

MISSING MAN SAID TO BE FOUND IN UTAH

Denver Niece Gets Trace of Philip D. Rice, Who Disappeared 15 Years Ago.

Special to The Tribune. ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 7.—Philip D. Rice, son of the late Edmund Rice, twice mayor of St. Paul, has been traced after absence of fifteen years, following disappearance from Tacoma, Wash. A brother, Major Sedgwick Rice, of the Third cavalry, now stationed at Fort Houston, married a Denver girl, and his wife and 14-year-old daughter, Susanne, are now visiting in Denver. She was Susanne who made the discovery, whether the major's wife or his daughter had ever seen Philip Rice, though they often had heard members of the family refer to him.

According to a letter, Susanne was a social affair in Denver last week and she met a young Princeton man named Johnson. The fact that her name was Rice and the fact that she had relatives in St. Paul led Mr. Johnson to inquire if she was related to Philip D. Rice. He said that he had made friends with a civil engineer of that name at Parker, Utah, a small mining town. Susanne had heard the story of Mr. Rice's disappearance and quickly began to investigate Mr. Johnson. The latter admitted the matter beyond all doubt by stating Mr. Rice as saying that his father formerly was mayor of St. Paul. Johnson had a picture of him which he immediately showed to Mrs. Rice, though she had never seen her brother-in-law, she saw the family resemblance at once.

According to the meager information contained in the letter, Mr. Rice has married and his second wife is living in Denver. How long this has been the case is not known, but it is considered a remarkable thing that he could have been around Denver for any length of time and no clew of him reach the ears of his brother's wife, who is well known in that city.

Mrs. Rice communicated with her husband, who is at present on the Mexican border, and furnishing an address with Philip Rice's address, told her to write and tell him to call at their house.

referred to the recent speech of Woodrow Wilson regarding the proposal of the Progressive party for an interstate industrial commission to regulate railroads.

Mr. Wilson's proposal is to control the railroads by increasing the power of the interstate commerce commission—by regulating and controlling those railroads and not by development of the anti-trust law.

On the contrary, the proposal of the Progressives is to put a stop to the issuance of the Taft-Wilson program of further legalization of monopoly under the guise of a trust reform.

Serious Kidney Disease Treated By an Old-Fashioned Doctor

R. B. HARTMAN, M. D.

In 1860 I was practicing medicine in Millersville, Pa., a thriving farming community. A prominent citizen of that locality called at my office one day in a very feeble condition. So much so he had to be assisted in alighting from his wagon.

I found on questioning him that he had been afflicted for about two years. He had consulted various doctors, among them a specialist from Philadelphia. They pronounced his disease to be Bright's disease of the kidneys.

I had been treating a neighbor of his successfully. This neighbor had highly recommended me and thus it was he had come to me.

He told me that the doctors had practically given up his case as hopeless and he felt free to consult any other physician. I hesitated to take the case, as I felt sure I could not do anything more than the other physicians had done.

He went away and in a week he returned saying he was no better, that he was still losing ground. He judged that he had taken the same medicine before. No doubt he had. But he wished me to prescribe again. I did so.

This went on for about two months, the patient failing all the time, and I was becoming thoroughly discouraged with the case.

One day the patient said to me, "Doctor, why don't you give me the medicine you gave my neighbor? We all thought he would die, but your medicine cured him. This was why I came to you. Why not give me the same medicine you gave him?"

I replied that I was glad the medicine had helped him. I was somewhat confused by his brusque manner and rough speech. I gave him another bottle of medicine. Did not see him again for about three weeks.

In addition to the two regulars, troop C of the Third cavalry was ordered to the neighborhood of last night's skirmish on the Victoria ranch and troop B of the Fourth cavalry, was ordered from Fort Huachuca to Arivaca, Ariz., to strengthen the border patrol there.

For about three weeks. Once more he called at my office for another bottle of medicine, which was his last call. A month or so afterwards a neighbor of his called and got a bottle of the same medicine, saying that my patient was practically a well man, attending to his duties about his large farm.

I had given him the Neutralizing Mixture which was a remedy that I had used before only for bowel diseases. The same remedy that has since been sold under the name of Peruna, could not understand how it was that Peruna should operate so beneficially in such seemingly different diseases. I had not yet grasped the correct philosophy of disease.

Peruna is my remedy for all these cases. I insist upon it however, that Peruna is not a cure-all. I use it for just one thing, catarrh. But as catarrh is liable to affect so many different places, disturb so many different functions, derange so many different organs, it does seem to many people as if I regarded Peruna as a cure-all.

The above narrative is simply one of the many cases in which Peruna has brought me to comprehend the wonderful efficacy of Peruna in such a variety of diseases. The kidneys may be affected by other diseases than catarrh, but the average case of kidney disease is catarrh of the kidneys. All cases of Bright's disease begin with catarrh of the kidneys. This being true, and it also being true that Peruna is a catarrh remedy, it follows that a great many cases of kidney disease will be benefited by Peruna.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Many persons are making inquiries for the old-time Peruna. To such would say, this formula is now put out under the name of KA-TARNO, manufactured by SCA-TARNO company, Columbus, O. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet.
