

SOCIETY

Mrs. W. F. Parker, Who Was the Hostess Yesterday at a Bridge Lunch for Her Sister, Mrs. Alan L. Warren, of Los Angeles.

All matter for Sunday society page must be in this office by noon Saturday. Club notes, etc., should be in by Friday evening.

R. and Mrs. N. J. Shekell announce the engagement of their daughter Norah to Harmel L. Pratt. The marriage will take place the latter part of June.

The officers and ladies of Fort Douglas entertained their friends last evening at a delightful hop in the post hop room. A number of friends from town, as well as the people of the garrison, attended the affair. Mrs. John H. Holland, Gullion and Mrs. Nolly received guests and the members of the hop committee—Captain Smith, Capt. Shipp and Lieutenant J. A. Early managed the affair. A number of hops have followed the dance.

Colonel and Mrs. James A. Irons entertained Thursday evening at a delightful dinner at their quarters in compliance to some of the visitors at the hotel. Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. Erick Perkin, newly attached to the 10th Cavalry, were the guests of honor. The guests were Colonel and Mrs. Perkin, Gen. Scott Shipp, Madame Johnson, Mrs. Huger, Capt. A. M. and Capt. H. D. Coburn.

John Elliott Clark and Mrs. Fabian entertained yesterday afternoon at a bridge tea at the Fabian home in compliance to Miss Lorenson. The guests were seated at eight tables for the game and later several more in for tea. The rooms were decorated with pink snap dragons and in dining room, where tea was served. The table with its seat of pink snap dragons and pink ribbon bows, made a most attractive decoration. The guests were Miss Edna Dunn, Eleanor Stewart and the Misses and Cary Marshall assisted.

Number of dinners are arranged for May evening to precede the May day. While the young girls are at camp at the hotel, the dinners will be given at the hotel. Several of the dinners, were planned for the opening of the country club in the hall room of the hotel. The dinners will be given at the hotel.

W. F. Parker was the hostess yesterday at a very elaborate bridge lunch at her home in the Cummings home in honor of her sister, Mrs. W. F. Adams. The dinner was seated at five small tables in the rooms throughout were all new. The tables were decorated with pink and white flowers. The guests were Mrs. T. H. Under, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. S. Smith, Mrs. L. H. Wilson, Mrs. W. S. Norton, Mrs. P. H. Hart, Mrs. C. A. Keith, Mrs. W. W. Walker, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. C. Warner, Mrs. Jamison, Mrs. E. Kennard, Mrs. A. C. Walker, Ginter and Mrs. Hakes.

Misses Sappington will entertain tomorrow at a bridge tea for Miss Lorenson at their home on Twelfth street.

Mrs. Wellington E. Lake will entertain a party of friends at a supper evening at her home.

J. F. Marshall home on K street in honor of the Duff M. E. church will entertain this afternoon from 2:30 to 5.

John Goddes and his daughter, Mrs. Dunbar, are here from Los Angeles as guests at the Hotel Utah for a few days.

M. H. Marks, who has been visiting daughter, Mrs. Solon Spino, for some time has returned to her home in Salt Lake.

Will R. Sibley entertained the club yesterday afternoon at home on Fourth avenue, the meeting the regular fortnightly meeting club.

Frank Paul McManus of Ringling town visiting Miss Pluma Purdy, Miss Marie Guttard.

Jane Quincy Kimball will entertain at her home in compliance to Miss Ruby Knowlton.

News and Notes of Women's Clubs

An exceptionally interesting programme was carried out at the meeting of the Ladies Literary club Friday afternoon at the clubhouse. The general theme was "American Artists." Mrs. C. H. Blanchard traced "The Development of American Sculpture" in an interesting way. She said that sculpture was merely in its infancy in this country, with the prospect of a great future. Miss Louise Jennings, art teacher in the Salt Lake high school, gave a comprehensive outline of "American Painters" with an account of the influences that had contributed to making American painting what it is. Miss Mary Haigh sang a beautiful solo, "Before the Dawn" (Chadwick), and Miss Helen Bettes played a double piano number, "Boat Song" (Mendelssohn) and "March Minion" (Fouldin).

