

PROGRAMME OF DEMOCRATS TO BE SHORTENED

Only One Trust Legislation Bill Instead of Several, as First Proposed, to Be Reported to Congress.

OPINIONS DIFFER AS TO THE WORDING

House Trade Commission Bill Finds Little Favor Among Senators; Views of Robinson of Arkansas Aired.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—President Wilson, at a conference tonight with the house judiciary subcommittee on trusts, put the stamp of administrative approval on the substance of the four bills to amend the anti-trust laws which the committee submitted in a practically final form.

There will be another conference at the White house within a week, and members of the committee asserted tonight that unless protracted discussion should be raised in the full committee when the measures are presented, all four bills to strengthen the Sherman law, covering interlocking directorates, holding companies, trade relations and definitions of restraints of trade, would be reported to the house within a fortnight.

President Wilson indicated his belief that it would be better to consolidate all the bills into one in order to expedite legislation. The senate interstate commerce committee is understood to favor consolidation. That it will be effected by the house judiciary committee seems practically certain.

Makes Suggestions.

The president made a number of suggestions to the subcommittee, which comprised Representatives Clayton, Alabama; Carlin, Virginia, and Floyd, Arkansas. He insisted that personal guilt of individuals in control of corporations should be prescribed in every bill in order to break up the evils that have grown up under the present anti-trust laws. The committee will revise the bills with this in view and talk with the president again before submitting the measure to the full committee and to the house.

The draft of the holding corporations bill had been completed just before the conference. The measure would make unlawful those holding companies that combine the stock of corporations so as to lessen competition, but would not affect companies which hold the stock of corporations in order to control parts of their business. Holding companies that are entirely for investment and not for business directly are not prohibited. This would permit companies like the big insurance concerns to hold the stock of corporations which are not competitors.

Believe Problem Solved.

The committee believes that in this bill it has solved the problem of discriminating between the holding company actively in business and operating business by combining a number of competitors into one company, as in the cases of the Standard Oil company and the American Tobacco company and the corporations that have been compelled to combine a number of concerns that are not competitors, but whose combination is necessary in order to make a unit, or whole, as in the case of an oil company which combined a pipe company, a producing oil company, a refining oil company, all making one legitimate oil business.

The committee pointed out to the president that the bill would save to industrial business the investor who buys the stocks and bonds of various corporations but is not engaged in business of operating any of them. The bill applies to railroad holding corporations, but not to subsidiaries, it draws the line at substantial competitors.

Includes Cotton Mills.

It includes cotton mills if made up of combined competitors; it would prohibit holding corporations of moving picture concerns, which sought exemption, and would strike at various large holding establishments which made pleas before the committee. The so-called theater trust also would be affected. Theater corporations which

HANSON GETS AND OFFICE IN VERNAL

Appointed Register by President Wilson; Confirmation Expected Soon.

Peter Hanson was appointed register of the United States land office at Vernal, Utah, by President Wilson yesterday. The nomination was sent to the senate and its confirmation is expected in a few days. Charles DeMolay is the present register of the land office. He was appointed to this position several years ago. His term expired last summer and he immediately tendered his resignation, asking that it be accepted as soon as possible. However, the department has not been ready to name his successor until now.

Mr. Hanson is a lawyer who lives at Vernal. He is one of the leading Democrats of Utah county. Mr. Hanson has served as county recorder and county clerk. He was recommended for the appointment by the Democratic state committee, the state chairman, the national committee and a large number of other prominent Democrats. He was the only applicant for the place. The post office office with an annual maximum of $3000. At present it pays about $2500 a year.

WIZARD'S CARNIVAL BEING ADVERTISED

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad company is the first eastern railroad to begin publicity for the Wards of the Wizard of the Wasatch. In the March issue of the company's general folder the August carnival is advertised, and as the folder has a circulation of 200,000 in the east, it is believed that the publicity will do much to bring eastern tourists stop over during the carnival and see the city.

hold two theaters in any one city, unless it could be proven that they were absolutely non-competing, would be prohibited, but the bill would not destroy a chain of theaters in different cities in which there was no element of competition.

None of the four bills as now framed provides for exemption of labor unions from anti-trust prosecutions. Senator Hughes of New Jersey is expected to attach an amendment for the purpose of exempting labor unions. If the bills, as they finally reach the senate, have no such exemption, labor organizations, particularly the American Federation of Labor, have urged the Bacon-Bartlett bill, which would exempt from any prosecution, under the Sherman law, associations organized wholly for the promotion of labor.

