

Oh, What's the Use! Mutt Never Was a Dog Catcher

By "Bud" Fisher

MANTI TAKES LAST GAME FROM GUNNISON

Final Contest Is Bitterly Fought; Sensational Fielding Is Feature.

Special to The Tribune. GUNNISON, Sept. 16.—After being beaten 6 to 1 and 13 to 5 in the two previous games, Manti came back strong yesterday and one of the best games ever played in Gunnison was witnessed by a banner crowd. This was the last game of the season on the local diamond. The contest was fierce and hard-fought throughout. Two errors in the ninth by Ottosen and Young allowed Fairley to reach third, from which point he scored the deciding run on a passed ball by Anderson. The game was won and lost several times by spectacular plays on both sides, the best being a one-handed catch by Fairley of a line drive off Singleton's bat.

Table with columns for Gunnison and Manti players and their statistics (AB, R, H, O, A).

Score by innings: Gunnison 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 1-3, Manti 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 1-2.

Summary: Errors—Sorenson, Ottosen, Singleton, Young. Fielding—Manti 1, Gunnison 1. Two-base hits—Sorenson, Meelan, Ottosen. Home run—Mantel. First base on balls—Ottosen, Halverson 2, off Elliott 1. Hit by pitcher—Sorenson. Struck out—By Halverson 2, Double play—B. Pace and Jones, Fairley and B. Pace. Passed balls—Anderson 2. Time of game—1 hour and 35 minutes. Umpire—Kommersan of Manti.

