THE WASHINGTON HERALD

Published Every Morning in the Year by THE WASHINGTON HERALD COMPANY.

734 FIFTEENTH STREET NORTHWEST. Entered as second-class matter. October 5, 1906, at

SCOTT C. BONE, Editor

Ernest H. Merrick, . . Treasurer and Business Manager William P. Spargeon, Managing Editor Clarence C. Archibald, Advertising Manager J. Harry Cunningham, . Charles C. Thompson, . . . Mechanical Superintendent

Telephone Main 3000. (Private Branch Eschange.)

The Washington Herald is delivered by corrier in the District of Columbia and at Alexandria, Va., at 25 cents per mouth, daily and Sunday, or at 25 cents per mouth without the Sunday issue.

Sabscription Rates by Mail. .35 cents per month

..$1.20 per year

No attention whatever will be paid to anonymous contributions, and no communications to the editor will be printed except over the name of the writer. Manuscripts offered for publication will be re-

All communications intended for this paper, whether for the daily or the Sunday isssue, should be addressed to THE WASHINGTON HERALD.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1906.

The Truth About Glasgow.

has been exploited as the most success- old thing.

that the tramways, instead of being re- jolly bad yahoo. out of repair.

continues Mrs. Harper, "we threaded tles long ago. our way through droves of miserable, half-fed children, while out from the Nor was this all. "Beggars," per cent here to begin with, he story continues, "besieged us almost to the extent of those in Naples." The Glasgow administration, and one that hunger, cold, nakedness, disease, the of the campaign cigar shakes our faith in the much-vaunted tomahawk of the wary and relentless system of government prevails, however, of their own number. to exist. The poor will, of course, al- great republic was born at Jamestown. lights, dirty cars, the prevalence of in- nies fought a century and a half later. toxication, the existence of almost uninship can hide the unpleasant truth.

It was Senator Zeb Vance who said "Democracy is immortal and cannot die." This ought to be cheering to the patient.

Mr. Taft and the Tariff.

We note with pleasure that Secretary Taft, in his Baltimore speech, while he did not repudiate the protective tariff principle, remained true to his repeateuly expressed belief in the wisdom and necessity of tariff revision. His difference with Senator Rayner is largely one of degree and method, for the Senator, to use his own words, is not a revolutionist on the subject of the tariff. and he would not destroy or impair a no doubt the Secretary and the Senator tell about it? could go a long way in the tariff revision road without parting company. But, as Mr. Taft remarked:

Quite true; and there is evidence that tar- the home of Speaker Cannon. sible; but the opposition to a protective has long since disappeared.

the most good. which adopted a series of resolutions de- beauty of an Italian landscape, and every tention of the Commoner to this? claring for tariff revision and asserting hair on their curiy heads is three times that the people are rapidly approaching blessed. not projerly a party question; that it dren of his town hold him as dear as S. that new suit of clothes Senator Pettus is cial experts appointed by the Federal never grow cold.

Let the standpatters take warning from such a refreshing expression of the post-office at Washington, D. C., under act of opinion; Secretary Taft knows the sen-Congress of March 3, 1879. timent of the country better than they.

> The naval recruiting service is to adopt the gay and festive postal card as a . Managing Editor means of inducing sailors to enlist. By this means Uncle Sam ought soon to Auditor acquire a fine collection of souvenir Turning a Wedding Into a Farce. A wedding episode in which the bride rode to the railway station in a street car rather than make the trip in a carriage ornamented with fluttering white ribbons and pasteboard hearts furnished interesting reading for the Washington public recently. There is a more or less serious side to such incidents, which is often overlooked, owing to the fact that the serio-comic villain is likely to be a jolly good fellow who, in the vealy abandon of the feeling serious of the serio-comic villain is likely to be a jolly good fellow who, in the vealy abandon of the feeling serious side to such incidents, which is not faithfully kept, these two instances at ione constitute the entire sum and substance of "Uncle Remus" social vendom of the feeling serious side to such incidents, which is instances at the faithfully kept, these two instances at the serio-comic villain is likely to be a jolly good fellow who, in the vealy abandon of the feeling serious side to such incidents, which is instances at the faithfully kept, these two instances at the faithless vessel is overwhelmed by the dread of death, and all are concerned for a true answer. "And Pilate saith unto him (Jesus), "What is truth?" and when he had said this, he went out." He dated not walt for a replayer the stiff hat that covered the editorial head, exclaiming the while:

"Will, why the devil don't you increase the faithless vessel is overwhelmed by the freed of death, and all are concerned for a true answer. "And Pilate saith unto him (Jesus), "What is truth?" and when he had said this, he went out." He dated not walt for a replayer the stiff hat that covered the editorial head, exclaiming the while:

"Will, why the devil don't you increase the faithless vessel is overwhelmed by the freed of death, and all are concerned for a true answer. "And Pilate saith unto him (Jesus), "What is truth?" and when he had said this, he went out." He dated not walt for a replayer the stiff hat that covered the editorial head, exclaiming the while:

"Will, why the devil don't you increase the faithless vessel is overwhelmed by the concerned for a true answer. "And Pilate saith unto him (Jesus), "Wellow of the inebriated concerned for a true answer."