Trade Relations Bill.

The trade relations bill prohibits manufacturers from contracting to prevent a merchant from handling a competitor's goods. It prohibits final price fixing by the manufacturer or wholesaler to the retailer, and prohibits the fixing of the price at which goods shall be sold in the first instance, as from manufacturer to jobber. Under this restriction the first sale of a manufactured article by its producer would be the only sale at which the manufacturer is permitted to fix the price. The bill gives the right of injunction to individuals for threatened loss or damage and the right to make use of a government decree against any corporation.

Interlocking directorates bill includes a provision to prohibit directors in various corporations selling to companies in which they are directors. The definitions bill embodies such definitions as seem not to have been covered by decisions of the courts.

MEMBERS OF SENATE WANT QUICK ACTION

WASHINGTON, March 16.—One trust regulation bill, instead of several as originally proposed, has been determined upon by the senate subcommittee on trusts, in a conference as the policy the administration should adopt in perfecting proposed legislation to supplement the Sherman law.

This announcement was made today after the introduction in the house of the revised bill to create an interstate trade commission, a bill over which conflict of opinion has developed among Democratic leaders.

Although the new house bill has the approval of President Wilson and Attorney General McReynolds, members of the senate committee on interstate commerce did not hesitate to assert today that they had completed a measure to create a trade commission with broader powers and that they would urge the acceptance of this measure in any legislation to provide for a trade commission.

Increased Powers.

The senate bill, it was said, would empower the proposed commission to institute investigations on its own initiative as to whether corporations operate in violation of the Sherman act, and its champions declare that elimination of the initiative in the house bill would rob the proposed commission of effectiveness.

"A trade commission which could undertake an investigation except by direction of the president, attorney general or either of them, is a mere rubber stamp," said today, "if the senate commission is to have no more authority than that, why have one? The bureau of corporations, as now constituted, is capable of carrying on such investigations very well."

May Not Be Reported.

It is considered probable that no report on the senate bill will be made, because of the practical decision to include in one measure contemplated legislation for the trade commission, the prevalent idea at this time in the senate committee is to add a section to prohibit certain forms of interlocking directorates, or one to prohibit or regulate holding companies. Bills originally proposed to define acts which would constitute competition practically have been abandoned.

"There is no necessity of holding congress here to consider and pass one trust bill and then to take up and pass another and still another," Senator Robinson said. "I find that it is the growing sentiment of the Democrats, as well as among many of the Republicans, that the other members of the senate committee have expressed similar views and are urging them upon the president as the wise course and necessary to expedite the business before congress."

MINISTERS DECIDE TO TAKE GOVERNOR'S ADVICE ON THE CABARET MATTER.

They Decide to Take Governor's Advice on the Cabaret Matter.

WILLEY ALSO WRITES ASSURES ASSOCIATION THAT HE WILL ACT IF PROPER SHOWING IS MADE.

The Ministerial association, at its meeting yesterday, discussed the reply received from Governor William Spry to its letter asking him to take action with reference to alleged violations of the law in local cabarets. In his reply, the governor pointed out that it was only after neglect of duty on the part of local prosecutors that he was empowered to take action, and he suggested that if the association could show such neglect he would be glad to hear from it. The secretary was instructed to write the governor, thanking him for his suggestion and promising to take the matter up with the proper authorities and to refer the matter to him only after they had declined to act.

Will Call Upon Attorney.

The public morals committee of the Ministerial association, composed of the Rev. Will A. Betts of the First Methodist church, the Rev. W. Reese of St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Rev. J. H. Smith of the First Methodist church, the Rev. B. P. Bronson of the Rio Grande Baptist church and the Rev. C. B. Murphy of the Westminster Presbyterian church, was instructed to call on the county attorney and lay before him the evidence in the possession of the association against the cabarets.

Hugh L. Glenn, former city detective, addressed the Ministerial association and denounced the influence of the cabaret. He said that the law against the cabarets was difficult to enforce because of the fact that the cases against such places were dropped for some mysterious reason.

The Rev. F. O. Leonard of the Third Presbyterian church read a paper on "Mark Twain."

Willey Heard From.

Replying to a demand from the Ministerial association that he put a stop to alleged violations of the law in local cabarets, the county attorney, yesterday, sent the following letter to J. H. Mitchell, secretary of the association:

My Dear Sir—I acknowledge receipt of your communication of the 14th instant, relative to the cabarets operating in this city.