"DUNDEE" SUITS

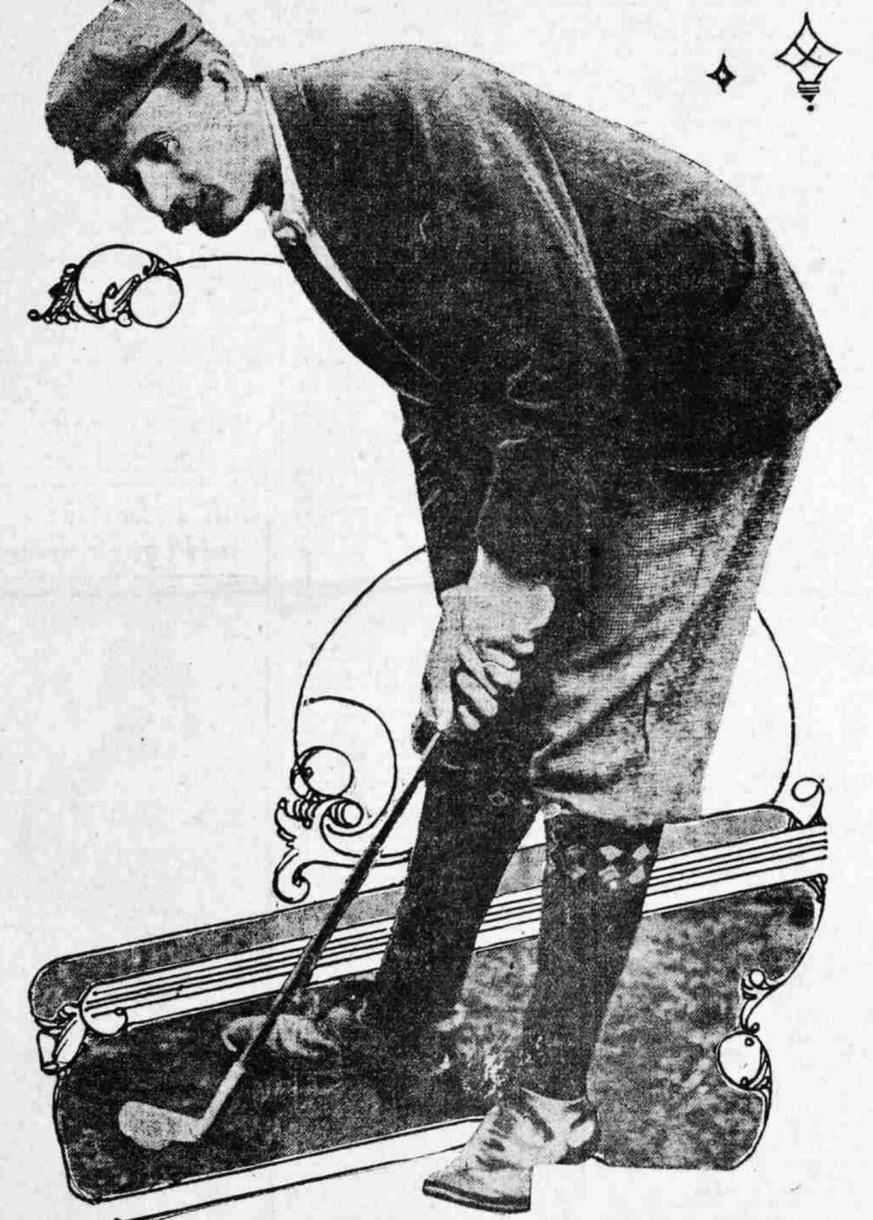

for young men and men who never grow old.

If you like that luxuriously comfortable feeling which goes with clothes that are really tailored to suit your figure, you ought to have a Dundee Suit. The price is the cheapest thing about the "Dundee."

Advertisement for Dundee Woolen Mills. Features a large '$15' and the text 'MADE TO YOUR MEASURE'. Includes the Dundee Woolen Mills logo and contact information: 'Original $15 Tailors. 215 South Main. By The Kenyon.'

Vardon Wins From Massachusetts Golfer by Margin of One Stroke

Harry Vardon, British golf champion, who had narrow escape from defeat at hands of American youngster.

KILBANE BEATS WALSH WITHOUT MUCH EFFORT

BOSTON, Sept. 16.—Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland, O., the featherweight champion, won a decision over Jimmy Walsh of Boston in a twelve-round bout at catchweights here tonight. It was the third bout between the two men and the first decision at any of their meetings. Walsh appeared much lighter than Kilbane and fought defensively most of the time. Without offering a very strenuous offense, Kilbane scored minor points in nearly every round. Walsh did not land half a dozen blows up to the tenth round. Then he started an attack of left and right swings, several of which found their mark on Kilbane's body and neck. The champion, aroused, rained blows upon his opponent, and one right uppercut sent Walsh to the mat. He was apparently dazed for a second or two, but sparring for time, Walsh during a count of eight and straightened out for action. Kilbane rushed him, but was stopped by the bell. Except for the twelfth round, this was the only extended series of punches throughout the fight. In the closing sessions Walsh became the aggressor, but Kilbane checked all but a few of his efforts, then himself took up the attack and landed two blows for Walsh's one in the last two minutes of fighting. In the early rounds, Kilbane missed several swings at Walsh's head, but occasionally the blows landed. One with the left hand caught Walsh over the eye in the third round and made him wince. Another landed under his ear in the fifth. In the seventh Kilbane crossed a right to the jaw, followed it up with several light lefts, and Walsh, at a loss entirely to evade the blows, slipped to the mat. It was not a knockdown. Jack McGuigan of Philadelphia refereed.

Untoward Luck Follows Visitor in Morning Round; Outmet Plays Consistently.