"Hellow of the faithfu don of his frolicsome animal nature, tures, but stamps should be sent forces his slap-stick personality into the For many years the city of Glascow propriate to the subject, a mean, horrid Fox," must have, within himself, some of on earth, and they by those who may first edition to catch the early mail, ful model of the municipal ownership .In the home circle or among the close ed his heroes. But such is not the case. from the first of creation down to the last one night and proceeded to interfere with idea in the world. If half of the stories friends of "the happy pair" a little innotold by enthusiastic upholders of the cent waggery may not appear unbearnew faith were true, Glasgow was a ably out of place. But waggery, as soon affairs, his creator has spent his life at have inhabited the earth, and all those new raith were true, Glasgow was a star out of place. But wagsery to come and live and die, and paradise on earth, wherein the people as it approaches horse play, is objectionable as a feature of wedding festivular the irascible employment. While "Brer Fox," the swashbuckler of will never cease to exist. authorities, and where all the necessaries ities. The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen vicauthorities, and where all the necessaries of life were furnished at the lowest price.

The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen victim to the wiles of his unscrupulous feltow-beings, his creator has been scattering to which we are all tending there will be associated with what is known as our low-beings, his creator has been scattering to the devil."

And may we not think that in that wold to which we are all tending there will be associated with what is known as our low-beings, his creator has been scattering to the devil."

The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen viction to the devil. The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen viction to the devil. The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen viction to the devil. The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen viction to the devil. The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen viction to the devil. The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen viction to the devil. The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen viction to the devil. The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen viction to the devil. The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen viction to the devil. The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen viction to the devil. The marriage rite is as holy and the "creeters," has invariably fallen viction to the devil yourself—I want to the wiles of his unscruptions for the devil yourself—I want to the wiles of his unscruptions for the devil yourself—I want to the wiles of his unscruptions for the devil yourself—I want to the wiles of his unscruptions for the devil yourself—I want to the wiles of his unscruptions for the devil yourself—I want to the wiles of his unscruptions for the devil yourself—I want to the wiles of his unscruptions for the devil yourself—I want to t This dream of perfect municipal owner- Christian civilization, and the jolly good ing the sunshine in spots subdued and clear and distinct from its neighbor, as it ship is in danger, however, of being fellow who interferes with its proper quiet. sadly shattered. The latest reports show observance is at once changed into a "Uncle Remus" made his third but, markable financial successes, are only The cruelty of the thing is also worth an old-fashioned barbecue the other day. generation kept from showing a deficit by juggling considering. All the feminine love of It is told of him that he was the merriest ed its ranks, still will each spirit free Mitchell, the Die-maker. with the account books, and that, in time, the tax-they will become a burden to the tax-they will become a burden to the tax-they will become a burden to artistic details is awakened in a bride, We are glad to hear it. More life to the payers. Another witness against the city and of all things in the heavens above social germ with which he has at last it was on earth.

We build monuments and costly tombs is Mrs. Ida Husted Harper, whose description of the conditions which she calling she would rather have perfect and yet; that is, if people refrain from telling to our dead that they may be rememberseription of the conditions which she calling she would rather have perfect and yet; that is, if people refrain from telling to our dead that they may be rememberseription of the conditions which she calling the government, with a brief intermisseription of the conditions which she calling the government in the countered during a recent visit is by no altogether seemly than her marriage day, him how much they admire his work, or repose in places in which they teach silent swept Grover Cleveland and the Demomeans an agreeable one. "We went to even to the most trifling circumstance from quoting the sayings of his pets it. lessons to the living. Glasgow," she says, "prepared to find connected with it. But along comes the the cleanest city in the world, and to jolly good fellow and makes it a source will go to his "Wren's Nest" home, and live in greatness and power and decrease the will go to his "Wren's Nest" home, and live in greatness and power and decrease to the investment of the investmen join the noble army who in imagazine of torment. He flings rice down the we shall see him in public never more. articles and on the platform have held bridegroom's neck, hits the bride in the it up as a model of municipal govern- eye with a venerable old shoe, and genment and a shining example of the peo-ment and a shining example of the peo-ment and a shining example of the peo-ple's ownership of public utilities. We unhappy laughing-stock of the town. The sharp pair the people out of jail, is now having the people out of jail, is now having the people out of jail, is now having the case of the making people out of jail, is now having the case of the making people out of jail, is now having the case of the making people out of jail, is now having the case of the making people out of jail, is now having the people out of jail, is now having the people out of jail, is now having the case of the making people out of jail, is now having the people out of jail, is now ha ple's ownership of public utilities. We unhappy laughing-stock of the town. found one of the dirtiest cities in Eu- It is easy to imagine the chagrin, anger, rope, poor gas and electric light, wretch- disgust, and nervous condition of a welled street cars, and streets everywhere out of repair."

