfying and nothing so easy to prepare.
