Poem Like "Hoch der Kaiser" Idaho Army Officer Is Author

German Emperor Is "Insulted"

Kaiser Has His Embassy at Washington Complain to State Department.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—One of the members of the German embassy staff indicated tonight that the embassy regards as "impertinent" a poem by Captain George Steuener, U. S. A., published in the Army and Navy Journal, in which fun is made of the German emperor and Von Moltke. The insinuation of the verses is that the Turks were beaten because they followed the advice of German military experts.

OUR OBJECT LESSON

The fighting in Macedonia is a sore subject with Germany. The Turkish army was trained and its officers educated under the German military system.—Literary Digest.

Oh, hark ye, Yankee soldiers! From far across the sea Comes the news that Turkey's fighting men were trained by Germany! That she faced the Bull-Comrades single-handed and alone With a simple faith in Allah and our Deified Von Rohne.

KANSAS GROCER IS MURDERED IN HIS BED

WECHITA, Kans., Dec. 8.—Joseph Patton, a grocer, was shot and killed as he lay in his bed in his room adjoining his store here early today. Patton's wife notified neighbors of the shooting, saying that she heard two shots in a hallway separating the sleeping room she occupied from Patton's room, and found her husband wounded. The latter lived an hour, but did not speak. If robbery was the motive of the shooting Patton's assassin left without taking $500 which was in the room.