bred young woman when a dozen or has great hopes of the Ohio tangle become a rapping yahoos join in trying to ing "smoothed out in time." In the mean-This general arraignment is buttressed turn her wedding into a howling farce. time, keep your lamps trimmed and burnby specific detail. The streets were With Edward Bok ready to lay down ing. nearly all paved with cobblestones, and his life in defense of good form, and looked as if they had not been cleaned every newspaper full of notes on how for weeks-much like Washington's, no to behave, it does seem a bit strange for weeks—much like Washington's, no to behave, it does seem a bit strange one of them contains only four words, Deity, nor administered justice nor spoke mother. New hubs are matter with the charivari in all its variations and very short ones at that! found to be in a filthy condition, "and," did not become taboo in refined locali-

Chicago captured ten out of sixteen of foul alleys came barefooted women in the recent Carnegie medals. But, then, a the lowest stages of poverty and dissi- man who lives in Chicago is ninety-five town in the old days of San Francisco, struggle and survival of that little settleinhabited by white people and teeming troubled on every side. They were fighting for their very existence continually Altogether, it is a severe indictment of against ruthless and remorseless focs-ways be with us, but the material side In 1621, the first deliberative body that of a city can be improved by good ad- met on this continent assembled there and ministration. Rough payements, bad affirmed the position for which the colo-

These colonists were the fathers of our habitable slums-all these things can be Revolutionary sires. They had the same and the game. corrected by the exercise of proper au- robust understanding, the same sanity of thority. It Glasgow is cursed with them, reasoning, the same lofty theory of govits system of government is radically ernment, and the same unshaken fortitude wrong. No glamour of municipal owner- and self-reliance. The bill of rights and Hearst racket, the Virginia constitution of 1776 were but and Jefferson and Marshall and Madison might have been congenial members of Mr. Fairbanks' life.

> Our whole united people are going to prehensive history the next year of grace. The old Mother was the author and lese majeste, anisher of our faith.

We cannot amplify her renown. Our governmental system is informed and instinct with her life.

shadows of her sons. But if Mr. Hearst should be elected, single business interest making a leg ti- where is the New York American going mate profit by tariff revision. We have to get any wood type sufficiently large to

The Honorable Mayor of Altona.

"The tariff affects so many interests that it is be- County, Ill., at the head waters of coming quite difficult to get any political party to take decided action upon it. There seems to be a crystallization of sentiment in the Republican party to take decided action upon it. There seems to be a crystallization of sentiment in the Republican party to take decided action upon it. There seems to be a crystallization of sentiment in the Republican party to take decided action upon it. There seems to be a crystallization of sentiment in the Republican party to take decided action upon it. There seems to be a crystallization of sentiment in the Republican party to take decided action upon it. There seems to be a crystallization of sentiment in the Republican party to take decided action upon it. There seems to be a crystallization of sentiment in the Republican party to take decided action upon it. There seems to be a crystallization of sentiment in the Republican party to take decided action upon it. in favor of a revision of the tariff on the principle obscurity. Henceforth it will rival Chi- he isn't campaigning there. that the protective system has been approved by the cago, the great metropolis of the West; or American people, and we ought not to depart from Springfield, the capital of the State; or Danville, which has a world-wide fame as Gen. Picquart must be convinced it is a iff revision sentiment is increasing among Altona recently elected a mayor, and all members of both parties to such an extent because he built some apartment houses that Congress will be compeled before where little children were heartily wel- that Standard Oil verdict, nobody is allong to pay heed to it. Like many other comed. Every one knows how, in larger lowed to sleep around an Ohio courtpolitical questions, the tariff question is cities, the jani or stands, like Cerberus, and house, not even the judge. losing its partisan character; the hard guards the outer door against the little and fast line dividing Republic ns and ones. Families without children may en-Democrais on that issue is becoming ter and remain, but for all else the bolts fainter, and there is much feeling that are tightly fastened. Within the walls of tariff revision should be taken out of these great modern homes there is no patthe domain of politics and permanently ter of little feet, no sound of childish placed in the field of administration, voice, no echoing of innocent laughter. where it could be dealt with as a parely We have these barren structures here in economic matter. So long as there was Washington, inhabited by men and wome: any marked division of sentiment on who forget that they were children once the protective principle, this was impos- and from whose hearts the sap of youth tariff nowadays is almost entirely theo- The honorable mayor of Altona does not retical. Senator Rayner, for example, belong to the curmudgeon set. He loves may declare himself for a revenue tariff | the little ones. Like the Master of old, he but in the next breath, by admitting takes pity upon them and suffers them to that in revising the tariff he would not come unto him. It is not with hostile ininjure any business interest, he lets the tent that he asks of his prospective tenprotective principle in by the back door, ants, as King Edward VI inquired of Lady The only real issue in the whole tari. Grey, "How many children hast thou? business is one of schedules and per- And if the answer should be "three," as centages, and how they shall be ar- it was in the Shakespearean dialogue, ranged so as to do the least damage and then is the mayor's heart made glad. The more the merrier. For him the halls shall How the tariff question is regarded be filled with happy children. He revels by conservative industrial interests' ap- in their play and looks with deep affection pears in the action of the Carriage Build into their laughing eyes. The dimples in town of Briansk. Will some anti-govern ers' National Association at Atlanta, their cheeks appeal to him with all the ment ownership crank kindly call the atunanimity in favor of a fair protective. Thus does the mayor of Altona earn his unanimity in favor of a fair protective Thus does the mayor of Altona earn his gan's election to the Senate cost $50, while tariff policy; that the tariff question is honorable title. No wonder that the chil-again; and suggesting that if it were other patron saints of infancy. Still less onstitutionally possible, the whole mat- we wonder that the happy parents give ter of rearranging schedules to suit vary- him the tribute of their suffrage. May his ing business exigencies should be turned days be long in the city he has made faover to a permanent board of commer- mous, and may his love for little children enough alone.