By International News Service.—Harry Vardon of England, five times British champion and the holder of the American title once, and Francis Outmet, the Massachusetts amateur, who has not passed his twenty-first birthday, engaged in a splendid struggle for first honors in the first qualifying round for the national open championship play here today. The veteran Englishman won the 181 by a single stroke, a stroke that was saved on the last green when a long putt from a point fully twenty-five feet from the cup gave him a three on a par four hole. It made his total for the day 131 strokes, while Outmet's total was 132. Since he led the field in the first half of the qualifying round for the amateur championship at Garden City, Outmet has been regarded as a dangerous player, and his splendid showing in a field which included many of the stars of the professional ranks was a distinct and a welcome surprise. Eighty-four Enter. Eighty-four contestants started this morning, all save a scattered five or six being professionals. At the end of the first round Outmet was ahead with a playing 74, the lowest round made during the day, and Vardon with 75 was second. Becker, at 76, followed with his great putt made up the extra stroke. The leading card follows: Harry Vardon, England—Morning Out 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100. Afternoon round: Out 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100. Total 131. There were a few lapses from his usually smooth and steady form in the play of the former British champion. In the morning his approach putts were not good and on nearly every hole left him a tantalizing yard or so from the cup. He managed to get most of them down, though a couple of times he slipped up and took three putts. His six at the fourteenth was the result of a pulled second shot followed by three putts when the green was roughed. In the afternoon he missed several fairly easy putts, but he made up for his errors by his splendid shot on the home green. Outmet, who is Massachusetts state champion, kept right on the line all day and but for a session in two traps on the fourteenth in the afternoon, which cost him a seven for the hole, he played consistently good golf. In the third place was MacDonald Smith, a younger brother of Alex and Nellie Smith. He made 77 on each round for his total of 154. Al Rose of Braeburn was fourth with 76-81-157, just beating out by one stroke Tom McNamara, the Boston home-bred, whose card read 78-80-158. A two-stroke penalty imposed for hitting the caddy standing at the second hole in the morning kept McNamara out of fourth position. The only other one of the foreigners who played today was Louis Teller, the Frenchman. His 161 put him in a tie for seventh place. Edward Ray and Wilfred Reid will play in the second qualifying round tomorrow. All with scores of 170 or under qualified for the championship and with the thirty-three low men tomorrow will comprise the championship division which will play on Thursday and Friday.

Uptown Luck Follows Visitor in Morning Round; Outmet Plays Consistently.

By International News Service.—Harry Vardon of England, five times British champion and the holder of the American title once, and Francis Outmet, the Massachusetts amateur, who has not passed his twenty-first birthday, engaged in a splendid struggle for first honors in the first qualifying round for the national open championship play here today. The veteran Englishman won the 181 by a single stroke, a stroke that was saved on the last green when a long putt from a point fully twenty-five feet from the cup gave him a three on a par four hole. It made his total for the day 131 strokes, while Outmet's total was 132. Since he led the field in the first half of the qualifying round for the amateur championship at Garden City, Outmet has been regarded as a dangerous player, and his splendid showing in a field which included many of the stars of the professional ranks was a distinct and a welcome surprise. Eighty-four Enter. Eighty-four contestants started this morning, all save a scattered five or six being professionals. At the end of the first round Outmet was ahead with a playing 74, the lowest round made during the day, and Vardon with 75 was second. Becker, at 76, followed with his great putt made up the extra stroke. The leading card follows: Harry Vardon, England—Morning Out 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100. Afternoon round: Out 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100. Total 131. There were a few lapses from his usually smooth and steady form in the play of the former British champion. In the morning his approach putts were not good and on nearly every hole left him a tantalizing yard or so from the cup. He managed to get most of them down, though a couple of times he slipped up and took three putts. His six at the fourteenth was the result of a pulled second shot followed by three putts when the green was roughed. In the afternoon he missed several fairly easy putts, but he made up for his errors by his splendid shot on the home green. Outmet, who is Massachusetts state champion, kept right on the line all day and but for a session in two traps on the fourteenth in the afternoon, which cost him a seven for the hole, he played consistently good golf. In the third place was MacDonald Smith, a younger brother of Alex and Nellie Smith. He made 77 on each round for his total of 154. Al Rose of Braeburn was fourth with 76-81-157, just beating out by one stroke Tom McNamara, the Boston home-bred, whose card read 78-80-158. A two-stroke penalty imposed for hitting the caddy standing at the second hole in the morning kept McNamara out of fourth position. The only other one of the foreigners who played today was Louis Teller, the Frenchman. His 161 put him in a tie for seventh place. Edward Ray and Wilfred Reid will play in the second qualifying round tomorrow. All with scores of 170 or under qualified for the championship and with the thirty-three low men tomorrow will comprise the championship division which will play on Thursday and Friday.