If your association or some of its representatives will come to this office and present any evidence you have of the commission of any public offense covered by our statutes, I will be glad to investigate and prosecute. Yours truly, I. E. WILLEY.

Before writing the letter, the county attorney said he was tired of complaints of alleged violations of the law by persons who were not willing to follow up their complaints and lay before the proper authorities the necessary evidence for prosecution.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEMBERSHIP MEET

Proposed One Thousand Limit Decried; Finances Are in Better Condition.

The first meeting of the membership of the Commercial club in 1914, held last night, was marked by a eulogy in memory of the late J. L. A. Palmer, which was delivered by F. C. Richmond. Mr. Richmond reviewed the life of Culmer from his birth in the town of Culmer, Kent, England, to his success as an artist in Salt Lake City. At the close of his remarks he unveiled a portrait of Culmer, painted by A. L. E. Keyser, a Utah artist and a former pupil of Culmer.

President W. F. Jensen and Secretary Will G. Farrell reviewed activities of club committees since the first of the year. Both urged members to assume some of the business civic improvement work entails.

An attempt to limit resident membership in the club to 1000 members was defeated after several speeches for and against the proposed measure had been made.

Club finances were discussed. William Bowen, chairman of the finance committee, declared that finances of the club were in better shape.

Refreshments were served after the business meeting, with music by the Imperial quartet.

STUDENTS WORKING ON "GOLD AND BLUE"

Work on the commencement number of the L. D. S. U. school paper, "Gold and Blue," began in earnest yesterday morning, when all classes and student organizations were ordered to have their contributions in before April 1. Pictures must be turned in to the editor's office by the latter part of this month.

This year's publication is in charge of the regular "Gold and Blue" staff, with Laurence Sloan, editor, and Richard Wells, business manager. The staff is spending all its spare time preparing the paper. It is a pleasure to have all classes must have their individual and group photographs taken during this week, in order that the year book may be issued as early as possible.

MODERN METHODS OF BUSINESS IS THEME

The modern methods of business as contrasted with the lack of methods of former days formed the topic of an interesting address given to the manufacturers of the Salt Lake Tribune at the Commercial club yesterday by J. E. Dorman, chief of the Salt Lake Tribune Manufacturing company. The luncheon was given under the direction of the manufacturers' committee of the club.

Temperatures Climbing.

San Francisco was the warmest city in the country yesterday morning, having a temperature at 8 o'clock of 64 degrees above, according to reports received by the local United States weather office. Salt Lake temperatures were of the summer variety, being 45 degrees at 6 a. m. and going as high as 56 above during the afternoon. All over the country temperatures yesterday were above normal.

License Denied.

John Ferris, proprietor of the Albany rooming house on West Second South street, was denied a rooming house license by the city commission yesterday, following a formal hearing. Police officers testified that the house was a resort for law breakers and that the law was violated at the place frequently.

FEELING HIGHLY UNFRIENDLY

Report is Made to War Department

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Members of a group of broad constitutions, including Postmaster Frank V. Johnston and burned the postoffice at Tecate, Cal., Saturday night, according to a report from the War Department. The group, known as the "Mexican army headquarters" at San Francisco. None of the men has been apprehended.

Four Kinds of Money.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 16.—Four kinds of money are circulating now in the Mexican territory that is under the control of the United States. These are United States currency, the fiat issues of the constitutionalist government, Sonora state and federal money, and the Mexican constitutionalist money. These are United States currency, the fiat issues of the constitutionalist government, Sonora state and federal money, and the Mexican constitutionalist money.

On advice of the city attorney, the claim of Hannah Shugren for $20,000 damages, alleged to have been suffered by falling over, raised in the sidewalk case, was dropped. The attorney advised that the supreme court had held that the city's liability in such cases involved only a reasonably safe maintenance of public sidewalks, and the sidewalk in the case at issue was reasonably safe.

Carranza Has Doubt.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 16.—General Carranza, chief of the constitutionalists, has not been heard from since he left Agua Prieta last week. He was expected to reach Nogales Pass between Sonora and Chihuahua today. Meantime many rumors are afloat that the chief intends to camp in the mountains and remain out of communication with the rest of the world. He is also said to be desirous of keeping out of touch with the United States for a time.

American Murdered.

JUAREZ, Mex., March 16.—Oscar Allen, an American, was found dead recently at Pearson, Chihuahua, with his hands and feet bound. He was reported today to Consul Thomas Edwards, who at once began an investigation.

