lin of Chicago Gives Views on Currency System.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.- An emphatic warning from former Secretary of the Hollis of Concord was nominated for Treasury Leslie M. Shaw that a central United States senator at a caucus of reserve bank, such as proposed by the Democratic members of the legislature national monetary commission, would be tonight. He received 144 votes to three controlled absolutely by Wall street, and for Clarence E. Call of Andover and one n technical discussion by Professor J. for Linville F. Langmain of Dover, Sixty-Chicago of the operation of proposed di- sent. visional reserve banks, featured today's the house banking and currency committee. The committee will hear no more bankers and economic experts for the present at least. Representative business men of various sections of the country are next on the list of those invited to give their views on the necessity for banking and currency reform. D. J. Endy of Philadelphia, chairman of the executive committee of the National Credit Men's association, and others will be examined Divisional Bank Plan.

Questions asked by the Democratic members of the committee seem to indicate that the committee favors the establishment of a system of divisional reserve banks, operated under close government supervision, as a substitute for the national monetary commission's proposed central bank.

As a remedy for existing conditions, Mr. Shaw proposed that the government authorize national banks to issue unsecured currency, to be guaranteed by the government, to the existint of 25 per cent of their capital stock, not including surplus, in times of emergency, coased to exist he suggested that a tax of 5 per cent be imposed upon all such supplementary currency uncanceled after a certain date.

Laughlin's Views.

Professor J. Laurence Laughlin of Chi-cago told the committee that the Ameri-can reserve system actually tended to breed panies. The chief defect in the banking system, he said lay in the lack of organization of credits in times of panie and the organization of credit by miscounting firms.

paine and the disablation of the paine and the disablation accommission," said Professor Laughin, "and I believe that in any legislation which may be passed 50 per cent of the features of the commission's plan must necessarily be incorporated."

Professor Laughlin argued at length against government note issues, contending that such issues necessarily were inclusive and expensive. The outstanding "greenbacks" in the United States, he said, cost the people $15,000.000 for interest on reserves.

Discusses Substitute. He described in detail the working of

He described in detail the working of a divisional reserve bank system suggested as a substitute for the national monetary commission's plan.

Discussing the proposal to guarantee bank deposits, he insisted that one bank should not be made to pay to guarantee the deposits of another. As an alternative he suggested the organization of companies to guarantee or insure bank deposits, just as insurance now is written against loss by five or storm. The senate, he said should investigate the affairs of the banks and make rates tarying according to the character of business done.

ARBITRATE OR

ARBITRATE OR

VOTE ON STRIKE

NEW YORK. Jan. 8.—To arbitrate or take a strike vote was the alternative tonight confronting the representatives of 24,000 firemen on flfty eastern railroads. Through their conference committee the managers of the railroads rejected this afterneon the firemen's proposal to arbitrate under the Erdman law their demands for increased pay and other concessions. Instead, the railroads made two counter propositions:

First, to meet with the firemen's representatives and appoint an arbitration committee of seven.

Second, to follow the precedent set in the case of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and refer the demands to a project the beat of the Controvers. This they thought, placed too great a responsibility upon the controversy. This they thought, placed too great a responsibility upon the one man who would east the deciding vote.

President Carter of the firemen's organization and the district leaders will meet the commerce of the firemen's reply to the railroad managers former works. This they thought, placed too great a responsibility upon the one man who would east the deciding vote.

Former Governor Henry B. Quinby and Rosecrans W. Piltsbury, both Republicans, are candidates. As the Progressives, holding the balance of power in the legislature, voted yesterday to support former Governor Robert P. Bass for senator, a deadlock appears certain. The house and senate will vote separately for senator next Tuesday and a joint ballot will be taken the following day.

Deadlock Over Speaker.

SPRINGFIELD, III. Jun. 8—Both houses of the 48th Illinois legislature, which convened today, adjourned tonight without having effected even a temporary organization. With the election of two United States, senators and other important matters at stake, the house took ten rollcails in a deadlock over the speaker.

Six Republican senators and six Demo-cratic senators went into conference to-night in an effort to reach an agreement that will result in a bi-partisan organization of the senate

Baldwin Inaugurated.

HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 8.—With the inauguration today of Governor Simeon E. Haldwin for a second term, the state administration passed from the Republicans to the Democrats for the first time in a long period of vests.

The house nominally is Republican, but the senate is Democratic by a margin of fourteen. The presence of eight Progressives in the lower branch gives the Democrats a strategic advantage in that body.

The governor advocated extension of the franchise to women owning taxable property, as a step towards granting the full franchise.

Failed to Organize.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 8.—The slat regular session of the West Virginia legislature met today and falled to organize owing to a tic in the senate. An extraordinary session called lanuary 2, died yesterday without having accomplished anything for the same reason. After taking one ballot, which resulted in no election, the senate adjourned until neon tomorrow. The house also adjourned but has been organized since the beginning of the extraordinary session.

PENSION OFFICE IS WANTED FOR BALL

WASHINGTON, Jan 8—The joint resolution authorizing the secretary of the interfor to permit the use of the pension office building for the inaugural ball on March 4 was introduced in the house today by Representative Shepard of Texas. The resolution would make provision for the construction of reviewing stands on the government reservations and spaces in the district and the loaning by the war and navy departments of ensigns and flags for the decoration of public huildings along the route of the inaugural parade. An appropriation of $23,000, to enable the district commissioners to maintain order and protect life and property, is asked.

The new cars, ordered from the Niles Car company of Cleveland, are the finest that could be obtained, expense being disregarded in their selection. They have steel underframes and are modern in every particular, with electric heat and light. Each is fifty-six feet in length, weigh about forty toms and contains four 100-horsepower motors. The electric locomotive is to assist the one already in use in handling freight and produce.

Among other improvements on the lines of the company is the work of double tracking. Heavy shipments of rails are being received and the double track work on the Rountiful extension is being rushed as fast as the weather will permit. Work on the new steel and concrete bridge across the Weber river at Ogden will be completed by the high water season, work being rushed there day and night.

DAMAGE ESTIMATED AT THIRTY PER CENT

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 2.-Scientific and constant use of millions of smudge pots in orange groves during the freezing weather of Monday and Tuesday, a gradual thaw and weather conditions tonight exactly as hoped for by southern Cali-fornia fruitgrowers, are the main factors in the saving of probably 70 per cent of the citrus crop which was threatened with serious damage by the frost.

According to an official statement given out this afternoon by the directors of the chamber of commerce, the actual damage will not be known for two weeks. They estimate the loss, however, at not over 30 per cent.

The statement follows:

"After careful inquiry as to the injury to citrus fruits by frosts, up to the present time, the Low Angeles chamber of commerce states positively that the extent of damage done as published in many of the eastern papers is grossly exaggerated.

The weather has moderated generally and the temperature is from 10 to 20 degrees higher in the orange belts. A large proportion of the orange crop that was frozen will be saved by the gradual thaw, according to reports received from the growers.

"There is not the slightest doubt," he said. "That the entire lemon crop on the trees is practically lost. The trees also have been killed at the tops and outer parts. For that reason, they will lave to be cut back, and there will be virtually no crop next year."

Other experts, however, refuse to accept this estimate. They figure the damage at from $1,000,000 to $4,000,000, and express themselves more hopefully as to next year's crop.
