

TWO LIQUOR BILLS PASSED BY HOUSE

Present Law Relating to Sale of Liquor in Dry Territory Amended.

EXTEND JURISDICTION New Measure Permits Justice of Peace to Try and Determine Cases.

Two of the series of liquor bills presented in the house by Judd on behalf of the Municipal League of Utah were passed by the house yesterday.

Another provision which Page sought to have adopted was the one which says, in connection with the distribution of liquor in "dry" territory, that it shall not be "given away."

Cannot Be Given Away.

Another provision which Page sought to have adopted was the one which says, in connection with the distribution of liquor in "dry" territory, that it shall not be "given away."

Recently Judge F. C. Looftrow rendered a decision in the district court of this county which nullified a large number of prosecutions under the liquor act.

A provision in the bill makes it unlawful for a manufacturer or dealer in "wet" territory to ship liquor into "dry" territory with the intent of distribution.

The house members yesterday received an invitation to attend the junior prom of the university students at the Hotel Utah Friday evening.

The women members of the house have arranged reception for the members and employees for next Monday evening in the bishop's building.

ervation of order, the saloon keeper is to receive a rebate of such part of his license as would be equivalent to the amount paid during the term of the closing of his business.

House bill No. 58, also passed, without opposition, extends the powers of towns to prohibit the sale of liquor to persons under 21 years of age.

Cook of Salt Lake procured the adoption of an amendment which provides that, in case saloons are closed by order of the sheriff for the present.

DELEGATES FOUND ASLEEP AT SWITCH

They Permit Killing of Income Tax Ratification Resolution in House.

The usually alert and watchful Democratic minority membership of the house went to sleep yesterday, and permitted, without protest, the encompassing of the death of the income tax amendment ratification resolution.

The matter came before the house on an adverse report by the committee on resolutions on Senator Smith's senate joint resolution No. 1, which put Utah's legislature in line with other states as ratifying the income tax amendment.

Afterwards, Democratic members declared they did not realize what they were voting on when they supported the motion to adopt the adverse report.

A resolution for ratification was introduced in the house early in the session. That resolution was killed Monday on adverse report, the idea being that the matter would again come up when Senator Smith's resolution should be reported out yesterday.

Later, Barnes arose to give notice that he would move to reconsider the vote taken on the resolution to amend the rule on the question.

Recently Judge F. C. Looftrow rendered a decision in the district court of this county which nullified a large number of prosecutions under the liquor act.

The committee on resolutions of the house yesterday brought in a favorable report on Durham's house concurrent resolution No. 1, which adopted the proposed amendment to the federal constitution providing for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the electors.

Meaning a means of further bringing liquor cases within the jurisdiction of the justices of the peace, is the reduction of the penalty provided in the old law from a maximum fine of $5000 to the penalty attached to misdemeanors, or a maximum of $200.

MEMBERS FINED FOR WEARING DRESS SUITS AT INAUGURAL BALL

Measure May Be Amended, However, Before It Reaches Governor.

An exciting session of the "third house" was held after adjournment yesterday. The thrills began as soon as Speaker Morris had recognized Milton Welling of Box Elder.

In view of the fact that this house on Tuesday unanimously adopted a resolution that the members of the legislature at the inaugural ball in dress suits would be deemed guilty of contempt, it is at this time, Mr. Speaker, to present an indictment against certain offenders.

Mr. Welling then read the following: To the Honorable Speaker of the Third House: Whereas, the time-honored custom of this house was disregarded by a rebellious and disrespectful minority of its members appearing at the inaugural ball of his excellency, Governor Spry, in full dress, thereby subverting the spirit of proper discipline and setting up a dangerous standard of extravagance and vulgar display, now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the members of the legislature who appeared at the inaugural ball in dress suits, be fined $50.00 for each day of their absence from the house.

THIRD HOUSE HONORS PUBLIC UTILITIES TAX UNDER CONSIDERATION

The joint committee on revenue and taxation at its meeting yesterday forenoon discussed the proposed tax on public utilities as recommended by the board of commissioners on revenue and taxation.

The meeting was attended by the five members of the joint committee, the board of commissioners on revenue and taxation, and J. B. Evans, tax agent for the Oregon Short Line railway; J. J. Thomas, tax agent for the Denver & Rio Grande railway; W. W. Brown, tax agent for the Utah Light & Railway company, and H. R. Smoot, tax agent for the Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph company.

Mr. Brown, representing the street railway company, objected to the proposed tax on public utilities, which corporations using the public thoroughfares to pay their portion of the special taxes levied for the purpose of improving the streets.

Another meeting of the committee will be held tonight in the office of the auditor. The committee will consider the changes proposed by the bills in the tax on banking institutions and in the levying of the inheritance tax.