"Uncle Remus" on Parade. Remus," has just performed the almost again?" Of death it has been said: unheard-of act of appearing at a public with "his many friends." Lemus." He is as shy as any girl. In- last does not make them unable to die.

No wonder the Atlanta Constitution drama in the best of friendly high spirits. thought the third event of sufficient im; again?" may be put, and though the an-employe and half yowned indifferently: And surely the jolly good fellow is all portance to give it double column display.

And surely the jolly good fellow is all two an event of rare occurrence. One will be received with joy. right where he belongs. But when he It was an event of rare occurrence. One will be received with joy. presumes to make a burlesque of sacred not knowing Mr. Harris would think that right where he belongs. But when he presumes to make a burlesque of sacred presumes to make a burlesque of sacred ceremonies, and terrorizes blushing the creator of such a bold and active gentleman as "Pres Rabbit" not to menbrides and pallid bridegrooms, he be- tleman as "Brer Rabbit," not to men- be true, all who ever lived will continue midst of the rush and turmoil that atsomes, to use a feminine expression aption the sly but unfortunate "Brer to live, and be met by those who now live tended the making up of the forms for the

Mr. Rockefeller cheerfully states that he fault with the Ten Commandments, Why.

sea. Thus has been passed up a great opportunity to turn them into plowshares. The man is dead, behold his sepulchre, lines begin to lose their absolute reportunity to turn them into plowshares. and now hear where Ninus is. Some semblance to the original engraving.

You will note one shrewd omission from the pure-food law. Those Congressmen failed to provide for a proper labeling

A Cleveland (Ohio) Y M. C. A. debat municipal ownership. No matter what savage, and the defection and malingering ing society has decided that a millionaire not be honest. Mr. Rockefeller these conditions ought not to be allowed And yet, incredible as it seems, this now reflect that a prophet is not with out honor save in his own country, any

> Joseph Medill Patterson's Socialist paper remarks: "High and low alike must pay their toll." What of it; in this respect they have no undue advantage over jack Cornell students have invented a college yell in honor of Mr. Hughes. Something strenuous had to be done to head off that the unfolding of the affirmations made by the house of burgesses in 1621. Mason and Jefferson and Marshall and Madison determined to warm things up for once in

Mr. J. Pjerpont Morgan outbid King Edtestify to Virginia's splendid and com- ward for possession of a rare old book the other day. This looks suspiciously like

> The straw hat and the straw ballot both met an early frost this season

Those inclined to rate Ananias as an Our civic institutions are the lengthened amateur must remember that Ananias made the mistake of being born before New York governors were invented. In his day and time, Ananias stood right at the head of his profession.

The gateway to the University of Michigan's new athletic field cost $11,000. This, however, will not dull the enthusiasm of the fan who acquired his education while On the Burlington Railroad, in Knox perched upon the soft side of an undress-

As the Hardeman Free Press would say, long lane that has no silver lining.

An Ohio man has been arrested for sleeping on the courthouse steps. Since

The Duke of Marlborough's credentials for membership in the Count Boni de Castellane class seem to be O. K.

Sir Thomas Lipton told those Milwaukee people that he contemplated the construc tion of a lake yacht, because the city had Bertie. Of course, you always remember made such a fine impression upon him. Milwaukee understands, too, that it wasn't tea that made it famous.

Cambridge University has abolished the senior wrangler. That's right; there is too much wrangling going on anyhow.

The London Chronicle declares that the Dreadnought is a pretty poor battle ship and that all its alleged wonderful achieve ments at the trial trip were nothing but "fakes." This will give Capt. Hobson an opportunity to come out of his lair and breathe easy for a while "Secretary Shaw," says Senator Scott, is attracting more attention than any sight of the bride and sees he has said the man on the stump." Now, is that a bouquet or a lemon?

There is a strike on in the Russian

Senator Morgan thinks he has a great joke on Senator Pettus because Mr. Morshould not be allowed to become one Nicholas and Mother Goose and all the wearing accounts for the difference.

