the press agents of the various

WITH four shows today, one this afternoon and three tonight, the Empress opens the bill that finishes up Sullivan & Considine's contribution to the amusement and entertainment of the Christmas and New Year's week holiday crowds.

Topping the programme with the world-famous juggler and strong man, Paul Spadoni, the new bill goes on for the first time, this afternoon with a record back of it, which proved one of the greatest programmes of variety the Empress circuit has had this season.
This afternoon's performance is to open at 2:30 o'clock, the regular time and tonight there will be three shows given, the Famous Bulldog Doing

Tricks at the Orpheum

ED MEREDITH, who is appearing at the Orpheum this week, has a bulldog, "Snoozer," that has proven his right to be known as a breadwinner. Anyway, Mr. Meredith thinks well enough of the dog to have him insured for $500, and states that he would double the amount if the insurance company would accept the risk. "I am not placing the amount too high," said Meredith this morning. "Stop and think how long it has taken me to educate my partner. Today he does tricks no other dog in this country can do and you would better believe that it has taken years to accomplish all. Then stop and think what would become of the readily understood that is why I am perfectly willing to pay the premium on such heavy insurance."
The most notable feature of this offering is the fact that a bulldog does the high school work and tricks which have been thought impossible for that breed of canine. "Snoozer" is an Eng-first opening at 4:30 o'clock, the second at 8 and the third at 10:30.

Paul Spadoni needs no introduction to Salt Lake. He has been seen here before on the occasion of his first visit to America and this is but the second time he has ever appeared in this country.
Players will see the famous strong man in an entirely new act. The feats performed by Spadoni are those accomplished by the greatest performers in his line the world has ever known. Juggling a 30-pound cannon ball with one hand and a cigarette with the other is but one of the numerous things accomplished by this wonderfully developed athlete.
Horses, poles, men and heavy arms and implements all come under the flat of his animate and inanimate, juggled by Spadoni.

An act along the same line and yet so totally different as to practically form a second headline feature to the new bill will be the appearance of the Three Spas brothers, hand-balancers and strong men who have made an international reputation for themselves the past two years in Europe. Sullivan & Considine have brought them over for their first American appearance and they have scored a tremendous hit all along the circuit.

"The Night Porter" is the title of a black-face sketch in which Van and Carrie Avery will offer Mr. Avery's famous "Resting Impersonation" and Miss Avery will depict the ravings of an absinthe fiend. The latter portrayal is said to be one of the most vivid pictures of its nature ever conceived, while Van Avery's work as "Raving" brings back the original of the famous character.
George Garden is billed as the greatest cyclotron in this country has ever known and one of the instructors he plays is an eight-foot concert grand xylophone, the equal of which has never been built.
"Collier & the Wailer" will offer the first roller skating act of the new year and the man and woman bear the reputation of being two of the cleverest people in the business. Their act is elaborately costumed and staged.
The Hunchbacks are Alpine entertainers who have won more than usual recognition with their singing and acting.
The new Pacific picture will close the New Year's week bill.

The impatient audiences in America are those to be found at a George M. Cohan play, and his newest one entitled "Broadway Jones," which will be seen here tomorrow night, is no exception. George M. Cohan has furnished many interesting entertainments for America's great army of amusement seekers, but it is conceded that in "Broadway Jones" he has provided a play that is new, for the reason that it breathes of real life, love and laughter amidst scenes that are enacted in an atmosphere of absolute cleanliness.

Lewis Waller's all-English London company, especially sent from New York for a short tour of the Pacific coast, in the famous English divorce drama, "A Butterfly on the Wheel," is announced for the Salt Lake theater for one week beginning next Monday evening. This drama, famous for its marvelous trial scene, which prominent jurists and the press in general have characterized as the most realistic and gripping court scene ever staged, is famous also for the level of laughter abundantly sprinkled throughout its four acts.

William J. Kelly and his company have done nothing better at the Colonial than their appearance in "The Lottery Man." Johnson Young's comedy success, "The Lottery Man." It is really the finest comedy work the stage has done since beginning his Colonial engagement and he is immensely popular as Jack Wright, the newspaper man, who puts himself up as the grand prize in a new-paper lottery scheme open only to unmarried ladies. Mr. Kelly is to give an extra and special matinee this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Manager Ketchum reports the house practically sold out for the event.

Nonette, a beautiful young woman at the Orpheum this week, who sings as well as she plays the violin, and that is saying a great deal, owes her exalted place in the vaudeville world today entirely to chance, although she is a natural born musician and was an artist of ability before she was discovered. It chanced that some years ago Yeave, the celebrated Belgian violinist, was giving a series of concerts in Brooklyn, and one night he came on his way from the hotel to the theater he heard the strains of a violin emanating from the parlor window of a modest looking dwelling. There was something about the tones that caused the great artist to stop. Lifting

Deseret Gym Road Show
To Be Great Production

EDNA HULL. DAVID CUMMINGS.

Popular Amateurs Will Vie With Semi-Professionals in Play.

ONE of the most pretentious amateur productions promised for this season is the road show planned for Friday night in the Deseret gymnasium by the members of the various classes. The event is the annual through their connection with dramatics at the university. The other five acts on the bill are fully up to the standard and it will doubtless be difficult to pick the real headliner of the show.

An unusual feature of the programme will be music by an orchestra composed entirely of clarinets, their being six of these instruments in the hands of that many pupils of Clarence Hawkins. A general invitation has been extended to the public to attend the show. A small admission fee will be charged.

How to Make Better Cough Syrup than
You Can Buy A Family Supply, Saving $2 and Fully Guaranteed.

A full pint of cough syrup—as much as you could buy for $2.50—can easily be made at home. You will find nothing that takes hold of an obstinate cough more quickly, usually ending it inside of 24 hours. Excellent, too, for croup, whooping cough, sore lungs, asthma, hoarseness and other throat troubles.
Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifteen cents' worth) in a pint bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly.
Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.
This is just laxative enough to help cure a cough. Also stimulates the appete, which is usually upset by a cough.
The taste is pleasant.
The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membranes is well known.
Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quaiacol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.
The Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe is now used by thousands of housewives throughout the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, but the old successful formula has never been equaled.
A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., St. Wayne, Ind.