JOHNSON BEATS BENZ IN BITTER UPHILL STRUGGLE

PHILLIES AND REDS DIVIDE IN DOUBLE

Mackmen Nose Out Victory Over Cleveland in Ten

Table for National League. Columns: Team, W, L, P.C. Philadelphia, 3; Cincinnati, 4; Chicago, 0; New York, 0.

Table for American League. Columns: Team, W, L, P.C. Philadelphia, 3; Cleveland, 1; Washington, 2; Chicago, 1; Boston, 5; St. Louis, 1; Detroit, 1; New York, 1.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 16.—Philadelphia and Cincinnati broke even in a double-header today, the locals winning the first game, 4 to 3, and Philadelphia capturing the second, which went six innings, 4 to 0. The second game was begun in a drizzling rain and was called at the end of the sixth on account of darkness. In the opening struggle honors were even up to the eighth inning, when Philadelphia, mainly through Johnson's wildness, managed to squeeze a run over the plate on two bases on balls and a single. This put the score at 3 to 2 in Philadelphia's favor. In the ninth, however, with a slippery ball to handle, Seaton lost control. He walked three men and then Magee misjudged, scoring Berghammer with the tying run and Packard with the winning run. In the second game Mayer was effective at all stages, while Robertson, a recruit from Savannah, Ga., had one bad inning, the third. In that session Knabe walked, Becker singled and Lobert popped to the outfield. Magee walked, filling the bases, and Cravath's double scored all three men. Luders's single brought in Cravath.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Johnson and Joe Benz engaged in a great pitchers' battle here today, the former being the victor. Chicago took a one-run lead in the opening inning and it was not until two were out in the seventh that Washington hit Benz safely and tied the score. Weaver scored Chicago's only run. He opened with a single, stole second and third and scored when Chase singled. Benz pitched sterling ball throughout. Until the seventh inning the only man who had reached first base was Johnson, who got there when Easterly let a two strike get away from him. With two out in the seventh Gandil doubled and scored on Morgan's triple. In the ninth Milan opened with a single, stole second, went to third on an out, and scored when Spencer, a recruit, dropped a Texas leaguer to short left field. Gandil and Morgan had been passed purposely to get to the youngster. The fielding of Weaver was sensational and was easily the feature of the game.

Table for Philadelphia-Cincinnati (First Game). Columns: Player, AB, R, H, O, A. Knabe, 3; Bates, 3; Groh, 3; Magee, 4; Luders, 3; Doolan, 3; Seaton, 3.

Table for Philadelphia-Cincinnati (First Game). Columns: Player, AB, R, H, O, A. Becher, 4; Bates, 3; Groh, 3; Wickland, 3; Robert, 3; Egan, 3; Dodge, 3; King, 3; Johnson, 3.

Score by innings: Philadelphia 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 1-3, Cincinnati 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 1-2.

Score by innings: Chicago 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 1-3, Washington 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 1-2.

RED SOX BEAT BROWNS IN THE NINTH ROUND

BOSTON, Sept. 16.—Boston defeated St. Louis, 5 to 4, today in the final game of the season between the two teams. The visitors made a hard fight for the game on account of their poor last place, but were unsuccessful in the final inning. Hooper walked and Shotten led off in the ninth and after Austin had been hit by Wagner, tried to score. Hooper drove a fast grounder to Yerkes, after three retired Shotten at first two were out in Boston the final inning. Hooper advanced to second on Egley's error. Both men moved up on a wild throw. Hooper came home with the win when Speaker drove a liner to center.

Advertisement for Welton clothing. Features a group of men in suits and hats. Text: 'Meet Fall with an open heart and keen mind—look the part. Consign that "old felt" to the junk heap—you need a new one. Come in today and let us fit your face with a nifty Fall style. Welton. 35 is the price, easy on your pocketbook. Also a complete showing of Millers, Stetsons, Soft Felts and Caps—"Crabbe's". SPECIAL NOTE: The new fall clothing is ready for your trying on. We can fit you perfectly. Come in and see us today.' Includes the 'Crabbe's' logo and address: '220 Down Main'.

Kodak Pictures Finished. Mail us your films. Salt Lake Photo Supply Co., 159 Main street. Exclusive photo dealers. (Advertisement.)