

WHEAT PRICES RALLY BY EXPORT BUYING

Close Is Firm and Slightly Above the Preceding Day; Corn Down.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—Export buying throughout the west rallied the wheat market today and brought about a firm close, 4 1/2c above last night. Corn finished at 4 1/2c, oats varying from 1 1/2c off to a shade advance, and provisions with a gain of 5/8c to 1 1/2c.

Moderate quantities of hard winter wheat from ocean shipment were purchased at Omaha and Kansas City as well as in Chicago. The largest transactions were at Omaha, where prices were relatively the lowest. In addition to the spot business in hard winter, some foreign buying of futures here acted as a support to the bulls.

A big increase in the world's available supply tended to make the wheat market softer during the first half of the day. The temporary weakness was emphasized by favorable European crop reports. Absence of complaint that there had been crop injury by the cold wave formed an offset, however, and prepared the way for the subsequent advance, due to improved export and demand.

Resumption of shelling led to a development of bear sentiment regarding heavy shipments were said to be moving toward Chicago, but eastern call appeared to be little, if any, enlarged. Furthermore, southwestern dealers were reported to be overstocked because of pastures holding out longer than expected.

Resting orders to sell flattened out the market. Profit taking by shorts checked the decline and led to some reaction.

Buying for stock yards account gave the provision market a lift. Grain interests, too, were said to have purchased freely.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS ON NEW YORK STOCK BOARD

Queries Regarding Actions of Chief Executive Are Asked and Not Answered; Traders Are in Doubt.

By BROADAN WALL. By International News Service. NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Wall street no sooner lays one ghost than another rises to disconcert the believers in a higher stock market. Have prices discounted the favorable change in the attitude of the administration toward business? Will the president urge a new curbing of the trusts? These questions caused hesitation in prices. Today's market reflected the doubts of the traders. In the main, opinion ruled. While leading issues stood still or receded fractionally, minor industrials and rails advanced sharply in many cases.

From one crowd another came, and traders bid up prices and got away with a small profit. They noted that recent selling orders on the books of the specialists had been reduced, and they gave an appearance of strength to the general list.

Railway shares advanced 2 and 3 points each. Bethlehem Steel rose from 2 1/2 to 3. American Can crossed 32. Pittsburgh coal feature rose fractionally, and in a dozen other stocks gains were scored with a breadth of trading not recorded in weeks.

Tractions were strong. Brooklyn sold at 8 1/2. Third Avenue at 4 1/2 and Interborough Metropolitan issues advanced fractionally. Aside from the activity of the traders, there was little business. Arbitrage brokers reported utter stagnation in the London market and commission houses here report little or no improvement in outside buying.

United States Steel common fluctuated indifferently until a room trader bid up the price to 60 in the execution of buying orders for 5000 shares. Heading again closed unchanged. Speculations were held between 1894 and 1894.

New York Central made a new low record, dropping to 5 1/2. A minority interest in Lake Shore added to the troubles of New York Central by demanding an exorbitant price for their holdings. Rock Island preferred sold at 2 1/2, in sympathy with an advance of 1 1/2 in Rock Island collateral. The advance was attributed to short covering.

Gold shipments have been resumed, but this was anticipated by the firmness in the price of foreign exchange. The announcement that $2,000,000 gold would be shipped to Paris occasioned no surprise. Further transactions of this nature are looked for, but with the present ease in the local money market, no inconvenience is expected by bankers.

"All My Friends Are Submitting the Total Result of Their Search Through the Catalogue"

Writes a Picturemaker, "and so I can't bear to cut out any of my answers. I don't want to submit a set of 100 or so answers, when I know for a fact that three of my friends are submitting sets of more than 450 answers. That would place me under too great a handicap."

TODAY'S STORY GIVES THAT LETTER IN FULL.