A LAY SERMON.

BY A LAYMAN. * * * To die-to sleep-To sleep! perchance to dream; ay, there's the rub; rever grow cold.

For in that sleep of d ath what dreams may come, When we have shuffled off this mortal coil, Must give us pause,—HAMLET.

was inspired by the same thoughts which to illustrate this trait: Mr. Joel Chandler Harris, affectionately brought forth from the man of Uz cen- In Mr. Hearst's employ ever since he known throughout all the land as "Uncle turies before: "If a man die shall he live has been a publisher, is a certain rollick-

Death is the same harmless thing that a poor unheard-of act of appearing at a public shepherd suffered yesterday or a maid-servant to reception in Atlanta and shaking hands day; and at the same time in which you die, in the same time in which you die, in the realisting individual is that same night a thousand creatures die with you, him "Will." The rollicking individual is No man lives that loves the quiet and some wise men and many fools; and the wisdom of much given to the cup that cheers, and peace of the restful home like "Uncle the first will not assist them, and the folly of the sometimes inebriates-and none was upon earth. In that countiess multitude every soul holds its own joy or bears we trust, not his farewell appearance at its place, and increased as it will be when nation.

live in greatness and power and decree Abe Hummel, the greater part of whose glory shall sleep till time shall be no discovered that nobody but Mitchell could properly make the glory shall sleep till time shall be no discovered that nobody but Mitchell could properly make the greater of the making the country of the country of the making the country of the country of the making the country of the making the country of the country over their grandsires' heads to take a small steel block used for the ole walk.

There is a lesson in the story of Ninus, downward-that is, to make an and other riches more than the sand in than one set of dies being us d. Of course, George Bernard Shaw finds and perhaps never desired it * * * He made by Mitchell. This he calls the carls the contains only four words.

The Casplan Sea. He never saw the stars, all of them come from the original matrix made by Mitchell. This he calls the never offered sacrifice nor worshipped the mother. New hubs are mated with the The Cuban arms have been cast into the wines he threw the rest upon the stones. Thus has been passed up a great and drink, and having mingled his up until evidences of wear and tear wines he threw the rest upon the stones. Secretary Cortelyou is rather a silent of a living man, but now I am nothing man, which would indicate that the but clay. I have nothing but what I served to myself in secret to another.

I may just the art of the seems ored one of Thomas.

With sinister intentions that are always deprecated

An animal of genus sus the youth hy
Democrats will elect their State ticket." lust is all my portion; the wealth with which I was blessed my enemies meetto the extent of those in Naples." The alleys are said to be narrow and moldy, terminating in cellars, where the people live like rats. "They remind me of Chinalive like rats." They remind me of Chinalive like rats. They remind me of Chinalive like rats are said to be narrow and moldy, the same are to have a renaissance lowed to hold office, this would entitle her to nothing short of a Cabinet port.

Kansas boasts a grandmother only thirties ing together shall carry away as the mad Thyades carry a raw goat. I am come to hell, and when I went thither to nothing short of a Cabinet port.

espect of the disencumbered spirit-the felt profoundly that he is a living spirit, may put futile questions to solve his tion seems to be enveloped in ress within himself seeks it in vain else-where. To attain happiness, faith and shout a million votes and once they would have no such lessons as their fixed recurrence impresses on us. At last accounts Mrs. Lease had their fixed recurrence impresses on us. promise; as it grows older these pron; fering to practice law. The buds blossom, the earth is clothed with verdue, the air is laden with perfume; in its full maturity the year revers informed circles in Washington to the It was served at the family dinner into the past. Had we seen this but once-had seen nature live through spring and Chandler and Messrs. Bailey and Tili summer and yield her fruit in autumn man. It is known that at the solicite and de in bleak December-we might deplore the ruin and think the decay was as the agent of the President, the Texas death. But nature teaches us a differand after her seeming death breaks into acceptable to the President. When the a second spring."

President decided that he could not acceptable to the President. a second spring.'

Had His Choice.

Uncle (to little Bertie, aged five, who is being taken off to bed)-Good-night, your aunts and uncles in your prayers?
Bertle-Oh, yes, Uncle Felix. Shall I tell you what I say? I say: "God bless which do you want to be-fat or thin?"

From Punch. Scene: Registry office. Bridegroom to clain and simple-and I should come here if I ever got married again-(catches faith, but that on the contrary again, of course!"

THE FLAT-HUNTER'S SONG. tirely cordial. Kathleen Mavourneen! the gray dawn is breaking, The voice of the hunter is heard on the Hill, Out in the Bronx and in Harlem it's making A similar noise to a ten-doilar bill.

A similar noise to a ten-dollar bill.

Oh! hast thou forgotten that we must endeavor
To locate a flat? Come, Mavourneen, let's start.

We may hunt for years and we may hunt forever,
Oh! when shall we find it, thou voice of my heart!

—New York Mail.

From the Louisia.

While we're forming why write "meteory of "weather."

PEOPLE OF NOTE.