A brief business meeting was held and reports were given by the different committees in charge of the entertainment of delegates on their way to the biennial meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs in San Francisco from June 25 to July 5. Mrs. L. C. Miller, chairman of the finance committee, announced that $1500 would be necessary to furnish entertainment for the delegates. Of this amount $500 had been contributed by the Commercial club and the club women of the state would be expected to contribute the balance. One of the means of raising the amount will be from the sale of carnations for Mothers' day.

The nominating committee announced the nominees for officers to be elected May 10. The nominees are: For president, Mrs. E. R. Critchlow; first vice president, Mrs. W. F. Adams and Mrs. W. S. Norton; second vice president, Mrs. W. J. Barrett and Mrs. G. F. Stahl; recording secretary, Mrs. J. W. Shook and Miss Janet Williamson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. T. McCame and Mrs. Robert Hampton; treasurer, Mrs. S. O. S. Nelson; critic, Mrs. E. W. Francis and Mrs. C. H. Blanchard; historian, Miss Ethel Paul and Mrs. E. O. Lee; librarian, Mrs. H. K. Klingender and Miss Edith Evans; directors, of whom three are to be elected for term of two years, Mrs. F. L. Oswald, Mrs. L. H. Farnsworth, Mrs. Arthur H. Parson, Mrs. Lafayette Hanchett, Mrs. E. B. Gibson and Mrs. A. H. Warren. Ballots have been sent out to the members of the club to be filled out with nominations and returned to the chairman of the election committee, Mrs. A. H. Parson.

An additional delegate was elected to the biennial meeting of the general federation to take the place of Mrs. Critchlow, who will have representation in the federation by virtue of her office as president of the club. Mrs. Lafayette Hanchett was elected delegate, with Mrs. E. L. Oswald as alternate. Mrs. A. J. Gorham announced the May eve dance to be given at the Hotel Utah next Tuesday night for the benefit of the Utah State Federation of Women's clubs and the Playgrounds association, and urged the support of all club women toward making the entertainment a financial success.

The Browning section of the Ladies Literary club will hold a cake sale at 1 o'clock on Monday, April 23, at the home of Mrs. E. R. Critchlow, 430 Seventh East street.

Duan Byron Cummings of the University of Utah delivered his interesting lecture on "The Cliff Dwellers and Southern Utah" last night, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid society of the First Presbyterian church.

The Ladies Aid society of Westminster Presbyterian church will hold a cake sale at Keith-O'Brien's store today.

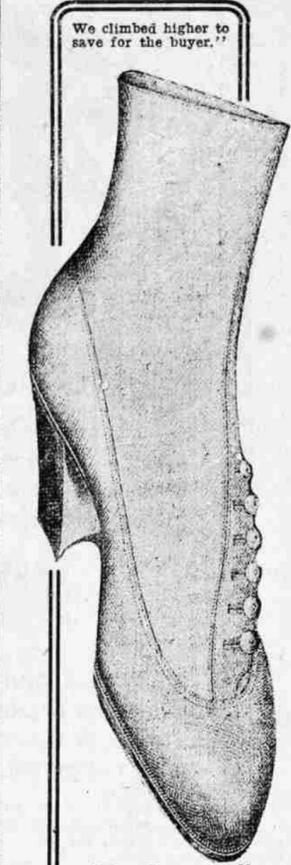

The Federation of Women's clubs has addressed a communication to the city commission calling attention to another reform in city affairs advocated by the club women. A censorship over the films exhibited in motion picture shows is asked. A delegation of the club women recently waited on the commission and presented a list of sixteen reforms which they asked to be put in effect at once. The supplemental letter filed yesterday increases the number of improvements in civic life asked for by the club women.