Land Designation IS NOW AVAILABLE

A designation of 6712 acres of land located in Millard, Tooele, Kane and Washington counties that is to be thrown open to the public in section 6, or the non-residence section of the enlarged homestead act was received yesterday by the local United States land office. The land will be opened to entry March 22. Complete information in regard to the land and its location may be had by calling at the local land office in the postoffice building.

Success is Had by DORMAN IN NEVADA

J. E. Dorman, chief of the western dairy division of the United States department of agriculture, returned yesterday from Nevada, where he has been on a tour of inspection concerning the value of dairying on farms. He visited the famous Truckee-Carson project—the only large-scale irrigation project in Nevada—and told the farmers that they should build silos in order to have better dairies. He also urged the formation of a cow-testing association.

Robbed and Deported.

NOGALES, Ariz., March 16.—Adrian Macmillan, a member of the Arizona district, below Guaymas, arrived here tonight with his wife, having been deported by constitutionalist authorities. He is a Maricopa, was introduced and said it cost him $15,000 to secure his freedom.

Seaman Promotes Orange Day.

W. M. Seaman, superintendent of dining cars for the Salt Lake Route, with headquarters in Los Angeles, was in Salt Lake yesterday in the interest of California orange day. He is expected to be in Salt Lake again on March 21. Mr. Seaman reports much interest in the day in all sections and says that the observance, according to present indications, will surpass any previous year.

ADVOCATES REPEAL OF TAX ORDINANCE

Recorder Warrum's Recommendation Is Based Upon Court's Declaration.

Repeal of the ordinance levying a special $600 license tax on concerns engaged in any business that snacks of a lottery is recommended by Noble Warrum, city recorder, in a communication sent to the commission last night.

Mr. Warrum referred to the Inter-mountain Trading Stamp company, which has paid its regular license to do business, but objects to the special license of $600. The recorder says that the ordinance in question has been declared invalid by the supreme court on several occasions. The suggestion was referred to the committee of the whole.

Petition for the creation of a special lighting system on Second South street from Second East to West Temple, under the provisions of the law passed by the last legislature, was made to the city engineer by J. S. Holmes and other property owners along the street in question. Under the law passed by the last legislature the city may create special lighting districts and assess abutting property owners for the cost of installation.

A protest against the freight franchise which is about to be given to the Utah Light & Railway company was received from the Salt Lake Federation of Labor and was referred to the committee of the whole. The franchise would be to rob the men who drive teams of a means of livelihood.

CRITCHLOW TESTIFIES ON ATTORNEYS' FEES

Hearing Is Begun in United States Court as to Matter of Compensation.

Asserting that the fees for himself and W. J. Barrette for acting as attorneys for the Silver King Consolidated Mining company against the Silver King Coalition Mines company should be between $25,000 and $112,500, Attorney E. B. Critchlow in the United States district court yesterday occupied several hours in testifying as to the legal work done by them in the big case. In the afternoon Mr. Critchlow was cross-examined. The case will be resumed today.

When the case was first begun, Andrew Howat and H. R. Macmillan were attorneys for the plaintiff. Later Howat withdrew and Macmillan associated himself with Critchlow and Barrette. When the case was concluded, Macmillan was settled with, but Critchlow and Barrette insisted on a higher fee than $10,000 was willing to concede. He was willing to pay $20,000, but no more.

Z. C. M. I. SPRING OPENING DEPICTS FASHION'S TREND

Immense Throng of Ladies Attracted to the Show Authentic Styles.

All that was necessary to complete the effectiveness of the exquisite creations that had been gathered from the world's leading fashion centers was a beautiful day.

It was no wonder, then, that the gentle breeze, the invigorating sunshine, the charming creations, all so suggestive of Riviera, brought Salt Lake's fashion leaders to town in immense throngs.

Z. C. M. I. was a bevy of beauty from early morning. First the windows, daintily garbed with exquisite millinery, suits, dresses and draping effects, called forth admiration, but this was only a forerunner of the immense and varied feast of authentic styles awaiting within the confines of the store.

The millinery exhibits brought forth unanimous expressions of commendation. Many exclusive creations from Kurzman, Acheson, Paul Poiret, Madame Louise, Gougette, Talbot, Gage and other millinery makers were in evidence.

One Kurzman creation that attracted considerable attention was a French leghorn with lace facing, trimmed with Anouard blue tips and velvet ribbon. Another exclusive effect that was especially jaunty was a black and white conception, with immense white ostrich feathers trimmed high on one side. A hat made of black gauze material with an elegant pink ostrich feather attracted much attention, as did also an English hat, trimmed high on side front with hair and aigrette.