The Imperturbable Hearst.

Imperturbability is the most striking trait of the character of the Hon. Willlam Randolph Hearst, according to numerous men who know him well, and who have worked in his service for years. This extract from Hamlet's solfoquy These two actual occurrences are related ing individual who was the publisher's sor?" class-mate at Harvard. Their relations Hearst's editors dares discharge him. Mr. deed, but two other instances of his pub-lic appearance are on record; one when he dined with a party of friends at a neighbor's, "once upon a time," and again to some by revelation, to others, by reawhen he donned his reception clothes to meet Mrs. Roosevelt, when she and the the roaring and resistless waters. I think | Calmly readjusting his headgear, Mr. the question, "If a man die, shall he live Hearst beamed benignantly upon his rude "Oh, go see the business manager abou those qualities with which he has invest- come after them. Not one human being the proprietor entered the composing room the trascible employe. A dispute arose between them, and the night editor shouted

"Go to the devil!"
"Oh, go to the devil yourself-I want turbably replied Hearst. The night editor forthwith resigned thinking thereby to forestall a discharge, for the stamped envelopes issued by He looks at her, too, day by day, cratic party into place and power in greatest difficulty of engraving is to cu a great Assyrian monarch, who is said instead of relief. The envelopes are to have possessed "an ocean of gold, made and stamped at Hariford, more to the people * * * but was valiant to and the process of propagation is kep time I was Ninus, and drew the breath When Mr Mitchell dies the art of makter change I that were a mitte am thought this once powerful exponent of rehave ever perpiexed the human soul-the conditions of the hereafter and the muddled politics of Iowa. In the furious attitude of trustful patience best be- clash of factions among the Hawkeye Republicans and the jarring quarrels of Tommy Piper stole a pig-the Democrats out there the name of Little pig! The man from whom the secrets of Weaver is frequently mentioned as posis own heart are hidden, who has never sibly presenting favorable material for compromise. The veteran's party affiadoubts. But if he would go calmly to the destiny that awaits us all he should are laying claim to him. It was Gen. the destiny that awaits us all he should are laying claim to him. It was Gen. solve these doubts by his conduct in life, and not merely by good intentions. Weaver's candidacy for President at the head of the exultant forces of the Populary does not send happiness to men. "Heaven does not send happiness to men, but seeds them the means and power to form it in their own hearts." Man ought not so much to strive to reach heaven as to bring heaven down to dwell with him. He who has not happiness within himself seeks it in vain elsewhere. To attain happiness, faith and conscience must guide the footsteps, and not turn from the world as it is; listen to the inward voice, and seek to walk uprightly in it yourself, then all will be tight within." "The changing seasons remind us fore-ibly of the mortal and immortal life of man. If we could observe changes but The year is born-it is full of hope and sas to New York City, where she was of in the wealth of nature-the clustering stories being scattered over the counthe the warm of inflation of the country of the country is garner houses full, and the sun shines brightly on the bare fields, but it does by the country of the c brightly on the hare heids, but it does in June; the air is a Supreme Court justice, to which Presinot so warm as it was, the days are dent Roosevelt will nominate him before shorter than they were, and the indications of decay begin to show themselves. shall adjourn. The reports referred to A mist hangs over field and meadow in the morning, and gathers there at night; then the wind becomes sharp and chilly, a few snow-flakes fall and the frosts sets in, and the days creep on dark and low- sational incident over railroad rate legring, till the end comes, and the brave islation involving President Rocsevelt in old year breathes his last and is gathered a dispute over a question of veracity, or ent lesson. She dies only to revive again-dies only to live with renewed vitality-legislation proposed by Mr. Bafley and And he ran and he ran and he cried and complish the exact form of leg.slatic desired by co-operating with an elemen whatever compact these Senators may have thought he had entered in o with This withdrawal was signalized ceptance of the so-called Allison amend-ments. At that time Attorney General Aunly Kitty, and make her thin, and God bless Uncle James, and make him fat; and God bless Uncle Felix, and—tat; and God bless Uncle Felix, and God bless Uncle Felix the President's summons Mr. Moody hurried back to Washington, and after exregistrar-"The first time I was married could be hoped for at that sessi n of was in a church, the second time in a Congress. It can be stated positively chapel, but I like this way best. It's so that Senators Tillman and Bailey neve suspected the Attorney General of bad were entirely satisfied with the explanawrong thing)—that is, my dear, if I ever tion he made to them. For this reason have the—er-misfortune to get married it is believed that there is no foundation whatever for the reports declaring that they will oppose his confirmation On the contrary, it is known that the relations between the three men are en-

A Sensible Reform.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal, While we're about this business of reforming why not make it a felony to "meteorological conditions," instead

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

MORE THAN LIKELY. I often think of what I'd do
If I had lots of dough;
I dream of how my coin I'd strew
Among the poor I know.
But if I had much wealth, perhaps Unto it I would cling.
Conduct myself like other chaps,
And never do a thing.

In 2006.

veltian period."

Persecution.

"This here vindictiveness against Uni-

Sidetracked.

that young helress? curse it; her father was too foxy. He's ordered her to accept my addresses.'

> The Topic. To-day when Greek meets Grecian stout, If you're alert you can Pick up the latest news about 'The price of the "banan'."

Asked and Answered. "What becomes of the womanly woman?" murmured the poet.

New York Papers.

Wow! "Pa what is political economy?"

"Something seldom used in erecting a State capitol, my boy." its own burden of sorrow. Each one has but Hearst refused to accept his resig- STRANGERS-From Her Standpoint, ican consul at St. Thomas, D. W. L. who

They never speak as they pass by She always looks the nice man's way; With earnest bow and kindly eye,

She never falters, never stops But always heaves a kindly Adown the street he quickly drops,

And up the street she passes by They never speak as they pass by; She always easts on him a look. The sight of him provokes no Twould not be proper, says the book

Thus every day, they coldly pass It is a source of much regret. But it must be, for ah, alas! They have to own they've never met.

THE INNOCENT BYSTANDER.

AS IT MIGHT BE

(The Mother Goose rhymes are in the main undignified, illiterate and crude; in some instances their tendency is to inculcate bad morals. They should be properly revised.—Eminent Authority.)

and promise Whose cognomen baptismal was the hon-

But retribution left him of the prey non form was dead. It appears, however, that Full soon the penitential youth's regret> homeward way he bounded. (BY E-G-R A-L-N P-E.) (It was not so very tiny, it was not so very big.) And he scurried, scurried, scurried On his swiftly flying fee But the pig was taken from him For some other folk to eat. And they spanked, spanked, spanked Him until he, spindle-shanked, Ran with howls of deepest anguish from

And he vowed when he grew big. Very big, big, big, He would never steal another pig. A pig, pig, pig, Never steal and run away with any pig.

(BY A. C. SW-NB-RN-.) The pig than a lily was paler, And as butter was temptingly fat The lad than his brothers was frailercrept with the guilt of a cat And pounced on the pig, which was

With might and with fright and with It 'scaped from his clutch, but, quickly-He caught it again. Alas! That the boy was a singer!

Alas! That the pig was so fair! But the boy was forbade to be there

He caught it again! (BY R-DY-RD K-PL-NG.) A lad there was and he stole a pig. For he did not know it was wrong to prig (Even as you and I.) The pig secured, he took to his heels Unheeding all of the piggy's squeals— For that is the way that a robber feels.

(Even as you and I.) The pig they took from the wicked lad. (Even as you and L) he pig at the table for days they had They stripped the lad to his foolish hide

(Even as you and L) DISSUADING HER.

"What is the distance from here to and result in a similar tendency here," Guam, Charles?" asks the teacher. A puzzled look creeps over the face of Charles. He rubs his brow thoughtfully, From the Dallas News. and at last speaks: The distance from here

MORE BURBANING. agreed with the President that they quite oping the horse chestnut into a new spe- that the South must defeat the mo probably embodied about as much as cles. He claims that he has grafted a toward this sort of centralization if it is gasoline can to a tree, and that this year to be defeated at all the chestnuts have appeared in the form of goggles, of a dusty color, and with a distinct odor of gasoline. He has named From the Richmond Times-Dispatch. they will repair themselves.

WILBUR NESRIT (Copyright, 1906, by W. D. Nesbit.)

Tantalizing Phyllis. Phyllis, by some winding route, Leads me onward through the sheaves When I want to press my suit

Keeps me pressing aut

HEARD AT HOTELS.

"In our home in San Francisco we had a little Jap man servant who was a fewel," said Mr. T. J. Fitzpatrick, of California, at the Raleigh.

"He had been with us about a year, and was so clever and seemingly faithful that when business made it necessary for us to move to Los Angeles, it seemed the right thing to take Morry along. Before ".. hat are these quaint ruins, profes- saying anything to him, I sounded my wife, and she answered instanter: 'Of "I think they must be the remains of the famous immunity baths of the Rooseings that he might leave us after migrating, and interrogated him as to whether he intended to remain. He assured me with the most solemn protestations that "This here vindictiveness against Uni-he had no notion of leaving the service ted States Senators is bein' carried too of such kind and noble people.

"Well, we settled in Los Angeles com fortably and about a week after landing "Yes, sir. Some people don't want to Morry came to me with tears in his give a Senator no time off fer good bebury his poor brother, who had just died in Sacramento. Would I also let him have money for the expense of the trip "So you are not making headway with there and back, as he was very poor Of course, I would; and Morry got $30. It happened I had to go to San Francisco on the next train, and being frequently on the road, it was no surprise that Mor all events, he came to my hotel about the second day after my arrival and begged me for $10 more, as he had been to some unusual expense. Even as I gave him the money, some intuitive notion flashed through me, as I gazed on the vanishing and effusive yellow boy, that I'd never more set eyes on him. I had read the little rascal's soul, for never more did my

"A good many of them," replied the practical person, "marry more or less manly men and have more or less childish ancient scaliness of Morry-there isn't ancient scaliness of white opinion on the coast, such a thing This motto in some glaring tint on walls existing as an honest Japanese. Honor and they might paint; "We've all the news square dealing are undreamed of in their that's fit to print and lots of news that philosophy. To cheat you in business dealings is their delight, and to go back on their word, if lying means of a cent, is the universal custom of the race.

A good-looking, modest spoken, and level-headed negro is C. H. Payne, Amer-With apologies to the author of "A Little Non- was seen last evening in conversation with his political sponsor, Senator Scott, of West Virginia. Mr. Payne is a man who enjoys the good will and respect of many people in his own State, and he has made an excellent record as a consul. He was the first colored man ever elected to the West Virginia legislature, but gaining that office did not give him the big head. In conversation with a Herald re-porter, Consul Payne said:

"The Danish islands of St. Thomas and St. Croix would prove valuable in a way if they could be acquired by the United States government, as very nearly happened a little while back; especially St. Thomas, which has a most magnificent harbor and is the outpost of the entire West Indies. Were any hostile power to gain a footing there in spite of the Mon-roe doctrine, it would be a heavy blow to mostly negroes, and the island is only about thirteen miles long by three wide The soil isn't very good, and owing to fre quent droughts, it yields but scanty crops. The larger island of St. Croix-forty miles away and famous for its Santa Cruz rum -is far better agriculturally, and pro-(BY . ROF. — OF BOSTON.)

The piper had a son and heir of intellect and recombined and results and the people are Considerable and and the people are very orderly and well-behaved.

said Mr. Benjamin Carter, the well-known lawyer, at the Shoreham. "There is considerable soreness growcome to hell, and when I went thither thing had been heard from Gen. James possessory I neither carried gold, nor horse, nor B. Weaver that perhaps most everybody And it was made the chef d'ouvre of a rack. Taylor contests, and some of the mack-Taylor contests, and some of the most bitter of the defeated In the great and awful questions that he is still living and that he is about When subsequent to punishment his Patterson, Democratic nominee for gov. fellowers will take revenge by knifing ernor. But to offset this defection is tightening of party lines because of the terrific arraignment of H. Clay Evans the Republican candidate, on account of his support of the force bill while in Congress. The Atlanta race troubles ar also having an effect to solidify the Democratic voters. The next notable featur of an exciting campaign is the series of magnificent speeches that Senator Car-mack is making. His friends go wild whenever he appears, and he is making votes for his party." Hon. Frank H. Waskey, of Nome Alaska, who was seen at the Raleigh last evening, will be the first man from that great Territory to be admitted as a delegate upon the floor of the House. Mr. Waskey is a young man, a thorough miner, and will do all in his power to advance the welfare of his people. He will only serve till March 4, as Thomas Cale, of Fairbanks, was chosen at the same time for the full term, that includes

One of the most prominent Hebrew preachers in the country is Rev. Dr. Jacob Voorsanger, of San Francisco. Dr. Voorsanger, who is at the Arlington with his wife and daughter, has come to attend the birthday festivities in honor of friends. The magnificent Temple Emanuel, of which the former is pastor. was destroyed in the big fire following a Herald reporter the new temple to take its place would be a finer edifice than the one that was lost Mr. J. Henry Iles, one of the leading band mpresarios, of England, is at the Raleigh Hotel. In addition to being one of the foremost figures of the English musical world, Mr. Iles is president of the "Royal Besses o' th' Barn," which is a and made of British workingman musicians. Mr. Iles said: "The reception given these workingman nusicians wherever they have appeared shows that the American public deep admiration for the high artistic skill ttained by non-professional artists. England there are more than 5,000 bands composed of workingmen. The interest thus awakened in music among the toiling classes has become a great moral force, keeping these men away from the public houses and raising their ideals. It is my hope that something of this spirit may be transmitted to the United States

Against Government Ownership.

Government ownership of railroads is going to be one of the live issues to be Guam? Say, teacher, you don't want to fought over in the next National Demoplace, do cratic convention. The News is inclined to agree with Mr. Williams that the South will line up against it, but there is no reason to disregard the fact that the owner James Henry Tidmore, of Fresno, Cal., ship policy has taken deep root in the writes us that he has succeeded in devel- East, in the North, and in the West, and

Deserves Well the Honor.

them the auto-chestnut, and says that Oscar Straus deserves well the honor next spring he will cross them with the that has been done him. The place he will trumpet vine and produce a variety that occupy will be about the highest that a will honk-honk in the breeze, man not a native of this country can hold We would suggest that he cross them in the government. It is safe to say that further with a monkey-wrench, so that the duties of his office will be performed thoroughly, faithfully, and efficiently,

A New Kind of Rebate,

From the Omaha Bee. One Kansas Cliv grain firm has been found with a member carried on the payroll of a railroad company, and it may now be necessary to prove that a salary is not a "rebate." -Cleveland Plaindealer.